OUT AMONG THE PEOPLE

IS MAKING GCOD

A. P. Faris has been breaking a number of records for his company the Polit Life Insurance company in writing new business and collecting for that already written. "A. P." looks after his job very diligently and is always on the move. He is popular with the folks and we expect him to own the company before long. Mr. Faris came to Newberry several years ago with Belk store where he remained until he took up his present work several months ago.

MR. WILSON IMPROVES

The hundreds of friends of Corone Wilson will regret to learn that he has been in dry dock for the past two weeks or so, suffering intensely at times, it is reported. News Tuesday is to the effect that he is some better .nd we make that fact known with pleasure. The way the coroner bears his affliction is an inspiration to those of us with minor aches and pains and we truly hope that he will pains and we truly hope that he will soon be himself again, whole and hale of the tax commission has two sugo'clock. DOWN MEMORY LANE

20 YEARS AGO

11.00 o'clock Parls time. The Armistice was signed by the German representatives at midnight. This announcement was made by the State Department at 2:50 this morning.

The people of Newberry turned out Monday and celebrated the greatest event in all history, the news of the end of the great world conflict. The banks and stores all closed at 11 o'clock and the military company, the College, and the school children and Confederate veterans marched in parade down the streets, and bells sounded, and it looked like all the people had gathered on the streets and were happy, and yet there were some who were not happy, and while they were glad the great conflict had ended there was a tinge of sadness there was a tinge of sadne in their faces. Some of them had lost oved ones over there and some had boys in the last geat battle and have had no word from them in a month or more. They did not feel the spirit of jubilation just like those who had no dear ones over there. But it is a great event, no greater in all history, occause never before were there so many nations of earth engaged in a death dealing war such as has just
