

J. S. HEYWARD, Editor.

To change Contract Advertisements, notice must be given before Monday noon.

Our friends wishing to have advertisements inserted in the TIMES, must hand them in by Tuesday morning, 10 o'clock.

ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted at the rate of one dollar and a half per square for the first insertion, and one dollar per square for each subsequent insertion.

Henceforth, all Legal Advertisements, of County Interest, whether notices or others, will be published for the benefit of our readers whether they are paid for or not.

FOR PRESIDENT:

HORACE GREELEY, OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:

B. GRATZ BROWN, OF MISSOURI.

We want a government without corruption; a Congress without price; and a Judiciary without politics." --- B. GRATZ BROWN.

To the Readers of the Times.

It will be seen, from a notice in another column, that the co-partnership heretofore existing between Mr. Beard and myself has been dissolved by mutual consent. The result of this arrangement is to release me from all liability of any indebtedness of the firm.

Respectfully Yours, James S. Heyward.

The Baltimore Convention.

The Baltimore Convention has met and not only endorsed the Cincinnati platform and platform but has even gone to the extent of pledging the Democratic vote of the nation at large to their support, by the ADOPTION of the PLATFORM and NOMINATION of the Liberal Republican nominees, HORACE GREELEY, for President, and B. GRATZ BROWN for Vice-President.

We of South Carolina, who realize the necessity of this change, have, above all our sister States, cause of self-gratulation at the sympathy which was so feelingly displayed for our down-trampled condition—at the record of our delegates, who first simply endorsed and afterward adopted, as their own, the action of Cincinnati—and the prominence, respect and enthusiasm bestowed upon the eloquent remarks of our delegate from Charleston, Mr. M. P. O'Connor. Already has the load of our bondage been lightened by the sympathy of hopeful friends, whose ardent confidence burns almost weirdly upon the long unmoved storm clouds of our political horizon.

On our State politics the action of the Baltimore Convention is destined to have a very decided effect in loosening the clutches of the unprincipled men who have used position as an opportunity for plunder and theft.

The next move in the political field will be in North Carolina on the first of August, when we shall learn the first practical effect of the Greeley nomination. The result of this election will produce more or less impression for liberal nominations in our State Republican Convention which meets in Columbia on the 27th of this month.

It is in this State election that we hope to find the most material relief, and we have no doubt that there are men in the Republican ranks, who, by the time the campaign is organized fully, shall, by these various elections be brought to "see light" in the exercise of such liberality as does not necessitate the adoption of the new test oath devotion to Grant-ism, and who, "seeing light," will give in their adherence to the new order of things and lead a liberal party on to virtuous reform.

Immediately after the adjournment of the Baltimore Convention, the Confederate Generals who were in that city started a movement which is but a worthy response to the action of the Cincinnati Convention. It is a call to be issued in a few days inviting a grand reunion of Northern and Southern Soldiers and officers in New York during September.

It is with pleasure that we place at the head of our columns the names of the Democratic nominees, Horace Greeley for President, and B. Gratz Brown for Vice-President. Under this banner the TIMES proposes to go through the campaign, regarding it as the synonym of all that any patriot can desire.

A CARD.

As will be seen by referring to our advertising columns, the partnership heretofore existing between Mr. Heyward and myself has been brought to a close. It is my intention to continue the publication of the TIMES, fully assured that the good people of Orangeburg and adjoining counties, will rally to the support of a paper which is intended to meet the wants of the intelligent classes of our citizens, and one which will (as long as it continues to be published under the present proprietorship) adhere strictly to the path laid out when the first number of the TIMES made its appearance.

Respectfully, FRANK P. BEARD.

LETTER FROM CONNECTICUT.

NEW LONDON, CONN., July 8th, 1872.

DEAR TIMES: We are now at New London, the oldest town in Eastern Connecticut; pleasantly situated on the west bank of the river Thames. On the 6th September, 1781, this town was burned during the Revolutionary war, by Benedict Arnold, and a tall granite monument on the opposite banks of the Thames commemorates that event, and the fearful massacre at Fort Griswold, the same day.

A horrible outrage was perpetrated, a few days ago, at Montvale, a village not far from New London. A Miss LaPiere, a lady of respectability, aged about 17 years, while passing a dense thicket of woods on her way to the school-house where she was accustomed to teach, was accosted by a ruffian negro, who by violence attempted to overcome and execute his hellish designs upon her.

The neighborhood in which this diabolical deed was committed is populated by the descendants of Mohegan Indians, and in whose employ were the services of Miss LaPiere, as teacher. Upon hearing of the outrage, a large body of the Mohegans assembled and immediately instituted search in hope of arresting the culprit and bringing him to speedy justice; but so dense and obscure were the woods that all search proved in vain.

I leave this place on the 11th instant, for New York City. Send my paper to No. 42 West 16th Street, New York. E. J. OLIVEROS.

From the Charleston Republican. Going for the Ring.

"O. K." a Greenville correspondent of the Columbia CAROLINIAN, gives an account of a speech-making meeting and barbecue at that place on the 4th instant, and in that account gives the following, in speaking of the speech of Hon. D. T. Corbin, of our city:

"He pitched into the State Government and literally tore it to pieces; denounced Scott, Parker, Chamberlain and Moses, as a thieving ring, and enumerated case after case in which the State had been swindled by them out of thousands of dollars, and that he was ashamed to say he voted for them, and that they belonged to the Republican party, and they must all be jured from office."

COMMUNICATED. Mr. EDITOR:—The Union Bible Society of Orangeburg County, South Carolina, celebrated its annual Anniversary in Jericho (Methodist) Church, June the 30th, 1872. After an appropriate and impressive sermon by the Rev. E. A. Bolles, Missionary for the American Bible Society, in South Carolina, the meeting was called to order by Vice-President M. J. Keller and the minutes of last meeting confirmed.

The report of the Treasurer was read, showing that the Bibles and testaments granted to the Society had been properly distributed, and that a balance of sixteen dollars and forty seven cents remained on hand and due the Society at the present time. An election for officers to serve during the ensuing year was held which resulted in the selection of the following brethren: President, Rev. G. A. Hough, Vice-President, M. J. Keller, Secretary, Hugo G. Sheridan, and Treasurer Jesse N. Haigler.

1st. That we recognize the importance of the work in which the American Bible Society has been so long engaged; and that we appreciate especially the christian zeal it has manifested in spreading the scriptures "without note or comment" among our own people since the late war.

2d. That this Society extend a hearty christian greeting to the Rev. E. A. Bolles, Missionary for the American Bible Society in South Carolina, congratulating him upon the success of his labors and pledging him renewed efforts on our part in the accomplishment of still greater results.

3d. That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Orangeburg Times, Lutheran Visitor and Christian Neighbor. The next meeting was appointed for Shady Grove Church. There being no further business, the Society adjourned with the benediction.

WELDON, N. C., July 12.—A grand Greeley and Brown ratification meeting was held here to-day under the auspices of Senator Ransom. Several thousand people were present. Senator Tipton and Stockton, Gov. Walker, of Virginia, ex-Gov. Vance, ex-Senator Clingham and Col. Hilton, of Norfolk, spoke.

MONTGOMERY, July 12.—The caterpillar, in unusual numbers, has appeared all through the cotton belt three weeks earlier than ever before. The wet weather, which develops the worm, still continues.

CHAPPAQUA, N. Y., July 13.—The assemblage of the Democratic Committee and others on the farm of Hon. Horace Greeley, to-day, was merely a social gathering or picnic. Greeley conducted the various delegates over his farm in the forenoon, and described all its peculiarities. A bountiful dinner was served at one o'clock, after which Greeley addressed the meeting, consisting of about five hundred people, and said it was a social gathering, having no other purpose than congregating for pleasure, and there were friends from home, from far and near, and he wished they would frequently visit him at his farm.

In a private letter to a gentleman in Connecticut, Horace Greeley says: "If I should be elected, I would treat all those who supported me alike, not asking whether they had been in the past Republicans or Democrats."

The clasped hands which the New York Tribune places at the head of its columns on the first page, suggests the philosophy of the recent action at Baltimore. Liberal Democrats and Liberal Republicans, have come together under a patriotic impulse. Hands are clasped "on the broad platform of reform and the reign of peace and good will."

THEY ARE WARRANTED ENTIRELY VEGETABLE.

They contain no arsenic or poisonous ingredients of any kind—nothing in the least degree injurious to the system under any circumstances—and may be administered with perfect safety to an infant. They never fail to cure the most obstinate case when taken as directed. They cure immediately. In no case will the patient have more than one chill after the first dose, and in the majority of cases not even that. They accomplish the work by destroying the cause of disease, which no other remedy pretends to do. They are an effectual preventive, neutralizing the malarious poison in the system, and thus averting its consequences. They are warranted in every instance. If they do not cure the money will be refunded. For sale all over the South. DOWIE, MOISE & DAVIS, Proprietors, Charleston, S. C. July 17, 1872
