

The Boston Board of Education is going to abolish flogging in the public schools. About 20,000 pupils are flogged every year.

California has 1,200,000 people, yet, marks the Chicago Post, they pay as much taxes as Pennsylvania does with $,000,000.

The succession of horrible railroad accidents that has marked the present year is something beyond precedent, avers the Detroit Free Press.

Of all the pests that afflict the South African farmer, there appears to be none to compare with the prickly pear. It fastens especially upon the good lands, and is officially reported to be at this moment destroying portions of the best and most fertile soil, both public and private, that the colony possesses.

Austin Corbin, the New York railroad magnate, is anxious to beat the record as a tunnel maker, avers the New Orleans Times-Democrat. He now has two in contemplation, one running under the two channels at each side of Staten Island, the other under the East and Hudson Rivers, with the central point at Forty-second street, New York city.

The salary list of the staff of the great World's Fair is interesting. It is as follows: Gage, President, $60,000; Bryan, Vice-President, $12,000; Butterworth, Secretary, $10,000; Seaburg, Treasurer, $5,000; Palmer, National President, $12,000; Davis, Director General, $15,000; Dickinson, Secretary, $10,000. This makes a snug total of $70,000.

The following figures are published in a German publication that stands high as an authority on railroad matters. The table gives a summary of the world's railroad mileage last year as compared with the figures of four years ago:

Table with 2 columns: Year, Mileage. Rows include America, Europe, Asia, Africa, and Australia.

A New Yorker, who has recently spent some time in the literary circles of London, says that there must be at least 100 biographies of Mr. Gladstone already in manuscript, awaiting the event of his death, at which time they will be ready for publication in book form. Beside these manuscripts, there are to be found in the pigeon holes of all the newspaper offices sketches of the aged statesman's life, in readiness for the dispatches announcing the end of his career that may be received at any time. It is said that Mr. Gladstone has seen some of these biographies and sketches, and he himself has prepared memoranda for the use of some of his biographers.

Distinctly suggestive, observes the New York Sun, is the lawsuit which has been brought under Benjamin Franklin's will, probated in 1790. This good year of grace is 1890. The sum of $100,000 is held under the will to be lent to young mechanics to aid them in getting up in their trades. The conditions of industry have so changed that young mechanics can no longer set up in trade in the way contemplated by the testator. So the purpose of the trust fails, and his descendants claim the money. But suppose another 100 years or 200 years have passed, and who shall say that we may not have attained to the pressure of Chinese life and that we, too, may not inhibit the use of "power," and get back to the handicraft? Then who shall take the endorsements of our technical schools whose occupation will be gone? And at such a day B. Franklin's fund would resume its function. In the past 100 years it has multiplied twenty-fold, namely, from $60,000 to $1,000,000. At the same rate of increase the coming century would see it swollen to $2,000,000. And this week a pretty sum to help young fellows start in life at a time when a steam engine should be a misdeed and a railway a public nuisance.

Hon. Charles A. Boutelle, Chairman of the House Committee on Naval Affairs, says, in regard to the trial tests at Annapolis: "The result of the armor tests concluded at the proving ground at Annapolis is startling in its significance, as showing the comparative uselessness of the Canwell compound armor which has been used on the most important battleships of the British Navy. The demonstration of the destructive power of the American high-power rifles, even of the smaller calibers of six and eight inches, is as emphatic as the proof of the superiority of the nickel-steel armor from the French works at Creusot. The significance of the test lies in the demonstration of the inferiority of the armor to which Great Britain has trusted for the invulnerability of her fighting ships, and the shots just fired at the Annapolis proving ground will literally be heard around the world, and it will cause consideration in naval circles on the other side of the water." The advantage these tests will give our Navy Department in providing armor for our new fighting ships can hardly be exaggerated, adds the St. Louis Star-Bulletin.

The first annual meeting of the State Field Tournament was held at Chattanooga last week and 16 medals were given. It was decided to call a meeting of delegates from every athletic association in the State to meet at Nashville on November 20, to form a permanent organization. There was a heavy fall of snow at Knoxville, Tenn., Thursday. It snowed all through the Cumberland region. John Davis, the murderer of Marshall Andrew Atkins and John Riley Newport,

ALL THROUGH DIXIE. What Has Transpired Since Last We Greeted You.

All the News of the Eastern Section of the South, With the Chief Sifted Out, Presented Here in Neat Form.

VIRGINIA. Decatur Axcell, recently elected a member of the Board of directors of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad, will be made vice-president.

The James River Episcopal Convocation began its session at Christ Church, Amelia Courthouse, Tuesday night, and adjourned Friday.

More marriage licenses were issued in Danville for the month of October than for any previous month in three years.

A foundationless rumor that the banking house of D. F. Kagey & Co., at Luray, was in a critical condition caused a rash for a time, but the excitement soon subsided.

Erastus Stewart, of Carnegie City, fell from the front platform of a passenger coach of the East bound passenger train and was instantly killed, his neck being dislocated.

An electric-light plant, agricultural works with a capital of $50,000, the Buchanan woodworking establishment, to manufacture portable houses, sash, doors, blinds, etc., glass works and a printing establishment are reported as to be established at Buchanan, Botetourt county.

An exciting football game at the University of Virginia between the Laws and the Meds, resulted in a victory for the Meds, resulting in the resignation of the Academic dean in the defeat of the latter.

Atticus Winfree, a well-known citizen of Petersburg, and a colored woman in his employment were badly burned by a powder explosion.

NORTH CAROLINA. A handsome fund for the establishment of a Chair of History in the University of North Carolina has been subscribed.

Two large land companies have been organized in Raleigh. A contract for thirteen more miles of the Roanoke & Southern Railroad has been let, stretching from the summit of the Blue Ridge, near the head of the Roanoke, to the latter city with Winston, N. C.

A mammoth cotton factory is to be established at Oxford, with a capital stock of $100,000. A fight between Lemuel Allen and Julius Tyson, in Ansonville, over Miss Grace Green, resulted in the death of Tyson.

The annual report of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad has just been published and shows that the total length of the line is 361 miles. The net earnings for the fiscal year were $341,625.

W. F. Suits, who was arrested on the charge of robbing the mails and who was to be tried in the Federal Court at Greensboro, has left his bondsman in the lurch to the tune of $11,000.

There is a great activity in Charlotte relative to the Second Presbyterian church. It has just decided to build a new house of worship to cost $35,000. The Congregationalists will build two new churches. The Methodist have built a mission and have adopted plans for remodeling the Tryon Street Church. The Trade Street Baptist Church has just elected from a mission started by the Tryon Street Baptist Church, a new pastor.

The Associate Reformed Presbyterian will soon sing psalms in a beautiful brick structure on Tryon Street.

SOUTH CAROLINA. The old Turnbull mansion on the Laurens plantation, John's Island, Berkeley county, was burned a few days ago.

At a meeting of the directors of the State Alliance Exchange at Columbia the location of the Exchange was decided. On and after January 1 the Exchange will be located at Columbia and the Alliance Bank with it.

A north-south passenger train on the Richmond & Danville Railroad ran off the track near Central and was wrecked. Eight people were taken out injured, three of them dangerously and one fatally from New Orleans may be fatally. One of the porters was badly hurt, but acted bravely and succeeded in putting out the fires in the cars before a conflagration could be started.

Will Lee, the negro who was arrested at Columbia on suspicion of being the murderer of John H. Haverhill, confessed his crime. He admitted having killed Elder Hester last Sunday night with Elder's pistol, at Smith's precinct, in Ocean county. Lee says Elder got mad because he teased him about getting drunk and assaulted him with rocks.

The removal of Erskine College from Due West, S. C., excited a great deal of discussion at the meeting of the Associate Reformed Synod at Paint Lick, Ky., last week. Rock Hill, Chester and Due West had the matter under consideration and the trustees will be met on December 10th.

In 1880, according to the United States census, the population of South Carolina was 590,377, of which 291,105 were whites and 299,272, including Indians, Chinese, and negroes, were colored. The population of South Carolina today is 1,147,171, consisting of 512,395 whites and 634,778 colored, including Indians, Chinese and negroes. In the last ten years, on account of the continuous emigration of colored colonists to Mississippi and Arkansas, the increase of the colored population has only been 316 while the white population has increased 124,231. For every 20,000 of increase in white population there has been but 7,000 increase in black population.

TENNESSEE. One hundred and twenty-one lots were sold, aggregating $15,000, at the Morris town land sale Wednesday. Outside parties secured the bulk of the property offered.

The first annual meeting of the State Field Tournament was held at Chattanooga last week and 16 medals were given. It was decided to call a meeting of delegates from every athletic association in the State to meet at Nashville on November 20, to form a permanent organization. There was a heavy fall of snow at Knoxville, Tenn., Thursday. It snowed all through the Cumberland region. John Davis, the murderer of Marshall Andrew Atkins and John Riley Newport,

THE KANSAS ALLIANCE. A Stupendous Popular Movement in the Great West.

Hon. L. F. Livingstone Has Something of Interest to Say of His Western Trip.

Hon. L. F. Livingstone has a great many things to say about his trip to Kansas. He went, it will be remembered, as one of the three delegates appointed by the Georgia State Alliance to bear fraternal greetings to the alliance of Kansas. President L. L. Polk, of the national alliance, accompanied the Georgia delegation.

The other two delegates were Mr. Wilson, of America, and Dr. Stone, of Atlanta. "The great day of the Kansas meeting," said the colonel, the other evening, "was the 10th. The country people came in from everywhere, until by 11 o'clock there was a procession of five miles long. It was the most enthusiastic gathering I ever saw anywhere. At one point in the line were 100 pretty country girls, all dressed exactly alike, and all on horseback. There were 100 young men on horseback. There were flags and banners without number, with cartoons and odd inscriptions."

"The condition of the Kansas farmers is worse, so much greater has been the one. The State is covered with mortgages from one end to the other. That has been done in congress and elsewhere, but it's the truth. I talked to 300 or more not less than the Irish writ of the mortgage a terrible leverage on the tenant. Absolutely, there is one tract in the western part of the State, nine miles wide by thirty-five long, where every single land-holder has been evicted—every acre, and evicted on mighty short notice—and the two or three land associations holding the mortgages have formed a great trust in Topeka to buy that tract that land in what."

"As their condition has been worse than that of the Irish writ of the mortgage, and the energy and enthusiasm with which they have gone into this movement for relief. Men, women and children share alike in the enthusiasm."

"The people's ticket includes all the laboring organizations. Even the negroes are moving with the other elements, having a negro candidate for state auditor on the people's ticket."

"Another thing I noticed was this: I dwell upon the idea that the interests of the South and the West, as a farming people, are identical. Their response to it is a great common interest at stake, and that they must work together to get relief."

"Whenever that sentiment was advanced, and in whatever shape, it was general. Those people are desperate, and they are breaking the party lines and making in one irresistible movement for relief."

FLORIDA. The St. John's County Savings Bank and Real Estate Exchange, doing business at St. Augustine, assigned to G. A. Crocker. A statement of liabilities shows heavy mal-appropriations. City officials and others are heavy losers.

At an informal meeting of the directors at Monticello, to arrange for the Alliance Exposition in Ocala, President Rogers was authorized to communicate with the secretary of state, James G. Blaine, extending him an official invitation to carry the Alliance banner to the exposition in Ocala on the opening day, and deliver the opening address. Each county in the State is to be allowed $40 for collecting and packing exhibits. A woman commissionaire was appointed for each county to attend the exhibition, and to take charge of certain exhibits.

$100,000 went up in flames at Appalachicola last Monday. The Kennedy plantation will be burned to the ground and several other mills were partly burned. It was thought for a time the entire town would go.

The Pensacola Chamber of Commerce has appointed a committee to meet with the Board of Health and determine the visibility of faking the census of the city, as the opinion prevails that the work of the federal enumerators was not properly done. The census of 1880, which Pensacola has a population of 13,000, and the census returns fix it at less than 12,000.

Rev. Sam Jones will be in Tampa January 28th, if the audience is ready, and will stay ten days. He will make no appointments in the State this season except for Tampa and Pensacola.

By the capsizing and sinking of a too-heavily ballasted sailboat in Charlotte Harbor Bay, Mr. Will Elliott, in charge of the Boca Grande light, was drowned.

OTHER STATES. A law went into effect in Louisiana last Friday requiring the railroad companies to furnish separate cars for white and colored passengers.

W. D. Jones, a physician of Osceola, Ark., last Sunday shot and killed Dwight McKinney, whom he caught in his wife's bedroom, and then fatally shot his wife.

The Mississippi convention Friday refused to reconsider section five, or the franchise report, which requires a vote to be able to read the constitution or understand the same when read to him.

The Country for Peaches. The day is not far distant when the central belt of the Carolinas will be the greatest peach-growing section of the Atlantic coast. So far we have no peaches in Virginia or North Carolina. This disease is fast destroying the orchards of Delaware and Maryland, and the peach supply must soon come from elsewhere. While the whole middle section of North Carolina will produce peaches to perfection, I am inclined to think that the high, rolling, sandy, pine land between the York and Cape Fear Rivers, through which the Raleigh & Augusta Railroad runs, is destined to be the great peach district. Planters should never plant a peach orchard in a low bottom or on the east or south slope of a hill, but on the highest and coldest exposure possible, otherwise the trees will bloom too soon and be caught by frosts.—W. P. Massey, Horticulturist, N. C. Experiment Station.

Glasnamate of Jefferson Davis Dead. Col. F. L. Daney died at his home near Orange Mills on the St. John's river, Fla., Tuesday night. He was 85 years old and was one of the best known citizens of Florida. He was educated at West Point and graduated in the class with Jefferson Davis. He served with distinction as United States officer in the Seminole war and later constructed for the government the famous sea wall at St. Augustine, Fla. Latterly he devoted his life to orange growing. He was buried Thursday with military honors.

Nominated After Balloting 5 Weeks. WILLIAMSON, Pa., Nov. 4.—The Republican Congressional conference at the sixteenth district after balloting five weeks, early in the morning succeeded in nominating A. C. Hopkins of Lockhart, Clinton county, a prominent lumberman. The Democratic congressional conference met here immediately after the close of the Republican conference, and nominated Mortimer F. Elliott, of 1000 county, who was congressman at large in 1888.

THE KANSAS ALLIANCE. RAPID DEVELOPMENT. The Great Southwest Region of Virginia.

The rapid development of this beautiful section of Virginia is a source of gratification and encouragement to all other portions of the South. The beautiful and flourishing cities which have sprung up by the magic, from Bedford City, out to the Tennessee line along the route of the Norfolk & Western Railroad and its great branch lines, exhibit a wonderful spectacle of thrift, progressiveness and energy. For this great awakening, much due to the splendid management of the Norfolk & Western Railroad in the influence it has exerted to bring capital into Virginia to develop in Appalachia, the great southwest country through which the road runs, and as a consequence to build up cities great and small.

Commenting on this remarkable development in the Index-Appal, has a most excellent article. It calls attention to the fact that the people once aroused to a consciousness of the wealth which nature has lavished on them, and to the fact that the supply of coal, especially proved themselves no laggards in the race for material progress and prosperity. They proclaimed their advantages for labor, and invited immigration and capital to exploit the rich earth almost upon the surface of the earth. Both came in a steady stream and found employment profitable beyond their most sanguine expectations. The supply of coal, especially, and grew in justly with the day. Industrial enterprises dotted the hillsides and valleys, and the busy hum of machinery broke the solitude that had so long reigned in Appalachia. The people, suffering with proverbial hard-poorly suddenly found themselves rich without an effort, and speculators, buying on the top of a rising market, made fortunes by the reckless and never-ceasing advance in value.

As the storehouse of exhaustless mineral resources, its uninterrupted prosperity, asserts the Index-Appal, is assured only by the fact that the coal, iron, lead, zinc and other minerals are in close proximity to each other, and the easy access which the section has to magnetism so slow in phosphate as to be adapted to the manufacture of Bessemer steel. The great Southwest as a formidable rival of Pennsylvania in the near future. Besides these, the largest zinc works in the South are in the Southwest at Pulaski, and the largest lead works in the South are in Wythe county. Copper and manganese are found in abundance, and we greatly mistake the enterprise of the age if the rich deposits of iron, copper, zinc, lead, and the mining of tin to be found all through those mountains.

But the wealth of the Southwest, is not restricted to her mineral resources; the land itself is a great asset. The vast areas of superior grazing lands afford a source of wealth in cattle-raising no less inexhaustible than the coal, iron, lead, and zinc, and second to them in value. To the industrious and thrifty man with a little capital here is a fortune in the natural increase of stock if managed with discretion. Every acre of land, and every new furrow in the Southwest adds to the profit of farming and stock-raising in that section, and to this is added the fact that every man's farm may hold a fortune for him beneath its surface.

The pen sketch of the Index-Appal is not exaggerated. To the people of North Carolina the best cultivated, the best soil is a source of intense satisfaction, for aside from the ties of friendship which bind them strongly together, they recognize that the growth and prosperity of the South is the growth and prosperity of the whole South. The growth and prosperity of the South is the growth and prosperity of the whole South.

At Perry, Ga., Tom Woolfolk was hanged Wednesday afternoon for the murder on Aug. 6th, 1887, of Capt. Richard P. Woolfolk, Sr., his wife, Mattie Woolfolk, their children, Richard P., Jr., Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Vice-President of the R. & D., attended by Superintendent R. R. Bridgers and Majors Wiley and Hinshaw, prominent in the South. They were taken to the bridge to inspect. All returned, except Vice-President Andrews, who went by private conveyance through the several routes proposed in the extension of the Wilkesboro branch over the mountains to Tennessee. The Richmond Terminal jointly owns the road already built from Norfolk to Stanhope, Nash county, N. C., with the Atlantic Coast Line. From the latter place the Richmond & Danville Company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro. When the latter place and connection between Bristol and Cincinnati, and will get that by the extension of the South Atlantic & Ohio road, now building, which is owned by the Richmond Terminal. The Richmond & Danville company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro. When the latter place and connection between Bristol and Cincinnati, and will get that by the extension of the South Atlantic & Ohio road, now building, which is owned by the Richmond Terminal. The Richmond & Danville company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro.

After Three Years of Technical Delays, Comes Justice. At Perry, Ga., Tom Woolfolk was hanged Wednesday afternoon for the murder on Aug. 6th, 1887, of Capt. Richard P. Woolfolk, Sr., his wife, Mattie Woolfolk, their children, Richard P., Jr., Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Vice-President of the R. & D., attended by Superintendent R. R. Bridgers and Majors Wiley and Hinshaw, prominent in the South. They were taken to the bridge to inspect. All returned, except Vice-President Andrews, who went by private conveyance through the several routes proposed in the extension of the Wilkesboro branch over the mountains to Tennessee. The Richmond Terminal jointly owns the road already built from Norfolk to Stanhope, Nash county, N. C., with the Atlantic Coast Line. From the latter place the Richmond & Danville Company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro. When the latter place and connection between Bristol and Cincinnati, and will get that by the extension of the South Atlantic & Ohio road, now building, which is owned by the Richmond Terminal. The Richmond & Danville company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro.

At Perry, Ga., Tom Woolfolk was hanged Wednesday afternoon for the murder on Aug. 6th, 1887, of Capt. Richard P. Woolfolk, Sr., his wife, Mattie Woolfolk, their children, Richard P., Jr., Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Vice-President of the R. & D., attended by Superintendent R. R. Bridgers and Majors Wiley and Hinshaw, prominent in the South. They were taken to the bridge to inspect. All returned, except Vice-President Andrews, who went by private conveyance through the several routes proposed in the extension of the Wilkesboro branch over the mountains to Tennessee. The Richmond Terminal jointly owns the road already built from Norfolk to Stanhope, Nash county, N. C., with the Atlantic Coast Line. From the latter place the Richmond & Danville Company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro. When the latter place and connection between Bristol and Cincinnati, and will get that by the extension of the South Atlantic & Ohio road, now building, which is owned by the Richmond Terminal. The Richmond & Danville company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro.

At Perry, Ga., Tom Woolfolk was hanged Wednesday afternoon for the murder on Aug. 6th, 1887, of Capt. Richard P. Woolfolk, Sr., his wife, Mattie Woolfolk, their children, Richard P., Jr., Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Vice-President of the R. & D., attended by Superintendent R. R. Bridgers and Majors Wiley and Hinshaw, prominent in the South. They were taken to the bridge to inspect. All returned, except Vice-President Andrews, who went by private conveyance through the several routes proposed in the extension of the Wilkesboro branch over the mountains to Tennessee. The Richmond Terminal jointly owns the road already built from Norfolk to Stanhope, Nash county, N. C., with the Atlantic Coast Line. From the latter place the Richmond & Danville Company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro. When the latter place and connection between Bristol and Cincinnati, and will get that by the extension of the South Atlantic & Ohio road, now building, which is owned by the Richmond Terminal. The Richmond & Danville company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro.

At Perry, Ga., Tom Woolfolk was hanged Wednesday afternoon for the murder on Aug. 6th, 1887, of Capt. Richard P. Woolfolk, Sr., his wife, Mattie Woolfolk, their children, Richard P., Jr., Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Vice-President of the R. & D., attended by Superintendent R. R. Bridgers and Majors Wiley and Hinshaw, prominent in the South. They were taken to the bridge to inspect. All returned, except Vice-President Andrews, who went by private conveyance through the several routes proposed in the extension of the Wilkesboro branch over the mountains to Tennessee. The Richmond Terminal jointly owns the road already built from Norfolk to Stanhope, Nash county, N. C., with the Atlantic Coast Line. From the latter place the Richmond & Danville Company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro. When the latter place and connection between Bristol and Cincinnati, and will get that by the extension of the South Atlantic & Ohio road, now building, which is owned by the Richmond Terminal. The Richmond & Danville company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro.

At Perry, Ga., Tom Woolfolk was hanged Wednesday afternoon for the murder on Aug. 6th, 1887, of Capt. Richard P. Woolfolk, Sr., his wife, Mattie Woolfolk, their children, Richard P., Jr., Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Vice-President of the R. & D., attended by Superintendent R. R. Bridgers and Majors Wiley and Hinshaw, prominent in the South. They were taken to the bridge to inspect. All returned, except Vice-President Andrews, who went by private conveyance through the several routes proposed in the extension of the Wilkesboro branch over the mountains to Tennessee. The Richmond Terminal jointly owns the road already built from Norfolk to Stanhope, Nash county, N. C., with the Atlantic Coast Line. From the latter place the Richmond & Danville Company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro. When the latter place and connection between Bristol and Cincinnati, and will get that by the extension of the South Atlantic & Ohio road, now building, which is owned by the Richmond Terminal. The Richmond & Danville company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro.

At Perry, Ga., Tom Woolfolk was hanged Wednesday afternoon for the murder on Aug. 6th, 1887, of Capt. Richard P. Woolfolk, Sr., his wife, Mattie Woolfolk, their children, Richard P., Jr., Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Vice-President of the R. & D., attended by Superintendent R. R. Bridgers and Majors Wiley and Hinshaw, prominent in the South. They were taken to the bridge to inspect. All returned, except Vice-President Andrews, who went by private conveyance through the several routes proposed in the extension of the Wilkesboro branch over the mountains to Tennessee. The Richmond Terminal jointly owns the road already built from Norfolk to Stanhope, Nash county, N. C., with the Atlantic Coast Line. From the latter place the Richmond & Danville Company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro. When the latter place and connection between Bristol and Cincinnati, and will get that by the extension of the South Atlantic & Ohio road, now building, which is owned by the Richmond Terminal. The Richmond & Danville company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro.

At Perry, Ga., Tom Woolfolk was hanged Wednesday afternoon for the murder on Aug. 6th, 1887, of Capt. Richard P. Woolfolk, Sr., his wife, Mattie Woolfolk, their children, Richard P., Jr., Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Vice-President of the R. & D., attended by Superintendent R. R. Bridgers and Majors Wiley and Hinshaw, prominent in the South. They were taken to the bridge to inspect. All returned, except Vice-President Andrews, who went by private conveyance through the several routes proposed in the extension of the Wilkesboro branch over the mountains to Tennessee. The Richmond Terminal jointly owns the road already built from Norfolk to Stanhope, Nash county, N. C., with the Atlantic Coast Line. From the latter place the Richmond & Danville Company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro. When the latter place and connection between Bristol and Cincinnati, and will get that by the extension of the South Atlantic & Ohio road, now building, which is owned by the Richmond Terminal. The Richmond & Danville company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro.

At Perry, Ga., Tom Woolfolk was hanged Wednesday afternoon for the murder on Aug. 6th, 1887, of Capt. Richard P. Woolfolk, Sr., his wife, Mattie Woolfolk, their children, Richard P., Jr., Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Vice-President of the R. & D., attended by Superintendent R. R. Bridgers and Majors Wiley and Hinshaw, prominent in the South. They were taken to the bridge to inspect. All returned, except Vice-President Andrews, who went by private conveyance through the several routes proposed in the extension of the Wilkesboro branch over the mountains to Tennessee. The Richmond Terminal jointly owns the road already built from Norfolk to Stanhope, Nash county, N. C., with the Atlantic Coast Line. From the latter place the Richmond & Danville Company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro. When the latter place and connection between Bristol and Cincinnati, and will get that by the extension of the South Atlantic & Ohio road, now building, which is owned by the Richmond Terminal. The Richmond & Danville company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro.

At Perry, Ga., Tom Woolfolk was hanged Wednesday afternoon for the murder on Aug. 6th, 1887, of Capt. Richard P. Woolfolk, Sr., his wife, Mattie Woolfolk, their children, Richard P., Jr., Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Vice-President of the R. & D., attended by Superintendent R. R. Bridgers and Majors Wiley and Hinshaw, prominent in the South. They were taken to the bridge to inspect. All returned, except Vice-President Andrews, who went by private conveyance through the several routes proposed in the extension of the Wilkesboro branch over the mountains to Tennessee. The Richmond Terminal jointly owns the road already built from Norfolk to Stanhope, Nash county, N. C., with the Atlantic Coast Line. From the latter place the Richmond & Danville Company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro. When the latter place and connection between Bristol and Cincinnati, and will get that by the extension of the South Atlantic & Ohio road, now building, which is owned by the Richmond Terminal. The Richmond & Danville company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro.

At Perry, Ga., Tom Woolfolk was hanged Wednesday afternoon for the murder on Aug. 6th, 1887, of Capt. Richard P. Woolfolk, Sr., his wife, Mattie Woolfolk, their children, Richard P., Jr., Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Vice-President of the R. & D., attended by Superintendent R. R. Bridgers and Majors Wiley and Hinshaw, prominent in the South. They were taken to the bridge to inspect. All returned, except Vice-President Andrews, who went by private conveyance through the several routes proposed in the extension of the Wilkesboro branch over the mountains to Tennessee. The Richmond Terminal jointly owns the road already built from Norfolk to Stanhope, Nash county, N. C., with the Atlantic Coast Line. From the latter place the Richmond & Danville Company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro. When the latter place and connection between Bristol and Cincinnati, and will get that by the extension of the South Atlantic & Ohio road, now building, which is owned by the Richmond Terminal. The Richmond & Danville company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro.

At Perry, Ga., Tom Woolfolk was hanged Wednesday afternoon for the murder on Aug. 6th, 1887, of Capt. Richard P. Woolfolk, Sr., his wife, Mattie Woolfolk, their children, Richard P., Jr., Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Vice-President of the R. & D., attended by Superintendent R. R. Bridgers and Majors Wiley and Hinshaw, prominent in the South. They were taken to the bridge to inspect. All returned, except Vice-President Andrews, who went by private conveyance through the several routes proposed in the extension of the Wilkesboro branch over the mountains to Tennessee. The Richmond Terminal jointly owns the road already built from Norfolk to Stanhope, Nash county, N. C., with the Atlantic Coast Line. From the latter place the Richmond & Danville Company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro. When the latter place and connection between Bristol and Cincinnati, and will get that by the extension of the South Atlantic & Ohio road, now building, which is owned by the Richmond Terminal. The Richmond & Danville company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro.

At Perry, Ga., Tom Woolfolk was hanged Wednesday afternoon for the murder on Aug. 6th, 1887, of Capt. Richard P. Woolfolk, Sr., his wife, Mattie Woolfolk, their children, Richard P., Jr., Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Vice-President of the R. & D., attended by Superintendent R. R. Bridgers and Majors Wiley and Hinshaw, prominent in the South. They were taken to the bridge to inspect. All returned, except Vice-President Andrews, who went by private conveyance through the several routes proposed in the extension of the Wilkesboro branch over the mountains to Tennessee. The Richmond Terminal jointly owns the road already built from Norfolk to Stanhope, Nash county, N. C., with the Atlantic Coast Line. From the latter place the Richmond & Danville Company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro. When the latter place and connection between Bristol and Cincinnati, and will get that by the extension of the South Atlantic & Ohio road, now building, which is owned by the Richmond Terminal. The Richmond & Danville company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro.

At Perry, Ga., Tom Woolfolk was hanged Wednesday afternoon for the murder on Aug. 6th, 1887, of Capt. Richard P. Woolfolk, Sr., his wife, Mattie Woolfolk, their children, Richard P., Jr., Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Vice-President of the R. & D., attended by Superintendent R. R. Bridgers and Majors Wiley and Hinshaw, prominent in the South. They were taken to the bridge to inspect. All returned, except Vice-President Andrews, who went by private conveyance through the several routes proposed in the extension of the Wilkesboro branch over the mountains to Tennessee. The Richmond Terminal jointly owns the road already built from Norfolk to Stanhope, Nash county, N. C., with the Atlantic Coast Line. From the latter place the Richmond & Danville Company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro. When the latter place and connection between Bristol and Cincinnati, and will get that by the extension of the South Atlantic & Ohio road, now building, which is owned by the Richmond Terminal. The Richmond & Danville company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro.

At Perry, Ga., Tom Woolfolk was hanged Wednesday afternoon for the murder on Aug. 6th, 1887, of Capt. Richard P. Woolfolk, Sr., his wife, Mattie Woolfolk, their children, Richard P., Jr., Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Vice-President of the R. & D., attended by Superintendent R. R. Bridgers and Majors Wiley and Hinshaw, prominent in the South. They were taken to the bridge to inspect. All returned, except Vice-President Andrews, who went by private conveyance through the several routes proposed in the extension of the Wilkesboro branch over the mountains to Tennessee. The Richmond Terminal jointly owns the road already built from Norfolk to Stanhope, Nash county, N. C., with the Atlantic Coast Line. From the latter place the Richmond & Danville Company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro. When the latter place and connection between Bristol and Cincinnati, and will get that by the extension of the South Atlantic & Ohio road, now building, which is owned by the Richmond Terminal. The Richmond & Danville company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro.

At Perry, Ga., Tom Woolfolk was hanged Wednesday afternoon for the murder on Aug. 6th, 1887, of Capt. Richard P. Woolfolk, Sr., his wife, Mattie Woolfolk, their children, Richard P., Jr., Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Vice-President of the R. & D., attended by Superintendent R. R. Bridgers and Majors Wiley and Hinshaw, prominent in the South. They were taken to the bridge to inspect. All returned, except Vice-President Andrews, who went by private conveyance through the several routes proposed in the extension of the Wilkesboro branch over the mountains to Tennessee. The Richmond Terminal jointly owns the road already built from Norfolk to Stanhope, Nash county, N. C., with the Atlantic Coast Line. From the latter place the Richmond & Danville Company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro. When the latter place and connection between Bristol and Cincinnati, and will get that by the extension of the South Atlantic & Ohio road, now building, which is owned by the Richmond Terminal. The Richmond & Danville company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro.

At Perry, Ga., Tom Woolfolk was hanged Wednesday afternoon for the murder on Aug. 6th, 1887, of Capt. Richard P. Woolfolk, Sr., his wife, Mattie Woolfolk, their children, Richard P., Jr., Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Monday Col. B. Andrews, 2nd Lt. Vice-President of the R. & D., attended by Superintendent R. R. Bridgers and Majors Wiley and Hinshaw, prominent in the South. They were taken to the bridge to inspect. All returned, except Vice-President Andrews, who went by private conveyance through the several routes proposed in the extension of the Wilkesboro branch over the mountains to Tennessee. The Richmond Terminal jointly owns the road already built from Norfolk to Stanhope, Nash county, N. C., with the Atlantic Coast Line. From the latter place the Richmond & Danville Company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro. When the latter place and connection between Bristol and Cincinnati, and will get that by the extension of the South Atlantic & Ohio road, now building, which is owned by the Richmond Terminal. The Richmond & Danville company will build 90 miles to Raleigh to connect with their line to Wilkesboro.

At Perry, Ga., Tom Woolfolk was hanged Wednesday