Railroad Train Near Yorkville Took a 50 Foot Plunge, Killing 6 and Injuring Twenty-four.

Passenger train No. 15, north-bound, on the South Carolina and Georgia Extension Railroad, formerly the Three C's now operated by the Southern Railway, went through a trestle fifty feet high over Fishing Creek, three miles east of Yorkville, about 11.30 o'clock Thursday, killing six men and injuring twenty-four, five of whom will likely die. Three of the latter are negro passengers.

THE SCENE OF THE WRECK.

The train consisted of an engine and three cars. It left Rock Hill about 11 o'clock with about forty passengers on board. When the train passed under the trestle the entire structure under the cars gave way, hurling the engine and cars to the bank of the creek, about fifty feet below. Engineer Henry Brickman, Fireman Fred Rhyne and three negro passengers were instantly killed. Conductor Ed Turner suffered a broken shoulder and W. T. Slaughter, of Hickory Grove, S. C., and Julius Johnson, of Rock Hill, S. C., were perhaps fatally injured. Marvin H. Morrow, of Blacksburg, S. C.; T. C. Hicks, of Lancaster, and R. A. Willis, of Edgemoor, S. C., have broken bones, while a dozen or more other passengers were less seriously injured. B. F. Williford, of Charlotte, who was slightly injured, displayed rare presence of mind in helping the passengers. The timbers of the bridge were rotten and this fact is ascribed as the cause of the wreck.

The seven directors and four officers of the trolley line in Newark, N. J., who were indicted for murder because a number of people had been killed in an accident on their line due, it was held in the coroner's verdict, to the negligence of the company, were acquitted, the judge instructing the jury to return a verdict of "not guilty" because it had not been shown that the officials had failed to perform some specified act.

On account of the strike situation Gov. Peabody of Connecticut has sent a military force of 1,200 men to Cripple Creek.

Sour Stomach.

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach will be avoided. FOR THE TILLMAN TRIAL.

Judge Townsend, Not Judge Gage, Will Hear the Case—Chief Justice Pope Issues Order Relieving Judge Gage.

Columbia, September 4.—The case of James H. Tillman will not be heard before Judge George W. Gage, at the coming term of Court in Lexington County. An order has been issued by Chief Justice Pope, appointing Judge D. A. Townsend to hold the fall term of Courts in Kershaw and Lexington on account of the physical infirmities of Judge Gage. Justice Pope's order making the change of Judges is as follows: The State of South Carolina.

Whereas, the Hon. George Williams Gage as presiding Judge of the 5th judicial circuit for the fall term, 1903, is unable by reason of physical infirmities to hold the fall term 1903 of the Courts of General Sessions and Common Pleas for the county of Lexington, in said State, beginning on Monday, the 21st day of September, in the year 1903, at 10 o'clock in the morning.

Now, in obedience to the laws of this State governing such matters, I do hereby nominate and appoint the Hon. D. A. Townsend, of the circuit bench of this State, to hold the said Court of General Sessions and Common Pleas of and for the county of Lexington, in the State of South Carolina, for the fall term, 1903, of said county, beginning on Monday morning at 10 o'clock on the 21st day of September, in the year 1903, of said Courts of General Sessions and Common Pleas for Lexington, in said State. Y. J. Pope.

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of South Carolina, at Chambers, 1st September, 1903.

The transfer of Judge Townsend to this circuit will cause some complication in the fall term of Court to be held in Fairfield. In the schedule of Courts to be held Judge Townsend is set down to hold Court at Winesboro on September 23. Under these circumstances a presiding Judge will have to be appointed for the Fairfield Court.

The change of venue in the Tillman case was granted by Judge Townsend in Richland County, and he seems to be getting his share of this important case.

THE UNSPEAKABLE TURK.

Further Atrocities in Macedonia—Turkey Gives Notice She Can Not Protect Ambassadors.

Reports from Sofia, Bulgaria, undated date of September 6, give details of further terrible atrocities committed by the Turks in Macedonia. Fifty villages have been burned in three districts and four villages burned and a priest murdered in the fourth district.

The village of Volkosti was entered by Turks and Bashi Bazuks, who are said to have surrounded the village and entered and begun plundering the houses and assaulting the women. The other soldiers remained outside and killed those inhabitants of the village who tried to escape. The Turks then set fire to the village in four places, burning twelve women and children. One child was hanged. Altogether sixty peasants were killed and their bodies were left in the streets.

CAN NOT PROTECT AMBASSADORS.

The Porte has given notice to the world that it can not guarantee the protection of foreign legations and advising that the forces inside the legations be increased. It is thought this is simply a ruse by the Porte to disclaim responsibility for any outrage which might occur. Some of the legations have increased their guards by the addition of gendarmes. The U. S. consul has not yet asked for marine. The U. S. squadron is still at Beirut.

REPORT OF STATE MILITIA.

Four Calls For Riots During The Year—Suggestions For The Next Encampment.

The State.

Gen. Frost has forwarded to the war department his report of the militia of the State for the year 1903 up to the 1st of September. The report deals with the riot calls, with the encampment, and concludes with recommendations as to future encampments.

There were but four calls for the services of troops to suppress riots, at Monck's Corner on March 18th, at Beaufort on April 22nd, at Chester on May 4th, and at Norway on July 4th, in all of which cases the troops responded promptly and prevented trouble.

The account of the various encampments is then followed with a detailed report from Major P. J. Drew as to number of men attending and expense. The report shows that the First regiment had in camp 600 officers and men; the Second regiment 612; the Third 545. All of these were conducted in a most creditable manner. The enthusiasm over militia service is due, he thinks, to the recent Dick military law, which is considered the best ever passed. He recommends, however, that the appropriation for encampment purposes will be doubled next year in order that the men might have two weeks in a concentrated camp.

Upon the matter of target practice the adjutant general suggests that the government hold annual trophy contests at Savannah or some other good range for the southern troops and he hopes to organize rifle teams in this State soon. Target practice has been neglected in South Carolina.

In view of the fact that 24 drills a year are now required by the war department and that each company only gets about $150 from the State, it is recommended that the government pay each man $1 per drill with $1 fine for absence. This will enable the militia to obtain armories which are badly needed. The suggestion is also made that the minimum number of each company be 45 instead of 65, and that the government hereafter provide transportation for cavalry horses.

The work of Capt. Leo Foster is highly commended and much good was done the militia by his work. The presence of a company of regulars at Anderson and Camden, under Capt. Bennett, also served as a model to the men.

BIG FIRE IN COLUMBIA.

Valuable Business Houses on Main Street Destroyed—Minnough's Clothing Store Gone.

Fire in Columbia early yesterday morning destroyed and badly damaged some of the most valuable business houses on Main street. At one time it appeared that the entire block including the Columbia hotel would be wiped out, but there was no wind and double fire walls prevented the spread of the costly fire.

The fire was discovered about 1 o'clock. It burst up in the rear of Xepapa's confectionery store.
