YOUR "LITTLE NEW YEAR"

By MARTHA B. THOMAS

"THE Little New Year" is a very eager youngster. He pops into view overnight; in fact, one second's difference is the margin between his being nothing at all and then appearing as something very definite to reckon with. From the minute he claps his eyes on you, he belongs; he is your "Little New Year" and you've got to decide pretty quickly what to do with him. There is no possible way of escaping this parenthood. He's going to stick to you like a burr for 365 days, every minute, every hour. It's really quite alarming.

Are you going to bring up the "little fellow on underdone resolutions?

Are you going to make him a present of malnutrition by feeding him on irregular meals of procrastination?

Are you going to ruin his character (and maybe your own) by rows and rows of pleasant fibs to prevent a feeling of discomfort about his growing up into a harum-scarum boy? Like human children, he needs watching and guiding and discipline. You'll never have the opportunity of "raising" this particular lad again. He will slip from your fingers on the night of December 31—your "Little New Year" grown into whatever manhood you've permitted him.

Let's send him out a fine, sturdy fellow!

HOW JAPAN GREET'S NEW YEAR

Custom of Oriental Countries is to Give Special Performances in the Play Houses.

THE Oriental methods of greeting the New Year differ greatly from ours. In Japan, as well as in other Oriental countries, special performances are given in the theaters.

In the temples and shrines priests and attendants entertain the people with special dances. The Kagura, or Sacred Dance With Music, is the favorite, for while it is being given prayers are offered for the continued happiness of the nation during the coming year. This very old dance is performed by young girls, while the priests are the musicians. All are in appropriate costume.

Another ceremonial, which has been handed down for centuries, is the Shu-Sai, or Dance of the Ancestral Sanctuary. This is given within the palace by the imperial family on January 3 and it celebrates the founding of the imperial house, centuries ago.

LANFORD NEWS

Lanford, Dec. 25.—This beautiful Christmas day we surely wish everybody a happy Christmas and a most prosperous New Year.

We are glad to see such pleasant weather and with all of our boys and girls at home from school they are making the welkin ring with their merry songs, horns, whistles, and the many toys that Santa brought them.

The school children gave a most delightful Christmas entertainment Friday evening. Especially did the primary entertainment delight the audience in their funny costumes and their cunning little voices in song and verse. It was a very sad occasion for the intermediate room as they had to bid adieu to their much loved teacher, Miss Jennie Werts, who is to be married on December 28th to Mr. J. O. Marshall. And they will have to face a new teacher for the beginning of the year, but we have a good set of children and they always love their teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bryson spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cox.

Mr. T. A. Drummond and family of Laurens, spent Christmas day with Mr. Frank Drummond at the old home.

Miss Grace DeShields is at home from Lander college to spend the holidays.

Mr. Paul Cooper, the principal of Poplar Springs school is spending the holidays with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cox and little Amarillys spent several days in Greenville with their son, Frank Cox, last week.

Misses Pauline and Margaret Waldrep, Mattie Belle and Bennie Cox, Annie Mae Patterson and Eleanor Drummond were guests of Miss Lillie Mae Cox on Christmas day.

Prof. Paul Knox left Saturday morning to spend the holidays with his parents in Abbeville.

Miss Carrye Lou Higgins, of Arkwright school, is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Higgins.

Mr. J. D. Johnson is spending the holidays at Arcadia with his sons, Mr. B. W. and J. V. Johnson.

Mrs. M. G. Patterson and daughters, of Spartanburg, are spending the holidays with the homefolks.

Mrs. W. L. Wis and children have moved and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woods will soon move into the neat little Bomar cottage in the beginning of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Garrett spent Christmas day with Mr. J. D. Williams and family.

Mrs. Irby Crow is very sick at present with flu.

Mr. W. A. Thomas is still a very sick man, although resting easier than he has been.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their kindness to us in our sorrow when our dear boy was killed.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Estes.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks, will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a general strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

Notice is hereby given that the next Annual Meeting of the County Board of Commissioners of Laurens County, S. C., will be holden at Laurens Court House, S. C., at the Supervisor's office on Thursday after the first Monday of January, 1923, being the 4th day of the month, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon.

All persons holding claims or demands of any kind against the County, not previously presented to the Board, are hereby notified and required to file same with the Clerk of the Board on or before the first day of January, so that they may be ordered to be paid at the annual meeting, as provided by law.
