

SOCIETY NEWS

TIMMERMAN-CAMPBELL WEDDING SATURDAY

A wedding characterized by dignity and simplicity was that of Miss Bland Timmerman and Kenneth Stoddard Campbell which took place Saturday morning, October 30, at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bland Timmerman on Boundary street. The Rev. R. L. Holroyd, Anderson, former pastor of the bride officiated, using the ring ceremony, in the presence of only the immediate families and a few close friends of the couple.

The living room was decorated with pink and white dahlias and with ivy. Before the ceremony, Miss Marguerite Burns sang, "I Love You Truly" and "All For You." She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Brantly Johnstone, who also played the conventional wedding marches and rendered several selections softly throughout the ceremony.

The bride wore a black woolen suit, fitted on princess lines with Persian lamb trimmings, and a blouse of white satin. Accessories were black and her shoulder corsage was of gardenias.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip through the Smoky mountains of Tennessee and the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. After November 4, they will be at home at 102 McKinley avenue in Lansdowne, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Campbell is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bland Timmerman. She graduated from Newberry College in 1934 and has held a secretarial position at Clemson College since that time.

Mr. Campbell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn G. Campbell of Fairhaven Mass. He was graduated from Bates college in Maine in 1934 and received a degree in textile chemistry from Clemson College last February. Since that time he has held a position with the Ciba Chemical company in Philadelphia.

Out-of-town guests were Donald Campbell, Boston, Mass., brother of the groom; Stuart Campbell, Clemson College, brother of the groom; Miss Brantly Johnstone, Clemson; Wade B. Perry, Clemson.

MISS MARION JONES WEDS SATURDAY NOON

The wedding of Miss Marion Jones and H. B. Wilson took place Saturday noon, October 30, in a ceremony of charm and dignity at the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church on Main street. Dr. J. W. Carson was the officiating minister. The nuptial music was rendered by Miss Mazie Dominick at the organ and Prof. Harry Feld, violinist.

The church was decorated in ivory and green. The vows were spoken before a background of the greenery interspersed with white chrysanthemums. About the altar were seven-branched candelabra holding tall ivory tapers. White pom-pom chrysanthemums and tulle marked the pews.

Miss Dominick and Mr. Feld played a program of music prior to the ceremony. First was an organ solo, "Calm As The Night". Following were three violin numbers, "Arioso" by Bach; "Meditation" from Thais by Massenet; "My Heart At Thy Sweet Voice" from Sampson and Delilah by Saint Saens. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was used for the processional and Mendelssohn's march was played for the recessional. "Love Song" from Faust was rendered during the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, S. B. Jones. Miss Mary Frances Jones, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and William Lyons of Columbia, was best man.

Marcellus Renwick, Charles Bowers, and Houseal Norris, all of the city, and Paul Sherrill, Due West, were ushers.

The bride was dressed in duobonnet chiffon velvet and wore a small duobonnet velvet hat with a short veil. Accessories were of harmonizing tones. Her ornament was a brooch, a gold scroll with seed pearls which belonged to the wedding set of her grandmother, Mrs. Charles Holbrook. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow souvenir roses, the center of which was a shoulder corsage of lilies of the valley for her traveling costume.

The maid of honor wore green chiffon velvet with a green hat and shoes. She carried an arm bouquet of Talisman roses.

The men in the wedding wore but-tonniers of Talisman roses.

LUNCHEON AFTER WEDDING
Immediately following the ceremony, Miss Frances Jones, only sister of the bride, entertained the families of the couple and out-of-town guests at a luncheon at her home on Calhoun street.

A yellow and white color motif was carried out in detail for the luncheon. Smilax, chrysanthemums and white tapers decorated the rooms of the lower floor which was thrown en suite for the occasion.

The guests were received at the front door by Mrs. Henry Fellers and Mrs. Fred Gilbert and introduced to the receiving line. Receiving with the bridal party were Mrs. S. B. Jones, stepmother of the bride; Mrs. L. B. Wilson, mother of the groom, and Mrs. M. A. Renwick, aunt of the bride.

Entertaining in the reception room were Mrs. Clifton Graham and Miss Ethel Jones and in the studio, Mrs. J. N. McCaughrin and Mrs. Allan Johnstone. In the gift room were Mrs. George Renwick and Mrs. George Martin. Presiding over the bride's book were Miss Cornelia Mayer and Miss Julia Kibler. Mrs. J. P. Moon distributed favors of white and yellow small chrysanthemums.

The dining room presented a lovely scene in its bridal decorations. For the luncheon a silver and crystal service was used. Centering the table was a silver bowl of white chrysanthemums and lacy fern. White tapers burned in silver candelabra about the room. Serving were Miss Sudie Dennis, Miss Laura Nance McCaughrin, Miss Margaret McCaughrin, Miss Catherine Smith, Miss Annie Lee Young, Mrs. John Clarkson, and Mrs. C. H. Albrecht. White and yellow mints were passed by Rebecca Anne Gilbert, Martha Johnstone, and Fred Gilbert, Jr.

TRIP TO FLORIDA
Later the bride and groom left for a wedding trip to Florida and upon their return to the city will take an apartment with Mrs. W. O. Miller on Johnston street. Mrs. Wilson traveled in an olive green wool frock with a dark brown fur jacket. Accessories were dark brown. The bride is the daughter of Samuel Burton Jones and the late Mary Holbrook Jones. She is a graduate of Converse college. Mrs. Wilson is pretty and charming and has been entertained at many parties since the announcement of her engagement.

Mr. Wilson is the son of Mrs. L. B. Wilson, of Columbia. He is a graduate of Clemson college and teaches at the Newberry High school.

Following is a list of out-of-town guests at the wedding and luncheon: Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. W. B. Blair, Miss Dorothy Buzhardt, Mrs. J. C. Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hampton, W. E. DeLoach, Sr., Mrs. W. E. DeLoach, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Strudel, Mrs. L. J. Strasburg, Miss Margaret Richards, Miss Majorie Bludner, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Scarborough, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wallace, all of Columbia; Mrs. Arthur Copeland and Mrs. Harry Nettle, Clinton; Commander and Mrs. Vernon Wheete, Norfolk, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Boozer and son, Atlanta, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. George Renwick, McColl.

RECEPTION GIVEN BRIDAL PARTY FRIDAY

Following the Jones-Wilson wedding rehearsal at the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church Friday evening at 8 o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Jones entertained the bridal party and a few additional guests at a reception at their home on Harrington street.

The bridal party composed the receiving line. A green and white color motif was used in floral decorations and refreshments.

The dining room table was centered with a low bowl of white daisy chrysanthemums. Wedding bells and tulle in graduate lengths hung from the chandelier above the table.

Mrs. M. A. Renwick poured coffee and Mrs. Gurnie Summer cut the cream. Serving the cake and cream were Miss Laura Nance McCaughrin, Miss Margaret McCaughrin, Miss Ethel Jones, Mrs. Clifton Graham, and Mrs. Henry Fellers.

Mabel Summer and Mary Baker passed the green and white mints. After refreshments, the wedding cake bearing the usual wedding emblems was cut.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB HOLDS MONTHLY BUSINESS MEET

Mrs. John Kinard was hostess to the Fortnightly club Tuesday morning at the monthly business session which was followed by a delicious luncheon.

Mrs. W. G. Houseal was reader for the morning. Leader of foreign news was Mrs. Kinard and state news, Mrs. W. H. Carville. Miss Mary Burton discussed domestic news.

Miss Fannie Mae Carville, Miss Mae Dold, and Mrs. H. M. Bryson were invited to the two course luncheon served at noon.

LUTHER LEAGUE HAS HALLOWEEN GATHERING

Members and guests of the Luther League had a Halloween party Friday night at Kinard's cabin. The group gathered at the college and hiked out to the cabin where a wienner roast was held. Approximately 30 enjoyed the occasion.

MISS WALLACE HAS BIRTHDAY DINNER

A delightful social affair of the week was the birthday dinner given Miss Frances Wallace Tuesday evening by her mother, Mrs. R. G. Wallace, at their home on Caldwell street.

Covers were laid for twelve and an attractive motif was used for the table decorations and the home. Place cards were turkey baskets filled with nuts. Centering the table was the birthday cake bearing 15 candles. A three course dinner was served.

The birthday cake was cut and the following drew emblems: Edna Louise Bowers, ring and wish bone; Jane Summer, button; Cam Wallace, heart; Mary Anne Davis, thimble; Mrs. Wallace, dime.

The guest list included Jane Summer, Mary Anne Davis, Sara Linda Goggans, Rosemary Bowers, Jeanne Johnstone, Edna Louise Bowers, Martha Jane Grey, Carrie Lee McSwain and Mary Birge Kohn.

MRS. ABLE ENTERTAINS FOR MISS MOOREHEAD

Miss Margaret Moorehead, whose marriage to Julian Bolick, Georgetown, takes place Saturday evening at the First Baptist church, Clinton, was honored at a pretty party Friday morning by Mrs. E. G. Able at her home on McCaughrin avenue.

A pink and blue color note was used in floral decorations of the home. In favors and tallies, a bridal motif was carried out.

Two tables were set for contract. Miss Moorehead's place was marked with a corsage of Talisman roses. Mrs. W. T. Martin, Goldville was the high score prize winner, and Miss Copie McCrary, Clinton, was lucky at bingo. The honoree was presented a gift of exquisite white pottery.

At noon luncheon was served. The guest list included intimate friends of the bride-elect of Clinton, Goldville, and of the city.

Chit-Chat

By CONSTANCE ARMFIELD

November has made its appearance. Newberrians will be rushing to make preparations for brilliant winter parties, dances, and holidays. Your social can't complain about October social activities for they were many and lovely. She only hopes November will do as well for herself . . .

Added to the list of popular visitors in the city are Mrs. Ford Kurtz and her seven-year-old son, Peter, of New York City, who are visiting her mother, Mrs. John C. Chappells. I understand Mr. Kurtz will arrive here at a later date. Possibly you know Mrs. Kurtz better as Gladys Chappell, a former very, very popular Newberry girl, I learn, while leaving through files of the Herald & News a few years ago. Her visits here, which are not by any means, too frequent, mean a gay addition to Newberry social gatherings. . . .

A sweet, kind, and thoughtful lady has moved from Newberry. Her going saddens many with whom she was connected during her brief stay here of a little over a year ago. She is Mrs. J. M. Stephenson, who has gone to Atlanta, Ga., where she has accepted work. Mr. Stephenson, who was an engineer on the new Winnsboro highway will join her next week and will be there until his next assignment with the McDougal Construction company . . . Mrs. Stephenson was a prominent leader in the Presbyterian church, taking a leading part in outpost Sunday School work . . . She was wire editor on the Daily Herald . . . She was always thinking of the other fellow, giving freely of her time and money to help others . . . This sounds like a funeral notice and amounts almost to the same thing to many who feel a great loss in her leaving the city . . . However, we wish her well in her new work and new location. . . .

One almost wondered what country he was living in or what age at the party at the Country Club of Newberry Friday evening. The affair was a Halloween party for younger members of the club . . . The huge open fireplace furnished a soft glowing light for dancers, while cats, witches, pumpkins, and corn stalks decorated the rooms. Bobbing for apples was enjoyed at the beginning of the party and after the card dance, apple and square dancing was held. Several of the dances were "girl-breaks" and it seemed as though a certain high school professor was the "belle of the ball" on these dances. I've never seen even a girl rate such popularity. . . . But as for some of the colorful costumes . . . Keitt Purcell was Uncle Sam, and Cam Wallace was most appropriately dressed as a Roman senator and looked as though he were ready to deliver an oration against Cataline at any moment . . . Mistress Mary who was Rose Mary King, looked any way, but contrary . . . Among the innocent looking pirates roaming about the dance floor were "Brother" Weir, Billy McSwain, and Strother Paysinger . . . Frances Wallace made a pretty looking Spanish maid and little Martha Johnstone was almost a Sonja Henie in her skiing suit of red trimmed in white fur. . . . Buzz Purcell was a most handsome looking colonial gentleman and Walter Goggans, dressed as a clown in orange and black, appeared fresh from the circus . . . Adding a little dignity to the affair were Robert Houseal and Olin Cannon in full dress suits . . . Rosemary Bowers was completely Chinese from head to toe, her gown and sandals being of brightest colors . . . Had I been a judge and had a costume prize been awarded . . . would have had considerable difficulty, but after a time, would have probably decided that Sara Linder Goggans deserved that prize. She looked like the fair Elaine just stepping out of the story book. Had only there been one of King Arthur's knights of the Round Table with her, the scene would have been complete. Her dress of orange and black was made with a very full skirt and tight fitting bodice. A small gold locket was fastened about her neck and a dainty veil dropped from her tall pointed hat and over her face.

Margaret Moorhead, Goldville bride-elect, and a very popular bride-elect, whose marriage to Julian Bolick of Georgetown takes place Saturday has been honored, extensively by friends all over the state since the announcement of her engagement. Several affairs have been given here in her honor. Last weekend, Mrs. E. G. Able entertained at a pretty party for her. Following the rehearsal which will be at the First Baptist church in Clinton Friday night, Miss Margaret McCaughrin will entertain the bridal party at a reception at the Country Club of Newberry. Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 Margaret attended at a party at Clinton given by Mrs. John W. Finney in Miss Moorhead's honor . . . This attractive bride-elect finished Coker College last spring and was Coker's May queen. After graduation she spent the summer traveling in Europe . . . She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Moorhead of Goldville and her father is president of Goldville mill. After her marriage Saturday, she will make her home in Georgetown . . .

Hear ye, all ye Winthrop college alumnae! This announcement sent out will interest you. "There will be a most delightful broadcast over WIS Friday afternoon, November 5, from 3 till 3:30. Dr. Phelps will speak and the Winthrop sextette will sing. Please listen in". . . .

CHATTER . . . drive by the grounds of the water works plant on Nance street and note the beauty—and thank Homer Schumpert . . . November is starting off with fine weather . . . Mrs. E. G. Able has a very pleasing telephone voice . . . grocery stores displaying ingredients for fruit cakes . . . not too early to be thinking about Christmas . . . Newberry's fire hose is really a pleasing sight for sore eyes . . . ghosts, galore, roamed the city Saturday night . . . It's nice to have that rough place on Main street fixed . . . Mrs. Holloway and Mrs. Strothers, of Chappells in city's shops . . . And the Hope B. Wilsons departed Saturday for a honeymoon to Florida . . . Country Club Halloween party was a very colorful affair . . . Mrs. Fred Dominick wearing most becoming and stylish hat . . . Methodist conference is town talk this week. . . . hope we have some brilliant winter weddings . . . 50 days until Xmas.

WOMAN'S CLUB MET WITH MRS. E. G. ABLE
The second meeting of the fall season of the Woman's club was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. G. Able, McCaughrin avenue. Mrs. Theo. Albrecht reviewed the book, "Henry The Eighth". Mrs. Walter Hunt, president of the club, presided over the brief program. The reception room, where the fourteen club members gathered was attractive in its decorations of chrysanthemums in a pink and blue color note.

St. Philips News

On Sunday night at 7:30 there will be services at the church. We trust the people will take more interest in night service, and keep encouraging our minister. To attend church is very important. May we think more of this than ever before. Do not take it all in thinking, for remember you must fit yourself for the eternal life which is to come. It is my earnest desire to see the church prosper. How are you going to do this? By taking interest in its work.

The farmers are very busy. Some being finished gathering their cotton, and others very near. They are now beginning to dig potatoes. Some are getting a very good yield. They have been very busy sowing grain, some few have a fine stand but the rainy season has delayed them very much. It looks as if we will soon have more rain, but we trust it will pass off. Many people predict a very rough winter, we trust this will not be true while we do need some good cold weather.

While prophets phophecy for rough weather they may not hit, there is no one only the One who created who knows just what there will be. Remember false phophecy is walking in very dangerous grounds.

Mr. D. K. Brazzile and Aaron Martin came by Sunday morning when Miss Sarah Banks, Mrs. Marvin Derrick and I joined them. We motored to Columbia to the blind institution where we spent a wonderful day. Meeting our old school mates, even met one of my old room mates. Had a very grand time talking with them. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lominick and daughter, Martha, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lominick were Sunday guests of Mrs. Minnie Lominick.

Mr. and Mrs. Musco Lominick spent the weekend in Laurens with Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Buzhardt. They were accompanied by Mrs. C. H. Alewine.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Halfacre, and Evelyn, Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Taylor, and children, Mr. Willie Piester and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Piester and Miss Elizabeth and Cecil Piester visited Mr. and Mrs. Luther Suber, Pressley, Sunday.

Mrs. Banks Enlow and daughter, and Little Mary Pinner Koon visited Mrs. Ben Tillman Wicker Sunday morning.

Mr. Frank Shealy and children of Newberry visited Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Shealy Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wicker spent Sunday with Mrs. W. N. Amick.

Sunday guests of Mr. C. W. Summer and family were Mr. John Shealy and family, Bush River, and Mr. Lee Dominick and family of Mount Pilgrim.

HATS
CLEANED and BLOCKED
50c
Satisfaction Guaranteed
Give Us a Trial
We call for and deliver
N. Y. NEWSTAND
Opposite Old Courthouse
PHONE 248-J

ST. PHILIPS CLUB HAS OCTOBER MEETING

The October meeting of the St. Philips home demonstration club was held at the school house, October 20 with 32 members and four visitors present.

Devotionals were conducted by Miss Anne McKinney. Following, Miss Sudie Mae Dickert made a talk on house furnishings, color in the home, and harmony.

Mrs. Mary Cameron won the prize at an exciting contest held. Sandwiches, cakes, and tea, was served after the program.

GREENVILLE MINISTER ADDRESSES COLLEGE GROUP

Rev. J. Edgar Stockman, pastor of the Lutheran church in Greenville, addressed the student body of Newberry college at the chapel exercises Tuesday morning.

Tuesday evening Mr. Stockman spoke at the first joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. of the year at Holland hall. He used as his topic, "The Religious Situation in Europe".

The Greenville minister spent several months in Europe this summer.

MRS. MARIE WILLIAMS DIES SATURDAY

Mrs. Marie Williams, 45, wife of R. O. Williams died Saturday morning at the local hospital. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the residence in Whitmire, conducted by the Rev. J. R. McKittrick. Burial was in Cool Branch cemetery in Fairfield county.

Mrs. Williams is survived by her husband and three children, Olin Williams, Laurens; Theodore and J. T. Williams, both of Whitmire. Four brothers also survive. They are J. E. Eubanks, Fairfield; R. R. and R. D. Eubanks, Union, and Lonnie Eubanks, Laurens. McSwain in charge.

Mrs. C. A. Calcote, Mrs. A. T. Neely, Mrs. James Smith, the Rev. C. A. Calcote, and the Rev. C. J. Matthews were among the Newberrians attending sessions of South Carolina and Florida synodicals meetings at Thornwell Orphanage Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Hendrix, Lexington, spent Sunday with their son, C. E. Hendrix and Mrs. Hendrix. Mrs. Hendrix remained over for a week's visit. Mr. and Mrs. James Smith visited relatives in Greenwood Sunday.

Important
HATS
For Important
Occasions

Admiring glances are yours in any of these hats! Try the newest brims that flare up . . . swoop down . . . the profile berets . . . draped turbans . . . tiny toques with curled feather trims! Felts, velours.

Mrs. J. W. White
Opposite Central Methodist Church

A Great . . . Magazine Offer

Here is an offer of reading material you cannot afford to miss. All subscriptions may be started at once or your subscriptions to any of the periodicals may be extended if you now take them, and any THREE of the following magazines for one year:

- McCALL'S MAGAZINE
- PICTORIAL REVIEW
- PATHFINDER (6 months—weekly)
- PROGRESSIVE FARMER (two years)
- COUNTRY HOCE
- HOUSEHOLD
- GOOD STORIES

For Only . . .

$1.50

You can get

The SUN for 1 year

THE SUN, Newberry, S. C.

Gentlemen:

Enclosed find $1.50 for which please send me THE SUN for one year, also the following magazines for one year each:

NAME OF MAGAZINE . . . . .
NAME OF MAGAZINE . . . . .
NAME OF MAGAZINE . . . . .
Send Publications to . . . . .
Box, Route or Street . . . . .
City or Town . . . . .

DAILY NEEDS IN EVERY OFFICE . . .

25c to 40c per pad

Columnar Ruled Pads

DID YOU KNOW . . .

that after exhaustive and repeated tests, under different intensities of light and at varying distances, the Bureau of Standards determined that Black on Light Yellow was superior to all other color combinations for sharp definition and legibility?

IN PLAIN WORDS . . .

did you know that you can look at black figures on yellow surface with less eye strain and practically no blurring?

THAT'S THE REASON . . .

we sell Canary and Buff Bond Columnar Pads. Save your eyes with this truly fine paper. Canary Bond with red and blue ruling or Buff Bond with brown and green ruling. Wide variety of sizes. Three to thirty columns. Indispensable for accounting, analysis, and record work.

ARMFIELD'S