THE DARLINGTON HERALD.

VOL. III.

day.

DARLINGTON, SOUTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, MAY 12, 1893.

NO. 37.

CURRENT TOPICS. WANT OUR SOLDIERS. An Invitation for Them to Come to WHAT YOU KNOW AND WHAT YOU Richmond. The following letter from chair man P. W. McKinney, of the com DON'T KNOW. mittee in charge of the arrangements Personals and Short Items of Inincident to the reinterment of the terest to the Local and General dead president of the Confederacy, directed to the adjutant general, is Reader. self-ex-planatory: If you would save money patronize THE HERALD job office. Mr. S. Wolfram will move into his new residence on Monday. According to the usual custom all the stores were closed on 'memorial Printed envelopes from $2 to $3 per thousand at THE HERALD job office. Mrs. Sallie F. Chapin, of Charleston, is visiting her brother Mr. J. O. A. Moore. A basket picnic at McCown's pond A basket pichte at incover spond was grealy enjoyed on Saturday by the young folks. There was no services at the Pres-byterian church on lest Sunday owing to the absence of the pastor. "The Rambler," the best bycicle every military organization in the in America, can now be bought on in America, can now be bought on season of the sary terms. Apply at THE HERALD office. THE HERALD has just received a job press freeh from the manufacturer, and will compete with any printing house in the State in style and prices. The Tennyson Club met at the residence of Mr. J. J. Ward on Friday night, but owing to the small stendance the regular programme was not observed. Bev. T. M. Lowry, Financial Rev. T. easy terms. Apply at THE HERALD

Rev. T. M. Lowry, Financial Agent of Columbia Theological Seminary, will preach in the Presbyterian Church next Sabbath at 11 A. M. and 8.15 P. M. Tickets to Chicago via Richmond or Petersburg, Va., final limit November 15, 1893, are now on sale at the following rates: From Darlington Company, thirty-nine acres in city, Cheraw $37.15, Sumter $6,000. $36.15,

Owing to the appointment as general manager of the Port Royal Railroad, Colonel Averill has resign-ed his position on the C. S. & N. R. R. and Mr. Curtis Millard has T. P. Smith to C. Mooney, two lots in city, $200. C. B. Edwards to A. U. Lee, nine-ty-eight acres, $983. T. H. Curtis Millard has been appointed in his place.

Mr. J. H. Schmid, the assistant Postmaster, has had the lobby of the tee, lot in Society Hill, $10. postoffice scoured out, and it now looks a great deal more presentable. in Society Hill, $10. that the

MEMORIAL DAY. PAVING TRIBUTE TO THE CON-

cises.

DEAR SIR: Enclosed please find an the undying affection that is felt for invitation from R. E. Lee Camp our immortal dead, than the tre-Confederate Veterans No. 1, to the mendous outpouring of all classes of ceremonies incident to the reception and reinterment of the remains of to pay the annual tribute of decorat-heart and mind and principle. Inter building school has changed to a o'clock and reinterment of the remains of President Jefferson Davis on May 31 1892. The invitation committee respect-fully request that you will notify the several regiments and companies the several regiments and companies gathered for this purpose and it was memory of men whose cause has fallen in your State of the invitation and impossible for them all to find room never to be raised again. Why? in your state of the invitation and impossible for them all to find room never to be raised again. Why is the spirit which can never die. The spirit which can never die. The spirit that gave itself for principle and duty. Ah, herein the ceremonies will report to Gen. C. J. Anderson, Richmond, Va., at as the children, who marched in the ence. They gave their lives for State, as we have no roster to be gov- being taken up by the httle girls. To luxury and reputation, more than all half interest in lot in city, $1,050. G. H. Edwards to Warley Swinton, lot in town, $200. J. C. Willcox to N. E. Gandy, lot in city, $658.

W. D. Marshall to J. P. Mazingo, two and three-fourth acres, $55. G. H. Edwards to Home Insurance I. Siskron to Ida S. Jeffords, lot in

On the mountain's starry crest, Whose kindling lights are signals made To the mansions of the blest: No,-no,-no! For, bright though the mountain be, It has no gem in its diadem Like the life-spark of the free! T. H. Cannon to B. O. Neill & Son, twenty-three acres, $1,200. G. W. Brown to H. M. Haig, trus-

Where shall their dust be laid?--On the ocean's stormy shore, With wailing woods at their backs ar-D. L. Winters to G. W. Brown, lot raved shaft and speaking epitaph, tears and regret for loved ones passed away, the tribute of a few short words to duty nobly done, can never do HAPPENINGS AT THE FACTORY sufficient homage to our dead. Their memory calls for deeper things than these. Their names must be preserved in a more enduring monument must be wrought in flesh and blood, and Other News. in living thought and character, in sons and daughters worthy of their name and parentage. We cannot rest upon the laurels of the past, the honor of our dead demands that our week.

seats in the rear of the company than power, more than wealth and organ. The other members of the so-called "times of peace." Ah! on choir were Misses Emma Edwards and Mary Law, and Messrs. C. B. Edwards, S. H. Wilds, J. E. Norment and we love. The present, future, the roads of the Richmond and Dan-Edwards of the roads of the Richmond and Dan-Edwards, S. H. Wilds, J. E. Norment and we love. The present, future, the roads of the Richmond and Dan-Edwards of the Richmond and Dan-Excellency."

destiny of a nation is moulded on the ville system.

diseased and sluggish manhood in the dust—to where in modern times the ravings of a mad Voltaire exposed the hellish spirit which had seized a nation's heart, which plunged all Europe in a revolution never felt before. These are the products of degenerate hopes, the work of low and the through freight and travel on what is high and noble, would Florence railroad for the month as the 5th, at the office of the president. York counties, some houses and fruit And shouting seas before: make mere playthings of our works compared with the same month of The whole number of shares is 2,250 trees being blown down. Corn is of art, would sneer at what are called religious truths, and scoff at deep convictions, would smother all of of this road show an increase of convictions, would smother all of genius that the world holds dear, $6,000.27 or 2,199.2 per cent. would meanly, basely give up all the manhood that they have to welter, increase of $7,675.40 or 52.01 per During the past year the consump- especially for oats and wheat which waste and rot within a darkened cent. over the earnings of the same tion was 4,600 bales of cotton. The will make about half a crop. About world of folly and of vice. Again, month last year The increase in the output of the mill was 4,000,000 yds. two-thirds of the cotton crop is up. what say we. Are these the princi- passenger department of this road is of cloth and 375,000 pounds of yarn Kershaw reports that the rains have ples which insure success and power? 73.17 per cent. Are these the builders of the towering empires, those mile-stones on the shows an increase of $8,142.52 or ufacture, worth $310,000. $52,000 are begining to break. A severe march of history! Yet, how shall 37.18per cent; and the Port Royal was paid out for labor, $10,000 for cyclone passed through Lexington we meet the temper of the times? and Western Carolino road of $2,530. fuel and $15,000 for treight. Messrs. and Newberry counties doing great Oh! thanks that we have a history; 89 or 8.27 per cent. day, but the cool rainy weather forced our markets, a few of them being too They could never hold all the knightly thanks that we have sacred memories of duty nobly done; thanks that Northern road shows an increase of gan, E. Keith Dargan, B. William- ade of the path of the storm, however we still have high examples of ideal $1,537.17 and the Charleston and son, I. Lewenthal, J. G. McCail and crops are doing meely. aims and noble lives; thank God that Sayannah $5,15140. The Columbia, H. Baer were elected directors for even yet, despite the heat and pres- Newberry and Laurens gives an in- the ensuing year. Capt. W. C. Coker sure of the times, the grand old past crease of $1,781.71, with a passenger has yet a voice of counsel and com- increase of 176.19 per cent.

ON THE HILL. THIS WEEK.

Personal Paragraphs Pertaining to prosucute the lynchers, and Mr. Jervey answers as follows: Visiting People---Improvements SIR .- Your letter of the 6th inst.

THE DENMARK LYNCHING.

The Coker band is giving open air concerts at the band stand twice a week. The public is invited to attend.

Rev. J. A. White closed the protracted meeting at the hall last Sunday night. He will preach here again Saturday night, May 20th.

Louise Northcott secretary and treasurer. The society will meet at the hall the first Sunday in each month. house held a meeting last Tuesday

Of Interest to Pensioners.

CROP REPORT. Solicitor Jervey, of Charleston, Re-AN INTERESTING REPORT FROM fuses to be Ordered About. Governor Tillman last week in THE STATE OBSERVER.

structed Solicitor Jervey to take charge of the Denmark matter and The Condition of the Crops for the Past Week-The Showing for Darlington.

and Other News. The mill turned off over one hun-dred thousand yards of cloth last week. The Sunday-school has changed the hour of meeting to 4 o'clock instead of 3 o'clock. Mr. W. G. Dickson is spending a week's vacation with friends and relatives in Marion, his old home. The Coker band is giving open air The Coker band is giving open air inst. you asked no advice, but per-emptorially "directed" me to do an act forbidden by the Constitution. very bad. Oats will not go over half Now, however, if you really wish a crop. Wheat is good, but the rain advice and purpose to have the Den-came too late for corn. Some sweet mark affair investigated, I respect potatoes have been transplanted. On fully suggest that you call upon the the 2d and 3d a sand storm swept The company held their annual meeting last Thursday and declared a dividend of 7 per cent. Capt. W. C. Coker was again elected presi-dent and treasurer. The ladies organized a Mission Curricht hore last Sunday evening

Society here last Sunday evening with twelve members. Mrs. John Such prosecutions, and should it then Cotton is being worked and is com-appear that the Solicitor of the Second Circuit is confronted by the possible embarrassment to which he but in low lands is being injured by all the first Sunday in each month. has alluded, he may be relieved, by worms. Although cotton up looks The stockholders of the bathing his assistant, of all further active well it is only a fair stand. Temparticipation. night and decided to put in new piping and open the house for use again in the near future. I repeat what I have before written: "Whatever the Solicitor of the Second Circuit shall have performed drought. The high winds killed

The Railroads. The State Railroad Commissioner well county, should you think that er reports a loss of forty acres. has not received the statement of the the interests of the State would be Strawberries will run a three-fourths

Along the North Carolina border Idonot propose to be misrepresented and Darlington and Florence coun-The procession then marched to the will for evidence of the same. Fron show a decrease in the earnings. In this matter. I have not declined the seed in the arrings of the seed in the set exercises were held. Miss Marie Lide, whose father was a soldier, was noble Romans, then sordid with the follows: Carolina Midland, $479.15; Lide, whose father was a soluter, was then introduced by Mr. Law, and very gracefully recited the following poem: noble Romans, then sorud with the luxury of vast estates, bereft of all central of South Carolina, $260.72; manner. I decline to waive my cheraw and Darlington, $142.82; honest conclusion of the law, or wind of barbarian hordes laid their North Carlina, $350.27; suffer myself to be placed in a false high winds and frost have all visited diseased and sluggish manhood in the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta, position, and I decline to notice your this section during the past seven dust-to where in modern times the $21,508.08.

most localities necessary. Florence structions. Respectfully, W. ST. JULIEN JERVEY.

county reports a large per cent. of tobacco crop set. Oat crop promises Stockholders Meeting.

poorly. Wheat generally good, some little rusted. High winds in some The annual meeting of the stock- cases amounting to a tornado, have ambition, of men who steeped in luxury and ease would hurl contempt This is shown by the earnings of the uring Company was held on Friday, fruits in parts of Pickens, Union and showed that the affairs of the comp- coming up nicely, and the prospects The South Bound road shows an any were in very prosperous condition for grain is much improved by rains, The whole cost of the cotton was injured the grape crop. Peach trees The Port Royal and Agusta road $175,000, which was, after its man- are so overburdened with fruit they W. C. Coker, J. L. Coker, G. A. damage to crops, timber and build-The Charleston, Sumter and Norwood, J. J. Ward, W. A. Carri- ings, and causing loss of life. Out-

FEDERATE SOLDIERS. The Eloquent Address of Rev. Edward McCrady-The Exer- than stone. Their true memorials Nothing could so fully demonstrate # place has ever had.

Mayor Dargan and E. O. Woods Esq., have returned from Charleston; tion was in our town on Wednesday while there they secured the services and was visited by a large number of Samuel Lord Esq. to assist them of people, and it is safe to say that in the case of the Atlantic Trust they all felt repaid for their expense popular music house of Thomas & rare, curious and useful productions Barton, of Agusta, is in the city for a of semi-tropical Florida, and no the Enterprise Hotel.

for a trip to Little Pee Dee on Tues- number were shown that never reach them to postpone it. They will go a tender for transportation. Mandarin, little later, and when they do the Tangerine and navel oranges, the little later, and when they do the fish will suffer, as most of the party latter seedless, are the choicest varie-ties, but find their way to New York are skilled in the use of the rod.

Mrs. M. Manne and her daughter, There were immense lemons, limes, Miss Sadie leaves today for New York to be present at the reception on Sunday in honor of the engagement between Miss Carrie Manne and Mr. A. Silverberg of New York. The marriage will be performed some Of course there were a great variety time next month.

what you eat" an advertiser in the a huge tarpon, about five feet long, • Orangeburg Enterprise furnishes the following bill of fare which would river, and furnishes the finest sport trip. Apply early as the miller's the elements. rule, "first come first served," will be Branson will accompany her husband will explain itself. on this trip.

There was a tornado in the Jovann destroyed and the ground had the truck have been replanted.

Florida on Wheels.

No,-no! This attractive and novel exhibi-For, deep as its waters be, They have no dep 1 like the faith which fired The martyrs of the free! Where shall their dust be laid ?-By the valley's greenest spot, Company vs. the town of Darlington. in seeing it. It was a beautiful and As it ripples down, in leaps of shade, Well arranged exhibit of the many To the blue forget-me-not: Mr. H. K. Zerbee, representing the well arranged exhibit of the many No,--no,--no! For, green as the valley be, It has no flower like the bleeding-Heart few days. Those wishing to purchase better way could be well devised to Of the heroes of the free!a piano, or have their instruments advertise the attractions of that or where mufiled pageants march, tuned, will do well to call on him at State. The display of tropical and Through the spired and chiming Through the spired and chiming pile, semi-tropical fruits was alone worth To the chancel-rail of its oriel arch, A party of fishermen had arranged the price of admission, and quite a To the organ-flooded aisle: No,-no,-no! For, grand as the minsters be Of JACKSON and of LEE! Where shall their dust be laid ?-In the urn of the Human Heast, Where its purest dreams are first dis where they command high prices. played And its passionate longings start: prunes, figs, olives, gauvas, sappa-

Yes,-yes,-yes! By Memory's pictured wave, Is a living shrine for the dead we love, dillos, tamaimds, grape fruit and cocoanuts, a fine variety of wines, In the land they died to save! preserved fruits, sugar and numerous other things to tempt the appetite. At the conclusion of the recitation.

Rev. Edward McCrady, who had been selected as the annual orator, was of plants, shells, sea mosses and Under the heading of "Be careful curious fish from the sea. There was introduced, and delivered the following chaste and appropriate address:

probably be very acceptable to a goat or an ostrich. Butter, crackers, lard aligator is one of the attractions. or an ostrich. Butter, crackers, lard aligator is one of the attractions. and to do honor to the gallant ones for utterance be left us-while Flowers, M. S. Jacobs, Elizabeth circulation every month. There has facility for the transaction of busi-thought and feeling still remains King, Caroline McDonald, E. S. C. never been a serious accident to any ness. Letters and packages can be guns, powder, shot, hooks and lines. much to the interest of the display, defence of those rights and princi- undrugged by all the foul disease and Davis, Ann Emerson, H. M. Peebles, of the machinery and very little time directed to any special building and

The Darlington Guards will have as does the phosphate rock and other things that are found under the soil. a special car, on Wednesday 17th which will run through to Columbia A piece of coquina is exhibited which the steemed a sacred privilege and duty above the smoke and dust of low Davis, Ann Emerson, R. M. Freevies, of the machinery and very fitter and langure of the times—while J. J. Mozingo, S. V. Scarborough, and which you and they alike strength remains to lift our heads above the smoke and dust of low Doreas Pate, Hannah Goodson, Nanwhich will run through to Columbia A piece of counting a second dust of low without change. They have about the maintain. Doubtless there are twenty seats to spare and will allow the only building material that them to be occupied by any of their seems to absolutely defy the tooth of friends who may wish to make the friends who may may wish to make the friends who may may wish to make the frie

Attention, Musicians!

The Southern Baptist Convention The s Neck Association are in attendance. Rev. John Stout, of Darlington; Rev. city he will take orders for fine grade tion that echo through our land J. A. Brunson, of Cheraw; Rev. C. L. Dowell, of Dores, and Rev. J. W. musical instruments, and will give particular attention to the tuning of voices of the past. Forgetfulness Perry, of Harisville. Mrs. J. A. pianos. The following testimonial were sacrilege indeed. To heed them not, would be to play the truant to

It gives me pleasure to say that I yourselves and them. But, my know Mr. H. K. Zerbee, of Augusta. fellow Southerners, you who yoursection on Thursday, of last week, which did considerable damage to which institution hanged at the rest of the New solves have seen those hard fought which did considerable damage to which institution hanged at the rest of the New solves have seen those hard fought the ladies who worked so hard to the crops, small buildings and fenc- which institution he made a thorough have seen another South spring fittingly honor the day. There were the crops, small buildings and lene-ing, but so far as we could learn no persons in its path was injured. Its persons in its path was injured. Its and I consider his coming to our closent about spring the past, we have yet another and a cession, and these were: W. E. issue will find 14 facts set forth rela> these you know too well. Imposing and G. T. Scarborough, Enterprise Hotel.

mand; that all the fever of our modern life can never wholly wipe out or destroy, that men, at times must lear.

lington county will receive $22 each the earnings of the company, the Yes, thank God for all these sacred for the present year, and can now balance being kept in hand as a rememories of strong, devoted lives, obtain the same from the clerk of serve fund. The mill has been For on such lives the kingdoms of court. Those entitled to pensions are: splendidly managed from the very the world are founded on such lives humanity has reached the flood-tide Robert Harrell, R. A. Howell, Benja- factor in the growth of our town.

years of ceaseless pain and unre-witted suffering the mode of our Southern hearts, let us F. E. Witherspoon, M. A. E. Lewis, Friday which will hep her contined witted suffering the mode of our Southern hearts, let us F. E. Witherspoon, M. A. E. Lewis, Friday which will hep her contined witted suffering the mode of our southern hearts, let us F. E. Witherspoon, M. A. E. Lewis, Friday which will hep her contined with the bouse for a long time. While visitors but to all connected with the mitted suffering-the memory of sands of earth's best and noblest Tyner, M. E. Bozeman, Martha Har- riding with her daughter Mrs. C. K. fair.

> different cemeteries, were decorated with flowers by committees appointed Margaret A. Christmas, J. J. Red- broken limb has been carefully cet for the purpose. The monument was almost hidden, except the shaft, by the great number of flowers that were placed upon it, and presented a very handsome appearance.

Too much praise cannot be given Huggins.

persons in its path was injured. Its persons in its path was injured. Its course was from west to east and it course was from west to east and it extended over a space of about four hundred feet wide. The cotton and corn in its track west council is unsolicited. corn in its track west council is unon track sand gallant deeds of noble sons, the Parrott McNeese, T. E. Griffin, J. M. warrant every instrument sold by Louis Bristow, L. M. Norment, Wal- are pathetic, and the same is the appearance of having been subjected to a severe heat. The destruction was so entire that the crops, in its was so entire that the crops, in its was so entire that the crops, in its was no entire that the crops in the cr was re-elected president and treasure. During the present week Justice and the entire management of the Floyd disposed of the following cases: Ben Freeman, burglary and larbusiness placed in his hands. A ceny, sent up, Henry Sanders, trespass and madividend of 7 per cent was declared, The Confederate pensioners in Dar- which however does not represent all licious mischief, fifteen days in jail at hard labor.

Before Justice Floyd.

Henry Knappe and Johnson Wright stealing a pair of boots; case dis-Robert Dampier, W. H. H. Miller, start, and has been the most potent missed for want of evidence.

The postmaster general has estab-THE ADDRESS. Once more you have met together on such lives rests all the worth and culture, Polson, J. R. Hunter, W. J. Dew, bor and fuel, is practically all spent grounds of the World's Fair at Chicago, and it will have every they will be promptly delivered. The name of the office is the "World's Fair Station, Chicago, Ill," and all visitors but to all connected with the

> The Columbia Journal says: It is amusing to watch the gyrations of the newspapers in the cities which son, Susannah Best, Adaline Kelly, and the bone between it and the knee have a baseball team in the South-Anna Dampier, Mira A. Severance, was fractured in three places. The ern League. The staid and solemn Augusta Chronicle rises to ask the Reddick, Lucy Ann Polson, Hannah and does rot give a great deal of Augusta boys to play ball. Editor Walsh never displays wrath and in a half column article he appeals to the team with the fervency of a man is soing to ruin, to hustle, and winds compete for the prize at the Columbia | up with "A word to the wise is sufficient." His article shows a knowledge of baseball that is surprising. The Charleston team started out with a flourish and stood at the

Yaugh, J. E. Boyd,

The Guards. The names of the Guards that will

Powers, Harmon Jones, William J. pain. Windham, Sallie H. Huggins W. D. Baskins, M. Bradshaw, J. A ruett, M. K. Willian ', Peter Odo. , S. S.

Carnival are as follows: Capt. H. T. Thompson. 1st Lieut. B. Williamson. 2nd Lieut. J. D. Baird, Privates-R. E. James, M. T.

Facts Worth Knowing.