

W. D. WOODS, } EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS. T. J. DREW. }

DARLINGTON, S. C.

Wednesday, June 1, 1892.

What are we going to do about the World's Fair? Is Darlington to fall behind her sister towns in this work?

The Graded School closed on Tuesday. There were no public exercises. The vacation will last for three months.

Mr. P. Z. Harllee has been elected superintendent of the Oil Mill, in place of Mr. A. C. McFall, who has resigned.

Dr. W. J. Garner has sent Mr. Eugene Vaughn a small package of the soil taken from the crater of Vesuvius.

A good baker can find a splendid opening in Darlington and make money, if he understands the business and will give people nice bread.

The exercises at Wesley Chapel on Sunday, (Children's Day,) were a success in every respect. We hope to give the program, in full, in the next issue of THE HERALD.

The schedule of the freight train on the C. & D. Railroad has been changed. The up train now leaves Darlington at 9.05 a. m., and the down train at 4.00 p. m.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held at 8.30 o'clock this evening. All members are earnestly requested to attend.

Under the new schedule of the C. & N. Railroad, passengers along the line of said Railroad are thereby enabled to spend six hours in the city of Charleston and return the same night.

Mr. Frank Pegues, agent at the C. & D. depot, informs us that round trip tickets to the State Teachers Association, in Columbia, will be on sale July 18-20, good returning until July 23 inclusive, for $4.80.

On account of the commencement at Allen University, Columbia, S. C., round trip tickets will be sold at the C. & D. depot for $4.35. Tickets will be on sale May 31st to June 2nd, good returning until June 6th.

We regret very much that the change in the schedule of the C. S. & N. R. R., will do away with the connection at Bennettsville, but trust that the difficulty may be met in some way, so that this route to the mountains may be made accessible.

The correspondent of the News and Courier, at this place, was more intent on enjoying a boat ride, on Thursday, than he was in giving a correct report of the target shooting and the presentation of the prizes, but, under the circumstances, he is unannouncedly excused.

Mr. H. H. Huggins, a former resident, but now of Roanoke, Va., spent last week in town. He left for Columbia on Monday where he was married on Tuesday night to Miss Platte, of that city. They left soon after the ceremony for Roanoke.

Messrs C. S. Huggins and J. E. Boyd went over to attend the marriage.

On account of meeting Southern Educational Association, at Atlanta, July 5th to 8th, round trip tickets, good to July 12th, will be sold at following rates: Florence and Darlington, $12.30; Cheraw and Wadesboro, $12.80. This is by the Atlantic Coast Line. Those who wish to attend the meeting of the National Educational Association, at Saratoga, July 11th to 15th, can have their tickets extended to Sept. 15th, if they have a certificate signed by the Secretary of the Association certifying that they were present at the meeting.

The Council ought to have the whole town thoroughly cleaned and require everybody to keep their premises in perfect order throughout the Summer. Perfect drainage and absolute cleanliness will insure us against sickness through the Summer. The columns of THE HERALD are open for reporting those who do not keep their premises in perfect order. The immediate vicinity of the Square needs immediate attention. The odors inhaled on some of the streets, leading from the Square, are not, to say the least, very aromatic in their nature. There is a tradition that the town once had a Board of Health, but the most diligent search fails to find the faintest vestige of any work they ever did.

Off for the Penitentiary. Joe James and Lewis Williams, whose sentences were commuted by the Governor to life imprisonment, were taken, by Sheriff Cole, to the Penitentiary on Monday. This is the close of a long fought case and one that has attracted a great deal of attention throughout the State, and the Governor has, we think unjustly, received a great deal of harsh criticism for the commutation.

Personal. Mr. H. E. Sessions, of Cheraw, was in town on Monday. Miss Nonie Williamson is visiting Miss Pegues of Cheraw. Miss Clara Ward has returned from Converse College. Mr. Lauren Parrott, of Sumter, spent Friday in town. Miss Hattie McKleroy, of Anniston, Ala., is visiting at Mr. S. A. Wood's.

Mr. J. D. East has returned from Bennettsville where he has been teaching since the Fall. Rev. H. M. Brearley conducted the both services at the Presbyterian Church on Sunday. Miss Emma Sanders, who has been visiting at Mr. Boyd's, returned home on Monday.

Mrs. C. S. McCullough and Miss Gena Benson left this morning for a short sojourn on Sullivan Island. Miss Hallie Sanders, who has been attending the Graded School during the past session, returned to her home, at Hagood, on Monday.

The Maroon of the Darlington Guards.

Thursday was an ideal day for a picnic, and the weather was everything that could be wished. The Guards turned out in strong force, and the occasion was also honored by a large number of their friends, who participated in the festivities of the day. We very much fear that the ride to the lake was not calculated to steady the nerves of some of the young men, as their firing went very wide of the target. Sergeant Louis McCall won the first prize, the silver cup, for being the best shot. Private C. M. Ward was awarded a tin cup for making the poorest score. Mr. G. W. Brown took the prize, a shaving case, given to the contributing members and Miss Hattie Ervin the ladies prize. Mr. J. L. Michie presented the prizes to Sergeant McCall and private Ward, and it is needless to say that he did so in very happy style, especially in presenting the tin cup. Col. Melver presented the contributing members prize, and entertained everybody by the appropriateness of his remarks. By some mischance it fell to the lot of the editor of THE HERALD to present the ladies prize, and being an extremely modest man and entirely unaccustomed to speaking, the embarrassment under which he labored can easily be appreciated. The time was very pleasantly spent and all present were under obligations to Capt. Thompson and the Guards for a very enjoyable day. Of course the Lake was utilized for boat riding, and it is easy to imagine that, with such romantic surroundings, some of the conversations were of a very tender and personal nature. But then the naughty and irrepressible Cupid is always on hand, and takes special delight in gatherings of this kind, and it is a wonder that anybody escapes his arrows. If the Lake were a photograph there is no computing how many tales of love it could unfold, but fortunately it keeps its secrets well, and the words of love that sink into its placid depths are buried forever, but will linger in the memories of those to whom they were spoken as long as life endures.

The dinner was an elegant one, and the fish stew was especially fine. The management of the whole affair was most admirable in every respect, and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the day. Some of the folks must have driven very slowly in returning, if the time they took for the trip be taken into consideration. But they did not want to be cruel to the horses, and then too some of these indispensable animals are very lazy, and besides this nobody was in a hurry, for who takes note of time when pleasure holds high carnival. "How sped the hours, unnoted hours, Whose footfalls only touched on flowers, Such seldom glad this World of ours."

A Moral Cock Fight. Under the above heading the News and Courier, in its issue of April 28, gives an account of a big chicken fight that was to take place, somewhere in this State, and goes on to say that there is plenty of money among the boys and that it is being freely staked on the result. It also states that the objectionable features that marred the last exhibition of this character are to be entirely eliminated from this one. We confess that we are at a loss to understand how any sport of this character, if it can be designated as such, could be called moral no matter how it might be conducted. It is essentially debasing and cruel, and no man with humane instincts will countenance it in any way whatever. The fighting is worse than the gambling and betting, that invariably accompany it, for the reason that it causes a great deal of suffering to the chickens. The difference between chicken fighting and pigeon shooting is only one of degree, but both are inexcusable and serve no purpose except to foster the brutal instincts of those who indulge in them. Sometime ago the News and Courier at our suggestion, practically broke up a contemplated pigeon shooting match at Greenville, and we can't understand why it does not condemn chicken fighting also.

Change of Schedule on the C. S. & N. Railroad.

Commencing May 30, a new schedule went into effect on the C. S. & N. Railroad. The trains on this road no longer connect at Bennettsville with the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad. The South bound train on the C. S. & N. Railroad now passes Darlington at 6:04 a. m., and the North bound passes at 10:21 p. m.

Closing Exercises of the Mayo School, (Colored.)

The second annual exercises of this school were closed on Friday, with the following programme: Song—Welcome, Quartette, Mary Smalls, Hattie Smalls, Louis Ervine, Stephen Wright. Prayer. Flag drill—By a class of girls. Recitation—An old bachelor, Hattie Jackson. Recitation—The tramp, George Williamson. Chorus—Motto for every man, by the school. Recitation—Toussaint L'Ouverture, Stephen Wright. Tableau—The murder of John the Baptist, Mabel Keith, Eugenia Scott, Samuel Ervine, Moses Gregg and others. Duett—Our girls, Montez Lewenthal and Mary Humbert. Recitation—The organ builder, Eliza King. Recitation—Spartacus to the Gladiators, Louis Ervine. Song, Medley, Quartette. Dialogue—Advertising for a wife, Inez Lewenthal, Addie Goodson, Rebecca Law, Charles Postell, James Brown. Recitation—Nebuchadnezzar, Rufus Lomax. Recitation—The manie, Montez Lewenthal. Song (comic)—Eggs for your breakfast, Quartette. Recitation—The last banquet, Mary Smith. Recitation—The black regiment, Norma Swinton. Fan drill and buslesque—By a class of boys and girls. Awarding of prizes.

The session was a successful one, and the closing exercises were witnessed by a large audience. The following are the teachers: Thomas L. Cottin, A. M., Prin.; Misses E. W. DeWees, J. B. Smith, M. L. Smith and Mrs. E. B. Nixon.

A Card.

Having been informed that there are many ladies who say that they have asked us to change their old style trunks to a roller-tray, and we have refused to accommodate them, we beg to say that we would like very much to oblige them, but we cannot make the change with credit to ourselves. The Roller-Tray trunks being made in every way superior to be ordinary trunk. Very respectfully, H. W. ROUNTREE & BRO., Richmond, Va.

Cypress Notes.

CYPRESS, S. C., May 30, 1892.—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Vaughan's little 2-year-old son died on last Saturday evening. The family have the sympathy of this community in their bereavement. We had a refreshing shower on last Sunday night, and crops look very much revived. Mrs. John R. Wadford, of the Newman Swamp neighborhood died last Saturday morning. Farmers are harvesting their oat crop. There seems to be a great demand for seed peas among our farmers. Some of our people attended children's day at Wesley Chapel last Saturday.

News Items.

On Friday night the city of Wellington Kansas was almost destroyed by a terrible tornado, and a good many lives were lost. Heavy pieces of machinery were lifted and carried off like shingles, and in some instances houses were turned upside down and left in that position. A horse was taken from his stable and landed on the top of a two-story house. A good many lives were lost, but the number cannot be definitely stated as the rains have not all been searched. The same storm almost totally destroyed the town of Harper in the same State.

Senator Vilas struck the nail on the head in the senate recently. The question for our navy is, what do we want? If we rival the great European powers, if we keep our selves in position to cope with them in sea fighting, we will soon be the most grievously burdened people on earth. Our pension for the last war already cost more than a great standing army and our out substance with ever increasing voracity. With a first class navy added, even our wonderful resources will be taxed and in time of profound peace we will destroy ourselves for the expenses of one war which was finished twenty-seven years ago and another which may never come.

The silver men are still hammering away in Washington under the delusion that they can push the free coinage measure through.

Tillman And The Alliance.

The South Carolina Alliance has repeatedly declared for the sub-treasury system. That has been the main plank in the platform, and the highest test of loyalty of the members. It was adopted at Ocala in 1890, was reaffirmed at Cincinnati in 1891 and at St. Louis in 1892. It is the leading "demand." Yet Gov. Tillman, who has publicly declared his opposition to this plank is said to be the Alliance candidate for Governor now and for United States Senator in 1893.

There is no measure that the "leaders" of the Alliance in this State have opposed more strenuously than State banks. Gov. Tillman favors State banks. The explanation—the only possible explanation—is that Tillman and the Alliance leaders are afraid of each other and, instead of fighting out their differences, have formed a league offensive and defensive against the balance of mankind for the control of the offices. They are held together by the cohesive power of public pap—and the people pay the piper.—Newberry Observer.
