The Curse of Progress

He Needn't Worry

The conceited young man had been in hospital for some time, and had been extremely well looked after by the pretty nurse.

"Nurse," said the patient one morning, "I'm in love with you. I don't want to get well."

"Don't worry," replied the nurse cheerfully, "you won't. The doctor's in love with me too, and he saw you kissing me this morning."—Answers Magazine.

Poor Pickings.

A country school teacher came into the bank to cash her monthly salary check. The cashier apologized for giving her dirty bills, saying he had forgotten school teachers were afraid of germs.

"Oh, that's all right," she said a little sadly, "no germ could live on my salary."—The Laughter Library.

Like Adam

"Did he take his misfortunes like a man?"
"Precisely. He laid the blame on his wife."—Toronto Globe.

ALKALIZE

I'LL NEVER GO TO DINNER WITH A BOY AGAIN UNLESS I HAVE SOME PHILLIPS' TABLETS IN MY PURSE

Uncle Phil Says:

On Uncrowded Roads

There were careless drivers 30 years ago, but the horses had sense.

All the ladders of success have a missing rung, here and there. You have to be prepared for that.

If one must be homely why can't one be grandly homely like Abraham Lincoln was?

Things we'd like to know. Why are lawyers' arguments called briefs?

Quickly Gets Around

A rumor may not have a leg to stand on, yet how swiftly it travels.

If you tell your secret why do you expect others not to?

Silence doesn't always mean that your adversary in argument has given in.

Some stones that don't roll, don't accumulate moss. They get buried in the mud.

It's the Grindstone

Men with axes to grind will also make a beaten path to your door if you let them use your grind.

Ancestors are a great source of pride, particularly if they left fortunes.

Don't make fun of dignity. A man without any is painful to contemplate.

Men like Longfellow and Tennyson have a good many monuments, though they don't need any.

What Might Have Been

It is when our budding hopes are nipped beyond recovery by some rough wind, that we are the most disposed to picture to ourselves what flowers they might have borne if they had flourished.

—Dickens.

Often "acid indigestion" is distressing to you—and offensive to others. But now there is no excuse for being guilty.

You simply carry your alkalizer with you—and use it at the first sign of "upset" stomach. Simply take two tiny tablets of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia when out with others. Or—if at home—you can take two teaspoons of liquid Phillips'. Both act the same way.

Relief is usually a matter of seconds. "Gas," nausea, "heartburn," acid breath—all respond quickly. Just make sure you ask for "Phillips'."

Reward of Innocence
Mirth and cheerfulness are but the due reward of innocence of life.—Sir T. Moore.

To Women:

If you suffer every month you owe it to yourself to take note of Cardui and find out whether it will benefit you.

Functional pains of menstruation have, in many, many cases, been eased by Cardui. And where malnutrition (poor nourishment) had taken away women's strength, Cardui has been found to increase the appetite, improve digestion and in that way help to build up a natural resistance to certain useless suffering. (Where Cardui fails to benefit, consult a physician.) Ask your druggist for Cardui—(pronounced "Card-u-I.")
