

THE DARLINGTON NEWS.

THURSDAY, MARCH 25, 1886.

DEVONALD D. EVANS, EDITOR.

On Monday last, D. H. Traxler, County Treasurer, made a settlement, at Columbia, with the Comptroller-General. The total State tax charged was $24,744.36 Paid into the State Treasury $22,816.08, commissions $476, nulla bona $1,248.02, delinquent $204.26. This was a good showing for the county. Mr. Traxler made the second settlement, Chester being the first. In Chester there were no real estate executions. In Darlington there were 1,300 executions in all; so that our treasurer has made rapid and thorough work, and it is another evidence that he is the right man for this onerous office, and one of the best county treasurers in the State. The settlement from the fiscal year 1884-5 leaves a balance of about $3,350 to the school fund and $4,500 to the county fund, which shows that the county and school funds, under the admirable management of the last few years have gained just those amounts towards making up for the "lost tax year." The school fund balance has paid the expenses of the public school system for one to two months in the several townships, and the county fund balance pays the witness and jurors' tickets, the expenses of the poor house and jail. The county owes not a dollar of debt, except what may have accrued during the current year and which will be paid by the tax collected next fall.

At the last session of the Legislature, an Act was passed, imposing on the Comptroller-General the duty of ascertaining and reporting at the next session of the Legislature the names and conditions of all such citizens of the State, who by reason of injuries received in the late war are unable to earn a livelihood. We publish a circular from the Comptroller-General asking for such names. He has sent the necessary blanks and instructions to Mr. J. N. Garner, clerk of court. This action of the Legislature seems to tend to a pension act, and is a just, though tardy recognition on the part of the State, of service rendered in her hour of need. We hope each and every reader of the NEWS, will report the name of every soldier in the late war, either to us or to the clerk of court, so that the list for Darlington may be completed as soon as possible.

We begin this week to publish from the Baptist Courier, a series of articles on the South Carolina College, by Prof. W. J. Alexander. The argument in favor of the College and free tuition as presented by the writer is well worth attentive consideration. The articles are well written, in terse, good English and deals in plain language with the subjects under discussion.

For Disabled Soldiers. OFFICE OF COMP GENERAL, COLUMBIA, S. C., Feb. 11, '86. The General Assembly, at its last session, passed an Act, instructing the Comptroller-General, "to investigate and report to the next session of the General Assembly the names and condition of all citizens of this State who are unable to earn a livelihood, by reason of wounds or other disabilities, incurred while in the service of the State, during the war between the States."

In order to carry out the provisions of this Act, the Comptroller-General has prepared blank forms of application, and sent the same to the Clerks of Court, from whom they may be obtained; and he requests that all citizens of the State, embraced within the provisions of the Act, will as soon as possible forward to him their names with all of the information required, on the blank. The applicant must be a citizen of the State, and must have incurred the disability while in the service of the State. He must file the necessary certificates to show that he is unable to earn a livelihood, by reason of physical disability and that this disability is the effect of wounds (or injury) received while in the service of the State.

As the Act provides for a list of such persons only, it will be a waste of time, resulting only in disappointment, to any others who may take the trouble to send their names. W. E. STONEY, Comptroller-General.

Nuts for Meats to Crack. (Cor. News and Courier.)

I ask a small space in your paper that I may give my views and opinions as a negro. My education is very limited, so are my opportunities, but one thing I can say, and I am proud of it, I am true to my principles and to the Democracy. When in 1876, (I had been a Democrat long before,) I saw that our State was going to ruin, and was being robbed and plundered by the carpet-bagger and scallawag, who had opportunities, and who incited the poor ignorant negro to deeds of murder, robbery and the torch, I with many others of my race elected the noble Gen. Hampton to establish honest home rule. This act I have never regretted.

It was known then, it is known now, what we have had to contend with. Excluded from any association with our own race and from that of the whites, for I never wished, desired or expected social equality, I only asked justice, and I can say truthfully I have received it. I see that Mr. Ben Tillman has called for a convention of farmers to meet in Columbia on April 29. I have been reading his letters, and some things he says are good, and some things he says seem to be right, but he says that they ought never to have been said. He says that 76 per cent. of our population are farmers. Now we negroes are farmers, if we are anything, and as there are a great many more negroes than whites, it seems to me that we negroes should send a large number of delegates to the Convention. This is a platform on which all the citizens ought to stand without any social equality. But as Mr. Tillman does not want the politicians, lawyers, editors, mechanics, manufacturers, &c., it may be that he doesn't want the negro. Nevertheless it is a subject in which we all are deeply interested.

Just here permit me to say that I fear that farmers, both white and colored, can never hope to succeed so long as they give a lien on their crops and continue to buy provisions and make all cotton. Just here is where all the trouble comes in. Whenever I see a farmer, white or black, who raises his own provisions and has his cotton crop as a surplus, I find him prosperous and never hear him complain of taxes and hard times. Men who want to pull down everything want office, or they have given liens and mortgaged their farms.

In my poor way there are some things I can't see into. May be you can give me the reasons why it is so. Every election year the Convention meets and nominates men for office, and we go round the meetings and hear the speakers praise the candidates; say they are true men, tried men and honest men, and that we all must support them, and must never let the State go back into the hands of thieves and robbers. And just before the next nomination they tell us that these men must be turned out of office, they may get to stealing or that they have stolen the people's money. Well, if this is so, (I don't believe a word of it,) why don't they have them tried by the Courts. I could write more, but I don't know that a negro has any business writing for the papers, if he is a Democrat. A NEGRO DEMOCRAT. Trenton, S. C., March 18.

A Card. Having accepted a position with Mr. S. A. Woods, I will be pleased to have my friends call on me there. The experience which this house has, will enable me to give them entire satisfaction. F. R. RHODES. March 25, '86.

Card of Thanks. I desire to return my sincere thanks to the congregation of Bethlehem Baptist Church and other citizens of Timmonsville for their generous and unexpected "pounding" on Thursday, March 18. It is an act fully appreciated, not only for the substantial benefits conferred, but for that kindly sentiment towards me inducing it, and the generous spirit in which it was carried out. I take it as an evidence that in my ministry among them, I have, to some extent, worked as best I could for the cause of Christ, and his people. May our brotherly love always continue, and our hearts be sanctified to our Master's work, and may the blessing of God ever be with our people is the sincere prayer of D. M. PEARCE. Pastor, Beth. Bap. Church, Timmonsville, S. C. Feb 20, '86

Colored Emigrants in Trouble. (From the Birmingham, Ala., Iron Age.) On Tuesday night, seventy-five negroes landed in the city from Atlanta to work on the Georgia Pacific Railroad extension works. The negroes were from South Carolina and Georgia, and had been sent here by contractors to work on the forty two mile gap. Their destiny was Coalburg. When the negroes arrived they suddenly slipped away from the man who had them in charge. They are now separated and scattered about the city. The cause of the queer action of the negroes is somewhat sensational. They say that the contractors promised to pay one dollar and twenty-five cents per day for labor, give them a house to live in, and a drink of whiskey every day. When the negroes reached the city some one told them that they would be paid only ninety cents a day for labor and they would have to pay fifty cents a day for house rent; that the contractors would take them one hundred miles in the woods and leave them to be eaten up by wild beasts, and that out there the white men lived on the little negroes that were brought out to the works. And as for whiskey a drop was never seen in that community. This so frightened the ignorant darkeys they refused to leave the city, saying they had much rather starve in town than live on pine-tops and run the risk of being eaten up by wild animals. How the negroes can be gotten together again is a mystery.

Letter of Thanks. TIMMONSVILLE, Feb. 22, '86. Mr. J. F. Winburn: DEAR SIR—The pictures you made for my children came duly to hand last week, and must say that they are the best I have ever seen taken in a country place. I herewith tender you my thanks for your good work and fine taste in arranging the sitting. With my best wishes for your future welfare in business, I am, yours truly, CHAS. HAMEL.

Go and be taken before Winburn moves.

EBENEZER. —Miss Benlah McCall's school closes this week.

—This week will finish corn planting in this section.

—B. R. Tillman is a "yard wide and all wool," many to the contrary notwithstanding.

—Rev. G. B. Moore will preach to the Ebenezer congregation every 2nd and 4th Sunday afternoons during the present year.

—Dogwood blossoms will be the fashionable floral decoration for the shirt front of the backwoods dude the coming season.

—Mr. Bissel, of Florence, has leased the store and lot at Ebenezer depot, and will sell his customers anything from a mouth organ to a sugar-cured ham. May he prosper.

—We deny being mercenary and do not propose to barter our franchise, but the office-seeker who proposes with a first-class coon dog before him is ripe, will strike a tender cord in our anatomy.

CARTERSVILLE. —The farmers are planting corn.

—Rev. S. M. Richardson pastor of the Baptist Church have been quite sick recently.

—Mr. James Ham of this section and Miss Anna Parson of Williamsburg county were united in the bonds of matrimony on the 11th inst.

—Rev. D. X. Lafar, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, has resigned. His resignation will go into effect after the 1st Sunday in April.

—Prof. Lanfins has opened a private school at this place. We hope the people in the section will give him their liberal support.

—Farmers are driving ahead with their work trying to make up for lost time. The weather seems to favor their progress.

—Our young enterprising friend Mr. W. L. Haynie has secured a situation as baggage master on the W. C. & A. R. R. We certainly wish him well and he may prove the right man in the right place.

LAMAR. —Our merchants are receiving their spring goods.

—A neighbor says his pigs are hide-bound and growing smaller every day. He can't account for it.

—By the time this goes to press some of our seed corn will be going into mother earth.

—Mr. Wm. Reynolds who has been a great sufferer for several months with lung disease, is now lying very low.

—Our fellow-townsmen, Mr. G. W. Stith, "set up" on the 15th inst., with a school at Lamar. The prospects for a full house are said to be good.

—Mr. D. C. Reynolds has a dog about 18 years old. The only way we account for this, that he has been well fed and never had to smell around at night to get raw eggs to eat.

—We caught one of your Darlington boys out here last Monday morning with his Sunday clothes on. His excuses for being so far from business were very satisfactory and under the circumstances we ordered the guard to let him pass.

HAD you thought about what nice weather this is to have the children's photographs taken?

DIED. At his home in Springville, Darlington county, March 23, 1886, William Lide Hart aged 31 years. To moral qualities of a high order, in him were added the graces of Christian manhood. A noble spirit has gone to join the hosts who dwell in the great beyond. A useful citizen, a true man has left vacant a place hard to fill. Well may the young men of Darlington county emulate the example which he has left of that stern devotion to manly duty which should ever be the highest aim of the citizen. C. D. E.

Business Notices. EVERYBODY says Winburn can make the most perfect photographs ever made in Darlington.
