Thirteen white and twenty six colored persons were examined for positions as public school teachers in the court house last Friday.

The Ladies Aid Society of Wesley Chapel will serve coffee, and other refreshments, in the hall at Lydia, Wednesday evening, Oct. 28th. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Walter L. Wilson, of Mayesville, has been elected teacher of the Lamar public school. Mr. Wilson was for some time editor of the Moultrie Ga. Banner, and afterwards ran a daily in Valdosta.

The name of the county seat of Saluda County has recently been changed from Red Bank to Saluda. The postoffice is still Red Bank, but that will soon be changed, and the county, town and postoffice will be Saluda.

The Rev. R. W. Barnwell, who has been assistant rector of Grace church, Charleston, for about a year, has sent in his resignation on account of his health. Mr. Barnwell was, for some time, rector of the Church in Darlington and is considered a preacher of fine ability.

Mrs. Jatho, of Charleston, sang an offertory at the Methodist church last Sunday morning and was accompanied on the organ by Mrs. C. A. Graeser. The former is one of the soprano singers in the Lutheran church in Charleston and the latter is a very accomplished pianist.

The Rev. T. P. Baker, rector of the Episcopal churches at Cheraw, Society Hill and Bennettsville, has returned to Cheraw, accompanied by his wife and baby, after spending his vacation at West Point, Va. Mr. Baker's eye, which was troubling him so much some time ago, is now improving rapidly.

Conelius Bell, a respectable colored man, was taken suddenly ill in the colored Baptist church last Sunday morning just as he was in the act of raising the hymn and died during the afternoon. He had been a member of the Baptist church for many years and faithful in the work. He was buried with Masonic honors Monday afternoon.

Baird Bros. have received a line of parlor suits and lounges, wardrobes, side boards and musical instruments. Their big store is a credit to the town and they are now selling carpets from samples at New York prices. They are enjoying an unusually large business on account of the close prices they make to their ever satisfied patrons.

Brunson, Lunn & Co. in their new advertisement this week, say that in order to sell 1000 suits of men's, boys and children's clothing this Fall, they have decided to put the knife into the prices. They also guarantee their goods, which means that they intend to give their customers satisfactory goods for the money.

An exchange says that apples may be kept two years by wrapping them in newspapers in such a way as to exclude the air. The newspaper, however, must be one on which the subscription is paid in full or the dampness resulting from the "due" will cause the fruit to spoil.—Agricultural Advertising.

Daughters of the Confederacy. The ladies desiring to organize a chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy will please meet at the Armory tomorrow afternoon, (Friday), at four o'clock. To become a Daughter of the Confederacy one must be a sister, daughter or wife of a Confederate soldier. It is hoped that there will be a full meeting in order that a beginning may be made towards organizing a flourishing chapter in Darlington.	The Redoubtable "Samps." Samps Pope, the "lily white" republican candidate for Governor, held forth in the court house last Saturday to a crowd of colored people and a few whites, who came out of curiosity to hear what the Doctor had to say for himself and his faction. While he was speaking in the court house, the Webster faction, led by E. H. Deas, held an out door meeting in front of the court house where they were addressed by some of the colored orators. The crowd on both sides which listened to the speakers was not very large, many of the colored people appearing to take very little interest in what was going on.	Smoke Drum Cigaretts, 200, 000 now in town. We are candidates—not for office but for trade.—Our platform is best values for the least money. Blackwell Bros.	Of Interest to Farmers. President Craighead, of Clemson College, accompanied by a number of the professors of that institution, will hold a Farmers' Institute, for this County, in the early part of December, and cordially invites all the farmers and all others interested in agriculture to attend. These meetings will prove to be of great interest and profit to all who cultivate the soil and everyone should make it convenient to attend. Anyone is at liberty to ask questions or to take part in the discussions. Notice of the date set for holding the Institute will be given in a future issue of THE NEWS.	THE COUNTY NEWS. Leaves from Linwood. It is rumored that Mrs. Wheeler, of Mayesville, Sumter County, is the fortunate applicant for the Linwood school. Mrs. Mary Lawrence, of Effingham, and Miss Maggie Redie, of Georgia, are spending some time with Mrs. J. N. Parrott. J. L. Parrott Esq., after spending a few days with relatives and friends at Linwood, left for his home at Bishopville, Monday last. To the lovers of flowers a stroll through the forest will reveal a pleasant surprise just at this time. Who of the correspondents of the News will be kind enough to give us the names of some of the beautiful wild flowers now in full bloom? Another mother in Israel gone. Mrs. Hester Suggs departed this life Wednesday Oct. 7th, 1896, after a long life of three score years and ten. She left behind her a dear little Christian reared, and two brothers, Messrs. Asbury and Sammie Denton, several children and a host of friends who mourn her loss. Kind friends deposited all that was mortal of her in "God's acre" at "Gully" on the morning of the 9th, there to await the resurrection morn. A sad incident, even if it has done any good, is the death of a young man, who was killed while driving a team of horses near the town of Darlington. The man was named John Smith, and was a native of Darlington. He was a very good man, and was much respected in the community. His death is a great loss to his family and to the community.
Now is the time for Gin House and Tornado Insurance. Best companies in the world. Mrs. Lucy M. Norment.	I am a candidate—not for office but for trade.— Our platform is good horses at low prices. I want sound money for sound horses, and silver or paper will do as well as any. C. W. Hewitt.	The Minstrel Show. It is seldom that an amateur company gives such satisfaction as did the members of the "Minstrel Show" who appeared in the Opera House on Thursday night last. Mr. J. W. Tillinghast had charge of the entertainment and it goes without saying that it was a success. The program consisted of a Minstrel show; a base ball pantomime; and a farce. The overture to the minstrel show began before the curtain was raised and just at the proper time the curtain rose disclosing the chorus with the end men, who at once broke into a most pleasing of greeting. The song, "Mamma come kiss your honey boy," sung by Mr. Walter James, (Saubo) was received with every expression of pleasure by the large audience. The song, "Climb up Children" also sung by Sambo was a hit. The song and chorus "Only a picture of her boy," the solo sung by Mr. Jno. K. McIver, and the chorus sung by the troupe was rendered with great expression. The solo part sung by Mr. McIver was a treat to the lovers of good music. Mr. A. G. Kollock sang "The Sidewalks of New York," in fine style. His voice was particularly good in this song which suited him. Among other well rendered songs the universal opinion is that the best of the program was the song and chorus, "The Pride of the Ball" sung by Mr. E. E. James and the chorus. In this Mr. James was at his best and never before has his voice been heard on that stage to such advantage. There were the usual jokes between Bones and Sambo many of which were new and good. After the concert proper there was an imitation of a base ball game between Messrs. E. E. & Walter James (Bones and Sambo) which would have done credit to the best professionals. The whole was followed by a farce, the darkey wood-seller, in which Mr. E. E. James took the part of the darkey, Mr. Michie the part of the Deacon, and Mr. Dantzer the part of the Deacon's wife. This laughable farce was greeted with rounds of applause by the house. This show was a highly creditable one and was a success. The whole management was in the hands of Mr. J. W. Tillinghast who had not only the training of the voices, but the arrangement of all the instrumental parts played by the orchestra. The opening overture was particularly fine. The orchestra consisted of Miss Jennie Kast, who was at the piano; Mr. Angus Gaine first violin; Mr. C. N. Spinks cornet; Mr. J. W. Tillinghast second violin and Director. Refreshments were sold by the ladies after the curtain went down, and there was a cake walk at which the first prize was won by Miss Pat Woods and Mr. Bright Williamson, and the "booby prize" by Mr. J. L. Michie. The latter
