offers the investor good cli-mate, abundant water and power supply and the cooperation ecessary to insure success of well grounded venture.

VOLUME 1; NO. 19

The Rising Sun-1856-1860

NEWBERRY, S. C., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1938

Slider & Greneker-1856-1860

$1.00 PER YEAR

OUT AMONG THE PEOPLE

with a bit of fragrant sarcasm about a certain organization. Young is a master of biting phraseology and spares not those he dislikes...To and of orphans of veterans.

The Legion feels that by this centary and the company of the co a quarter's worth of clipping and there Lonnie Graham remarking anyone could quit smoking who wanted to, pointing to his own case ... Herman the Langford spending a pleas-ant week yelling at folks over his broadcasting machine.

Upon an old beggar who said he was once a newspaper man; and a thought "but for the Grace of God, He advised that if we contemplated a change of business not to go into begging; the jibes of passer-bys he said was most crushing to a sensitive man. The old boy displayed a gnarled hand hand minus the index finger which he said was removed in a hospital in Brest, France while he was in the service of the merchant marine during the world war. Asked marine during the world war. Asked about his travels he said he was personally aquainted with the bed bugs in every flop house from Maine to California. As a final word he advised me if I decided to change my line to try self-threading needles; there was a good profit in self-threading needles he said and so much easier on ones self renect than begeasier on ones self re-pect than begging.

NEW SHIPMENT

A large shipment of the very latest nodels of General electric stoves and refrigerators was received at Smith Motor company Wednesday. Of this shipment, the housewife will find greatest delight in the "Speedster," a new electric GE stove which is outstanding for its "three-in-one" oven, its new lighting system showing degrees in cooking, and numehous other modern features.

The new feature in the GE refrigerators is the "ice-tray release" which provides the easiest of methods for getting out ice cubes.

STILL TALKING

Continuing his popularity as an "all-occas' n" speaker, Dr. J. C. Kinard spoke Lefore the students of Clinton high school Tuesday morning in elebration of Washington's birthday. This afternoon (Thursday) Presint Kinard addresses the Chesterfield County Education Association at the Chesterfield high school.

At 10 o'clock Saturday morning he will speak before the teachers of Greenville county at the Education Association gathering in the Green-

Sunday morning, the college head goes to the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer in Atlanta, Georgia, to speak at the 11 o'clock services. The Newberry College Singers also appear in the Redeemer church for a concert Sunday afternoon.

Monday evening, returning to the state, Dr. Kinard will go to Fountain Inn to be the principal speaker at the Ladies Night celebration of the Rotary club of Fountain Inn.

LEGION AUXILIARY MEET

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet Thursday afternoon, March 3, with Mrs. A. J. Bowers on McCaughrin avenue, at four o'clock.

CALVIN CROZIER WILL MEET WITH MRS. HORNSBY

The Calvin Crozies chapter UDC will meet Tuesday afternoon, March 1, at four o'clock with Mrs. Douglas Hornsby. Mrs. Drayton Nance been named co-hostess.

SEEN ABOUT TOWN

J. C. Neel taking shots at pigeons atop the court house and not falling short of getting one with every shot...Francis Aull falling over court house railing ... Mrs. C. A. Reeder walking for exercise... Mrs. R. G. Wallace visiting at People's hospital...Mrs. Leland Summer carrying library books... Mrs. Jake R. Wise bringing husband to work... Hayne Shealy carrying around a lucious looking banana split...Dick Floyd watering lawn T. E. Davis and White Fant walking up street with arms interlaced.. Roland Felker pulling a small white dog in a wagon... Brooksie Hutchinson celebrating her birthday on 22nd...Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Kerr visiting here...Kat Adams helping out in auditor's office during rushing season...Making returns in auditor's office recently—John William Hipp, Whitmire; T. J. Davenport, Kinards; Ed Counts, Prosperity; J. Kess Derrick, Little Mountain; Clarence Smith, Kinards.

Legion Will Count

Unemployed Vets

Commander Jake R. Wise of the local post of the American Legion an-Out and upon Young Brown and he with a bit of fragrant sarcasm about a certain organization. Young is a start immediately to take a census of sus many unemployed and needy veterans can be given employment, and hopes to rehabilitate veterans that are in need of hospital treatment in order that they may work.

All veterans out of work or in need are asked to get in touch with Commander Wise or some officer of the Legion so that his case may be investigated at once.

MISS BOOZER WILL LEAD SUNDAY SERVICES

Miss Bessie Boozer will be leader of the program "Windows of The Soul" at the Sunday evening meeting of the young people of Central church February 27th.

The following program will be ren-Hymn: "Give of Your Best to The Scripture: John 13:35; Romans, 21:9-10. Talks: Negro Spirituals, The Work Songs and Blues, The Negro Poets. Closing hymn: "Dear Lord And

JAKE WISE ATTENDS MEETING AT GAFFNEY

Jake R. Wise is attending the meeting of the executive committee of the Piedmont district Health association today (Thursday) in Gaffney. The meeting has been called by Dr. G. R. Westrope for the purpose of planning the program for the Spring meeting of the association to be held in Newberry April 12th.

On the committee besides Mr. Wise and Dr. Westrope is Mrs. Blanche R. Speed, of Laurens.

ADMITTED TO HOSPITAL FOLLOWING MINOR WRECK

A wreck at the corner of Main and Hunt streets early Friday night sent three persons to the county hospital for treatment. The Chevrolet car of Holland Ruff occupied by Miss Ruby Ruff and Miss Bessie Ruff and Augustas Ruff collided with the heavy Dodge car of Mrs. Agnes McSwain occupied by her daughter, Carrie Lee. Damage to the Chevrolet is said to be about $75 waile the Dodge was damaged to a less extent.

GOING UP!

Subscribers to The Sun in the past wo weeks are as follows: Sammy Caldwell, Newberry route 1. Mrs P. O. W. Setzler, Pomaria oute 2

Alvin Hazel, City. Winton Todd, City. John Abney, Saluda, route 5. Mrs. Charles S. Suber, Newberry

D. C. Spearman, Newberry route 2. Mrs. C. D. Weeks, City. M. K. Wicker, City. W. H. Sterling, City. Claude L. Lathan, City.

T. P. Wicker, City. Mrs. Lillie G. Dominick, Prosperity oute 1. Mrs. G. D. Blackwell, City. Dr. John A. Aman, City.

J. M. Morris, City. Miss Martha Nuel Summer, New

O. W. Barre, City.
P. C. Plampin, Newberry route
Henry M. Boozer, City.
Dr. F. O. Lamereux, City. Mrs. T. Roy Summer, City. Mrs. J. S. Glymph, City. L. A. Wilson, City. Mrs. Ella Burton, Whitmire.

UNION VISITORS

Mrs. J. D. Crooks and daughter, Barbara, of Union motored to the city Manday afternoon with Rev. his willingness to carry on other du-Raymond Ellsworth. They remained in the city until Wednesday, visiting director. relatives.

The Newberry College Singers rendered four numbers before the stu-dnt body of the College Wednesday That a copy of this morning.

Sunday afternoon, the group will give its first out-of-state concert at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer n Atlanta, Georgia.

The annual tour of the singers this year will be a trip to Florida in after undergoing a major operation at the local hospital. His condition is reported to be fine.

Carolina is to have a 55-hour week thanks for the beautiful floral offering.

Mrs. P. H. Kinard and children. reported to be fine.

EPIDEMIC OF MEASLES

Dr. J. Claude Sease, of the County Health unit, states that there is practically an epidemic of measles in Newberry county, radiating from the schools of the city and county.
"The number of cases so far are small, but potentialities are great" said Dr. Sease. Mothers are warned to keep their children who have not had measles away from movies and other crowded places.

Dr. Sease advises that children be put to be immediately if sick, and be kept isolated.

COURT FREES CHILD HELD FIVE MONTHS

No Flesh and Blood Lien

"You cannot assert a lien on flesh and blood like you can on an automo-The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mc. Callister, came to court from their farm at Newville in the South mountains to regain their eight-monthsold son.

McCallister, 40-year-old World War veteran, testified he left his son with the Millers while his wife was in a the Millers while his wife was in a Carlisle hospital.

"When I went to get the baby," he said, "Miller told me he wanted some money for keeping it. I had never promised to pay him, but I said I thought he ought to have something.

"Then he said, "I want $2 a week.

Says He Can't Pay It

"He knew I couldnt pay $2 a week, because I didn't have that much."

Judge Fred S. Reese asked:

because I didn't have that much."
Judge Fred S. Reese asked:
"You're on a pension, aren't you?"
"Yes, I get $50 a month from the government." McCallister replied,
"but I can't do any work."
Miller, 24-year-old farmer, told Judge Reese he had not entered into any "agreement" when McCallister brought him the infant.
"When he came for the baby. I

"When he came for the baby, I asked him for $2 a week for its keep," said Miller. "McCallister refused to said Miller. "McCallister refused to pay, so I kept the baby."

"Have you been keeping the baby for money only?" asked District At-torney J. Boyd Landis.

"Yes," Miller replied.

CONSTABLES STAGE RAID IN CITY AND COUNTY

State Constables assisted by Deputies Hub Quattlebaum, J. C. Neel and Magistrate's Constable Joe Quattlebaum started a series of raids Saturday morning about 11 o'clock which netted 10 persons, eight of them in and about the city, and two of them, George Willard and a man named Garlington from Whitmire. Charges preferred was illegal possession of liquor. Among those held on these charges are Ben Sease, Hubert Wertz, Ben Melton, Dudley Nobles, Clarence Cromer, Frank Schumpert, Jones Wallenzine, and Charles Turner. State Constables used Hackshaw tactics in rounding up the alleged of-the places raided but arrests were made as results of previous purchases.

Mrs. W. E. Senn gave the reading entitled "Home" by Edgar Guest.

Miss Ethel Couts ably 4:

FRIENDS ADOPT RESOLUTION

Whereas, a public meeting of alum-ni, former students, and friends of Newberry College who are interested in the future athletic program of Newberry has been called due to the fact that Mr. F. D. McIean has resigned his position as coach at New-cooperation with Newberry College by

That Coach F. D. McLean has made a name for himself, not only as a COLLEGE SINGERS WILL GIVE ATLANTA CONCERT

GIVE ATLANTA CONCERT

our sincere hope that he will have

10 a. m. Sunday scho continued success, health and happi-

> That a copy of this resolution be nailed to Coach F. D. McLean, to mailed to Coach F. D. McLean, to Porter Military Academy, and that copies be given the press. Newberry, S. C., Feb. 17.

THE 40 HOUR WEEK The textile 40-hour a week, fiveday a week has been passed by both of our beloved husband and father. Ed McCrackin returned to his home law will probably be repealed within two years. It certainly will of North friends, also we wish to express our constitution of the control of the contr

Several Realty Deals

Following is a list of recent realty transfers recorded in the office of Pinckney N. Abrams, Auditor:
In district 1 (city of Newberry), 3 transfers were made. Patrick E. Scott sold one lot on College street to J. Thad McCrackin for $500. Mildred Tarrent Gist and Minnie C. Gist sold to C. White fant one lot and one building on Walnut street. Eugene sold to C. White fant one lot and one building on Walput street. Eugene S. Blease sold to Bryan B. and A. A. Livingston, one lot for $125.

In the Mt. Bethel-Garmany section of the county, Mary P. Wicker sold to L. A. Savage, 138 acres for $3000.

Neal W. Workman, Probate Judge, sold to L. Thomas Sr. 296 acres. sold to L. P. Thomas, Sr. 296 acres for $1400 in the Maybinton section. Two transfers were made at Pros-perity. Neal W. Workman sold to Carlisle, Pa.,—A "bill board baby"—held five months by a neighboring family as security for a $16 debt—was returned to his parents today by a court order.

Judge Fred S. Reese, of Cumberland county court, told Mr. and Mrs.

Revice Miller:

Two transfers were made at Prosperity. Neal W. Workman sold to Thomas B. Stockman 101 acres for $1400. J. Boyce Hawkins sold to T. C. Hawkins 30 acres.

In district 52, Whitmire, T. J. Abrams purchased from M. E. Abrams, one lot and one house for $1500.

In Vaughnville, Susan Eloise Leavell sold two acres to N. W. Workman for $105.

R. S. and J. J. Boazman of the Chappells community sold 272 acres to Greenwood county for $4077.

In Beth Eden, Floy L. Mills sold one acre and one building to Mrs. Mae Fowler for $300.

DOROTHY CRAWFORD

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be precented in her original character

Dorothy Crawford who will be pre
Dorothy sented in her original character sketches by the local Cooperative Concert Association Saturday even-urged ing, March 5, at the Newberry high school. This presentation, which will be the final one of this year's series, will begin at 8.15.

SMYRNA DEMONSTR/ WON CLUB HOLDS MEETING

The Smyrna Home Demonstration Club held its monthly meeting on Friday, February 18 at the home of Mrs. J. W. Wilson with the president presiding. Mrs. H. W. Shealy was in charge of the devotionals. During the plans are from Fair business session the council chairman ening in general.

Mrs. D. F. Senn conducted a puz

That Coach F. D. McLean should be heartily commended for his splendid man Epting, superintendent. The service. Beth-Eden 11 a. m. 2 p. m. Sunday school, Mr. Welton Derrick, superintendent.

3 p. m. The service. Woman's Missionary So-Colony

10 a. m. Sunday school, Mr. Carlisle Fulmer, superintendent. The public is cordially invited to all services in the parish.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our most sincere thanks to our many friends and neighbors for their many wonderful, kind deeds shown us during the death in their gardens.

The National Relation board has under consideration a request of the Textile Workers Organiof the Textile Workers Organization committee (CIO) for an election at Mollohon mills here to determine a bargaining agency for the workers. It is claimed that a majority of the workers of Mollohon are members of the CIO and wish to designate that agreen to deal with officials in agency to deal with officials matters of wages, hours, and so urged to be present and to take part in this discussion, and to participate other matters that may arise. J. B. Harman, Secretary.

ST. PHILIPS

Church Notes

Sunday school will be held at 2:30 Sunday afternoon and Divine services, several weiner roast parties in Marat 3:30, conducted by the Rev. J. B. Harman. A good attendance is hoped for at the services as present plans are to vote on the Rev. Ruff several weiner roast parties in Margaret Hunter Park which is now open for such entertainments anyone desiring the use of the oven, will communicate with Mrs. J. P. Shealy, from Fairfax.

Henry P. Kinard anything, he would soon make me for—and posture in housework. She distributed booklets containing salmon recipes.

Mrs. W. E. Senn gave a brief discussion on hotbeds and coldframes and a few remarks on vegetable gardening in general.

Mrs. W. E. Senn gave a brief discussion on hotbeds and coldframes and a few remarks on vegetable gardening in general.

Now, therefore, Be It Resolved, that it is the unanimous opinion of all alumni. former students, and friends of Newberry College that, before considering future athletic policies for Newberry College, we should express our sincere and heartfelt appreciation to Coach F. D. McLean for his many years of untiring devotion to Newberry College and its students.

That Coach F. D. McLean should be heartfly commended for his splendid

Mrs. D. F. Senn conducted a puzzle contest during the recreational period. The prize was won by Mrs. The funeral services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. B. Harman, assisted by the Rev. E. K. Counts. Pallbearers were Messrs. M. E. Enlow, H. H. Ruff, J. W. Lominick, G. I. Kinard, John Koon, and G. W. Shealy. Serving as flower girls were seven of his neices. They were his meices. They were how many years of untiring devotion to Newberry College and its students.

That Coach F. D. McLean should be heartfly commended for his splendid Miss Ethel Kinard, Mrs. Willian Mi-hor, Mrs. Roy Miller, Miss Maude Lee Franklin, Miss Ruth Kinard, Miss Mary Frances Franklin, and Mrs.

Glenn Jones. Many were present to pay their last respects to this kind old gentle-man, at the St. Philips cemetery. His grave was covered with quantities of ing and hoping to see them again.

May God's richest blessings rest upon the family that they shall prosper ducted funeral services last Friday Better Grain Crop

The grain crop has made a wonderful change, and I believe there will Mr. Wessinger is survived by his be a good crop made this year. only one month until Spring. The ladies are beginning to be busy flowers are now bursting forth to by a former marriage, Hall Bradley remind us that Spring is drawing Wessinger of California.

Mr. Wessinger attended Newberry

MOLLOHON EMPLOYEES WANT ELECTION HELD Work of League Reviewed at Meet

When thirty women go out on a rainy February afternoon to attend a regular meeting of the Civic league, that, within itself bespeaks their interest in the development, the improvement, and the beautification of the city in which they live. This number gathered on Tuesday afternoon, in the spacious home of Mrs. Ralph Baker with her mother, Mrs. H. L. Parr, and Mrs. George Hipp assisting.

In the unavoidable absence of Mrs. Floyd Bradley, the League's very effective and the county.

done by the WPA workers under Mrs. Summer, and to hear of her further plans, to know that in a comparatively short time, these grounds and the vacant land along the fences will be another heavity and other beauty spot. On this project Mrs. Summer reports the heartisst co-part of the Park commission.

The recent warm weather has found phone 138. Several thousand shrubs have re Mrs. W. E. Senn gave the reading entitled "Home" by Edgar Guest.

Miss Ethel Couts ably discussed a number of topics of onterest—milk trough, care of baby chicks, food budget, canning budget—stressing especially the importance of tomatoes—and posture in housework. She disgray the stress of the posture in housework. She disgray the stress of the stress of the sale of the sale

FORMER NEWBERRY MAN DIES AT FLORENCE

Henry B. Wessinger, 48, popular business man of Florence, died sudbeautiful flowers. I venture to say I denly last Thursday afternoon while never saw a prettier grave. The best of friends must part, but we are liv-Roofing company from a heart at-and look forward to a brighter day. at the Oulla Funeral home of Florence. Burial was in the Mount Hope widow, who before her marriage was Miss Chic Bisset; his mother, Mrs. R. B. Slice, of Chapin; a half-sister, The beautiful Mrs. Adam Shealy of Chapin; one son ur greaest desire is that God's remind us that Spring is drawing lost blessing rest upon each of our ads, also we wish to express our aks for the beautiful floral offermarks. J. B. Harman is in Atlanta, Ga. visiting Mr. and Mrs. John S. Riddle and family.

Mrs. P. H. Kinard and children.

Inowers are now bursting forth to remind us that Spring is drawing is drawing ingh.

Wessinger of California.

Wessinger attended Newberry College and was a graduate of the class of 1909. He is remembered as one of the most outstanding baseball players Newberry has ever had.

"I attribute it to the increasing demands of the public. The more we pay for."

College and was a graduate of the class of 1909. He is remembered as one of the most outstanding baseball players Newberry has ever had.

"The high cost of living, I suppose."

DOWN MEMORY LANE

On account of the meningitis situa-tion in the city, Newberry College will be closed for the next two weeks.

VISIT AT DURHAM

Mrs. R. F. Nichols and attractive ter part of last week in Durham, N. C., visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Held-

PISSARDI PLUM

The beautiful tree blooming on the front lawn of Mrs. R. D. Wright's home on McCaughrin is a pissardi plum, according to Mrs. Wright. Many Newberrians have been curious to know about the tree that is so seldom seen. Mrs. Wright states that the tree may be purchased from any nursery and is easily grown.

SOAP CARVINGS

Unique images, hand carved from coap, are displayed this week at Hal Kohn's. Mrs. C. D. Lewis of route two, who does this interesting work, has displayed many carvings including Hal-Loo Boy, candle holders, and Christ on the Cross.

Sunday visitors of the James

Smiths on Harper street were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glasgow, Mrs. Eunice Glasgow, and Mrs. Annie Glasgow, all of Greenwood.

WE THE PEOPLE SPEAK---

To what do you attribute our grow-

Zeke Crump, electrician: "Politics and graft."

Ralph Quinn, merchant:
"Politics, I suppose. But I sure wish the taxes weren't so high."

"It seems as though our legislators and senators think only of new ways to impose more and higher taxes."