

THE DARLINGTON HERALD

A. S. McIVER, Editor.

Wednesday, November 12, 1890

The great Democratic cyclone has swept the country.

Straightouts, bid your time! We will try it again two years from now.

The Democratic majority in the 52nd Congress will be over one hundred.

Clark Howell, managing editor of the Atlanta Constitution, has been elected Speaker of the Georgia House of Representatives.

The Straightouts, Tillmanites and Republicans are all to be congratulated upon their good behavior on the day of election.

Lew. Wallace truthfully says: "As a rule, there is no surer way to the dislike of men than to behave well where they have behaved badly."

The annual conference of the M. E. Church, North, for South Carolina, will be held at Greenville on February 5, 1891. Bishop Warren will preside.

While we do not believe B. R. Tillman capable of a pure thought or of doing a good act, if he should accidentally stumble upon either while Governor of South Carolina and we hear of it we shall take pleasure in giving him due credit therefor. "Give the devil his dues."

The Alabama General Assembly convenes on yesterday in biennial session. It will proceed at once to count and declare the vote of August last for State officers. Gov. Seay will step down and out, and Hon. Thomas G. Jones, who was selected by nearly one hundred thousand majority in August, will be inaugurated Governor. On November 25th the General Assembly will ballot for United States Senator.

"Our Monthly," published by the Thornwell Orphanage says of Rev. H. C. DuBose: "The last session of the Synod of South Carolina had a delightful experience in the selection of its Moderator, by a unanimous standing vote. Rev. H. C. DuBose, of Soochow, China, was the man. He presided to the satisfaction of all parties in the Synod, and closed his work with the love of all. May we ever have a Chinese Moderator."

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

By the grace and favor of Almighty God the people of this nation have been closing the days of the passing year, which has been full of the blessings of peace and the comforts of plenty. Bountiful compensation has come to us for the work of our minds and of our hands in every department of human industry. Now therefore, I, Benj. Harrison, President of the United States of America, do hereby appoint Thursday, the 27th day of the present month of November, to be observed as a day of prayer and thanksgiving, and I do invite the people, upon that day to cease from their labors to meet in their accustomed houses of worship, and to join in rendering gratitude and praise to our Beneficent Creator for the rich blessing He has given to us as a nation, and invoking the continuance of His protection and grace for the future.

I commend to my fellow citizens the privilege of remembering the poor, the homeless and the sorrowful. Let us endeavor to merit the promised recompense of charity and gracious acceptance of our praise.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this eighth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and of the independence of the United States one hundred and fiftieth.

(Signed) BENJ. HARRISON, By the President.

JAMES G. BLAINE, Secretary of State.

The Old Reliable.

"A Holiday Number" one may well call the December Peterson. It is the handsomest number we have ever seen of this excellent magazine—a hint of what may be expected for 1891, which will be its fiftieth anniversary. The "Cupid" on the title-page is an enchanting little fellow, and the steel and full-page wood-engravings are very beautiful. The opening illustrated article, "Some Ice Carnival Sketches" is in Harriet Latham's sprightliest vein. "A Problem Never Solved," is the best story we have ever read from Edgar Fawcett's facile pen. "From Christmas to Christmas," is a capital tale with a series of admirable illustrations. "Along Lake Como" is another finely illustrated paper. These are only a few of the number's attractions. Lucy H. Hooper's Paris letter gives the newest fashion chit-chat, and the colored plate and other designs the latest styles for outdoor and home wear. The needle-work department teems with designs for holiday gifts. As a latter periodical Peterson out-rides all others. Now is the time to get up a club. Terms: $2.00 a year; 2 copies $3.50; 3 copies $4.50, with a handsome premium to the getter-up of the club; 4 copies $6.40; 6 copies $9.00, with an extra copy of the magazine for one year to the getter-up of the club. A sample copy, with full particulars, will be sent to Club raisers. Address Peterson's Magazine, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Elected by a Small Vote.

After the long and heated campaign through which the people of the State passed last Summer and the intense feeling displayed on both sides, it is certainly astonishing that the Tillmanites took no more interest in the election than is evidenced by the light vote in nearly all parts of the State. Previous to the election it was predicted that there would be one of the largest votes ever cast in the State, but the result shows that the vote is about the same as it has been for the last two or three gubernatorial contests in our State. Tillman has the unenviable distinction of having been elected Governor by one of the smallest votes ever known in the State when there were two tickets in the field. The Tillmanites had become tired out with the eternal wranglings and bickerings of the campaign and had begun to realize that Haskell's election would have done them no harm. Many of those who sympathized with Judge Haskell questioned the wisdom of splitting the white vote and stayed away from the polls. Therefore, taking all these things into consideration, it may be safely said that Tillman was not only not the choice of the people of the State but it may be questioned if half of the white voters were in favor of his election. Out of a white vote of 75,000 or 80,000 and a colored vote of about 100,000 he has been elected with 40,000. Of course he has gained the object of his ambition and cares little about the number of votes which elected him, but if he were the right kind of a man he would feel a little sore over such a small vote. However, Tillman cannot be measured by the standard which is used for other public men.

The United States Senate.

When the four Republican Senators from Wyoming and Idaho take their seats in December, the United States Senate will stand 51 Republicans and 37 Democrats. The terms of 28 Senators expire on the 4th of March next. Twelve of these are Democrats, and Democratic Legislatures have already chosen four of them and the other eight to be chosen will be Democrats. Of the sixteen Republicans one, Allison, of Iowa, has been chosen, leaving fifteen more to elect. The Democrats will gain of these certainly three, viz: New York, Illinois and Wisconsin. It is reasonably safe to claim New Hampshire, although the Republicans are resorting to the Returning Board and Montana theft methods to steal the Legislature. Kansas, whatever may be the politics of a majority of the Legislature, is dead against Ingalls, and may send a Democrat. An anti-tariff and anti-force bill man is sure to be chosen. In South Dakota a state of affairs similar to that in Kansas exists, and Senator Moody, force bill and high tariff Republican, will have to walk the plank. This reduces the Republicans down to 45 and puts up the Democratic and anti-Republican vote to 43. This gives the Republicans two majority, and these they stole from Montana.

Standard Bred Horses.

The following are the latest regulations adopted by the American Trotting Association governing the registration of animals in Wallace's American Trotting Register:

- 1st. Any stallion that has himself a record of two minutes and thirty seconds (2:30) or better provided any of his get has a record of 2:35 or better, or provided his sire or dam is already a standard animal.
- 2nd. Any mare or gelding that has a record of 2:30 or better.
- 3rd. Any horse that is the sire of two animals with a record of 2:30 or better.
- 4th. Any horse that is the sire of one animal with a record of 2:30 or better, provided he has either of the following qualifications: (1) A record himself of 2:35 or better. (2) Is the sire of two other animals with a record of 2:35 or better. (3) Has a sire or dam that is already a standard animal.
- 5th. Any mare that has produced an animal with a record of 2:30 or better.
- 6th. The progeny of a standard horse when out of a standard mare.
- 7th. The female progeny of a standard horse when out of a mare by a standard horse.
- 8th. The female progeny of a standard horse when out of a mare whose dam is a standard mare.
- 9th. Any mare that has a record of 2:35 or better and whose sire or dam is a standard animal.

It is estimated that there will be about 242 Democrats and 89 Republicans in the next National House of Representatives—a majority of 153 for the Democrats. McKinley's Tariff Bill and Lodge's Election Bill are the agencies that did the work.

The Baltimore Record's reports show the organization in the Southern States, during the last month, of upwards of three thousand new enterprises, including almost every line of industry, from the small saw mills to great steel and iron works; and it says the last quarter of the year bids fair to be the most active ever seen in the South.

The News and Courier informs us that "in the 7th district Miller's tickets are fatally defective, and Col. Elliott goes to Congress."
