GERRY RUTHERFORD, 5, IS HOST AT PARTY

Little Gerry Rutherford, five, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald Rutherford celebrated his fifth birthday Saturday afternoon with a delightful birthday party which was given at the home of his parents on College street. Seventy of Gerry's friends were invited to help him celebrate the occasion.

The home presented an attractive scene in its Thanksgiving decorations. The afternoon was spent in playing merry games and entertaining contests. Winning at contests were Caroline Pool, Teddy McLean, and Walter Goggans.

Refreshments were served in the dining room. The table was decorated with toy ships, Pilgrims and Indians, portraying the first Thanksgiving scene. Ice cream was served and the birthday cake bearing the emblems was cut. The following drew emblems; Joan Dominick, ring; Tommie Cooley, dime; Doug Stokes, penny; Kate Stewart Rutherford, thimble.

Mrs. J. D. French assisted Mrs. Rutherford in entertaining.

JOINT HOSTESSES GIVE PRETTY WEEKEND PARTIES

Mrs. Wilton Todd and Mrs. W. H. Tedford entertained at two pretty bridge parties at the home of the former at Park View court over the weekend. Players were invited for eight tables Friday morning and for nine tables Saturday afternoon.

The lower floor of the attractive Todd home was thrown en suite and decorated with marigolds and daisy chrysanthemums. For both parties, a yellow and green color note was carried out.

Mrs. Seth Meek won the high score prize at cards Friday. Second high went to Mrs. R. L. Kirkland, and Mrs. Joe Feagle was lucky at bingo and was presented a prize.

After the game Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Cyril Hutchinson and Miss Laura Nance McCaughrin were awarded the high and second high score prizes, respectively. Mrs. Douglas Jones won the bingo prize.

Out-of-town guests at the parties were Mrs. George Epps, Columbia, and Miss Martha Prince, Anderson.

After each party, the hostesses served a salad plate and coffee.

MISS MARY BURTON HAS PARTY FOR CIRCLE MEMBERS

Miss Mary Burton entertained the members of Circle Two of the first Baptist church, of which she is chairman, at her home on Harrington street Saturday afternoon.

Autumn leaves and flowers created the floral setting where the circle members gathered for a pleasant afternoon of games, contests, and bingo. A number of prizes were awarded.

Late in the afternoon the guests were invited into the dining room for tea. Here autumn colors, of yellow, orange, gold and green were carried out. Mrs. H. M. Bryson poured tea and Mrs. Herman Wright cut the attractively iced cake. Yellow and orange mints were passed.

AT THE ...

Bridge Tables

Mrs. Robert H. Driscoll was cordial hostess to members of her bridge club Wednesday afternoon at her apartment on Caldwell street.

Two tables were set for players in the living room which was bright with autumn flowers in graceful arrangement.

Mrs. Ed Anderson won the top score award and Mrs. L. E. Aull was winner at bingo.

Late in the afternoon, Mrs. Driscoll served a salad course. Mrs. Harry Phillips, Columbia, called after cards.

Mrs. Fairfax Montague was hostess to her bridge club Thursday morning at her apartment on Harrington street.

Two tables were placed for cards in the reception room. After the hostess had served light refreshments, several progressions were enjoyed with score prizes being awarded Mrs. McHardy Mower, Mrs. Jesse Mayes, and Mrs. John Clarkson.

The November Country Club party was held Thursday evening at the club beginning at 8. Mrs. J. L. Feagle and Mrs. L. G. Eskridge were co-chairmen of the committee in charge of entertaining.

High score prize winners were Mrs. J. W. Earhardt, Jr., and T. L. Hicks. Mrs. Frances Stevens and Mrs. McHardy Mower won the second high score awards and Mrs. L. F. Fischer was winner at bingo.

Sandwiches and coffee were served after cards.

Mrs. J. S. Lide, Mrs. C. E. Hendrix, and Mrs. G. K. Dominick were invited to play with club members when Mrs. E. E. Stuck was hostess to her bridge group Friday afternoon.

A yellow and white color note was used for the party. Giant yellow and white chrysanthemums decorated the Stuck home on Johnstone street.

When score were totaled, Mrs. Hendrix and Mrs. S. E. Whitten held high. They were presented prizes. The two bingo awards went to Mrs. Lide and Mrs. Nat Gist.

A salad course, carrying out the yellow and white motif, was served later in the afternoon.

Miss Julia Kibler entertained her bridge club Friday afternoon at her home on Main street. Two tables were placed in a colorful setting of marigolds.

Miss Catherine Smith won high score award and Miss Marguerite Burns was winner at bingo and was presented a gift.

A salad course and tea was served after cards.

Chit-Chat

By CONSTANCE ARMFIELD

Newberry society suffered a lapse after the fall weddings were all "said and done". Now we find things getting into circulation again for engagements are being announced far and wide for brilliant winter weddings. Creating quite a bit of excitement was the announcement of the engagement of Edna Beacham to John William Hipp, Jr., of Whitmire. Edna is a graduate of Newberry high school and Newberry College and has been teaching in Whitmire for the past several years. Mr. Hipp is a brother of Mrs. C. C. Hutto. I understand the wedding will take place sometime during the Christmas holidays.

Another announcement of a wedding-to-be is delightfully surprising news—the wedding of Rosa Jordan of Spartanburg and Joe Henry McCullough of this city which takes place in Spartanburg Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 at the bride-elect's home on Marion avenue. Miss Jordan, who is so very lovely and sweet visits here often and of course you know Joe Henry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. McCullough. He finished Newberry high, attended Georgia Tech, and is now working in Spartanburg. This couple have selected the apartment in which they will live and are furnishing it. Meanwhile Miss Jordan is being entertained extensively in her home town, and Mrs. L. G. McCullough is attending most of her parties. Mrs. J. B. Stepp, her aunt, entertained at an announcement party Friday afternoon and Friday evening, the teachers of the primary department of the First Baptist church honored her at a miscellaneous shower. The bride elect's cousin, Mrs. Robert Olney entertained at a treasure hunt Saturday afternoon. This week end and the first of next week brings more parties for the couple.

The Community Christmas Tree, an annual event to provide the more unfortunate children of Newberry county with "Santa Claus" at Christmas, is sponsored by the Mother's club. The club is making plans for the event with Mrs. C. A. Dufford as leader. Mrs. D. W. A. Neville, president of the club has announced that broken toys will be mended and made like new by the manual training and sewing departments of the high school. Each Newberryman willing to help with the Christmas tree is asked to gather toys, no matter how badly damaged, and have them ready Monday when a Boy Scout or Girl Scout will call for them.

In the past few days several new bridge clubs have been organized. Each one is just "her" club as far as members are concerned—in other words, no club names. Naming a club would be a simple matter and oh, how it would help your social life! I tried it once, just once, to name a club by printing a name I invented. However, I've decided never to try (yes, try) again. Please, you good ladies, give your club some kind of a name.

My Sunday school class sings a short song with these words: "If you want to be gay on Thanksgiving day give something away, give something away." There ought to be lots of happy folks in the city and county today because numbers so generously responded to the call of the Women's club over the weekend to donate clothing for underprivileged school children of Newberry. The clothes were turned over to the county attendance officer, Mrs. Mae Aull, and now she is placing them where needed most. I know of several individuals as well as organizations that are getting the names of one or two unfortunate children to continue to sponsor. Don't you think that's a grand idea?

Interesting visitors—Mrs. Thomas Swares, Sr., mother of Mrs. Theo. Albrecht, who arrived here Saturday from New Brunswick, N. J., for a visit. Also visiting Mrs. Albrecht is her sister-in-law, Mrs. Thomas Swares, Jr., and son, Thomas, both of New Brunswick.

And now for a little news in men's circles. The local post of the American Legion is going places with that new, active and agreeable fellow, Jake Wise, as post commander. Jake tells me that the Legion is planning to build a hut to be used for a meeting place and for social gatherings of the Legion. Plans are somewhat indefinite yet as to where the hut will be located or what size it will be. But I learned it will be used almost exclusively for Legion activities when built. And you can't blame the group for this. They have always been so liberal with the Legion hall. At the annual American Legion banquet on November 11, the membership renewal drive began and will continue through January. Already, 84 veterans have renewed memberships and this is the largest renewal for any corresponding period, I learned. Quoting the Post commander, "We expect to have 300 members by February and we're going to have them."

CHATTER—Sure signs of Christmas—cold weather, shops displaying gifts, boxes of gaily wrapped candies, fruit cakes. Newberry's dashing man about town, Dave Blackwell. Newberry's best dressed man, Hal Kohn. Oh, for some of that good old hot summer weather right now. . . . quite unusual: two fire alarms about fifteen minutes apart Monday. The Red Cross Drive went over big. . . . and now back to my knitting.

LET'S GO . . . SHOPPING

In visiting around shops and stores this week, no one had to tell me that Christmas is just around the corner, for a wealth of new supplies I saw on every hand—the ideal Christmas gift yours for the buying.

If you want to keep your wits until Christmas, go NOW to Stokes' drug store and make your gift selection in a leisurely manner, and do not wait until the mad rush just before the 25th. Selections you will find here are endless: beautiful silver, hand-some china, unique lamps, cosmetics of your favorite brand. . . . and oh, yes, a little detail about Stokes' glassware that makes such smart gifts. Just arrived is a large supply of crystal gifts by Tiffin. They are continental in flavor with the beauty and quality found in Tiffin hand craftsmanship. And this would make about the prettiest gift of anything I've seen so far.

You can't start too soon buying presents for Christmas! Realizing this, G. B. Summer & Sons are advertising the Lane cedar chest, "the gift that starts a home". It is extremely new, having a "waterfall" effect and made of beautiful, lasting wood. And a Lane chest would be a lasting gift.

Here's a tip to those of you who are trying to find something to cook the big chicken or turkey in. You'll be having need of a roaster during the holidays when there must be enough to feed all visitors. At the Eskridge hardware on Caldwell, you will find three sizes of roasters; rectangular, round, and oval, for any size bird. Each has a lifting rack and another grand thing is that they are reduced a considerable bit just now.

Around my favorite jewelers I find more to become elated over. This time it is diamond bridal sets, for the simple reason that winter weddings are being planned on every hand and of course the rings are an essential part of it all. Here at Turner's are displayed the superb new Blue River bridal set—you know Blue River means the diamond is perfect. And they're not expensive.

"Make a Wish"—that's not a command, just the name of the latest picture starring the biggest little singer in all the world—Bobby Breen, which will show the first of next week at the Opera House. "Make a Wish" is a musical film telling of the rehabilitation of a composer who has gone stale, through his friendship for a boy (Bobby Breen) at a Maine summer camp—you'll not want to miss it.

L. V. LIVINGSTON Prominent County Farmer Dies

Leonard V. Livingston, 77, died at his home in the St. Philips section of the county after a brief illness. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Philips Lutheran church conducted by the Rev. J. A. Keisler.

Mr. Livingston was a prominent farmer of the county. He was first married to Miss Alice Shealy who died in 1917. Later he married Miss Ada Ruff of Calhoun county, who survives him, together with 8 children by the first union. Twelve grandchildren and two great grandchildren also survive.

THANKSGIVING

By Mrs. L. E. Wertz
Tis the month of Thanksgiving, A time apart for the A time of thanks for little things. Revival of spiritual living. The fruits of our labors, Natural beauties, Autumn brings. Rest from labor, care and toil The past long summer gave us. While working with the soil.

Tis a time to give thanks For all our treasures— The kind not hoarded in banks. The fireside—an easy chair, A book of dreams—a tuneless song The blazing logs, a picture rare. Our dear friends, a story told, A lively chat, a sincere prayer, Our loving family secure from cold.

Tis a time for counting blessings. And giving thanks to Him. Our very lives I'm confessing Was a gift from above. And all of little children Were given us to love. Blessings; count them, one by one And give thanks, from morning Until the setting of the sun.

WOMAN'S CLUB GRATEFUL FOR RESPONSE

The Woman's club wishes through this column to thank Fulmer Wells for the benefit picture at the Opera House for the collection of clothing for underprivileged children and to thank the Girl Scouts for receiving the clothes and distributing the theatre tickets.

"The response in the amount of clothing was gratifying," said Mrs. Walter Hunt, president of the club. Colored children of the city were also awarded theatre tickets for bringing clothing for needy Negro children of the county to the Drayton street school Friday.

COUNTRY CLUB BRIDGE

The bridge party for lady members of the Country club of Newberry will be held Saturday afternoon beginning at 3:15 o'clock at the club, according to Mrs. J. L. Feagle, chairman of the November parties.

DEMONSTRATION CLUB

Smyrna Club With Mrs. Shealy

The Smyrna demonstration club held its regular monthly meeting on Friday afternoon, Nov. 19, with Mrs. H. W. Shealy as hostess. A large number of the members were present and answered the roll call mentioning something for which she was thankful. "Come Ye Faithful" song for the month, was sung. Mrs. Duffie led the devotional service.

The topic was room arrangement, discussed by Mrs. William E. Sem. The picture study, "Madame Le Brun and Daughter" was presented by Miss Ethel Counts. During the business session, plans were made for planting shrubbery at Smyrna Presbyterian church.

A social half hour was held after the meeting when refreshments were served.

THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY

Newberry college closed Thursday for Thanksgiving. Only a few students went to their homes because of the one-day adjournment. The high and grammar schools of the city closed their doors Thursday and will resume work Monday.

Keeping Home Ties Alive and Warm

Your telephone is a means of quick personal contact with those friends and relatives whom you do not visit as often as you would like. More and more people who are separated by distances are using the telephone to keep friendships alive and to maintain family ties. The relief from anxiety and the pleasure of hearing a friendly, cheerful voice, give satisfaction and value which is almost priceless. Yet the cost of a telephone conversation between friends or relatives who are miles apart is surprisingly low. By using station-to-station service after 7 p. m. you can talk a distance of 150 miles for about 50c, and greater or less distances for correspondingly low cost. If the town you wish to call is not listed in the front of your telephone directory, just ask your "long distance" operator. She will gladly quote rates to any point.
