Rare Book

There are estimated to be only about 45 Gutenberg Bibles in the world and in 1884 one sold for $15,000. At that time, many of the books were privately owned. Today, with most of the Bibles permanently retired to museums and thus off the market, the price should be higher.

The Gutenberg Bible is valuable not for its scarcity alone. It is a curiosity because authorities aren't even sure Johann Gutenberg printed it. In fact, some experts claim the Fifteenth century German wasn't a printer at all!—Washington Post.

CARDUI

In this modern time something wonderfully worth while can be done for practically every woman who suffers from functional pains of menstruation. Certain cases can be relieved by taking Cardui. Others may need a physician's treatment.

Cardui has two widely demonstrated uses: (1) To ease the immediate pain and nervousness of the monthly period; and (2) to aid in building up the whole system by helping women to get more strength from their food.

Purposeful Day

A single day in the life of a learned man is worth more than the lifetime of a fool.—Posidonius.

HELP KIDNEYS

To Get Rid of Acid and Poisonous Waste Your kidneys help to keep you well by constantly filtering waste matter from the blood. If your kidneys get functionally disordered and fail to remove excess impurities, there may be poisoning of the whole system and body-wide distress. Burning, scanty or too frequent urination may be a warning of some kidney or bladder disturbance. You may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel weak, nervous, all played out. In such cases it is better to rely on a medicine that has won country-wide acclaim than on something less favorably known. Use Doan's Pills. A multitude of grateful people recommend Doan's. Ask your druggist!

DOAN'S PILLS

STAR DUST Movie • Radio

By VIRGINIA VALE

WHEN motion picture producers wander away from their office desks, they get the most promising ideas for pictures. For instance, it might never have occurred to the head man of the 20th Century-Fox studios to cast Shirley Temple and Sonja Henie in a film together if he hadn't happened to pass the ice rink where Miss Henie practices.

At first he was horror-stricken to find the company's precious child risking her neck trying to learn Sonja's whirlwind capers, but when he saw that she learned them as easily, and safely, as she does tap-dancing routines, he decided that she must do a skating picture with her teacher.

At Paramount, the big boss heard shrieks of hilarity coming from the portrait photographer's studio, and on investigating found W. C. Fields and John Barrymore clowning around as Romeo and Juliet. Right away he was inspired to cast them together in a loony story called "Things Begin to Happen."

Grown-ups may well envy the school children of today who learn their history lessons through such an exciting medium as the R. K. O. motion picture, "Victoria the Great." Filmed in England with Anna Neagle in the role of the queen, this picture was made with the hearty co-operation of government officials, so all the glory of real castles and authentic royal settings make it a feast for the eyes. Sixty years of her life are covered in this story, so it is a series of dramatic high spots. And so skillfully has the story been told, it is just the story of a woman's heart, a woman who was willful and pathetic—with all her regal splendor.

Lanny Ross was all ready to sign a contract to make pictures for M-G-M, when it occurred to him that with Nelson Eddy and Allan Jones already signing on that lot, there wasn't much room for another singer. So, the shrewd Lanny hustled over to Columbia Pictures' studios and arranged to make pictures for them instead. There he will be sure to get all the good singing roles.

Those folks you hear on Gabriel Heatter's "We, the People" program certainly enjoy the evening of that broadcast. After the first broadcast, Heatter takes the whole troupe of visitors across the street to dinner. Afterward, they return to the studio for the repeat western broadcast.

All the youngsters who were thrilled over Dick Merrill's ocean flights will want to arrive for the first showing and stay all day when "Atlantic Flight," starring Dick Merrill himself comes to their local theater. In the picture he is the same engaging, modest, casual young man that he was in the newsreels. And the picture boasts some hair-raising stunt flying.

All three of the Lane sisters are now working for Warner Brothers. Priscilla, who with her sister Rosemary, provided many bright moments in Waring's "Varsity Show," will do the same for the next "Gold Diggers" in support of Dick Powell. And Lola, who has been in pictures much longer than her sisters, will be seen in "Hollywood Hotel."

Turning down several coast-to-coast radio programs offered him, Henry Hull, the distinguished stage actor, is going to try motion pictures again. He will play a prominent role in M-G-M's "Marie Antoinette" in support of Norma Shearer. About the time that picture is ready for the screen, another Marie Antoinette will be competing for attention. Deanna Durbin is going to play the role in a story written around her more tender years.

ODDS AND ENDS—Helen Menken, long-suffering "Second Wife" of the radio serial is going to make a motion picture for Warners. . . . Clark Gable, weary of being a swaggering, wise-cracking hero wants to play in a tense drama about the fight against yellow fever in the tropics. . . . Carole Lombard is wearing a black wig in "Food for Scandal" and she is not sure it is a good idea. Her best friends don't recognize her. . . . Bob Hope, radio comedian, is such a hit in his first Paramount picture that he has signed to do more.

CHRISTIAN FRUITFULNESS

LESSON TEXT—John 15:1-16. GOLDEN TEXT—Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.—John 15:8. PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus' Rule of Love. JUNIOR TOPIC—The Loyalty of Love. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What May We Expect to Achieve? YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—How Christians Become Fruitful.

Thanksgiving day has just afforded each one of us a special opportunity to return praise to God for the fruitfulness of America's broad acres. It is appropriate that we think today of the Christian life as manifesting itself in the bearing of fruit.

Christian work of which we spoke last Sunday may (at least in a measure) be imitated, but fruit cannot be imitated. It is the result of life and only those who know the new birth bear the fruit of Christianity.

The chapter before us is a portion of Scripture which has been the peculiar favorite of God's children in all generations. It is at the center of our Lord's words with his disciples immediately before his death on the cross.

Many are the expositions of this passage, but a beautifully simple one which came to the writer from Dr. W. Graham Scroggie is suggested as most helpful.

I. Life and Fruitfulness (vv. 1-8). Life results in fruit and there can be no true fruit where there is no life. Christ is the vine, the Father is the keeper of the vine. We who are Christ's are the branches abiding in him, that is, living our whole life in and for him in such close union with him that his life as the vine brings forth fruit in us as the branches. That is real Christian living.

But, alas, there are branches that seem to belong to the vine but they lack the one indispensable evidence of life which is the normal bearing of fruit. These the Father must take and cast away to be destroyed. While we must not read into these words more than our Lord intended, let us beware lest we explain away their serious import. These are grave words of warning to false professors of Christianity, but they are not spoken to distress and dishearten true followers of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Fruit in the Christian is undoubtedly first of all the fruit of character but that character is also to show in conduct. Note the progress—"fruit" (v. 2), "more fruit" (v. 2), "much fruit" (v. 5). In order to bear more fruit there is need of pruning and cleansing (vv. 2, 3). Pleasant? Not always, but always profitable. Let us thank God for even the pruning knife when its work is needed.

Do not miss the prayer promise in verse 7. It is an unlimited promise with a closely limited condition. Let us meet the condition and claim the promise.

II. Love and Friendship (vv. 9-16). "This is my commandment that ye love one another." In verse 10 we read that to abide in the love of Christ we must keep his commandments and now we learn that it is his command that we love one another. We are not to await the impulse prompted by the beauty or kindness or propinquity of someone, but we are to love one another. Many a Christian who has obeyed the commandments against stealing, adultery, and blasphemy has never noticed that he is commanded to love.

The joy of Christ was fulfilled on the eve of Calvary by the love of his disciples for one another and for him. He rejoices today when we love the brethren and love him, for thus we enter upon the beautiful relationship of friends.

Dr. Scroggie says, "We may be God's children without being his friends; the one is based on his gift of life to us; the other, upon our offering of love for him. Are you a friend of God? You cannot have God and the world for friends at the same time. The friendship of the world is enmity with God. The world hates Christ, and therefore will not love you if you are like him."

But, oh! the sweet intimacy of fellowship with him. Read verses 14 to 16. Chosen and appointed by him, for "he first loved us," we are not kept in the distant position of servants but are brought into his circle of friends with whom he shares the glorious secrets of his Father, and our Father. It is a great thing to be a Christian, a friend of the Saviour.

Intellect

Every man should use his intellect not as he uses his lamp in the study, only for his own seeing, but as the lighthouse uses its lamps, that those afar off on the sea may see the shining and learn their way.

The Past

The wise man must remember that while he is a descendant of the past, he is a parent of the future, and that his thoughts are as children born to him, which he may not carelessly let die.—Spencer.

Practical

"Would you like to go and hear father preaching on 'Love one another,' Jack, dear?" "No, darling! Let's stay at home and practice what father's preaching!"

When some girls get soft soaped they bubble over.

HOW LONG CAN A THREE-QUARTER WIFE HOLD HER HUSBAND?

YOU have to work at marriage to make a success of it. Men may be selfish, unsympathetic, but that's the way they're made and you might as well realize it. When your back aches and your nerves scream, don't take it out on your husband. He can't possibly know how you feel.

For three generations one woman has told another "how to go 'Smiling Through'" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three ordeals of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."

Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and Go "Smiling Through."

Faith and Logic

Faith is as much a normal function of the human mind as is logic.—William W. Keen.
