ORANGE LEAVES.

Henry Kohn. —We have enjoyed a cool change this week. —Some obtuse fellows don't want an acute angle in the Court House fence. —The recent rains have set all the mills in motion. —Dr. Ayer has leased Mr. T. D. Wolfe's store and will move in town on the first of October. —Do you want a nice suit of clothes—go to Henry Kohn's. —Mayor Dukes is now at the head of our city government. —We think the building boom will commence to wane now for a time. —The Cornelson factory is still prospering. —Boys' and Men's clothing; big variety at Henry Kohn's. —Marion Jackson continues to deal out fine beef. —We have had several days of delightful weather. —A mad or crazy calf on Mr. J. B. Brickie's place alarmed the community on Sunday by cutting up a number of strange antics. —Gravel, diabetes, Bright's disease of the kidneys, and all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs permanently cured by Prof. Guilmette's French Kidney Pad. —Mr. Henry Kohn's new advertisement appears this week. A call at his establishment will convince you he has struck "bottom" as to prices. —We understand that our Treasurer has been able to collect but little of the taxes this year in comparison with previous years.

The world of fools has such a store That he who would not see an ass Must bide at home and bolt his door And—break his looking-glass. —Private board at reasonable rates in the business portion of town. Apply to W A Mellichamp Esqr.

gains in dress goods, cassimere and trimmings at Henry Kohns. —Strauss & Co. give notice that they will have no more rice for exchange till further notice is given. * —A calf can't go into society with out revealing itself; and goods bought at Jos Eros' confectionery are sure to tell. —Henry Kohn is elected to sell at the people of Orangeburg all their dry goods at cheaper prices than anybody else. —Have you ever tried the "Cable Screw" shoes and boots. They are better than any other, because, if a pair rips or tears, Henry Kohn gives you another pair. —Coleman Beattie has opened in connection with his shaving saloon a first-class restaurant especially for white people. Give him a call. —Mr. W. F. Robinson has secured the services of Mr. H. Berg, a German watchmaker, and is now prepared to do all work in that line. —Prof. Berg is in town on a visit to his old home. He is about to move with his family from Cokesberry to Abbeville. We are glad to know that he is doing well. —The indications are that the people throughout our County are taking a deeper interest in public schools than usual, and we hope that the opening of these schools in November may be good. —Gen. Izlar will go to the Yorktown Centennial in the double capacity of Master Mason and State Senator on the Committee appointed by the Legislature. —The expression of a young ladies face, who had just received a box of Jos Eros' pure candies, is said to have much resembled Eve's, when she first entered the Garden of Eden. * —Prof. Boynton O'Brian, well known in Orangeburg County as an able and successful teacher is prospering with his Academy at Johnstown near the line in Aiken County. —Several young men of our town are being prepared for College at the High School of Charleston, Mr. V. C. Dibble, Principal, and at Rev. Toomer Porter's School. They will return to the city shortly. —The new Council took charge of city affairs on Monday, and the old Council retired. No changes have as yet been made in the subordinate officials. —Our County Commissioners, from all we can learn, are giving general satisfaction. They are looking faithfully to the public welfare. —A protracted meeting is going on at Jamison under the conduct of Rev. D. W. Cuttino. Another commenced at the Baptist Church in our town on Monday. We hope that much good may be accomplished. —To sum it all up in a few words—if you want anything in the Dry Goods line—see Henry Kohn's immense stock of goods—you will be sure to buy and go away happy. —Rev. A. P. Norris is in town where he receives the hearty greetings of his many friends. —Mrs. Dr. Vogt opens a first-class boarding house at the Stroman house in our town on the 1st of October. We take pleasure in recommending her to all who desire an excellent, and, at the same time reasonable boarding place. We are sure that all her patrons will be pleased and satisfied. —Mr. W. J. DeTreville, Jr., has been called in by the surveyors making the map of the County for Atlanta Exposition to assist in completing it in time to be shipped in a week or ten days. Mr. DeTreville is an accomplished draughtsman and his assistance will be of great value. —Mr. Blackman, the correspondent of the News and Courier, is in town, endeavoring, we understand, to ascertain the true inwardness of the recent municipal election for the information of his paper. —Mr. Collins, the new superintendent of the Cornelson Factory, has arrived and taken charge of the establishment. We hear the rumor that this factory is to be considerably improved, and that lint cotton will soon be substituted for seed cotton.
