

THE DARLINGTON NEWS
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28 1878
LOCAL ITEMS.

Twenty prisoners in the jail at present.
The sale of the forfeited lands commences next Monday.

A POSTAL CARD has just made a circuit of the world in 117 days.

We have purchased a new subscription book for 1879 and named it Cash.

We are requested to say that J. A. Smith will deliver a speech at this place Monday.

Mr. J. W. Williamson has received the appointment of Jury Commissioner for this county.

Our townsman Mr. Jno. E. Schmid, got his shoulder dislocated a few days since while working in his vineyard.

The market is supplied with excellent pork and beef, and occasionally we see a Christmas gobbler glistening round.

COTTON QUOTATIONS up to latest reports are as follows: Charleston, 9 1/2 @ 10; Wilmington, 8 1/2 @ 9; New York, 9 1/2 @ 10.

BOSTON CONGRESS will meet at its next meeting, which will be on the 28th of November, - see notice of secretary.

FABRICE seems to have ceased his dirty work. He is said to have been the instigator of Mr. J. J. Buchheit's arrest Tuesday night.

The stockholders of the Darlington Agricultural and Mechanical Fair Company will meet at the Fair Grounds on the 10th of December next.

The latest novelty in modern architecture is a house now in course of construction on Pearl street, with a roof so sharp that a sparrow-hawk could not light upon it.

A SPECIAL SESSION OF COURT, for the dispatch of unfinished business will begin on the second Monday in January, and continue two weeks if so much time be necessary.

The Register informs us that Mr. Jerome P. Chase, one of our Representatives, lost his trunk between the depot and hotel on his arrival at Columbia last Monday. This is rather a bad start, Mr. C., what's the matter?

REV. W. H. STRICKLAND has been conducting a protracted meeting in the Baptist church at this place since Tuesday night. There will be services twice a day the remainder of this week.

At a regular meeting of Hartsville Light Dragoons, on the 23rd instant, it was decided to discontinue drills until the first Saturday in April next at 8 o'clock P. M., unless called together sooner by the commanding officer. Sabers to be kept in order.

A TIMELY HINT.—At the beginning of the year 1879 we shall reappear the names of all "paid up" subscribers from our old book to a new one and those who are found to be in arrears will be discontinued. This is no joke.

For several weeks our columns have been scarcely crowded with advertising, making the quantity of general reading matter in our paper very small; but after this week we will be through with this rush of advertising, and our quantity of general reading matter will go back to its former standard.

THE COMMISSIONERS and managers of election for 1876 will call on Geo. W. Darlington they will be paid 47 per cent. of the amount due for their services in said election. The Legislature appropriated only five hundred dollars to pay expenses of this election and it cost eleven hundred—hence the deficiency.

SCHOOL BOOKS.—At a meeting of the teachers of this county, held in the Court House last Saturday, it was resolved to adopt the following books in the public schools: Reynolds' Reader, Swinton's History, Robinson's Arithmetic, Webster's Spelling Book, Swinton's World Book, Webster's Dictionary, Cornell's Geography, Quackenbush's Grammar and Composition, Appleton's Copy Book.

THE GREAT LONDON CIRCUS exhibited at Timmonville last Friday. The street parade did very well, the collection of animals was rather limited, the ring performance did not amount to anything, and upon the whole the circus was a sorry one. There was a large crowd of the curious on hand, however, and to spend their last dime for the sake of gratifying their curiosity. These were of all ages, sexes, sizes and colors—the old folks, of course, had to go "with the children to see the animals," and the young ones went to "hear the music."

THE ENFIELD ADVERTISER still continues its elegant portraits and biographical sketches of distinguished Carolinians and Southerners, having already had Calhoun, McNeill, Governors Hampton, Vance and Nicholls, and Generals Butler, Gary, and others. Printed on a new Colwell & Babcock Press, and using fine calendered news. It is the cheapest illustrated paper in America; only $2 a year. Address The Advertiser, Edgefield, S. C.

MARRIED.—On the morning of the 13th of Nov., 1878, at the residence of the bride's mother in Cumberland Co., N. C., by the Rev. J. Evans, assisted by Rev. A. McFadyen, Mr. W. A. McName of Darlington County, to Miss Flora C. McFadyen.

On the 21st of November, 1878, by Rev. William Breaux, Dr. Henry Y. Dubose, of Sumter, to Miss M. Anna Dubose of Darlington.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Belton, Anderson County, S. C., on Tuesday, 19th November, 1878, by Rev. J. S. Murray, Mr. C. S. McCullough, of Darlington, formerly of Anderson, and Miss Emma H. McCre, daughter of Mr. G. W. McCre.

Mortgage Sale.

By virtue of power in me vested by James Conner's Son's of the city of New York mortgagees in a certain deed of Chattel Mortgage made by A. A. Gilbert, mortgagor on the 10th day of May, A. D. 1877, and on the same day recorded in the office of the Register of Meuse Conveyances for said county, in book "Y. Y." page 456, wherein said A. A. Gilbert sells by way of mortgage to the said James Conner's Sons, the above described personal property, to better secure the payment of Two Promissory Notes by the said A. A. Gilbert to the said James Conner's Sons made, each for the sum of Two Hundred and forty dollars and eighty-eight cents, each dated the 10th day of May A. D. 1877, the one payable on the 1st day of January after the date thereof and the one payable on the 28th day of June after the date thereof, and each for value received.

I have this day, upon breach of proviso in the said Chattel Mortgage contained, sold by me the said Chattel Mortgage, and will particularly be for sale at public vendue on "I tell you" in December next, at the Court House of said county, during the absence of the Hon. J. CHARLES CONNER, Probate Judge.

I did not have time to call for James Conner's name on 15, 1878.—14s
