EPISCOPAL CHAPEL—Rev. W. A. Guerry, Rector; H. T. Thompson, Lay Reader. Preaching 3rd Sunday at 8:30 p. m. Lay Reading every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Sunday School every Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Town and County.

Dog days. The nights are getting longer and cooler.

The water works is at a stand still. Why is this?

Darlington ought to have an ice factory next season.

Mr. J. M. James has sold his young dog Harby for $100.

Mrs. M. Manne lost a valuable horse on Friday morning.

A regular meeting of the County Commissioners was held on Monday.

Rev. J. G. Law preached at the factory last Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The price of flour is increasing. We hope the price of cotton will increase in the same proportion.

The congressional convention of this, the sixth, district will meet at Florence on September 9th.

Five hundred and twenty-five bales of cotton were received at the depot for shipment in August.

The next session of the Darlington Public Schools will begin September 22. See notice elsewhere.

The Cheraw and Palmetto base ball clubs will play a game at Palmetto the latter part of this week.

Owing to a washout at Gandy's, between Society Hill and Doves, the morning mail train was two hours behind time on Friday.

An excursion of colored people from Georgetown to Cheraw passed up the road on Friday, just behind the morning freight train.

Policeman Henry Brown was called on yesterday to shoot a dog supposed to have rabies at the residence of Mrs. Gillespie on Main Street.

An expert from Baltimore arrived in the city yesterday to take charge of the canning factory. He expects to start to-day.

Woods & Woods have received and opened their stock of fall and winter goods and would be pleased to have their friends call and see them.

Mr. John F. Tobin, of Charleston, was in the city this week, making an estimate to lay the pipes for the water works.

If a Tillmanite gets into trouble, why does he rush to the Anti-Tillmanites to prove his good character; why not get his own followers to certify to him.

Cotton is coming in at a rapid rate, and the "business season" is upon us. We trust the farmers will get good prices for their cotton the whole season through.

The cotton business has now fairly opened, and from the amount of new cotton coming in a splendid season is predicted by Darlington cotton buyers.

The game law prohibits the shooting of doves between the 1st of March and the 1st of August; partridges, from the 1st of April to the 1st of November.

Mr. A. W. Welling, the efficient manager of the Darlington planing mill company, is putting in a full stock of sash, doors and blinds. This will be quite a convenience to those who are building.

During the collection at the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning a beautiful solo was sung by Miss Bessie Williamson, a young soprano, of our town, who is quite an addition to the musical talent of the place.

It is a fact that no man can be nominated for an office in this county if it is known that the people of the town of Darlington favor him, no matter how competent or honest the candidate may be. How long can this thing last?

Mrs. John S. Swygert, of Columbia, has rented the store recently occupied as a book store on the first floor of the HERALD building and is opening a fine stock of millinery. We are glad to welcome Mrs. Swygert among us and hope she will succeed.

Capt. H. L. Townsend, of Charleston, is in the city negotiating for the stock of groceries of the late L. L. McGee. Capt. Townsend is an energetic and enterprising man and we hope that he will locate among us.

Messrs. J. J. Lucas, J. C. Wilcox, J. J. Ward, J. C. Blackwell, G. W. Brown, W. E. James, C. A. Seabrook, Alva Coggs and Waddy Thompson represented Darlington county in the Straightout conference in Columbia last week.

A Crazy Woman.

Hagar Thomas, a colored woman who resided in Darlington, was declared insane and sent to the asylum by the proper authorities on Friday last. Deputy Sheriff Thomas took her to Columbia.

Besley in Doubt.

We learn that the Chairman of the County Executive Committee says there is doubt as to who is the nominee for School Commissioner; indeed, he at one time thought of calling a convention, which he had no authority to do, to decide this matter.

A Picnic and Game of Ball.

There will be a picnic at Williamsburg's bridge on Black Creek next Friday, 5th inst., to which everybody is invited to come and bring baskets. There will be a game of base ball at 4 o'clock in the afternoon between the Palmetto and Cheraw nines, and those who are present may expect to see some good ball playing.

A Darlington Boy.

Rev. H. A. Hymes preached morning and evening in the Presbyterian church on Sunday. The congregation was a large one, many of his old schoolmates and friends of his boyhood being present. The sermons were both good, the one at night being rather the better of the two. Mr. Hymes is an earnest, hard working student. We wish him God speed.

The Great Evangelist to Visit Darlington.

Rev. R. G. Pearson, D. D., General Evangelist, of Asheville, N. C., who has appointments for a year ahead, will be in Darlington on the first or fourth Sunday in November to begin a protracted meeting. All the congregations of the town will unite in an effort to make these services productive of much good. The time and place will be announced through these columns later.

Court.

The next term of the court of common pleas and general sessions for Darlington county begins on the third Monday in October. Judge Hudson will preside. There is considerable business to be transacted, and we hope that the Judge will not consume too much of the time of the court with his usual speech on the "reforms in the jury system."

A Victim of Alcohol.

An old man from near Dovesville came to this place last Saturday, accompanied by a quadrum lad about 10 years of age. They left town about 6 o'clock in the afternoon and whether both were under the influence of liquor does not appear; but when they reached home the boy was in a stupor from drink, from which he could not be aroused. Dr. Wilcox was sent for but could do nothing, as the boy was dead before he arrived.

A Good Selection.

By a happy accident the people of Darlington County will have the efficient services of T. H. Spain as Probate Judge for the next term. Holding as he does a most important post, which by his zeal and well known ability he adorns, it is a matter of congratulation that, in this day of change for the sake of change, we have been so fortunate as to have secured his services. Judge Spain is a thoroughly competent officer and a credit to the county.

Death of Two Lovely Young Ladies.

Since our last issue the sad news has reached us of the death in Columbia of two daughters of Capt. J. C. F. Sims. One of these young ladies was well known in Darlington, and on a recent visit here made many friends who will be shocked to hear of her death. In so terrible a bereavement the generous sympathy of all truehearted men and women is aroused for the stricken household to whom so great an affliction has come.

Palmetto and Timmonsville.

The Palmetto base ball club went to Timmonsville on Thursday and played the picked nine of that place. The score was 10 to 8 in favor of Palmetto. The Timmonsville boys entertained their friends in their usual hospitable and generous manner. The Editor of THE HERALD is under obligations to Mr. H. L. Morris, the prince of clever fellows, for special courtesies. The Timmonsville nine are expected to visit Palmetto at an early day.

The New Grocery Firm.

Messrs. West & Honour have opened their grocery on Pearl Street. Their handsome wagon has already been seen on its rounds. Mr. E. T. West, of this firm, will be remembered by old employees of the Southern Express Company as a very competent messenger on the line some years ago. In the disaster on the Northeastern Road at Santee bridge a few years ago he was very badly injured, from which he suffered for nearly a year. We wish the new firm success.

Personal.

Mr. J. C. Keys, the cotton buyer, has returned.

Mrs. B. C. Norment returned from Virginia on Friday.

Mr. A. Weinberg has removed to his new residence on Broad Street.

Miss Rosa Littenfield, of Georgetown, is visiting Miss Hannah Manne.

Rev. G. B. Moore has gone to Virginia for a few weeks of rest and recreation.

Mr. L. I. Parrott, the efficient stenographer of the third circuit, is visiting relatives here.

Mr. L. Nelson Ervin, of Williamsburg county, is on a visit to relatives near Darlington.

Dr. W. J. Garner was registered at the Grand Central in Columbia last Saturday.

Mrs. J. L. Michie went on a visit to Morganton, N. C., on Monday night.

Mrs. I. Lewenthal and Miss Hannah Manne have returned from the Hammocks.

Mr. J. Beilenson, watchmaker and jeweler, has opened an office next door to S. Tombacher's.

Mr. Claude Milling has returned from Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where he has just completed a course in the Eastman Business College.

Maj. Geo. L. Buist and Mr. G. W. Witte, of Charleston, were registered at the Enterprise Hotel on Tuesday.

Mr. Kirkwood King left Darlington for Hillsboro, Texas, on Tuesday, where he will buy cotton.

Mr. T. O. Sanders, of the firm of Joye & Sanders, has returned from New York.

Capt. W. H. Evans, who has been in the railroad service in Georgia for many years, is at home on a visit to his father's family.

Mr. J. E. Normant, of Edwards, Normant & Co., is at home again from New York, where he purchased an elegant stock of goods for his firm.

Mrs. Mary Ann Gregg, Mrs. Geo. McMaster and her two daughters, Misses Mary and Bessie, of Winnsboro, have been visiting relatives near Darlington.

Rev. John O. Willson, Presiding Elder, preached at the Methodist church on Sunday evening. He received a warm welcome from his friends here.

Mr. C. J. Epps, who was for some months at Boyd's drug store, is now at West & Honour's new grocery store on Pearl street.

The Florence Nominees.

The Florence convention met the first of this week, and made the following nominations: Senator, L. S. Bigham; Representatives in Legislature, S. R. Chandler and B. B. McWhite; Sheriff, Ralph McLendon; Clerk, J. W. McCown; Treasurer, H. E. C. Fountain; Auditor, W. L. Harrell; Probate Judge, J. P. McGill, present incumbent; County Commissioners, J. M. Humphrey, T. J. Cannon and A. M. Taggart; School Commissioner, J. E. Pettigrew; Jury Commissioner, Harry T. Harlee; Supervisor Registration, T. A. Clark; Coroner, S. T. Burch, present incumbent. All except McNeill are Tillmanites.

Who is the Nominee?

EDITOR HERALD:—As a delegate to the Democratic County Convention, held at Darlington, C. H. last week, I witnessed a performance which made me blush for my party. Col. W. H. Evans and Rev. A. W. Parrott were both nominated in regular order for the office of School Commissioner. The Chairman of the Convention asked all in favor of Col. Evans for School Commissioner to signify by saying aye, and then all opposed no; the opposition to Col. Evans was not satisfied that he had received a majority of the votes cast and therefore called for a division of the house, which they had a right to do. The Chairman then called on all who were in favor of Col. Evans to rise and stand until they could be counted, whereupon sixty-one members of the Convention arose and were counted for Col. Evans by the proper persons; the count was handed to the Chairman and he announced that Col. Evans had received sixty-one votes. Some stir and commotion was here made, and the next thing we witness is the brother of Rev. A. W. Parrott, as chairman of the convention, deciding that the vote could be taken over again. This time the vote was taken by calling the roll and each delegate naming the candidate of his choice; this resulted in a vote of one hundred and four, of which Parrott received fifty-eight and Evans forty-six. You will notice that Parrott received three votes less when he was declared the nominee, than Evans had received when he was not declared the nominee. This change was accomplished by some changes and by a few delegates leaving the house or not voting because they were unwilling for their names to be placed on record as breaking the pledge to support the nominee of the caucus. We who were delegates understand this perfectly. If Rev. A. W. Parrott had received the nomination he should be elected; but as Col. W. H. Evans has received the nomination he must be elected, not as an independent but as the nominee of the party and the choice of the people. DELLEGATE.

A Good Private School.

The Exercises of Miss Corinne Player's school will be resumed on Monday, September 22, at her school house. Miss Player is too well known in Darlington to need any commendation from us. The high standard taken by her scholars at boarding schools is sufficient proof of the thorough training which she gives.

Special Service of Prayer.

The Rev. S. M. Richardson, editor of the Christian Messenger, has issued an address to the Christian ministers of all denominations all over the State, to have a special service of prayer early in September that the State offices for the ensuing term may be filled by God-fearing men, whose piety is unquestioned.

Unclaimed Letters.

In the P. O. at Darlington to August 30, 1890:

MEN. Caston, Well; Dowling, Andrew; Dennis, G. T.; Garley, W. D. R.; Keith, E.; Miller, J. F.; Moore, Christopher.

WOMEN.

Benton, Malvenia; Evans, Henrietta; Grimes, Sarah; Harrison, Josephine; Maxisy, Rebecca; Mack, Elair; Stevenson, Malissa.

Mrs. B. C. Law, P. M.

Philadelphia Pickings.

Farmers are paying 50cets per hundred pounds for picking cotton.

Mr. W. Andrew Dowling has a beautiful herd of Jersey pigs. They are not for sale.

Malarial fever is rife in the neighborhood of McCown's pond, but as yet no deaths reported.

None but good men and true should fill the offices of county and state—but of such, few aspire.

The rainfall last Wednesday night was very heavy, and did great damage to the fields of open cotton.

Mr. Asbury Dowling, Sr., an aged and much respected gentleman, has been seriously sick from congestive fever.

Messrs. Warley Parrott and Alonza Kelley, of Bishopville, paid us a flying visit last week. The latter having recently returned from a visit to Florida, gave us some fine "fish stories."

Palmetto Points.

We had rain to-day.

Cotton picking is in full blast all over the neighborhood.

Mr. Baker Haynesworth, of Florence, has been visiting Mr. J. W. James.

Messrs. O. H. & T. H. Edwards have their last barn of tobacco in the barn this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hart, of Darlington, spent several days with relatives here during the past week.

Mr. J. H. Coker, of Society Hill, is visiting Mr. J. B. Edwards. We find him quite a jolly fellow.

Miss Edna Heard, of Florence, has been visiting Miss Fannie Edwards this week. She left to-day for home.

The work has commenced on Mr. J. J. James' house. Messrs. R. L. Edwards and J. W. James are the contractors.

Mr. D. M. Smoot has shipped some tobacco this week to Harris, Gonch & Co., of Henderson, N. C. May he be over rejoiced at his first sale.

Miss Bessie Williamson, of Darlington, and Carrie and Viola Haynesworth, of Florence, have been visiting Miss E. S. James for the last few days.

Miss Jennie Vardell left this morning for her home in Summerville, after a pleasant visit to Miss Emmie James. She made many friends while in Palmetto.

The carriage horses of Gen. W. E. James ran away Sunday, throwing Mr. R. E. James from the carriage and dragging him for some distance. No damage done except that Mr. J. W. James' thumb is a little sprained, which will keep him from work until all the girls leave the neighborhood. Good excuse.

Leaves from Linwood.

Mr. F. A. Dowling, Sr., who was so dangerously ill a week or two ago, is now convalescent.

It is reported that Mr. I. M. Harrell's mill-dam was broken in consequence of the flood of rain which fell on Thursday night last.

The protracted services, previously announced for the Methodist church at Elim, has been postponed by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Murray.

The farmers have stopped walking on their under lip, since they began to realize better prices for their cotton crop. They are more cheerful now.

The Bishopville Eagle, resurrected after its unfortunate taking off, has again made its appearance in our midst—spicy, breezy, self-reliant and pinioned for a loftier flight. Long may she scream!

Some of the young men of this community present a woe-begone appearance, since the departure of so large a number of young ladies for the High School at Munroe, N. C. It is well for Prof. Andrews that he is so far away.

The selling of cotton, from this portion of Darlington, at Hartsville is accounted for by the fact that it is bringing a better price in that market than in the Darlington market. In some cases as much as $5.00 more was realized on the bale, by selling at Hartsville, than could be obtained at Darlington. Returning recently from Bishopville, the writer saw wagon loads of the fleecy staple, grown on Darlington soil, wending its way to that market too. Can't you, Mr. Editor, help the merchants of Darlington to correct this evil?
