

DEVONALD D. EVANS. EDITOR.

The contest between labor and capital, now being exemplified in East St. Louis, between the Knights of Labor and Jay Gould, has resulted as many feared it would. On Friday last, in a contest between strikers and guards, the guards became frightened, fired into the crowd killing four men and one woman. Incendiary fires in the freight yards followed that night destroying an immense amount of railroad property. The Governor of Illinois has declared martial law in East St. Louis and several regiments of Illinois militia are stationed in that city. What the ultimate result will be, there can be no doubt. Law and order must be preserved, at all hazards for the common safety of the people. The contest when it comes to one of arms to prevent the destruction of property, will always result in favor of arms, especially when these arms are borne by citizen militia. The sympathies of the masses of our people are with the Knights of Labor in this whole movement and it is a great disaster to their cause. Although the action of the guards can be classed at little less than murder, the murderers will be tried by the courts and so will the incendiaries who destroyed railroad property. The question and the rights of corporations which produced such results will never be settled in this country until the questions are made matters of Legislative control.

The morning light of Ireland's freedom from the incubus brought on it by the Union, appears about to break. On Thursday last, Mr. Gladstone, gave in Parliament his "Irish plan." England, Ireland, and all sympathisers with the cause of Irish welfare had for weeks been kept in suspense, as to what policy or plan could be given to solve this momentous question. Mr. Gladstone boldly grasped the problem, gave it to the world in one of the best efforts of his life, and it is one that commands the support of both Liberals and Parnellites. In his introductory speech he gave the key to his scheme. A few extracts will suffice to give an idea. "The time has arrived when both honor and duty require Parliament to come to a decisive resolution. It should be our endeavor to liberate Parliament from the restraints under which, during late years, it has ineffectually struggled, and to restore legislation to its unimpeded course. It is our duty to establish harmonious relations between Great Britain and Ireland on the footing of the free institutions in which Englishmen, Scotchmen and Irishmen have a like interest.

"Since the year 1833, only two years have passed without coercive legislation for Ireland, and in spite of this the law continues to be disregarded because it is invested in the eyes of the Irish with a foreign aspect. For further coercion to be successful it would require two conditions, the antecipation of the Government and the secrecy of public transactions. [Parnellites cheer]. The mainspring of the law in England is felt to be English, in Scotland to be Scotch, but in Ireland it is not felt to be Irish. The first condition of civilized life in Ireland demands the peaceful conduct of the Government in law and sympathy therewith. The problem, therefore, before Parliament at the present time, is to reconcile imperial unity with diversity of legislatures. "The political equality of the three countries must be recognized, therefore there must be an equitable distribution of imperial funds. Peculiar circumstances existing in Ireland also make it necessary to establish a safeguard for the minority in that country. The Government will be obliged to consider the class connected with the land and relation which they will sustain with the Protestant ministry. As Ireland is to have domestic legislation, it will therefore be impracticable for Irish representatives to come here.

"The intention of the Government bill is that the Parliament at Dublin shall be a dual body. It is to be composed of two orders, each of which shall have power to veto the Acts of the other. The first order will include 103 members, the second order 206. Twenty-eight of the present Irish peers will continue to sit in the House of Lords, and they will be granted the option to have life seats in the first Irish order. The office of viceroy of Ireland will not be discontinued. The bill intends that the viceroy shall remain and that office shall hereafter be non-political; that is, the incumbent of the office will not be expected to retire with the downfall of the British minister.

"The bill empowers the Queen to delegate to the viceroy such of her prerogatives as she may choose. "The Irish constabulary will remain under the same authority as at present. The bill provides that the Parliament shall have no authority to establish or endow any particular religious sect. It will be empowered, however, to deal with laws affecting trade and navigation. The bill will preserve the fiscal unity of the Empire, but the entire proceeds arising from customs and excise duties in Ireland will be held for the benefit of that country. These funds are to be used for the discharge of Irish obligations; any balance which may remain after this is to remain in the Irish exchequer. The provisions of the bill vest in the Irish Legislature the general power of imposing taxes. "It is proposed that the maximum duration of the Irish Parliament shall be five years. It shall have no power to interfere with the prerogatives of the Crown, such as the army, navy or other armed forces. It shall have nothing to do with foreign or colonial affairs."

Harmony Presbytery.

The semiannual meeting of this body was held at the Presbyterian Church beginning Friday night and closing Monday night. After religious services, the Rev. W. S. Bean, Moderator, preached from St. Matthew x. 40: "He that receiveth you receiveth Me, and he that receiveth Me, receiveth Him that sent Me."

The Presbytery was then called to order. A letter from Rev. H. C. DuBose, missionary in China, was read. After calling the roll, 40 churches being represented, Rev. T. C. Whaling was elected Moderator, with Mr. Wm. Durant as Secretary. Rev. J. G. Law, pastor of the church, then extended a hearty welcome to the Presbytery in behalf of his congregation and the citizens of Darlington. On motion the first half hour of each session was to be devoted to religious exercises.

On Saturday morning after religious services by the Moderator and the Rev. W. W. Mills, the session was opened for business.

A report from the committee to organize a church at Little Rock was read. Also from Midway of the installation of the Rev. Mr. Bishop. Mr. Wm. Frazier, who had asked to be placed under the care of the Presbytery, now came forward and was examined. After examination the Moderator informed him that he had been received and that he would be assisted by the Presbytery in the prosecution of his studies for the service of the ministry. Wm. Workman applied for a license to preach. It was ordered that he be examined by the committee for that purpose.

The report on Sabbath schools was referred to a committee consisting of the Rev. W. W. Mills and H. G. Gilland.

The following standing committees were appointed: Devotional Exercises—The Rev. J. G. Law and W. E. James. Narrative—The Rev. James McDowell, the Rev. A. G. Gilland and Elder J. E. Shaw. Finance—Elders W. L. T. Prince, J. B. Jennings and J. M. Drake. Judicial—Rev. J. S. Cosby, the Rev. W. C. Smith and Elder H. H. Wilson.

Bills—The Rev. W. S. Bean, the Rev. H. M. Brearley, and Elder J. T. McFadden.

Minutes of the Synod—the Rev. N. W. Edmunds, the Rev. E. G. Smith, and Elder J. A. Buddin. Sabbath-schools—The Rev. D. S. McAllister, the Rev. A. G. Gilland, and Elder P. D. Snowden.

Report of Executive Committee—the Rev. J. E. Dunlop, the Rev. J. G. Richards and Elder J. T. Walsh. Evangelistic Committee—the Rev. W. J. McKay, the Rev. W. W. Mills, and Elder W. L. T. Prince.

The minutes of the last meeting of the Harmony Presbytery, at Hopewell Church, were read and approved.

The report of the executive committee was adopted. The report of the evangelistic committee was read and referred to a committee of which the Rev. J. G. Law is chairman.

The report of W. E. James, treasurer, was received as information. A motion was carried to devote a short time to devotional exercises. There was prayer by the Rev. J. S. Cosby.

After these devotional exercises reports were read from the several churches in the Presbytery.

The next meeting of the Harmony Presbytery was ordered to be held at Manning on Friday before the second Sunday in October.

During the day Rev. P. B. Jackson, of the Methodist Church, and Rev. G. B. Moore, of the Baptist Church, were introduced and invited to seats on the floor.

At night services were held, Rev. E. G. Smith preaching from the text, "And ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free."

On Sunday the Methodist congregation united with the Presbyterians, so that there were no services at that church. Rev. G. B. Moore being absent filling the pulpit at Ebenezer, Rev. W. W. Mills, of Camden, member of the Presbytery, preached at the Baptist Church by request, from Romans, xii. 11: "Not slothful in business, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord."

At the Presbyterian Church services were conducted by Rev. J. S. Cosby with sermon by the Moderator, from Psalms viii. 4: "What is man that thou art mindful of him, and the son of man that thou visitest him?" After the sermon, then followed the communion services with the Lord's supper.

In the afternoon a mass meeting of all the Sunday schools was held at the Presbyterian Church. At the opening of this meeting a chorus of one hundred and fifty voices joined with the children in singing the Trinity hymn, "Holy! Holy! Holy!"

After prayer by the Rev. P. B. Jackson, of the Methodist Church, the children were addressed by the Rev. W. L. Bean, pastor at Florence; Gen. W. L. T. Prince, elder from Cheraw; the Rev. D. X. Lafar, pastor at Sumter, and Jos. T. Walsh, elder from Marion. During the service the hymns, "Bringing in the sheaves" and "My latest sun is sinking fast," and others of Moody and Sankey's collection, were sung. After prayer by the Rev. D. S. McAllister, the meeting was dismissed with the doxology and benediction by the Rev. D. X. Lafar.

At 8 o'clock, services were again held. The anthem "Softly now the light of day" was sung by a select choir. The Rev. J. G. Richards, the evangelist of the Presbytery, preached from St. Luke, xv. 18: "I will arise and go to my father."

Monday morning, Presbytery was opened with the usual services. Minutes of last meeting read and approved. Matters of routine business occupied the session for some hours.

At 11 o'clock, Mr. Workman preached his trial sermon from 2nd Cor. v. 21.

The petition of Rev. J. L. McLinn and his churches to dissolve the pastoral relation, was granted. Mr. McLinn goes from Centre Point, Darlington, and Turkey Creek, Kershaw, to a church in Chester.

Rev. D. X. Lafar reported a call from Bethab, but requested to return the call to the Presbytery.

Dr. J. Leighton Wilson gave a report of his Evangelistic work in the counties of Marion, Williamsburg and Clarendon. After other routine work, a recess was taken until 5 o'clock, after prayer by Rev. E. G. Smith.

At the afternoon session, much routine work was accomplished. Rev. D. S. McAllister made a report on Sunday-schools, showing 1,117 children enrolled, average attendance 891; number of teachers 161, average attend. 125; 59 Sunday school pupils received into the Church since last report; largest school at Summerton, 105; smallest school at Brewerton, 6 pupils. Report adopted. The commissioners elected to the General Assembly to meet in Augusta, Ga., are, Revs. W. W. Gregg and Jno. G. Law, with alternates Rev. J. G. Richards and T. C. Whaling. Elders, Dr. J. B. Jennings and Dr. J. A. Mays; alternates, W. L. T. Prince and James S. Thompson.

At the request of the people of Augusta, an effort was made to send, as far as possible, the same delegates who met there 25 years ago.

An amendment to the constitution, empowering foreign Evangelists to ordain ministers, did not meet with approval of Harmony.

Monday night after prayer by Rev. D. X. Lafar, the missionary meeting was organized. A letter from Rev. H. C. DuBose was read and addresses made by Rev. James McDowell, Rev. J. G. Law, Rev. W. W. Mills and Rev. H. M. Brearley. Licentiate Plowden was granted permission to reside outside the bounds of Presbytery. After complete examination of Mr. William Workman, his examination was sustained, and he was licensed by the Moderator.

A resolution of thanks to the Church and the people of Darlington was adopted and responded to by Rev. Jno. G. Law.

After completing the business and prayer, Presbytery adjourned at 12 o'clock.

A Wonderful Paper.

Our best exchange is the Graphic News of Cincinnati, acknowledged by the press to be the handsomest paper in the country, while negotiations with leading authors, just concluded, promise to make it the most attractive in a literary sense. The latest announcement in reference to it, and one that presages much rich reading matter for its patrons, is to the effect that droliest of humorists, Bill Nye and A. C. Wheeler (Nym Criukle), one of the most entertaining and pungent writers of the day, are to be regular contributors hereafter to its columns.

A rare treat in both illustrative and art sense will be given the public by that journal in its issue of April 10th, when it will present an exact reproduction of the famous "Peachblow" vase, about which there has been so much conflict amongst connoisseurs, and which sold at the recent Morgan sale, in New York, for $18,000. The picture will be of the same size and color of the original, necessitating five impressions, and will be a magnificent affair. It will be a fine colored supplement on plate paper.

The Rev. Dr. Milburn, the blind chaplain of the House of Representatives, no longer pays any attention to the suggestions recently submitted by Mr. Morrison, and has resumed his interesting course of lectures to Congressmen and all mankind in his opening prayers. Before the present session began it was a difficult matter to secure the attendance of a score of Representatives at opening prayer—now upwards of one hundred members are regularly in their seats to listen attentively to Dr. Milburn's utterances. Judge Reagan, of Texas, allows nothing but sickness to prevent him from being in the House during prayers. His seat is pretty well back on the Democratic side, so he stands with one hand to his ear while Dr. Milburn is praying, and endeavors to catch every word that falls from his lips. Representatives Crisp of Georgia, Beach of New York, Perry of South Carolina, Bland of Missouri, are among the most regular attendants at prayers.

RELIEF!

FORTY YEARS A SUFFERER FROM CATARRH, WONDERFUL TO RELATE!

"For forty years I have been a victim to Catarrh, three fourths of the time a sufferer from excruciating pains across my forehead and my nostrils. The discharges were so offensive that I hesitate to mention it, except for the good it may do some other sufferer. I have spent a young fortune from my earnings during my forty years of suffering to obtain relief from the doctors. I have tried patent medicines—every one I could learn of—from the four corners of the earth, with no relief. At last (57 years of age) I have met with a remedy that has cured me entirely—made me a new man. I weighed 128 pounds and now weigh 146. I used thirteen bottles of the medicine, and the only regret I have is that being in the humble walk of life I may not have influence to prevail on all catarrh sufferers to use what has cured me.
