

The Election.

The election has come and gone, and everything passed off quietly in this county. The smallest vote ever polled in Darlington was polled on last Tuesday. Tillman has said that a vote for him was an endorsement of Tillmanism and a vote for Haskell was a repudiation of Tillmanism. For our part we are glad to be able to say that we have repudiated Tillman and his methods and have prevented the misfortune of ever being truthfully told that we endorsed Tillmanism. If Tillmanism is Democracy we prefer to have none of it. The following is the vote of Darlington precinct:

For Governor:
A. C. Haskell	97
B. R. Tillman	187
For Senator:
J. W. Beasley	179
For Representatives:
H. C. Burn	183
D. C. McCall	187
J. S. DuBose	191
For Probate Judge:
T. H. Spain	288
For School Commissioner:
W. H. Evans	284
A. W. Parrott	44
For County Commissioners:
A. A. Gandy	284
W. W. McKenzie	282
C. R. King	281
Constitutional Amendment:
Yes	58
No	100

Returns from all the precincts in the county give the following unofficial result:

Haskell	220
Tillman	1,268
Evans	743
Parrott	751

For the first time in her glorious history South Carolina is truly disgraced, and that too by the action of those who ought to have held her honor dearer than their lives. Tuesday last will always be a dark day in the calendar of South Carolina, and the remembrance of it will bring the blush of shame to the cheek of many who are now so carried away by passion and prejudice that they will not stop to reflect. For two years at least, we must have for the Governor of this Commonwealth a man who has secured the position by pursuing a course that is fortunately without parallel in our State, and which should forever brand him with infamy. It is needless to detail the methods by which he has attained his ends; they are known to all. By Tuesday's verdict we virtually say to the country at large that Tillman's charges are true, that our State officials are corrupt, and that Tillman, the modern Hercules, can alone cleanse the Augean stable of its corruption. If the people of our State were in their right minds, they would feel more like clothing themselves in sackcloth and ashes instead of giving expression to shouts of rejoicing. It is impossible to understand how it was that some of our most prominent and honored citizens, after denouncing Tillman and his methods, should yet vote for him, and this act at least endorses the man and his infamous falsehoods. This act will bring them many hours of future regret, and tyrannic conscience will not let them soon forget this great blunder. It is to the everlasting glory of South Carolina that some of her sons have uttered their protest against this reproach being fastened upon the State. Haskell is more glorious in defeat than Tillman is in victory, and his name will go down in the history of his State, with a record as pure as that of Bayard or Sydney; while that of Tillman will descend as that of the most unscrupulous politician and the most infamous slanderer to whom South Carolina has ever had the misfortune to give birth.

(Special to The Darlington Herald.)
COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 5th, 5:30 p. m.—Very few returns and none official to-day, but it is generally admitted that Tillman for Governor and his entire ticket have carried the State by at least 35,000 majority. Six of the seven Congressmen in this State are certainly Democratic and the seventh in doubt, with chance favoring the Democratic nominee as there are two Republican candidates in the field.

An Honor.
The Columbia Record, Florence Messenger, Marion Star, Sumter Advance and DARLINGTON MERALD are the only papers in the State that supported the Haskell ticket, and we are proud to have been one of the number. Numbers don't make right.

The State Fair.
On page 10 of the Premium List of the State Agricultural and Mechanical Society for the present year, will be found the offer of Premiums amounting in the aggregate to $500, for the Counties making the best display of County Products, to be shown at the Fair November 10, 1890.

The requirements are: "To the County making the Best and Largest Display of Products grown or produced by residents of the County, Premiums will be awarded as follows: 1st Premium, $250; 2nd Premium, $150; 3rd Premium $100—In all, $500. All Grain must be shown in quantities not less than one-half bushel. The Judges making the award in this contest, will consider first, Quality; second, Quantity; third, Variety; and fourth, Arrangement. Articles for the County display will not count in the Individual Premium."

I beg that you call special attention to this feature, and urge your County to be a competitor in the contest. Aside from the money involved, County pride should stimulate our farmers to enter heartily into the matter, and thus show the progress of Agriculture in our State.

I take it that the most effective plan would be for the several County Alliances from the Sub-Alliances, to canvass the matter at an early day, and thus become organized, so that by the first of November each County will be able to know what will be shown, and at what Railroad Station shipments will be made. Railroads require prepayment of freight, but upon its return to the original point of shipment, with the Certificate of the Secretary that the same had been on exhibition, the amount will be refunded. I will be pleased to furnish a copy of the Premium List to all who may apply to

Grand Jury Report.

SOUTH CAROLINA,
DARLINGTON COUNTY.
To His Honor J. H. Hudson, Presiding Judge:

The Grand Jury make the following as their final presentation:
During the year we have examined the offices and books of the several county officers, and find nothing to bring to the attention of the Court.

In the Court House we find the jury rooms in unsatisfactory condition. We recommend that they be furnished with comfortable settees and tables, and that more attention be paid to their cleanliness, and especially that proper means be taken to prevent the urinals from becoming offensive. Such settees as are provided frequently in the waiting rooms at the railroad depots we suggest would be economical and suitable.

In the Sheriff's office we find there is need of a case for the preservation of such executions as have to be kept in that office. The one now in use is, in our judgment, not suited for the purpose.

We have examined the Official Bonds of all the County officers, and find them, in our judgment, adequate to protect the interests of the County and State.

At the Poor House we find the Superintendent's house in a bad condition—the roof leaking, the plastering falling, and part of the underpinning giving way. The cottages have the windows badly broken, many of them with very few whole panes of glass. The inmates appear to be otherwise as well provided for as the means provided will allow, and we have no complaints from any of them. We regard the repairs referred to as of great importance and demanding immediate attention from the County Commissioners.

The condition of the Public Roads in the County seems to have reached a point beyond the endurance of a long-suffering public. Complaints come to us from every part of the county of important roads badly worked or not worked at all, many of the smaller bridges impassible or dangerous, and travel in some places almost impossible. In the opinion of many of our citizens the road laws of the State are inadequate to the urgent state of our country; but the Grand Jury are of the opinion that the present laws, if enforced, would at least be sufficient to give to the people of every part of the county roads that would admit of travel with an ordinary load, and without danger to horse or vehicle. The practice of plowing into the limits of the public roads, which has often been complained of, seems to continue. We think it should be the duty of the County Commissioners to prevent these trespasses on the rights of the public, and to take legal steps to bring the parties so trespassing to justice.

At the present term of the Court many cases have been sent up for aggravated assault and battery. In our judgment a large proportion of these cases ought to have been adjudicated by the Trial Justices as cases of simple assault and battery within their jurisdiction. This course, if pursued, would have not only saved the expense to the county of the investigation by the Grand Jury, but would have promptly administered justice to the guilty parties proportioned to the gravity of the offence committed. We have heard with interest the remarks of the presiding Judge on the term of service of jurors. We recommend that the law requiring petit jurors to serve during the whole term of court be amended, and that the jurors be summoned to serve only for one week.

Thanking Your Honor for the clearness of your instructions, and for the courtesy and assistance extended to us in the discharge of our duties.
Respectfully submitted,
W. A. CARRIGAN, Foreman.
