LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE COUNTY.

To change Contract Advertisements, notice must be given before Monday noon.

ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted at the rate of one dollar and a half per square for the first insertion, and one dollar per square for each subsequent insertion.

Henceforth, all Legal Advertisements, of County Interest, whether notices or others, will be published for the benefit of our readers whether they are paid for or not.

National Democratic Nominations.

FOR PRESIDENT: HORACE GREELEY, OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT: B. GRATZ BROWN, OF MISSOURI.

Without taking to ourselves the credit of affording to readers any peculiar delight by our editorials, we feel it incumbent to say that press of other matter has prevented our having any room.

The attempt of the Comptroller General and Treasurer to have another clipping of political wool has happily been frustrated, by the injunction of Judge Melton, while the leviathan Moses hugs his native slime, not yet developing in which quarter he proposes to attack the mesh of political difficulties by which he is encircled.

There are in the field several candidates for Congressman. The Dread R. K. Scott, Hon. D. H. Chamberlain, Honest John J. Patterson, Colored R. B. Elliott.

We present them to you each with the merit for which we deem him most conspicuous. Our interest in the success of either is only the distant one of a journalist.

Of the card we prefer the name of Mr. Chamberlain. We hear that he is an man of ability, so that in whatever direction he may exert himself it will be sensibly felt—if conservative he will help us greatly; if radical he will be an efficient instrument in punching out the rotten bottom of South Carolina politics.

It is therefore with a disgust not uttered devoid of cheer, that we propose to rebuke the wizards of our State as they are spouted for the seething of the political dragon, each putting in with Puritanic or Jewish incantation his own baneful curse of powder or herb.

We can at least tell you of the dose you may expect and possibly at times get an antidote for your stomachs.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT. CHARLESTON, Nov. 24, 1872. The county has passed quietly into hands of the Bolters, and all of the seed of that noble band of — brothers are now enjoying the fruits of their glance.

Commissioners have been buying down from Columbia by the acre, bonds have been filed, and the newly elected candidates will soon be giving the various modes in which they intend to "run the machine" of their respective offices.

Their chief (Bowen) is loud in his fair promises for the future and the only hope of the taxpayers is that he will maintain his word and that his satellites will follow his example.

vested. Ole Bull, the great violin virtuoso, is threatened here in one grand concert on Thursday (28th) assisted by several other artists. This, with a number of public society balls, etc., will constitute the amusements for the week.

Thursday is likewise to be kept as a general thanksgiving throughout the city. It is to be hoped that those who are in earnest about this will hit upon something for which the people of this state ought to be thankful to Grant and the Radical party.

Our Columbia Letter. FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT. COLUMBIA, Nov. 25th, 1872. To-morrow the Legislature convenes. The tax levy will probably be the first question considered by the Assembly; the injunction (no defendants appearing) of Judge Melton directed to county auditors and treasurers restraining the collection of taxes authorized and directed by J. L. Neagle, comptroller general, has so tied matters that the nimble fingers of the Assembly will be necessary to loose the Gordian Knot.

An empty treasury, an uncertain per diem, and the clamor from the destitute public institutions will doubtless quicken the action of those servants of the people. It's hard on Neagle and Parker that their little game of "seiving down" has been blocked, but it simply Scotch, not Kill the snake. It is rumored the tax is to be reduced; that is what we want; delay in collection is a poor substitute for a future instance. I can scarcely hope though judging from precedent, that the Legislature will neglect its individual interest for the public weal.

Great indignation has been expressed by his party that Judge Melton should consider the tax payers to the detriment of the treasury, and threats have been made that some of his bread and butter shall be taken from this bad boy on account of his naughty conduct. Now is the golden opportunity for the Assembly to win honor in the cause of reform, and prove "something" good may yet "come out of Nazareth." I understand, under the influence of the Mackey faction, that the Legislature may override the decision of the board of canvassers in the matter of the Charleston delegation, and a chance exists that the Bowinites be refused a seat. Conveying for the House and Senate offices goes on actively. S. J. Lee will probably be Speaker of the House, but the incumbents of office under the last Assembly will scarcely be changed.

Epizootic is on the decline, greatly to the relief of the travelling public, common carriers and fuel buyers. Diphtheria has appeared, but one death—a child—reported yet. United States Court met to-day in the State library. Mr. Clerk Horlbeck arranging all necessary forms prior to arrival of Judge Bond, which will be tomorrow. Judge Bond expected a week hence; a full complement of prisoners under indictment are here to occupy the time of the court.

I close this brief letter at a late hour, having used all diligence to give "currente calama" the various waifs of news which are the topics of the hour. Columbia seems agog with life. Main street is alive with pedestrians, and in every hotel one may see the busy newspaper men actively canvassing for the pabulum of the press. The Legislature is in the mouth of all. Speculation as to its course are rife; one can number politicians by the score, and suggestions of the quid nunes are thick as "leaves in Valambrosa." Your correspondent has essayed to give the readers of the Times out of this chaos what he deems reliable, and the hope is expressed that it prove of interest.

Mr. W. H. Walker at the office of the Daily Phoenix, is our duly authorized agent for the city of Columbia.

The Elliott Hook and Ladder Company hold their anniversary meeting on next Saturday evening, and will then give a supper at their new Hall.

Mr. Champy had his store broken into last Sunday night, by some colored men (from Charleston we understand). He lost about $70 or $80 worth of goods. The thieves have not been apprehended.

Parties taking the Times, who have failed to pay their subscription, will please send in their dues. Our undertaking is a new one and we do not pretend to be able to furnish any one our paper gratis. The paper will be discontinued to those who have not paid by the 15th of December. We will discontinue at once to any party notifying us that he does not want it, and turn his paper over to a new subscriber.

On Friday last at 11 o'clock a. m. the tournament was off near Col. Edwards place on the State Road as was advertised. There were present quite a large concourse of young people on pleasure bent, who enjoyed themselves very much.

There was one Herald and thirteen Knights. The victors were P. D. Tilley who took 1st prize, a Saddle; A. M. Rick-enbaker, took 2d prize, a Bridle; C. S. Edwards, took 3d prize a pair of Spurs; W. B. Way, took 4th prize a Saddle cloth; J. B. O. Betterson, took 5th prize a Tin Cup.

Hugo G. Sheridan Esq, was the orator of the occasion. We have never had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Sheridan but understand he acquitted himself as usual, in very happy style. Refreshments were furnished on the ground by the ladies, after partaking of which the merry friends adjourned to the building of the Washington Seminary and regaled themselves with a pleasant dance.

The Knight of the first prize surpassed all competition in taking six rings. At our tournament of last May Day, there were three competitors for the first prize and it was carried off with seven rings.

We were present at a very pleasant meeting last Saturday of the Orangeburg Agricultural Society. It was their Anniversary and after the reading and accepting of the Report of the Secretary Mr. Kirk Robinson, which contained the gratifying assurance that our Fair has been pecuniarily a success, the Society proceeded to the election of officers with the following result.

Dr. W. F. Barton President. J. L. Moorar, 1st Vice President. D. R. Barton, 2d. W. W. Wannamaker, " " Kirk Robinson, Secretary and Treas. L. R. Beckwith, Dr. John C. Holman, J. D. Trezevant, J. F. Izlar, James Stokes. Ex. Com. It must be pleasing to all citizens of our County to be assured by its members that the Society with its annual Fair is regarded as a prominent thing. Its existence cannot fail to impart and maintain throughout the County an energetic vitality among the Agriculturists who are its bone sinew and support as also the intelligence and refinement if not the political rulers of it. We believe our farmers will realize this fact and do their utmost to assist the President of the Society in carrying out his expressed desire of making our County Fair second to none throughout the State.

Upon being nominated the President thanked the Society for the compliment, saying also that he had served a year already and found the position so onerous as to render him desirous of retiring, but leaving the matter entirely to the Society if re-elected he would serve. He was re-elected as has been seen, and the members of the Society together with him appeal to each citizen of our County to assist in forwarding the interest of this home undertaking in any way possible.

Our Fair this year was a success in every way, and puts beyond question the fact, that if it enjoys the interest and support it deserves, Orangeburg will have established in her midst, one Institution of great public importance, in which her white southern citizens can take unalloyed pleasure and pride.

BUILDING MATERIAL.—In another column will be found the advertisement of one of the most extensive manufacturers of doors, sashes, and blinds, in the Southern States.
