AROUND the HOUSE Items of Interest to the Housewife

For Meringues.—Eggs that are several days old make better meringues than fresh ones.

Watering House Plants.—Rinse water from milk bottles will make house plants healthy and vigorous.

Selecting Meats.—Good beef or pork or calves' liver is very bright in color and has little odor. Remember these points when selecting it.

Preparing Starch.—Stir a piece of lard about as big as a five-cent piece into your starch while it is boiling. Your clothes will take on a nice gloss, and the iron will not stick.

Caring for Knit Garments.—In wearing and caring for knit garments, beware of rough surfaces, which cause thread breaks. Give the garment rest periods; steam and reblock occasionally.

Stuffed Celery.—Blend two tablespoons of peanut butter with two tablespoons of butter and one quarter pound of grated cheese. Work until smooth, then add one-quarter teaspoon of Worcestershire sauce and paprika, then stuff crisp celery hearts. This mixture is also delicious as a sandwich spread or to use for stuffing dates or prunes.

For Cooling Cakes.—An ordinary wire dish-drying rack makes a good cake cooling rack when turned upside down.

Preserving Stockings.—Because perspiration acids are among the worst enemies of good hose, clothing experts advise washing stockings after each wearing—in lukewarm water with mild soap.

A Needed Utensil.—A knife sharpener is as essential a piece of household equipment as the coffee pot. Not even an expert carver is able to do much with a dull knife.

"Quotations"

Pleasures are satisfying in inverse ratio to their cost.—Bruce Barton.
Every great cause is embraced first by an aggressive minority.—Albert Einstein.
A nation can be judged by its humor.—Sinclair Lewis.
Wars are never won; they are only and always lost.—B. M. Baruch.
The loveliest rainbow is in our vision rather than in the sky.—Will Durant.
Try and be a champion in whatever line of endeavor you choose in life.—Jack Dempsey.
Do well and doubt no man—do better and doubt all men.—A. J. Jennings.

Smiles

Granite

"Sympathetic! Why, it's my opinion that woman wasn't born; she was quarried!"

Last year: She was the old-fashioned girl who darned her husband's socks. This year: She's the new-fangled girl who socks her darned husband.

Here and There
Egyptian Guide—And the stones I'm about to show you are covered with hieroglyphics.
American Tourist—Oh, isn't that too bad. At home we're bothered by grasshoppers.

Most men are easy marks for the girl who aims to please.

What's the Matter, Pop
Father (looking at son's report)—Do you know that George Washington was at the head of his class when he was your age?
Son—Yes, but he was President of the United States when he was your age, pop.
