We have enjoyed the universal spell of very bad weather during the last week.
 Mr. W. H. Walker at the office of the Daily Phoenix, is our duly authorized agent for the city of Columbia.
 When Sherman burnt the city of Columbia and laid it in ashes, the Bostonians celebrated the event with cannon. Who shoots now?
 Our correspondents were not sent copies of the Times last week, because all our extra copies were exhausted while we were in Columbia at the State Fair, etc.
 We are in receipt of a complimentary invitation to the Commencement Ball of the King's Mountain Military School, for which we return our thanks and the wish that it may prove a success.
 From our press of matter we had to forego the pleasure of giving to our readers in our last the benefit of our first in a series of Charleston letters. Hereafter they shall be forthcoming.
 The Times of last week took well: it was indeed as lively a sheet as we knew how to make it. This number we hope will be even more interesting, containing as it does, letters from Charleston and Columbia.
 We beg to call attention to the County advertisements, which appear for the first time to-day. They refer, for the most part to the sale of lands by Sheriff O. C. which will take place on Wednesday of December.
 Town Taxes.—We are requested to state that the time for collecting the town taxes expires on the 15th instant. All interested will do well to pay up before that date, as the penalty will be added to those then delinquent.
 Our town was ecstasied during two evenings of last week by Mr. Kirby, who gave exhibitions of his egerdemain and ventriloquism. We were not present, not being in town, but it must have been a treat, rare of its kind, and doubly so here.

It was great pleasure to us to witness a strong representation from Orangeburg County at the State Fair of last week. There was a goodly number of persons attendant, and the exhibition from our County formed no inconsiderable portion of the display in Columbia. A great many prizes were carried off in the several departments by our citizens, the most prominent of whom we noticed as Mrs. S. Dibble, Mrs. I. Izlar, Mrs. W. Y. Izlar, for various household articles; and Mr. H. Riggs for "grape juice" wine. This we tasted and can testify to its excellent superiority.

The town is remarkably quiet, no accident or turmoil.
 When Sherman burnt the city of Columbia and laid it in ashes, the Bostonians celebrated the event with cannon. Who shoots now?
 Down with your grape! We will none of it! Will every "Sherman sentinel" in South Carolina has its counterpart by some yankee hearth. Stir up your fire, old yankee!

The Times, hereafter, besides the usual local information, will also contain a letter from Charleston, Columbia and Washington, each by experienced men. They will be lively, crisp, and on political points pungent. The enterprise appeals to every man who can read in the County. Our only fear is that the correspondence will throw the editorial in the dark.
 Notice to Consignees Per South Carolina Railroad.
 By order of the Vice President of the So. Ca. R. R. all freight charges both LOCAL and THROUGH will be collected at this Agency and no goods will be delivered until charges have been paid at the Depot. The above to go into effect from date.
 Wm. P. CALHOUN.
 Acting Agent.
 Orangeburg, S. C., Nov. 9th, 1872. 2t

Our types beg to return thanks to the politeness of Mr. John Hartzog, the efficient assistant of Mr. J. H. Wallers; at his refreshment saloon.
 In the wee hours of the night he surprised them with a sample of his whiskey, cigars and tobacco, which they will testify were excellent of their kind, and very pleasant to the inner man. Stranger, are you weary? Call and be inspired.

BUILDING MATERIAL.—In another column will be found the advertisement of one of the most extensive manufacturers of doors, sashes, and blinds, in the Southern States. As these articles are in daily demand by our best citizens, we recommend all who contemplate improving their homes or places of business, to send for circulars and price lists of these articles, together with the price of builders' hardware, marble mantle pieces, French and American window glass, &c., &c. to P. P. Tuttle, 20 Hayne Street, Charleston, S. C.

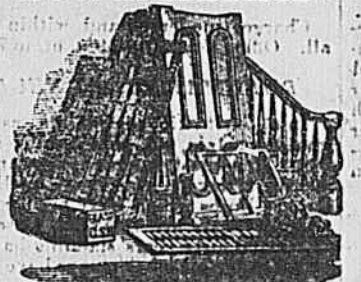

The Barnwell County Fair comes off on the 25th, 26th and 27th of this month. There will no doubt be plenty of amusement for the lovers of Agriculture and enterprise. A very notable feature of the Barnwell County Fairs is the Purf amusements, which come nearer to the ante bellum sports of the Jockey Club in Charleston than anything the State can now boast of. There will be several good races over there, and among them, one which promises to be unusually good.
 The purse is for $1,000. Distance 2 mile heats—the best two in three; for which the following entries have been made:
 By A. Aldrich, b. s. Fill Stoney.
 By Col. Bacon, c. g. Bob Shelton.
 By Flood and Cash, b. m. Girl of My Heart.
 By Rogers, of Ky., b. g. (Name unknown.)
 This comes off on the 27th.

FOR SALE.
IN ORANGEBURG COUNTY, S. C.
 A plantation at a great bargain—containing about 400 acres of good upland Cotton land, every acre fertile, no swamps or ponds, about 225 acres cleared and under good fences, 30 acres of the land produced this year about 1,100 lbs seed cotton to the acre with a cost of less than $140 worth of commercial manure. 20 buildings, all in good repair, almost as good as new, including a very nice dwelling house with five good size rooms, three porches, a carriage house, kitchen, smoke house, stables for eight horses, barn with negro quarters, &c. Also a good size country store, and a brick stove for business. The place is situated three miles south of Four hole bridges in Orangeburg County, fourteen miles from Orangeburg, C. H. near the five chop road, in a healthy and thickly settled country. The neighbors are the best and kindest people. Laborers are plentiful and well behaved. It is one of the most desirable and pretty places in this section of the country. Price $2,500 one half cash balance in one and two years time. The buildings would now cost more than $2,500 to construct them.

ORANGEBURG ACADEMY.
 The generous patronage, and growing favor, which this Academy has received, since its foundation, has afforded great encouragement to the undersigned, and convinced them that industry and application on their part is all that is now necessary to render a permanent success, what heretofore may have been regarded as an experiment.
 They set out with the determination to fully fill the educational wants of the community, and to the accomplishment of this end, they now renew their promise to devote all their energies and abilities.
 All the latest improvements in text-books, modes of instruction, mechanical appliances and discipline will be carefully selected and judiciously introduced. In fact, no pains will be spared to make the ORANGEBURG ACADEMY rank favorably with the best in the State or elsewhere.
 Boys will be prepared for College of business, and young ladies given a finished course of instruction.
 The male and female departments are kept strictly separated, except during recitations.
 Pupils can enter at anytime, and those living at a distance will be furnished with reasonable board in good families.

To the Orangeburg Public.
 Please allow us to call your attention to, and with no small feeling of pride, request your careful perusal of the following:
JAMES S. HEYWARD,
A CARD.

To the Tax-payers and Conservative Citizens of Orangeburg County.
 The undersigned, without any solicitation on the part of the Editor and Proprietor of the Orangeburg Times, deem it our duty to urge the claims of this paper on the citizens of the county.
 It is passing strange, that men who are being robbed daily, should ignore the claims of this Journal, and continue their support of another paper, conducted in the interest of those who are robbing them, and whose pages are filled with attacks of themselves and all that they hold dear—giving the cold shoulder to this paper, whose sole object is to advance their interests? And yet such is the case!
 It is, perhaps, not generally known, that little, if any, of the public printing (which is a county paper's chief support!) is given to it, and hence its claims upon you is all the greater on that account.
 Farmers, subscribe to the Times!
 Merchants, advertise in this paper!!
 Be assured that its career is anxiously watched by the party in power, and that its successor's failure will be a sure index of the feeling of our people.
 Let this paper fail, and no other proof will be needed, that we do not care to be freed from the vultures who are gnawing at our very vitals!

Is it right? Is it manly; to complain of the yoke, under which we are suffering, and not raise a hand in our own behalf? Support, then, the only organ of the conservative party in the county, thereby aid yourselves!
 We desire, in conclusion, to recommend to your confidence the present Editor and Proprietor—we believe that your interests can safely be intrusted to his hands! (Signed)

The Alline
 An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the most valuable periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Industry.
Not for Sale in Book or News Stores.
 THE ALLINE, which has been published for the past five years, is a truly interesting, characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of light and graceful literature and a fine collection of the finest specimens of artistic skill in black and white. Although each numbered number affords a fresh pleasure, the volume as a whole is most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior character, and compare with rivals of a similar class, THE ALLINE is a unique and original combination of form and unapproached, absolutely without parallel in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot afford to neglect the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times the cost; and then, there are the Chromos, etc.

ART DEPARTMENT.
 Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last Fall, when THE ALLINE assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the circulation has more than doubled during the last year; proving that the American public appreciate, and will support a sincere effort in the cause of art. The publishers, anxious to justify the confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop and improve the work; and the plan for the coming year, on the 1st of the monthly issues, will astonish and delight even the most sanguine friends of THE ALLINE.
 The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent artists of America.
 In addition, THE ALLINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success, and greatest general interest, avoiding, however, to become familiar, through plate copies, of copies of any kind.
 The quarterly tinted plates, for 1873, will reproduce four of John S. Davis' incomparable sketches, appropriate to the four seasons. These plates, appearing in the issues for January, April, July and October, should be alone worth the price of a year's subscription.
 The popular feature of the volume, the illustrated "Christmas" number will be completed.

To possess such a valuable epitome of the art world at a cost so trifling, will command the subscriptions of those who have a taste for the country; but, as the illustrations and attractions of THE ALLINE can be obtained, in proportion to the numerical increase of its subscribers, the publishers propose to make a further doubly sure, by the following unparalleled offer of PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1873.
 Every subscriber to THE ALLINE, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive, without additional charge, a pair of beautiful oil chromos, after J. J. Hill, the eminent English painter. The picture, entitled "The Village Belle," and "Crossing the River," are 14 x 20 inches—reproduced from 25 original plates, requiring 25 impressions and tinted to perfect each picture. The same chromos are sold for $30 per pair, in the art stores. With this determination of its competitors to keep THE ALLINE out of the reach of competition in every department, the publishers intend correspondingly ahead of any other paper, by offering other periodicals. Every subscriber will receive a certificate of the amount of the premiums, guaranteeing that the chromos delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished the agent; or the money will be refunded. The distribution of pictures of this kind, and to the subscribers to a five dollar periodical, will mark an epoch in the history of art, and, considering the unprecedented cheapness of the price for THE ALLINE (such the marvel), little short of a miracle, even to those best acquainted with the achievements of five dollar papers and improved mechanical appliances. (For illustrations of these chromos, see November issue of THE ALLINE.)

 will continue under the care of HENRY STODDARD HENRY STODDARD, who is considered the best writer and poet of the day, and will strive to have the literature of THE ALLINE in a way in keeping with its artistic attainments.
TERMS.
 $5 per annum, in advance, with 10 Chromos free.
 THE ALLINE will be sent for sale only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rates; each five dollar number will be sent to the publishers direct, and the local agent, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the five-dollar signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.
AGENTS WANTED.
