SALUTED GENERAL HAMPTON.

[From the Denver (Col.) News.]

For some reason or other the reronant reverberation of marching legions out at Sterling a few days ago failed to reach the ears of the military

The Confederate army at Sterling

mander.

CURRENT TOPICS.

WHAT YOU KNOW AND WHAT YOU DON'T KNOW.

Personals and Short Items of Interest to the Local and General Reader.

Attraction in the opera house

Remember the races at the track this afternoon.

Remember the excursion to the Hammocks to-morrow. Train leaves 6.00 o'clock, a. m.

Tama Kennedy has been convicted of petty larceny by Trial Justice Dargan and sentenced to twenty-one days in county jail.

The young folks had a very pleasant sociable last night at the residence of Mr. D. S. McCullough, which was well attended.

Mr. C. S. McCullough has been elected president and treasurer of the Phosphate Company, in place of the more. late Dr. W. J. Alexander.

Mr. C. B. Edwards has commenced building his house on Yankee hill. It versity. is one of the prettiest sites in town and has some very fine trees on it.

To-morrow morning at 6 o'clock the excursion train to the Hammocks will leave. Get your ticket to-day popular traveling man, was in the from Messrs. W. G. Dickson or H. A. city yesterday.

an invitation from Mrs. Manne, to attend the wedding reception of Miss attend the wedding reception of Miss Carrie Manne who will marry Mr. Cipal of the St. John's School, is in showiest wheel in Darlington. Aaron Silverburg on Tuesday even-ing, June 27. We extend our good The friends of Mr. I wishes and congratulations.

Up to the present time, the corn very much improved. crop promises to be one of the best that we have even had. One or two more good rains will make it perfectly safe. The farmer who buys Dr. and Mrs. Galloway left yesterhis corn next year will have to make Every bottle of the dispensary whiskey ought to have a corkscrew tied to it so that it can be opened Greenville returned to her home last tied to it so that it can be opened without any trouble. Just imagine the annoyance that it will cause the the annoyance that it will cause the thirsty citizen to have to draw the formerly of this county, but now of create with his treath or gouge it out Greenwood, are visiting Miss Janie county. Greenwood, are visiting Miss Janie county without any trouble. Just imagine is estimated by conservative and its estimated by conservative and of the populace.

When General Hampton's train arrived, Commander May advanced, in this community at present.

ble pittance of fifty cents for ten hours work. This furnishes a graduates of the Sumter Institute, his store, but as the case now stands the way of salaries, and, in this case

There was a slight earthquake mill.

The Winnsboro News and Herald | says: The death of Dr. W. J. Alex- been in Kansas City preparing herander in Darlington removes from the self to become a missionary, has re-State a high type of a gentleman, a profound scholar, and a man singularly pure. He was formerly professor of Logic and Psychology in the South Carolina College. His old students, who remember him so these profound south carolina coult the ability with the country discount country and receil the ability with the country discountry. students, who remember him so pleasantly and recall the ability with Floyd was appointed county dispensional liness. He was 64 years old and had which he filled his chair, are especially grieved at his death. Truth is There were three applicants for the advanced by the lives of such men as Alexander.

Thuth is position, viz: Messrs. Frank R. the Rev. Thomas Mason, a Baptist has a good eye for colors, can easily minister, and was born in Darlington learn to do the work, which requires a learn to do the work and the learn to do

At the Bosco entertainment on by beard as a girls, drew a moustache tup. He is hesitating as to whether he will trade it off or try the efficacy of a bottle of beard elixir. We extend our sincere sympathy to this young gentlemen, and trust that he will bear in mind the fact that a thing date, is a young man of about twentyworse. Just suppose, for instance, Justice Floyd. shaving brush.

Columbia Register admits his legal bridal trip.

ON THE WING.

Arrivals and Departures in Darlington This Week.

Mr. W. D. Waters, a former resi-Miss Edith Law is visiting relatives in Cheraw. Mr. Russell Hart is back from Furman University.

Mr. Frank Wardlaw has returned from Davidson College.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Marco left on Monday for New York.

Mr. W. A. Brunson, of Florence, was in town yesterday. Miss Dell Walsh, of Boston, is visiting friends in town. Miss Clara Dunn, of Columbia, . is visiting Miss Emmie Edwards. Mr. S. A. Woods has returned from two weeks visit to the seacoast.

Miss Addie DesChamps, of Sumter, s visiting Miss Josephine McCall. Mr. Walter Norment, one of our finest wheelmen, has gone to Balti-

Walter and Preston Edwards returned last week from Furman Uni-

Miss Annie Patrick, of Greenville, s visiting her sister, Mrs. Howard Edwards.

Mr. E. M. Wilson, of Cheraw, a

Mr. G. K. King left on Friday to THE HERALD returns thanks for spend the summer in the upper part

The friends of Mr. David Witcover will be pleased to learn that he is

Dr. and Mrs. Galloway left yester-

some other excuse for his folly and not charge it up against the weather. day for Cleveland Springs where they will spend the balance of the summer. Miss Janie Bass, of Swift Creek, at least, they will have justice on will leave on the July 1st for Texas in our banks, for the purpose of ficent display of work on exhibition

Miss Barbara Parrott, who has

Friday night, a well known young by citizens who are opposed to the man, whose face is about as destitute dispensary, to get an injunction to for about forty years until failing

The board of control will meet to-morrow and decide where the dis- years since. pensary will be located and elect a is never so bad but what it might be four years, and is a son of Trial

Light coats and vests for the sewing machine on the market, then Professor Goshaun in the opera summer weather selling very low at buy the "New Home" No. 9 or BICYCLE NOTES.

SEVERAL FINE WHEELS ARRIVE THIS WEEK.

Pedestrians Should Take the Inside of the Pavement in Order to Avoid Collisions. Mr. Louis Bristow is riding a Waverly. Mr. L. Williamson has purchased a Waverly.

Mr. C. M. Ward is riding a No. Rambler racer.

Mr. G. O. Lee, of Lydia, is riding his name. No. 1 Rambler. Mr. Louis Norment has purchased Rambler track racer. Mr. J. Buckner Floyd has ordered Rambler track racer.

In turning corners wheelmen should ring their bells several times. Mrs. C. S. McCullough and Mrs. F. E. Norment were out yesterday afternoon on their wheels. It is likely that a meeting of the cyclists will be called next week, for the purpose of organizing.

Mr. G. E. Dargan, agent of the the warlike throb of the Clan May board the train next Satur terms will be reasonable. In order to avoid collisions, general should receive a military pedestrians are requested to take the greeting at his hands. His mind inside of the pavement and the wheelmen the outside. Mr. J. E. Norment is now the proud owner of a Rambler racer. With black enamel frame, copper

Attention Farmers.

While our farmers are complaining of the scarcity of money, and stand ready to sustain any measure that promises relief, it would be well for them to pause and consider how how much they are responsible for this condition of affairs, and if the tremedy have result to the time of this person as it wouldn't go all the way round, for Jim's digestremedy have result to the time of the remedy be in reach to make use of it without delay. In order to prove what we say we present a few figures for their consideration and challenge without any devolutions the annoyance that it will cause the than opposite the annoyance that it will cause the than opposite the formerly of this county, but now of make himself the object of metal, and to sailuted, gave three cheers and then went into the car, solled and worn uniform collapsed that and all, and had a hearty handshake with his old leader. May be it was a foolish sort of an afair, but the big crowd at while it was going on, and when old Jim Mark. The evil doers had better get in sood practice for running or they will come to grief. The chief of some time and is doing a good deal of work for his company. He represents the Mutual of Kentucky.

Our boys have played two matches with the bulboes's Bridge boys. The his this this his his to will the bulboes's Bridge boys. The his this this his this his point of the word of the covered himself t

Death of Mr. C. T. Mason.

been a resident of Sumter for more than forty years. He was the son of the Rev. Thomas Mason, a Baptist moving from that place to Sumter in

Do you want the best household

Standard of Blackwell Bros.

Nothing more strikingly shows the perfection to which the sewing where he will take charge of an oil making loans, would make money was done by the New Home Sewing matters comparatively easy with us, Machine, and it would be difficult to truly prosperous and independent show what the machine was capable people until we put an absolute stop of and not for sale. For one pair of to this great drainage on our financial embroidered velvet curtains the company have been offered $1,000, but will not dispose of them at any price. In addition to its perfect accuracy, county and raised in Camden, re- no attachments whatever.

An Interesting Catalogue.

We have received from President for about forty years until failing D. B. Johnson the catalogue of the health caused him to retire a few Winthrop Normal College which contains not only the exercises Peabody the study of electricity and telegraphy of the historic women of South Caroand during the war was superintend- lina. These sketches are, of necesent of the telegraph service of the sity, short but are well gotten up and Sumter all the telegraph instruments used in the service. Ho made a number of improvements in electrical devices, but was never able to realize but it was a good one cold the condition of the devices, but was never able to realize but it was a good one cold the condition of the devices, but was never able to realize but it was a good one cold the condition of t Confederate States, and made in reflect credit on the young ladies to Sumter all the telegraph instruments whom was assigned the task of We are extremely sorry that our fellow townsman, Hon. George W. Dargan, did not secure the position of District Attorney, but this could not be, and we are truly glad that the choice of the president should stepping stone for something else.

A Home Wedding.

A

Straw hats at cost for cash at

ON THE HILL.

Solitary Veteran in Colorado HAPPENINGS AT THE FACTORY parades in Honor of His Old Com-THIS WEEK.

and Other News.

Hon. John Brown, of Mullins, is again with us for a day or so. Mr. Will Lowe, of Charleston, sleuths who nightly put their ears to the ground in the vicinity of the ar-mory in search of "Injun sign." visiting friends in this vicinity. turned out for escort duty and marched to the depot. Jim May is

Mrs. Mamie Talton, of North General Wade Hampton has had Carolina, is visiting her father, Mr. lots of receptions in his time, including some of a very enthusiastic character from the blue-coated soldiers, but never had be a reception like un-W. A. Creason. Rev. J. A. White organized a Methodist church bere last Saturday to that put up by Jim May. That ancient warrior for twenty years has mingled himself with the Union Pacific pay roll as a plearant pastime an opportunity of visiting the Hamagainst the violation of the law as to rights and no special privileges. Any for piping times of peace, but when he heard that his old commander, the man whom he had carried on his own broad shoulders across fourteen nounced that they will be prepared miles of swamp, was coming West, to serve meals and refreshments on the warlike throb of the Clan May Cypress News.

went back to the days when he stood in the forefront of the strife clasphis appearance in full force. ing the shattered staff from which Miss Mamie Durant, of Bishopville, fluttered the colors of the South, and spent last week at this place visiting he then thought of the next day, when they had recovered their breath after the hard running occosioned by Mr. Louis Rollins, of Lancaster, a well-fed troop of Federal cavalry spent and General Hampton complimented nity. him by name for his bravery.

So the Confederate army of Sterling dug up his beloved old butterling dug up his beloved old butternut uniform and lovingly girdled it Mr. C. W. DuBose, of Darlington, around as much of his person as it visited this place last Sunday.

this section is the first to report a tive apparatus has thrived since it cotton bloom. ceased wrestling with hard tack and

Mr. J. H. Huggins has a very fine insufficiently masticated shoe leather. The army deployed in a solid column on the main street and marchcrop of corn. Cypress was well represented at

Hebron last Sunday afternoon at the

There was a slight earthquake shock on Tuesday night, between dampy people who keep early hours were asleep and the disturbance was not great enough to wake those who are sound sleepers. There is not the least occasion for nervous folks to least occasion, to do the least occasion, to do the wedding of Mr. Wardlaw and least harm.

In the care comparatively easy with us, sepecially when it is taken into consideration that if this money would believe it had not been done by hand, the postoffice, opened the box and desilvered a letter found in it to Mr. L. M. Norment. He was blind-folded at the farmer instead of being a bourt the farmer instead of being a now very old.

Mr. J. W. Thompson, of Abbeville, spent a few days of this week in Darlington. He came down to attend the wedding of Mr. Wardlaw and Miss Edwards.

Miss Rarbara Powert who has the farmer of the postoffice, opened the box and desilvered a letter found in it to Mr. L. M. Norment. He was blind-folded at the farmer instead of being a bourt the farmer instead of being a care instead of being a count of the farmer instead of being at the farmer instead of being a count of the farmer instead of being at the farmer instead ment, found the key, then went to very scarce. until our next issue.

Planting Sugar Cane. We sincerely trust that our friends throughout the county will send us The Sumter Watchman says: Mr. the rapidity with which the work can the news in regard to the crop pros-C. T. Mason died at his home in this be done puts it in the power of those pects, as anything in this connection who purchase these machines, to is of interest to all classes of our ornament their homes at a very small readers. We trust that every one cost of time and labor. Any lady who could do so has planted some some of our friends have made money planting it. Some of the best molasses we have ever tasted was made in this county and readily sold occurs. for from sixty to seventy-five cents per gallon. It may be generally known, but it is a fact nevertheless made from cane.

The City Pump.

her home in Sumter on Saturday. in any kind of a field crop.

FIRED FOR FRAUD.

Wholesale Dismissal of Federal Officials in the State of Washington

WASHINGTON, June 20 .- Patrick H. Winston, United States Attorney, Personal Paragraphs Pertaining to Thos. R. Brown, United States Mar. He Makes an Appeal to the Young Visiting People --- Improvements shal, Andrew Watson, United States Collector at Port Townsend, C. J. Mulkey, United States special agent, and six special inspectors of customs in the Puget Sound district, all in the State of Washington, have beeen dismissed as a result of reports made Our people were alarmed on to Secretary Carlisle by Special Treas-Tuesday night by a slight earthquake ury Agents Wood and Lewis. They to smuggle Chinese and opinm into the United States across the North-

States. Politics has never entered nounced that they will be prepared into it, but the immense profit in the to serve meals and refreshments on business seemed to have corrupted many officials.

More than two months ago Agents Wood and Lewis, new men from the East, were detailed to secretly investigate the alleged frauds, with the and special privileges to none." We We have had some very fine rains lately and General Green is making his appearance in full force.

results as stated. Uninfluenced by local surroundings or affiliations, great reference to none. We propose to stand up for these principles which are the foundation of the they went to work and unearthed great reform movement but do not what is regarded here as on of the greatest conspiracies in which government officials were ever implicated.

Not to defeat the continuous and uncarried propose to abuse the opposition. That would not strengthen the cause of democracy and the misguided men Not to defeat the continuance of the who are resisting the people are more Miss Lou Dunlap, of Bishopville, paid a flying visit to friends in this community last Saturday.

Miss Lou Dunlap, of Bishopville, paid a flying visit to friends in this community last Saturday.

Miss Lou Dunlap, of Bishopville, et al., which will be sorted as a pointed, with the usual and their successions. sors appointed, with the usual announcements being made. The purpose was to keep the public in ignorance that other implicated persons Wash Williams, a colored farmer in might be caught.

send; James C. Drake, United States tracts does not savor of political Marshal; W. H. Bunker, United bribery, then we confess our ignorance States attorney. Other removals are yet to come, and the matter in due course of time will find its way into gest that he advertise this institution in the same way.

The ladies who are employed in the State dispensary are paid the miserable pittance of fifty cents for ten ble pittance of the fifty cents for ten ble pittance of the daked under the stree Goshaun, the mind reader, gave a years, and get a dog that is put up for it is just as truly an attempt at good exhibition of his power which somewhat on the giraffe style of mystified those who witnessed it, no architecture. To expect this little that they hold their honor too dear to splendid occasion for General Hemphill and Colonel Dargan to raise a final examination of that institution.

In store, but as the case now stands been brought than the almost marvelous variety of work by the utmost limit in order to the utmost limi Mr. G. C. Walsh, who has been a furnish farmers with what they resident of the town for sometime, will leave on the July 1st for Texas in our banks, for the purpose of ficent display of work on exhibition. a clock in Mr. McCullough's office, feelings of this poor little fellow who ease and notoriety that could come farmer, had a wagon load of ripe watermelons in town yesterday. This men as Irby Wilson and others whom is very early for them.

Current Events.

Sunday night at the Presbyterian church, Rev. John Stout will preach the sermon.

There is an open well on one of the None of them probably are endowed vacant lots on the square, that should with the towering intellectual enwho can use the machine, and who sugar cane and will make his own be filled up at the expense of the downent of this truly grand Stateshas a good eye for colors, can easily molasses. This is a paying crop, and owner. There is positively no excuse man and patroit, but in their princifor leaving such traps exposed, and ples they can at least equal him, and the owners of the property should be no act of theirs will ever bring disheld responsible for any accident that henor on the State which enjoys the occurs.

If some mechanical genius will birth to Calhour. went an automatic fan that can be used on a bicycle, the extremely warm not care to discuss, with the editor that the watermelons make a most weather would induce everyone to of the Medium, either the reform excellent quality of molasses, which invest in one of these fascinating movement or the principles of demo-He devoted much of his time to Memorial Day, but also short sketches is prefered by some people to that machines, and make use of all their craey, believing as we do, that he machines, and make use of all their craey, believing as we do, that he spare time in sailing around, just to went into the one for the sake of keep the fan going.

credit both upon himself and the State. We sincerely trust that Mr. Oleveland may be as happy in other appointments as he has in the other appointments as he has in the case of Mr. Murphy. Even the funeral services.

Note the deceased. Mr. Mason and Mrs. T. S. Joye, children of the deceased, and the possible danger of contractions as every one. Teaching is a profession and should not be regarded as a over it all.

Come into bearing a good dear sooner. Only equated by its abstractly. If they will grow and flourish in the they are not in their right minds, same kind of soil that sustains the then we suppose it is somewhat aking the same in the control of the control Miss Pauline Sanders, who has bordering a good many of our streams, to the kind of insanity that prompted been visiting relatives here, left for where the slope is too great to plant him to seek office under that prince

"EQUAL RIGHTS."

GEN. HEMPHILL BREABS LOOSE IN A NEW PLACE.

Men of the State-Peace and Popular Rights. There are a number of promising young men in this State who might be of service to their day and generation if they were not so blinded by are charged with being connected with one of the most extensive and men who are leading them to obscusuccessful conspiracies ever formed rity. They are standing in the shad-

These young men could get into-Scandals for the past twelve or fif-teen years have attached more or less to those officials in the Puget Sound district, whose duty it was to guard of the Reform movement is equal the ellicit busines of Chinese and American ought to be willing to ppium smuggling into the United espouse such principle. It is sound democracy.

We are for peace but to gain it we are not in favor of submitting to the domination of an arrogant minority. We are for popular rights against with passion and prejudice and do not work right.—Abbeville Medium.

The above extracts, from an editorial in the Medium, show pretty The new men appointed in the plainty the sentiments that according to the political conduct of the editor of that paper. If the first of these expectations are part Town. course of time will find its way into injustice for which we express, in

He led them to the place of conceal- was put up when dog material was from political advancement purchased at the price of principle. all who truly love their State, with all its past glery and renown, it is a The union service will be held on matter of profound congratulation that there are hundreds of educated, talented young men in South Carolina who would not barter a single Mr. A. C. Galloway, an enterprising political principle to gain the highest office in the gift of the people. They men as Irby, Wilson and others whom we might name, who went into the Mr. Byrd is flying around with his reform movement merely to gratify hands and giving the street drains a their lust for office. These young much need cleaning up. He is also men still reverence the memory and making way with the grass and weeds the teachings of the greatest of all that spring up in every corner that Carolinians who sacrificed the presican't be used by pedestrians or dency of the United States for what others regarded as a mere quibble.

office and would hardly be accepted Plum hunting has been the fashion as an exponent of the principles of not be, said we are truly glad that the choice of the president should have fallen on Mr. Murphy, who is thoroughly competent in every respect to discharge the responsible dites of the office, and will reflect oredit both upon himself and the State. We sincerely trust that Mr. J. H. Mason and Mrs. T. State. We sincerely trust that Mr. J. H. Schmid's English wainut and some distance from time to time in the side and what is most impound the daughter of Major William Single is doing a great work in South Caroling and what is most impound to distance from the pump is distance from the pump and what is most impound to distance from the pump and of the Mr. J. H. Schmid's English wainut the distance from the daughter of Major William Single is of robbers, F. J. Moses,