Mrs. W. O. Wilson and Mrs. Furman Sterling have returned from an automobile trip through the northern states and Canada.

They went north by way of Richmond, Washington, Phila-delphia, New York City, West Point, Albany, Saratoga Springs and on up the Hundson river and Lake Champlain to Cadada. There they visited Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, Hamilton and Niagra Falls. Re-entering the states, they went west to Cleveland, also visiting Akron and Cincinnati in Ohio, Lexington, the "Old Kentucky Home" at Bardstown, Lincoln's birthplace in Hodgenville, Mammouth Cave at Cave City, all in Kentucky. They returned by way of Chattanooga, Atlanta and Athens. Two of the most interesting places visited were the Vanderbilt mansion and the Roosevelt home in Hyde Park. The entrance to the latter was made with an almost contin-uous line of people going through the home.
