

LOCAL

NOTICE.—Callers at the School Commissioners office will note that they can't be attended to, after Sept. 1st, outside of the regular office days, Friday Saturdays and Sundays.

PAY UP.—Call on Mr Kirk Robinson, or on the editor, and pay up for the Times out of the first bale of cotton when you come in town.

NOT DEAD.—We understand that the son of Jake Haigler, whom we reported kicked to death by a stallion is not dead. He was kicked senseless, and to all appearances dead at the time, and hence the report. Although terribly mutilated about the jaw, he has revived, and will doubtless recover.

THE FAIR.—We hope that our citizens will take a lively interest in the coming fair. The advantages of fairs cannot be disputed. Socially and materially they benefit a community. They bring the farmers together who are naturally isolated on account of their occupation, and in many ways they tend to develop a County. Let us do all we can to make the coming County Fair a complete success.

DEATH.—Mr. George Whetstone, a prosperous farmer and excellent citizen on Bull Swamp died suddenly at his home on Friday. He had been suffering for years from an affection of the heart which explains the suddenness of his death. He was much beloved in his community on account of his many virtues, and his loss will be deeply felt. As a neighbor, friend and citizen he was true, and in fact, he was faithful in all the relations of life. Our deepest sympathies are extended to the bereaved family.

TEACHER'S EXAMINATION.—The following Public School Teachers have passed their examination and received the grades mentioned below: 1st Grade—H. D. Edwards, Miss M. J. Saxon, C. I. Cain, A. S. Cottingham, Miss Otis Whittemore. 2nd Grade—Mrs. R. A. Shuler, Miss A. G. Penny, H. M. Miller. 3rd Grade—P. W. Phillips, Særmie Adams.

The examination of the papers will still be continued by the Board until finished, and the result published.

FESTIVAL.—The Festival for the benefit of the Baptist Church, commenced at the Engine Hall last evening, and will be continued this evening at the same place. It will be a delightful place for young and old to spend an hour or two. Ice-cream, cake, varied refreshments and pleasant company will be among the enjoyments of the evening. Let all turn out who can.

BURNING AND ARREST.—On last Wednesday the corn house and out-houses of Mr. Jeff Zeigler with a quantity of rice, fodder and other provisions were burnt up and even the horses narrowly escaped. The incendiary was identified as Jerry Voght, a colored man, who was at large. On Monday he was arrested by Marshall Albricht and lodged in jail where he now awaits trial. He gave several names to the police to escape detection.

EXPLANATION.—We refer our readers to the card of Capt. John A. Hamilton, Insurance Agent, in another column. When we penned the local referred to, we did not intend it in a comparative, but in a general sense, not thinking of competing agencies. We have property insured in both these excellent agencies, and we heartily recommend them both to public patronage.

When you have an inflamed eye, a swollen hand, or a decayed and aching tooth, you do not take and fill your stomach with drugs to cure it, but apply a cooling lotion or some soothing narcotic directly to the parts. So if you have a weak or lame back, sore kidneys, profuse or scanty urine, or the secretory system is clogged and inactive, you should use Prof. Guilmette's French Kidney Pad, which is a directly local application, and always gives speedy relief and cures the disease. Ask your druggist for it.

A CARD.

Editor Orangeburg Times: The local in the Times of the 8th. "Go to Mr. Kirk Robinson and insure where you can get the cheapest rates," does unwittingly an injustice to the other Insurance Agents of Orangeburg. The premium rates are fixed by a board representing thirteen or more Companies, and no agent can insure at a less rate than another agent in Orangeburg. It is to prevent imprudent cutting of rates that these Boards govern agencies. This card is inserted in justice to other Insurance Agencies. The rates are one and the same. The public choose with whom they may do business.

NOTICE!

COTTON Shippers are hereby notified that on and after this date, no Cotton will be received for shipment unless marked with initials of shipper (or shipping agent) and Consignee on the Heads of the bales.

ORANGE LEAVES.

Henry Kohn. —Go to the festival to-night at the Engine Hall. —Mr. Walker's residence on Amelia street is nearly completed. —See notice to "cotton shippers" by J. G. Postell in another column. —We enjoyed a refreshing shower on Monday night. —The Soiree on Monday was prevented by the storm. —Col. Bamberg is on a visit to our town.

—Boys' and Men's clothing; big variety at Henry Kohn's. —They talk of a street rail-way in Florence. Shall Orangeburg be behind? —Private board at reasonable rates in the business portion of town. Apply to W A Mellichamp Esqr.

—Mr. W. F. Robinson has now with him Mr. Berg an excellent work man in jewelry. —The "Bus" as painted and fitted up by Mr. Robinson, is out and looks fine. —Mr. A. M. Izlar now of St. Matthews was on a visit to Orangeburg on Monday.

—Mr. Thos Ray intends to erect a neat residence on his lot on Amelia Street, near the depot. —Mr. Reneker has started a comfortable residence on Amelia Street near the depot on a most desirable site.

—Mr. Wm. J. Strook is now with Mr. A. B. Walker. We welcome him as a citizen in our midst. —Bargains in dress goods, easymeres silks and trimmings at Henry Kohns.

—Strauss & Co. give notice that they will have no more rice for exchange till further notice is given. —A calf can't go into society with out revealing itself; and goods bought at Jos Eros' confectionery are sure to tell.

—The first lot of the largest assortment of fine candies of every description to arrive at Jos Eros' next week Call and look at them.

We return thanks to Col A. Coward for an invitation to attend the anniversary celebration of the King's Mountain Military School, Oct 7th. Mr W Spenser Curriel is the orator of the day.

—Coleman Beattie is fixing up a first class restaurant next to the Times office. He intends to make it up to the times.

—The "Anti-Loking-Your-Nose-Into-Other-People's-Business Society" held a meeting at Columbia on Monday night.

—The farmers are enjoying every week a profusion of free lectures and advice from public spirited citizens who can't tell a field of oats from one of wheat. —Mrs. Oakman, at Mr. Louis' former residence, offers pleasant rooms and reasonable board. During the Fair and Court week, the rates will be $1.00 per day.

—We can count four new buildings that are going up on Amelia Street. This street is catching up with Governor Street.

—Reports of hail storms come to us from the South Eastern parts of our county. What damage if any is done we have not learned. —The colored band from our town went up to St. Matthews last Saturday to play at a fair of the colored people given in that town. It was very largely attended.

—The cotton worm is doing much damage in parts of our county. The plantations around St. Matthews are suffering badly from this cause.

—Henry Kohn is elected to sell all the people of Orangeburg all their dry goods at cheaper prices than anywhere else.

—Have you ever tried the "Cable Screw" shoes and boots. They are better than any other because if a pair rips or tears Henry Kohn gives you another pair.

—Prof. Guilmette's French Kidney Pad is the greatest discovery of the century for the cure of all diseases of the kidneys, bladder and urinary organs, in both male and female.

—The expression of a young ladies face, who had just received a box of Jos Eros' pure candies, is said to have most resembled Eve's, when she first entered the Garden of Eden.
