

LET'S GO... SHOPPING

Perhaps "Let's Go Christmas Buying" would be a better head because that's just what everyone is doing these brisk winter days.

If you are a young attractive woman you are building up hopes for the future and more than likely you've started you a hope chest!

Rosalind Russell chest—is also smartly modern with a central panel of walnut stump and end panels of walnut separated by elm burl.

Of course you want yours to be the supreme and different gift. Why not give a friend or relative a permanent for Christmas, and have them go to the Newberry Beauty Shoppe where skillful operators do most becoming work.

When a tough fighting Irishman turns into a crooning band leader, it's "Something To Sing About."

James Cagney turns from the comically appearing role as an Irish fighter and appears as a swing-band leader in his latest picture, "Something To Sing About".

For great charm and originality in gifts, go to Miss Mattie Adams. Here I have found a wealth of gifts along enumerable lines.

lines. Something new I noted were "Vesquettes," which are the newest in sport wear—a vest to wear under your coat suit, over a plain dress, or with a skirt and shirt.

If you want to see a perfect paradise of Christmas gifts just stop by Turner's Jewelry store. The array of gifts here, I find, are most dazzling.

Everyone has a right to one's choice, but I believe everyone's choice is the same when it comes to selection of the finest of fine candies—Whitman's.

AT THE... Bridge Tables

Mrs. McHardy Mower won the guest prize and Mrs. Herman Wright won the club prize when the Once-A-Week bridge club met Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. Thomas H. Pope.

Mrs. Pope served a salad course at noon to the club members and a few additional guests.

Four tables were set for players when Mrs. Ranny Kirkland entertained two bridge clubs of which she is a member Friday afternoon at her home on Glenn street.

Club prizes were awarded Miss Julia Kibler, Mrs. Oscar Summer, and Mrs. John Goggans. The guest award went to Mrs. Dave Caldwell.

A chicken salad course was served late in the afternoon.

Mrs. Everette Deaver Evans was hostess to the newly organized club of which she is a member Tuesday afternoon at her home on Main street.

Players were invited in for an afternoon of contract. Tables were placed in the living room where the Christmas motif was used in decorations.

Following the card game, refreshments were served.

Two tables were set for bridge Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. E. E. Epting entertained her bridge club that meets weekly.

Home decorations, tallies, and prize wrappings carried the red and green motif.

After cards were laid aside, Mrs. Epting served a salad course and Russian tea.

MRS. STOKES HOSTESS TO LOUISE BEST CIRCLE

Mrs. J. Edwin Stokes was hostess to the Louise Best Circle at her home on Wilson street Monday afternoon.

Mrs. J. E. Wiseman presided, with Mrs. W. H. Tedford and Mrs. E. M. Lipscomb taking part on the program. Officers were elected for the new year after which the hostess, assisted by Mrs. C. C. Hutto and Mrs. C. H. Albrecht served delicious fruit cake, coffee, and salted nuts.

MRS. SLIGH ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE WEDNESDAY

Two of the most delightful parties of the Christmas season were those given Wednesday morning and Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Holland Sligh at her home at 1248 Hunt street.

For both occasions, a Christmas motif was in the home decorations, tallies, and refreshments.

Players were invited for six tables in the morning when Mrs. W. H. Tedford and Miss Fannie Mae Carwile won high and second high score awards, respectively. Bingo prize was won by Mrs. J. L. Feagle.

Mrs. A. M. Summer was high score prize winner at the afternoon gathering when twenty-four players were invited in. Miss Elizabeth Dominick won second high award and Mrs. H. L. Kirkland, bingo.

CALENDAR SOCIETY TO MEET MONDAY

The Calendar Society of the Methodist church will meet Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. M. O. Summer on Mayer avenue. Mrs. R. M. Lominack has been named co-hostess.

MERCHANTS ASKED TO DONATE

The merchants of the city will be asked for donations to the Community Christmas Tree Friday morning by representatives from the Mother's Club and the American Legion Auxiliary.

At this season everyone in the city is being asked to contribute in some way to the Tree. Have you made a donation yet or adopted some child or family to take care of? Won't you do so today? Let yourself become filled with the spirit of Christmas.
