

The Darlington News.

VOL. XXII, NO. 24.

DARLINGTON, S. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 13, 1895.

WHOLE NUMBER 1,062.

JUDGE GOFF REVERSED.

DECISION RENDERED BY JUDGE HUGHES YESTERDAY.

Attorney General Barber A grieved That The Federal Court Had No Jurisdiction in the Premises.

RICHMOND, Va., June 8.—Argument in the South Carolina registration case was begun in the United States circuit court of appeals yesterday before Chief Justice Fuller, Judges Hughes and Seymour.

Attorney General Barber opened for the state of South Carolina. The trend of his opening remarks was that the federal courts had no jurisdiction in the premises. He said it was set forth by Judge Goff that the petitioner was a colored man, and therefore the refusal of the laws of South Carolina to permit him to vote was in violation of the fifteenth amendment of the constitution.

Mr. Barber called the attention of the court to the fact that nowhere in the record did this fact—that the petitioner was colored—appear, though it was commented upon by attorneys in the lower court, and very prominently brought to the attention of Judge Goff when he granted the injunction.

The attorney general stated that instead of providing for a discrimination against any voter, the law set forth that any male citizen, regardless of race, color or condition, who had resided in the state for one year, was entitled to vote. It was not the law, he said, that caused Judge Goff to hold that voters were being denied their privileges, but it was the abuse of the law by people ostensibly working under it. He contended that the law should not be held responsible for derelictions of election officers.

Mr. Douglas made the opening speech for the petitioner. He prefaced his argument with the statement that though he and his associate, Mr. O'Bear, appeared in opposition to the cause of the state, they were in no sense against the state (except that they were endeavoring to bring about right). In addressing himself to the question of the jurisdiction of the U. S. court he said that if a wrong was committed, and the effort of that wrong was to disfranchise a voter, and thereby imperil the federal elections, he contended that a federal court in question had jurisdiction. The law, he said, was in violation of section 1, article 14, of the constitution of the United States. Mr. Douglas, continuing, directly attacked the law and argued that it was enacted simply for the purpose of disfranchising the negro vote.

Mr. Douglas was followed by Mr. O'Bear, his associate, whose argument was largely of a legal nature. He held that the court had jurisdiction to hear and act in the case, and then occupied some time in the citation of various authorities and cases bearing upon the matter at issue.

Gen. Edward McCree made the closing speech for the state. He began his argument by making a careful explanation of the registration laws, and showing that the circumstances which existed when they were enacted justified their passage. He compared them to various other registration laws and argued that they were not more unjust or discriminating than the laws of other states, which at various times had been declared constitutional, and thus, though the laws had been in existence since 1876, their constitutionality had never been questioned till 1895. He said if they had been as unjust as they are charged to be, they would not have been allowed to have remained so long unquestioned. He claimed that the whole case was a political one, and that Mills was only a figure head, and the speaker did not know so far as the record went, whether Mills was white or colored. General McCree closed his very brief argument by saying he thought the court was in full possession of all the facts and that it would be unnecessary for him to ask the attention of the court further.

The chief justice was asked if it were allowable to submit briefs but none were forthcoming. Three days were given each side in which to hand in their petitions. They court adjourned till Monday at 10 o'clock.

SOUTH CAROLINA WINS.

The Celebrated Registration Case Decided in the United States Court of Appeals.

RICHMOND, Va., June 13.—The celebrated South Carolina registration case was decided in the United States circuit court of appeals here yesterday. The state wins Judge Goff's famous injunction is dissolved and original bill will be dismissed. The decision of the court was announced by Judge Hughes shortly before three o'clock an outline of the court's position was given. Judge Hughes submitted a strong individual opinion and the order reversing Judge Goff was entered at once. None of the counsel who took part in the argument were present.

GLIMPSE OF PEACE AND UNITY.

The Political Outlook at Present in the Palmetto State.

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 12.—The outlook seems to be decidedly favorable for peace in the state. County by county in the state is falling into line, and either deciding to elect non-factional delegates to the convention, or doing what is better and far more assuring, passing resolutions, through the executive committee, pledging a division of the delegates to the constitutional convention. This seems to be the safer and more practical plan, for at the outset it brings about more confidence in the action of the committee and unites the white voters in a common interest. As to the platform, that is a matter for argument on the stump when the campaign for the election of candidates comes.

POSSIBLY A COLORED CHAPLAIN

Kentucky Representatives Helping Out That to Their Constituents.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—It may be that the next house of representatives will have a colored man for its chaplain. At least Representative-elect Walter Evans, of the fifth Kentucky district, is holding out that promise to the colored people who were very instrumental in his election. Mr. Evans is now working up the republicans of Kentucky for the support of the republican nominee for the governorship. He has among the people there a good many followers who are ministers of colored churches and while it is not known that he has promised any one of them his support, he has declined his belief that the fifty-fourth congress being republican in politics, should recognize the colored race by having a colored man as its chaplain. It is understood that all of the five republican representatives elected to the next congress from Kentucky concur with Mr. Evans in this view, and that this movement among the colored people is solidifying them in the support of the republican nominee.

WILL DEBS EVADE ARREST?

President of the A. F. U. Failed to Put in an Appearance at the Marshal's Office.

CHICAGO, June 12.—Debs did not put in an appearance at the marshal's office at 4 o'clock to surrender his liberty and he failed to be at the depot, although he knew what time the train started. The marshal, as the responsible officer was vexed but not afraid that the American railway union president would evade arrest. As the party was leaving for the depot, the marshal said: "Debs told me he had some business to attend to and some friends to see. If he does not turn up at the station I will send him along on the next train." Up to midnight, however, Debs had not made his appearance. The missing man arrived in the city from his Terre Haute home yesterday and went to the marshal's office arriving there at 11:30. He was in a jolly frame of mind and carried a bulging valise, which he left in care of the marshal when he went away in company of a friend.

DEBS' MEN WILL ARM OPENLY.

Organized Labor to Form a Part of the Militia.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 11.—Trade unionists have been called to attend a meeting to be held Thursday evening, June 13, to form a military organization to be composed exclusively of union men. The call, which was signed by "The Committee," is said to have had its origin with some of the leaders of the trade union movement. An open effort to connect the trade union movement with the militia of the state is a radical innovation. It occasions a good deal of excitement among the rank and file of the organizations, and everywhere the coming meeting is being talked about.

LEAGUE OF PRESS CLUBS.

The Meeting in Philadelphia Presided Over by Editor Clark Howell, of Atlanta.

PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—For the first time since its abandonment by city councils, the doors of the historic room Independence hall, which for years was used as the chamber of commerce, were thrown wide open yesterday to the delegates to the fifth annual convention of the international league of press clubs. Over 100 delegates and alternates assembled there at 10 o'clock and were met by Mayor Warwick who welcomed the visiting journalists to the "city of Brotherly Love." Clark Howell, of Atlanta, Ga., president of the league, eloquently responded.

JARVIS SPEAKS TO THE BOYS.

North Carolina's Ex-Governor Before the Tennessee University Students.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., June 12.—Ex-Governor Thomas J. Jarvis, of North Carolina, delivered the annual address before the graduating class of the University of Tennessee yesterday. His theme was Practical Education. The address was listened to by a large and cultured audience. The graduating exercises takes place today.

NEGROES BACK FROM LIBERIA.

Returns to America Declaring the Country Unsuited to Unacclimated Americans.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 10.—Several negro families who sailed from Savannah on the steamship Home for Liberia, as part of the colonists to that country, returned yesterday from the steamship Kensington from Liverpool. The negroes said that Liberia is unsuited to unacclimated Americans and that death from fever probably will be the lot of many of the colonists.

Ohio Coal Miners Will Resume Work.

COLUMBUS, O., June 11.—The coal miners of Ohio have by a vote of 5,091 to 4,351, decided to accept the offer of the operators to go to work at 51 cents per ton. The machine mining question, however, is still unsettled. The miners demand 3-5 of the picking rate and the operators offer only half.

Carlisle to Speak Again in Kentucky.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Secretary Carlisle will leave here the latter part of this week for Kentucky and will deliver an address on the financial question at Louisville on Friday or Saturday of this week. This will be his final speech in the present Kentucky campaign.

Plans for the Postal Congress.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Secretary Edward Hohn of the executive committee of the Universal Postal Union has notified Postmaster General Wilson that he will be in Washington on June 12 to discuss plans for the postal congress to be held here in 1897.

Knoxville, Cumberland Gap and Louisville.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., June 12.—Knoxville, Cumberland Gap and Louisville railroad will be sold by Special Master James M. McLaughlin, by 23d. Upset price $2,000,000.

TURPIE TO PRESIDE.

ORGANIZATION OF THE MEMPHIS SILVER CONVENTION.

Delegates From Many States Gather, With a Galaxy of Distinguished Statesmen.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 12.—Beginning today, the silverites are going to have a two days' convention here. There is a long list of speakers and there is to be some kind of an organization, but it is not settled, even at this hour, what kind it will be. If all the men who are slated to score the "gold bugs" speak, the convention will occupy nearer three days than two, and then, some of the aspirants for platform honors would have to content themselves with carrying their manuscripts in their pockets. At this time, it looks as if the organization would not pass through the temporary stage at all.

Senator Harris' Prominent Part.

Senator Harris will probably announce the permanent organization in a little speech and the convention will endorse it. The chances are that Senator Jones, of Arkansas, will be the permanent chairman. He has an oratorical voice, is a good general and a fine speaker. If he declines the honor, which is not likely, Senator Turpie, of Indiana, will raise the convention. W. N. Brown, chairman of the bimetallic league, will call the convention to order. Judge L. H. Estes, of Memphis, will make a brief speech of welcome to the assembled delegates. Then it is that Senator Harris is expected to announce the permanent officers of the convention. After organization the first speaker will probably be Congressman Joseph C. Sibley, of Pennsylvania. Beyond that, no man knows what is coming.

Some of the more important men down for speeches are ex-Governor L. Bradford Prince, of New Mexico; Senator David Turpie, of Indiana; Congressman M. D. Monroe, of Mississippi; Senator S. K. Jones, of Arkansas; W. M. Stewart, of Nevada; J. Z. George, of Mississippi; A. J. McLaurin, of Mississippi; George L. Snoup, of Idaho; and Alexander Delmar, of California. A. J. Warner, of New York, president of the American bimetallic league, Alva Adams, of Pueblo, Colorado, political economist and author, Senator Vest, of Missouri, and W. J. Bryan, of Nebraska, may also speak.

Delegates From Many States.

It is thought that not fewer than 2,500 delegates will be present. They will come from the following states and territories: Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, Missouri, Florida, Tennessee, Indiana, Montana, Illinois, Colorado, California, Idaho, Nevada, West Virginia, Kentucky, Kansas, and Nebraska. Senators Vest and Cochran, of Missouri, will head a delegation of fifty-two appointed by Governor Stone, who is a strong free silver man. Marion Butler, the populist senator from North Carolina, will be here but will not speak. W. H. Harvey, author of "Coin's Financial School," declined an invitation to come on the plea that he was busy preparing a debate to be had with Roswell G. Horr, of Michigan, but promised to come to Memphis later and address the bimetallic league. Ex-Representative Bland, of Missouri, has declined by telegraph.

Later.—It is decided this morning to make Turpie permanent chairman, and Senator Jones, of Arkansas, chairman of the committee on resolutions. The convention meets at 9 o'clock. The address of welcome will be delivered by Col. Casey Young, of Memphis.

GREAT RELIGIOUS CONGRESS.

Pan-American Association of Reform, Religion and Education to Meet.

TORONTO, Can., June 11.—It is proposed to hold in this city, in July, a Pan-American Congress of Reform, Religion and Education, the work of which will be done in sections devoted to education, philanthropy, woman's work, editing, publishing, missions, temperance, Sunday-schools, economics and other vital themes. The object is to bring together the workers of all churches, all the Christian teachers, writers, speakers and others who seek men to follow Jesus Christ.

TO ALLEGE THE HUNGER.

Appeal for Aid in the Name of Oklahoma's Suffering Humanity.

WICHITA, Kan., June 10.—An appeal for aid has been received here from Medford, Okla. The citizens are in a wretched condition so far as food and clothes are concerned, and pray for immediate relief. The appeal closes as follows: "In the name of suffering humanity we appeal to you for such food and other things as you can share to help the destitute, and that as soon as you possibly can, to appease the hunger of crying children."

Terrific Storm Sweeps Over South Georgia.

ATLANTA, June 12.—A terrific storm swept over North County in South Georgia early last night. The peaches, watermelons and other crops were destroyed over a large area. At Isabella houses were blown down and merchants' stocks were damaged by the flood which poured into stores unroofed by the wind.

Rhode Island Murderer Caught in Atlanta.

ATLANTA, June 8.—Dan Dalton, wanted in Providence, R. I., for murder, was arrested here last night. He killed a man named Hessel in 1892. Dalton came here a few months ago as Denver Ed Smith's manager. He admits his guilt.

Pugh Qualifies and Enters Upon his Duties.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—W. H. Pugh, of Ohio, who was yesterday appointed auditor of the treasury for the navy department, qualified yesterday and entered upon his new duties.

GOFF'S WORK ALL ANNULLED.

The Judge's Decree Fully Scored by the Dispatch, of Richmond, Va.

RICHMOND, Va., June 12.—The Dispatch says editorially today: The injunction of Judge Goff, whereby he undertook to rescind and annul the registration laws of South Carolina was dissolved yesterday by the United States circuit court of appeals. This is a great victory for the state of South Carolina and corresponding set back for Judge Goff, who in playing his role of Judge Bond, meets with the same ill-success that met Bond when he imprisoned Attorney General Ayres and Colonel Scott.

The opinion of the court is being prepared by Chief Justice Fuller and has not been filed. An outline of the court's position prepared by the chief justice was read yesterday and an able individual opinion written by Judge Hughes was also submitted, and a decree was entered annulling all of Goff's work.

We earnestly trust that the courts opinion will settle the law so clearly that Judge Goff will have no excuse hereafter for interfering with the operations of state governments as he has been doing in South Carolina and Virginia. In South Carolina he undertook to annihilate the registration laws of that state with one stroke of his pen. In Virginia he has stopped the machinery of the criminal law in important cases by forbidding the commonwealth's attorney of Wythe Co., to prosecute one Wadley, who is indicted there for embezzlement.

We include the hope that the chief justice's opinion in the South Carolina case will not only release South Carolina from Judge Goff's law, but will point the way to loose his hold upon Wadley or rather upon the officers of this commonwealth whose duty it is to prosecute Wadley under the indictment found against him about a year ago.

WILL NOT CALL A CONVENTION.

National Democratic Chairman HARRY SAYS THERE IS NO NECESSITY FOR ONE.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 8.—National Chairman William P. HARRY, has written the following open letter in answer to queries put to him regarding the possibility of a democratic national convention in the near future to take action on the subject of free silver.

I do not expect or intend to call a meeting of the Democratic national committee until next winter when it will meet for the purpose of fixing the time and place for holding the democratic national convention of 1896 until I shall have received the approval of the members of the democratic national committee.

I do not believe there is any necessity for a convention at this time on the contrary, I am of the opinion that to call one now would be harmful to the business interests of the country, and prejudicial to the welfare of the democratic party. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said:

I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said:

THEY WILL OPPOSE THE FIGHT.

Citizens of Dallas, Tex., Vote Against the Corbett-Fitzsimmons Bill.

DALLAS, Tex., June 11.—The mass meeting called for last night to protest against the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight was a very lame affair. The tenor of the speeches was to the effect that a horde of thieves and dissolute characters would be attracted to the city and that the moral effect of such an exhibition would be vicious on young men and boys. Several of the speakers declared that their boys knew more about Corbett and Fitzsimmons than about their Sunday-school lessons. The other side of the question was ably presented but the meeting finally decided by a vote of 88 to 35 to oppose the fight.

UNITED STATES TOBACCO CO.

New Manufacturing Concern Started in Richmond, Virginia.

RICHMOND, Va., June 8.—In the city circuit court here yesterday a charter was granted to the United States Tobacco company, which will carry on a manufacturing and shipping business in tobacco, cigars and cigarettes. The capital stock is to be not less than $100,000, nor more than $200,000, divided in shares of $100. The officers for the first year are as follows: Fred Myers, president and director; Claud C. R. Haplin, vice-president and director; Frank P. Murray, secretary-treasurer and director; E. L. Windfield and S. B. Butler, directors.

THE EDITORS IN ATLANTA.

Tennessee Press Association Spends a Day in the Gate City.

ATLANTA, June 12.—The Tennessee Press association arrived here last night from Cumberland Island, where they have been taking a vacation. Today they will be given a ride over the sixty miles of electric lines of the city and at 1:30 o'clock will be entertained by Hon. W. A. Hemphill, vice-president of the exposition company, at a banquet at his home in Woodley. At 8 o'clock they will be taken to the exposition grounds, where they will spend the afternoon investigating the plans and scope of the exposition, and at 8 o'clock the party will leave for Tennessee.

Reject Terms of Reorganization.

NEW YORK, June 12.—The committee of first mortgage bond holders of the Savannah and Western railroad voted yesterday to reject the terms contained in the plan for the reorganization of the Georgia Central railroad which operates the Savannah, Montgomery and Western. There had been deposited with the committee $5,000,000 out of a total of $9,000,000 bonds.

Dun & Company's Failure Report.

NEW YORK, June 8.—R. G. Dun & Co. report the following failures: Failures in four weeks of May showed liabilities of $9,252,151, of which $4,401,873 were of manufacturing and $3,345,306 of trading concerns. Last year the total was $9,787,923, of which $4,860,692 were of manufacturing and $4,927,236 of trading concerns. Failures for the week have been 195 in the United States against 216 last year, and 25 in Canada against 40 last year.

The Missionaries are Safe.

NEW YORK, June 12.—The dispatch from the Rev. J. R. Hicks at Shanghai was received at the office of the Methodist missionary society in this city. It bears 11th June date; "Property at Chentu destroyed. Missionaries all safe."

President Cleveland Will Visit Atlanta.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The president has accepted an invitation to visit the Atlanta exposition October 21st.

GOOD TIMES COMING.

RESULTS OF A RECENT CANVASS SHOW RETURNING PROSPERITY.

The Last Two Months Show a Greater Improvement in Industries Than Before in Many Years.

NEW YORK, June 11.—The last two months show the greatest improvement in industrials and more advance of wages than for many years heretofore. Good times are coming again and the trades are booming. Some weeks ago a leading mercantile agency stated that the wages of 75,000 industrial employees had been advanced. A canvass of seventy-five cities east of the Rocky Mountains shows that the wages of 300,000 have been voluntarily increased since April 1. Results of a canvass of Boston and other leading manufacturing centers in Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine, from Providence and Bristol, New Haven and Hartford, in New England; from New York City, Albany, Syracuse, Utica, Rochester, Binghamton, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Allegheny, Philadelphia and other important Pennsylvania manufacturing centers, as well as from Paterson and Newark, in New Jersey, and from Baltimore, covering the heart of the manufacturing section of the country, make the striking showing that more than eighty important industrial undertakings, which had been idle, have started up since April 1, giving employment to 30,000 operatives and workmen.

The south and southwest, as represented by a score of leading cities, report nearly fifty industrial establishments as having started up, giving work to fully 2,400 employees. But no advance of wages or strikes are reported there.

Since April 1, just 229 of the more important idle industrial establishments have opened up and furnished work for more than 54,000 employees.

MR. WHITNEY SPEAKS OUT.

Believes If Silver Should Carry the Next Convention, It Will Split the Party.

BOSTON, Mass., June 10.—Ex-Secretary of Navy, William C. Whitney, was interviewed at the home of his mother in Brookline last night. He said: "I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Secretary Carlisle's speech at Brookline last night. He said: I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention it would split the party in two. The democratic party must stand for sound money. There are good many sound money men in the west and south, and the Memphis convention