

Col John Temple Graves is still busy picking a matched team for the presidential race.

King Alfonso may be well prepared for a flood of congratulations, whether it is a leg or a tumbler.

Col Watson is ready to lead for the chair of Col. C. G. by the way, the latter is a fine fellow.

With the exception of the Editor's wife, Hamlin Rose, is a good fellow, and a fine fellow.

We are still waiting for the Wesleyan to deny that it is a Georgia college with Republican third term proclivities.

Mr Wallace belongs to both Amalgamated Order of Eastern Panama Engineers and the President's namus Club.

A public square in Tokio has been named after president Roosevelt. That is the reward for the timely interference of the San Francisco school matter.

From Mr Steed's latest utterances, it is plain that before he is through with his efforts for universal peace, he will be fighting mad.

Jacob Riis says he has never known the President to do wrong. The Ananias Club, however, may offer a few objections.

That N Y man who lost his last hundred dollars, and then committed suicide, leaving word that he was going to heaven, may find that he played on another bad tip.

Some one has discovered that three of the five jurors who voted to acquit Thaw, are baldheaded. From which, it appears that Evelyn still makes a hit with the bald-head row.

"A pessimist", says Park, "is a person who chews his pads". All pessimists we have ever met were fond of chewing the rag.

It is asserted that in Milwaukee, beer is bottled at the rate of a million a minute. But it is really the rate at which the bottles are emptied that has made Milwaukee famous.

The Columbia, South Carolina, "State" will kindly keep hands off the Hoke Smith Presidential boom. That boom is a Washington product, and don't you forget it.

One of those days the Central American Republics are going to be so busy paying off a big war debt to some country that has a big navy, that they will have no time to make faces at each other.

All that Andrew Carnegie needs to fill up his cup of happiness to the brim, is the assurance that some day his statues will adorn a postage stamp of some large denomination.

The Thaw jury disagreed, the lawyers disagreed, the family disagreed, and the alienists disagreed. But as the people seem to be in the same fix, the disagreement bit at least made a good job of it.

A Texas woman's magazine thinks that bridge has reached the proportions of a national evil. But the rest of the country will not take the same view of the matter so long as the police do not interfere.

The latest intelligence from England is that one sweetheam a small individual, late of Jamaica, is going to visit Canada. This looks as if Sweetheam is coming to the border line to hand us a little talk at short range.

The friends of secretary Taft and senator Foraker are having a lively scrimmage for the "delegates" to the next national republican convention. It is admitted that secretary Taft has the better of the situation, for he is a man of the people, and will make the corporations "Obey the law" even if he has to put some of their millionaire officials in "stripes". Foraker is an able man, but if he were elected president, the plundering of the people by the corporations would undoubtedly go on unmolested. It is to be presumed that Roosevelt supporters not only in Ohio, but all over the country demand Taft's nomination.

In the death of Capt. W. C. Coker South Carolina has lost one of her best and noblest citizens. It is not often that we are called on to mourn the death of a man like Capt. Coker because there are few like him in our community. He was a splendid soldier, a man of fine intellect and his judgement was always good. Indeed it might be said of W. C. Coker that he was a well rounded man and one could always be depended upon in any emergency where his services were needed.

Mr and Mrs W E McCall were married April 30, 1857 and celebrated their golden wedding April 30, 1907. They had four bridesmaids and four groomsmen when they were married fifty years ago and all are now living, one of the most remarkable occurrences that we ever heard of. Their names are given in the following list: Mr and Mrs W E McCall, Mr and Mrs J. W. McCall, Mr and Mrs J. W. McCall, Mr and Mrs J. W. McCall.

The Hon. A. J. Briggs, Commissioner of Immigration, is in the city for the purpose of studying the immigration situation but really for the purpose of enjoying themselves at government expense. It is a very soft snap and we do not blame Mr Latimer for getting on the commission and having a good time, but we do blame congress for spending the people's money in such a foolish and useless manner. Commissioner Watson would learn more about immigration during a month's stay in Europe than the whole commission appointed by congress would learn in a year and at a very trifling expense. Such junketing tours are a disgrace to this government and should, by all means, be put a stop to.

KING'S DAUGHTERS.

Report of the Golden Rule Circle from April, 1906 to April, 1907.

Line of work general, though we have worked for a specific object. The Circle a dear little boy, only two years old, to the Merit Hospital, Richmond, Va. The mother is a hospital nurse and the child is a patient in the hospital.

In England the Christmas, or Xmas, is a week of merry-making and a week of charity. A cream festival was given by the Circle to begin raising funds for this charity from which $247.75 was realized. $140.00 was spent and the greater part of the amount was given by kind friends. The hospital board donated three weeks treatment at the close of his stay. The child is now fully restored to health. Words can not express the joy and gratitude of his parents, for their affections were so entwined around this suffering little one, he is a very sweet attractive child, was the pet of the hospital and all regretted to see him leave. We trust that he will be a monument to the King's Daughters.

The poor were remembered at Christmas, and New Year. Little children's hearts were made glad by gifts of dolls, picture book, fruit, and candy.

All calls for charity have met with a kind response. The Circle gave to the Riverside Infirmary $10. Receipts $210.60, disbursements $188.40.

A Good Boy Gone.

Died on April 30th, 1907. Samuel Freddie North Hursey, the second son of Mr J C and Mrs L M Hursey after an illness one week, in the twenty-third year of his age, of catarrh of the stomach.

It is hard to summarize the virtues of this really good and quiet young man. Living in the country and attending to all the duties of the farm in a manner so successful, continuous and steadfast for so many years attracted by his industries, the notice and commendation all who knew him.

He was true and dutiful as a son, a brother, and friend. In all things he was self sacrificing and devoted to the good and happiness of others. His claims upon the esteem and love of all who knew him well, was made manifest during his short illness by the voluntary out pouring of sympathy, love and affection, so abundantly shown by the community, both white and colored, during his illness and funeral services.

YOUR EYES

are surely worth more to you than the price of a pair of glasses.

If you have your eyes have them properly fitted at once. Delay, and your eyes may become so bad that no glasses will help them, then you will regret it all the rest of your life.

That is the only way of it. Do not trust traveling opticians and spectacle peddlers to fit your eyes. They get your money, and never experience. This we know, because it is told us by people who have been to the best opticians after having had their eyes fitted by such persons. We have the best opticians in the city, and we will examine your eyes free of charge. We will examine your eyes free of charge.
