Bridge Tables

Mrs. Sloan Chapman entertained the Once-A-Week bridge club Saturday afternoon at her home on College street. Mrs. Jesse Mayes and Mrs. W. R. Reed were invited to play with the club members.

Dahlias formed the floral decorations in the reception room where two tables were placed for the games. Mrs. Jesse Mayes won the high score award and Mrs. Herman Wright was presented the second high score award. Mrs. Thomas Pope was lucky at bingo and presented a prize.

After cards, a salad course was served. The hostess used an attractive Hallowe'en motif for the party.

Mrs. Nathaniel Davis was hostess to the bridge club of which she is a member Tuesday afternoon at her home.

The members gathered in the reception room which was bright with a profusion of dahlias, for their weekly game.

High score winners were Mrs. J. W. Earhardt, Jr. and winning second was Mrs. Smith, of Whitmire. Mrs. Theodore Bobbit was lucky at bingo and was given an award. A salad course was served after cards by Mrs. Davis.

Tuesday morning, Mrs. Price Padgett was cordial hostess to members of her bridge club and several additional guests.

Marigolds and other autumn flowers in harmonizing tones decorated the living room and here three tables were set.

Refreshments consisting of coffee and sandwiches were served before cards.

The high and second high score awards went to Mrs. H. H. Brown and Mrs. McHardy Mower, respectively. Mrs. Sloan Chapman was winner at bingo.

Society

BOOK-SHELF CLUB HAS SEMI-MONTHLY MEETING

"The Story of Motherhood" by Dr. Roy Finney was the book discussed at the semi-monthly meeting of the book shelf club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dick Mims on Nance street. Mrs. Randolph Patterson and Mrs. Earl Summer were hostesses.

For the regular discussion, Mrs.

Tom Sligh led the group in a study of Louis XV furniture. Light refreshments were served after the program.

MRS. CARWILE HOSTESS TO FORTNIGHTLY CLUB

The Fortnightly club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. M. J. Carwile as hostess at her home on Calhoun street.

Invited to play with the club members were Mrs. Frank Wilson, Miss Minnie Gist, Mrs. J. M. Stephenson, and Fannie McCaughrin.

Three tables were placed for rook in a colorful setting of autumn flowers.

At a late afternoon hour, a sweet course with coffee and cheese straws was served. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Lambert Jones, Miss Theresa Leightsey, and Fannie Mae Carwile.

LOVELY TEA FOR GOLDVILLE BRIDE-ELECT

The outstanding social gathering of the season was the beautiful formal tea yesterday afternoon honoring Miss Margaret Moorhead given by Mrs. J. L. Burns, Miss Marguerite Burns, and Miss Evelyn Burns at the Country Club of Newberry.

The guests, invited to call between four and five o'clock, were greeted at the front door by Mrs. Clem Youmans and Mrs. Ellesor Adams, and Mrs. Dick Mims introduced them to the receiving line in the living room.

In the line were Mrs. & Misses Burns, Miss Moorhead from Goldville, who wore a black and white dinner dress and a corsage of pink rosebuds; Mrs. William Moorhead, mother of the bride-elect; Miss Marion Jones and Miss Bland Timmerman, brides-elect of the month; Mrs. Everette Deaver Evans, a recent bride; Mrs. James Burns of the city; Mrs. W. B. Jeter, Ninety-six, sister of Mrs. J. L. Burns.

Low silver bowls and baskets of mixed autumn flowers adorned the living room. The large mantle here was banked with smilax and centered with a row of eight white burning tapers. Receiving in this room were Mrs. Seth Meeks, Mrs. Hunter Brown Mrs. Herman Wright, and Mrs. F. D. McLean.

Mrs. James Kinard and Mrs. Claude Sanders invited the guests into the dining room. The large doorway between the two rooms was decorated with smilax and baskets of pink dahlias were placed on either side of the door.

Entertaining in the dining room were Mrs. Dick Baker, Mrs. Joe Feagle, and Mrs. L. G. Eskridge. The room presented a beautiful scene in its decorations of a green and white color note. The centerpiece of the exceptionally lovely linen covered dining table was a bowl of white dahlias and lacy fern. At either end of the table burned white tapers in crystal holders. Suspended above the table was a shower of ferns, white ribbons, silver wedding bells, and orange blossoms. White tapers burned on the mantle and large ferns were placed about the room.

Refreshments consisting of Russian tea, white iced individual cakes, and green and white sandwiches were served by Miss Laura Nance McCaughrin, Miss Margaret McCaughrin, and Mrs. Earl Summer. Green and white mints were passed by Annette Moorhead, sister of the bride-elect, Mary Sybil Evans, Mary Johnson, and Grace Martin of Goldville.

Mrs. Theodore Albrecht and Mrs. Collier Neel distributed the favors which were small green ferns tied with white satin ribbons.

About 200 guests called, many of whom were from Clinton, Goldville, Columbia, Ninety-six, and Winnsboro.

PARTY TUESDAY AFTERNOON FOR MISS TIMMERMAN

Continuing the round of festivities feasting Miss Bland Timmerman, whose engagement and approaching marriage to Kenneth Stoddard Campbell of Massachusetts, and Philadelphia takes place this fall, Mrs. E. H. Wood, Columbia and Miss Margaret Nesley entertained at a delightful party Tuesday afternoon.

Pink and yellow dahlias in attractive bowls decorated the reception room where two tables were placed for hearts. For the party a yellow and white motif was used. The honoree's place at the tables was marked with a miniature bride and groom placed under the alter.

When scores were totaled after several games of hearts, Miss Elizabeth Shealy held high and was presented an award. Mrs. James Clary, Allendale, won the prize award at bingo. Miss Timmerman was presented a gift of lingerie by the hostesses. Mrs. E. D. Evans, recent bride, was also remembered with a gift.

A salad course was served after the games. Calling for refreshments were Mrs. L. G. Eskridge and Miss Evelyn Burns.

Miss Timmerman looked unusually charming in a two piece peri-winkle suit with a small dubonnet hat and accessories of black.

The guest list included Miss Ruth Clary, Miss Lilla Johnstone, Mrs. W. A. Mason, Mrs. James Clary, Miss Shealy, Miss Timmerman, Mrs. Eskridge, Miss Burns, Mrs. W. B. Timmerman, Mrs. White Bullock, and Mrs. S. O. Nesley.

COUNTRY CLUB BRIDGE TUESDAY EVENING

The evening bridge party at the Country Club of Newberry will be held Tuesday at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Dick Mims is chairman of the October committee in charge of the parties and co-chairman is Mrs. Jesse Dickert. Serving on the committee are Mrs. P. J. Stokes, Mrs. Hubert Setzler, Mrs. Tom Sligh, Mrs. S. C. Paysinger, Mrs. Tom Fellers, Mrs. R. F. Nichols, Mrs. Dick Floyd, and Mrs. I. M. Satterwhite.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Reed, Fredericksburg, Va., are the guests of Mrs. J. N. McCaughrin, Calhoun street.
