HARRY J. E. SCHMID having sold his place in town and contemplating removal, advertises at private sale, a lot of personal property. Read his advertisement for particulars.

Mr. H. P. Davis reports that he has failed to receive his copy of the News for the last three weeks. Will the postmaster at Ebenezer please look into the matter, and see that no one else gets it.

A most instructive and interesting article on "Dogs and their management" appears in the March number of Harper's Monthly Magazine, which is well worth the price of the number to all owners of fine dogs.

Knights of Pythias will be glad to hear that Dep. Sup. Chancellor Mustard, of Charleston, S. C., will visit Darlington Lodge, No. 7, K. of P., some time during the ensuing week, and exemplify the secret work of the order.

Mr. C. MOONEY desires to call attention to his line of wagons, which he claims to be the best, and cheapest in the market, and thinks that the public will sustain him in that belief, as exhibited by the constant demand for the Carolina Wagon, and the premium awards given them at the two last County Fairs. See his advertisements on cheap furniture, coffins and burial cases.

The following squib has been going the rounds of the country press: "Learned men tell us that in Latin the word editor means 'to eat.' In United States it means to scratch around like blazes to get something to eat."—Danville Report. There is a mistake somewhere. Which of the Latin students of the county can tell our readers what the mistake is.

At the last Convention of Darlington Lodge, No. 7, K. of P., two candidates were initiated in the Page Rank, and three applications for membership were read. H. Stenberger, Secretary of the Section, informed the Lodge that the insurance, $3,000 on C. C. John Woods, had been received and paid over to the widow of the deceased Knight.

THE members of the Darlington county delegation at the South Carolina College, who are mentioned on the "honor roll," at the recent intermediate examinations, are: Senior class, prominent, Ham. A. Hynes, B. F. Williamson, C. C. Wilson; Junior class, distinguished, D. F. Houston; Freshman class, proficient, W. A. Edwards and E. Lucas; special students, 1st year, prominent, H. A. Brunson.

On receipt of the news of the great fire in Wilmington, on Monday morning, C. Alexander, President of the Y. A. S. F. E. Co., after consultation with Mayor Ward, sent a dispatch to the Mayor of Wilmington, offering the services of the company, if needed. A reply was received from Mayor Hill, thanking the company for the tender of services, and stated that the danger was over.

THE Opera House on Friday night was the scene of a very pleasant occasion, when a full audience, the 2nd and 3rd classes of St. John's Academy, gave a very pleasant exhibition of their oratorical and histrionic powers. To the surprise of the students and the audience, Mr. Green, the Principal of the school, before the programme was opened, announced that he would give a prize to the student who made the best recital, and requested Geo. W. Brown, Esq., C. S. Nettles, Esq., and J. C. Wilcox, M. D., to act as judges, instructing them to mark on correctness, enunciation and style of delivery. The programme, printed copies of which were distributed, consisted of declamations, a dialogue, and a farce. During the evening the Darlington String Band, gave some of their best selections and added much to the occasion. Many of the students were enthusiastically applauded, and the number of bouquets sent on the stage showed that several of the boys had made an impression among the girls. In the dialogue "Banishment of Cataline," Master John E. Boyd, as Cicero, was a decided success. The farce, "Initiating a Granger," was well acted by all the characters, and was hugely enjoyed. Among the best of the declamations we noted Masters John B. Floyd, Evan J. Lide, Edward Coker, Samuel J. Reynolds and J. D. Rast. Between the two last, the audience seemed to be divided as to which would get the prize. At the conclusion of the programme Geo. W. Brown, Esq., was on the stage and announced that the committee, after mature deliberation and awarded the honors to Master John E. Boyd, and in a neat speech, delivered the prize, a set of Dickens' Works. For the classes as a body and individually, the proceedings were a complete success, and we congratulate them on the thorough manner in which their work was done, and on the very high compliment paid them, at the close, by their preceptor. We wish them much success in their examination this week.

An effort is being made to organize a B. I. and Loan Association in our town. Any one desiring information in reference to it will be furnished with the data by Mr. O. K. Rogers. These associations have done great benefit wherever they have been established, and one is needed in our town.

JOHN SAUL, Nurseryman, Seedsman and Florist of Washington, D. C., publishes his card in another column. From personal knowledge, we can most especially recommend this house to all who desire to get, not only well known, but all the new and most improved plants of all varieties. Some of the finest geraniums and other greenhouse plants grown by amateurs in our county, and taking the premiums at our Fair were bought of Saul. His prices, never very high, have been greatly reduced, so that you can get ten or a dozen of the finest varieties of geraniums for $1, and other plants in proportion. Send to him for a catalogue, and you will find his plants so cheap that you will not care to get cuttings from your neighbors, but will send to Saul and get well rooted, healthy plants.

Cartersville Items.—Garden sowing is now in order, but the weather is so bad that many prefer not to sow until later.

There have been several hundred bales of cotton more shipped from this place the past season than there were the season before.

The free schools are about closed up, and the children will now go home and forget what they have learned by the time they open again.

Mr. H. H. Carter and Miss Martha J. Scafe were united in the bonds of matrimony on the 11th instant. We wish them well.

Farmers have begun work on their farms with a vim. Many of them have planted over their oats and are now starting to put their rough manure down. Experience tells us that it is the best to put down green cotton seed during this month or very early in next month.

Ebenezer Items.—Farmers need sunshine and money.

Spring poetry and daisies will soon be here.

Growing oats is an unsolved problem with agriculturists. When to plant is the chesnut bar for them to open.

A new innovation has been introduced in our free school; the bad boy is required to shed his winter jacket before the rod is applied. Civilization is going backward.

Although many drawbacks have overtaken the farming in general since the new year has set in—small grain killed out, the second planting not heard from—yet all this has not discouraged the farmer. Every man of them is sticking to his work like horse-dies to a young mule, earnest in their endeavors to conquer all difficulties in the way of their lying on themselves in the near future.

Stokes Bridge.—What has become of your facetious correspondent from Ebenezer?

Our farmers are driving ahead, with indomitable perseverance, hauling guano and preparing for another big crop.

Hebron Academy, under charge of Prof. Dennis, is now a private school with as many pupils in attendance as the teacher can attend to.

Some of our young people have recently paid their debts to the hymeneal altar. Mr. Early Woodham was united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Miss Lula Woodham, by the Rev. E. T. Hodges, on the 14th instant.

Mr. Dove Pate, now of Bishopville, was married on the 17th inst., to Miss Dora, the accomplished daughter of Mr. John H. Huggins of Cypress, and next day took to wings of love, and carried his bride "over the river and far away." Darlington county thus loses two very amiable and worthy young people.

We would like to follow the example of our young friends in the matrimonial line, but—well, tell me the reason why.

Michael Welsh.

On Wednesday night, February 17, 1886, at his residence on Pearl St., Darlington, one of our good citizens passed away from us. In his 54th year, Michael Welsh, died from pneumonia superinduced by a wound received 23 years ago. Mr. Welsh was born in Breslau, Prussia, October 19, 1832, and came to New Orleans, some years before the war, where he lived until June 4, 1861, when he enlisted in Co. D, Capt. Buckner, 6th Louisiana, G. S. A., for the war. He was in Virginia in the great battles, with Jackson on some of his masterly flank movements, and as a private, received numerous wounds, the marks and effects of which he bore to the day of his death. At Brantow Station, Va., August 17, 1863, he received a rifle ball wound through his right leg, and was sent to Chimborazo Hospital, at Richmond. Being disabled for field service, after his recovery, he was detailed in the Commissary Department of the hospital, and was noted for his promptness in performing his duties. Here he made many friends, and remained until September 26, 1864, when he was honorably retired from service with the pay and emoluments of a soldier.

New Orleans, his adopted home, being in the hands of the United States forces, he received an offer from a South Carolina soldier of Darlington, Private H. McFledge of Co. I, 18th S. C. V., to go to his mother's home, near Timmonsville, and remain there as long as he wished, without expense. Mr. McFledge also gave him a letter of recommendation. Thus Private Welsh having given his best days in the service of the Confederacy, set out for the home of his friend's mother. Arriving at Timmonsville, and exhibiting his letter, he was immediately given employment by Mr. C. J. Coney, a civilian. He remained at Timmonsville for several years, and afterwards was deputy for Sheriff W. B. Timmons, and then Judge of Probate, and member of the Board of Commissioners of the county. He afterwards went into merchandise in Darlington and married Miss H. Sternberger, sister of Mr. H. Sternberger, a prominent merchant of our town, who survives him with five children. In all the different relations of life towards his fellow citizens he was genial, generous and sympathetic. Patriotism for his adopted country, the South, was so strong that it seemed born of his nature. We remember the active and earnest part he took in the work of the Ladies' Monumental Association, and the pleasure he took in having his annual reunion of the "6th Louisiana," when he would meet with Co. I, 18th S. C. V., at their re-unions. He was a member, at the time of his death, of Benton Lodge, No. 26, A. F. M., at Timmonsville, of Darlington Lodge, No. 1301, K. of H., at Darlington, in which he was insured for $2,000, and of Keshel Shiel Bassel and Benai Berith, in Charleston, for $1,000 in each. On Saturday morning his body, escorted by the Knights of Honor to the depot, was carried to Charleston and interred in Beth Eliah Cemetery, Rev. David Perry officiating. Many of our citizens will miss the genial smile and hearty welcome which Michael Welsh was wont to give them, and when as each year rolls round the women of our City by the Sea, strew flowers on the last resting place of those who have answered to their last roll call on earth, no flower will touch a sod covering the remains of a braver soldier than that which will keep green the memory of Private Welsh, of Co. D, 6th Louisiana, C. S. A.

Which Plan? The question as to whether they shall make nominations for the coming campaign is already agitating the minds of the people of Chester county. This is pretty early to begin to show up such matters. Better think about crops first, and politics afterwards. There will be plenty of time for politics later on.—Sunter Advance.

All Dead. The recent death of B. Gratz Brown carried off the last of the national candidates of 1872—Grant, Greeley and Wilson having gone before. And now the death of Horatio Seymour carries off the last of the candidates of 1868, the others being Grant, Colfax and Blair.

The Hon. Kemp Battle, president of the University of North Carolina, has accepted the invitation to deliver the annual address before the next graduating class of the South Carolina College. The Rev. Charles Stakeley, of Charleston, will preach the valedictory sermon.

MARRIED. On the 7th of February, at the residence of Mr. Guiney, by Rev. P. B. Jackson, Mr. Ralph Hicks to Miss Bertie Guiney; all of Darlington.

On the 9th of February, at the same place, by Rev. P. B. Jackson, Mr. Bealer Blackman to Miss Dora Oakley; all of Darlington.

On the 10th of February, at the same place, by Rev. P. B. Jackson, Mr. H. W. Hicks to Miss Donna Roscoe; all of Darlington.

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA. By Ethel C. Baker, Esq., Probate Judge. Whereas, Mrs. Julia W. Baece has made suit to me, to grant unto her Letters of Administration of the estate and effects of Dr. Thos. W. Baece, deceased. These are therefore to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and creditors of the said Dr. T. W. Baece, dec'd., that they be and appear before me in the Court of Probate, to be held at Darlington, C. H., on Friday, March the 6th, next, after publication hereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any they have, why the said Administration should not be granted.

Given under my Hand, this 18th day of February, Anno Domini, 1886. E. C. BAKER, Probate Judge. Feb. 25, '86—21

A SUPERB Fish Producers and Tonic! Hear the Witnesses!! 100 to 200 Pounds!!! An Atlanta Man's Weight and Appetite. "I took four bottles Guinn's Pioneer and gained 16 pounds in flesh. My appetite has improved. I have procured a lot for my family. Yours respectfully, O. E. THOMPSON, 60 Humphries St., Atlanta, Ga. A MAN OF SIXTY-EIGHT WINTERS.
