

Church Directory. METHODIST.—Rev. O. A. Darby, Pastor. Services every Sunday morning at half-past 10 o'clock and at night at half-past 7 o'clock.

ORANGEBURG, S. C., JAN. 31, 1879. Mr. James L. Sims is authorized to receive and receipt for all moneys due the Edisto Clarion for advertising and subscription.

Mr. Theo. Kohn is offering his winter stock at reduced figures. See his advertisement. A young man, named Stoudenmire, in the employ of Mr. J. H. Felder, died quite suddenly on last Wednesday of congestion.

Mr. B. Frank Slater, who is driving a huge business in the stock line, will receive a car load of fine horses on the 15th of February.

Mr. James Cannon and Charlie Thoin took the train for Charleston on Monday night to appear before the Teller Committee as witnesses in the Orangeburg election case.

The Waverly House, Charleston, S. C., will charge Patrons $1.50 per day board during the meeting of the State Grange.

That portion of the goods of the stock of Mr. J. H. Schachte, not disposed of, will be sold at the auction rooms of Mr. C. D. Kortjchn on Saturday next and Salesday in February. Remember it.

The weather has shifted round again and become warm—very comfortably warm. Over-coats, so long a necessity, may be doffed and a spring dress, so long forgotten, may be donned with little risk of the epizootic.

Mr. Kennedy Exum's still, located a few miles from town in the Fork, was burned on Saturday morning last from causes supposed to be entirely accidental. The loss is heavy. There was no insurance on the property.

A colored woman, apparently an idiot, on Saturday struck a little child a severe blow upon the head with a stick, and inflicted a painful wound. Such persons should not be allowed to run at large upon the streets.

A monkey, belonging to Mr. Hughes, of the Fork, created quite a sensation on the streets among the idle darkies. His curious antics seemed to be quite a source of amusement judging from the large crowd massed near the wagon.

The United States Senate Finance Committee have decided to recommend a reduction of the tax on tobacco from the present rate of 24 cents per pound to 20 cents. If this becomes a law it will rejoice the hearts of tobacco users.

The Charleston Evening Journal, of last week, says: "Malcolm I. Browning, Esq., the chairman of the Executive Committee of the Democratic party of Orangeburg County is in the city, for the purpose of testifying before the Teller Committee."

Last Tuesday night the room occupied as a sleeping apartment by our young friends, Messrs. T. M. Raysor and James A. Hamilton, on Russell street, was entered and robbed of clothing to the value of about one hundred dollars. No clue to the thief.

If any of our friends should visit the town of Spartanburg and want a nice article of jewelry or silverware we would commend our old friend, J. A. Henneman, as the proper man to buy it from.

The Columbia Register, of the 29th instant, says that the prisoners recently convicted at our court were delivered to the Superintendent of the Penitentiary on last Tuesday by Sheriff Livingston. Their names, crimes, and terms of imprisonment have already been published in this paper.

The Executive Committee of the Grand Lodge of B'nai B'rith at Philadelphia recommend in their report that an annual collection be taken up in every lodge for the benefit of the "Alliance Israelite Universelle," and for the elevation of Hebrews in lands where oppressive laws have heretofore checked their progress.

The South Carolina Rail Road will sell tickets at a reduced price from all points on the road to Charleston from February 1st to February 12th, good to return until February 17th. This will afford an opportunity to all who desire to attend the Grange and Masonic meetings and races to do so at prices to suit the times.

Mr. Z. J. King, dealer in foreign and domestic liquors, tobaccos, cigars, &c., still keeps at the Doyle corner, where his promptness to meet the demands of customers, his polite attentions and courteous manners have made him a favorite dealer in such goods.

As cheap a store as any in town is that kept by Mr. A. B. Walker, on Russell-street. Superior advantages in first-class goods and at low prices are offered here. Indeed we know of no place where more can be bought for the same amount of money.

The Charleston Evening Journal, a little afternoon paper recently started in Charleston, has suspended, only having issued four editions. Messrs. Riordan & Dawson have conducted the News and Courier on such fair and liberal terms as to completely kill off all opposition, and they richly deserve all the success they have achieved.

The Atlanta Constitution, in its society personals, says the prettiest girl in South Carolina, lives at Seneca City, Nonesene. She lives right here in Orangeburg, and if the Constitution man don't mind he will get himself into trouble for trying to rob Orangeburg of this distinction.

Mr. F. DeMars, with his usual enterprise, has increased his supply of goods by purchasing a large portion of the stock recently on sale by Mr. J. H. Schachte. By force of energy, politeness and business tact, together with the courteous attentions of his clerk, Mr. A. Moorer, Mr. DeMars has established himself in our midst as a successful business man, a true citizen and a worthy gentleman.

We saw a man on Monday evening last trying to walk a chalk line across the public square, but diverging to the right he came up against the engine house pump; after disengaging himself from the pump he steered for Pike's corner, but landed into the merciless embrace of a policeman, who lodged him in jail.

Our readers are familiar with the stand on the corner of Russell and Treadwell streets, where our enterprising young merchant, Mr. Charles S. Bull keeps a first-class family grocery and provision store. Mr. Bull has made arrangements to furnish his customers with fresh and first-class goods, and he means by close attention to business to meet every want of his patrons.

We are informed that the Young Men's Christian Association of our town propose having a series of Dime Readings, the first of them to take place February 11th, at Boliver's Hall. Several of our leading citizens have consented to read, and we trust the community will show their appreciation, by their presence, of an entertainment that has a tendency to educate as well as to please.

FOURTEENTH of February, St. Valentine's day, a large and new supply Comic and Sentimental Valentines at Henry Kohn's.

Ginger Ale Soda Water, an excellent tonic and winter beverage will be kept constantly on hand during the winter by Dr J. G. Wannamaker. Congress water on draught and in bottles always on hand.

We learn that Mr. Julian J. Salley has been appointed agent for the Singer Sewing Machine Company for this county. Zealous and active, Mr. Salley will prove a valuable acquisition to the company.

The South Carolina Rail Road is said to be doing a thriving business at every point along its line. This speaks well for the new management and the local agents in charge of its business at the several depots.

It is written in a fine female hand, says a Western editor. It's a poem and asks: "What was the dream of your life?" It was signed, "Elfrida." We haven't room for the poem, but just to quiet Elfrida, we will answer her conundrum.

On Wednesday evening last a colored man, living on the place of Mr. Augustus Fludd, in St. Matthews, left his house with two small children in it. Fastening the door to keep the children in, he proceeded to the woods to obtain wood for the night's use.

Don't forget to send the DEMOCRAT news items from your locality for our local column. Friends can aid us greatly and add much to the interest of the paper in this way.

STREET hucksters are becoming a nuisance to our town. During Court a number of colored women stationed themselves along the street and the crowd, often noisy, that surrounded these stands blocked up the sidewalk.

The Rev. J. F. Kiser has received a unanimous call from the congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church at this place to become their regular pastor. He has accepted the call and is now in the active discharge of the duties of the office.
