METHODIST.—Rev. O. A. Darby, Pastor. Services every Sunday morning at half-past 10 o'clock and at night at half-past 7 o'clock. Prayer Meeting every Wednesday evening at half-past 7 o'clock. Sabbath School every Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. Children's meeting every third Sunday.

ORANGEBURG, S. C., FEB. 7, 1879.

Mr. James L. Sims is authorized to receive and receipt for all moneys due the Edisto Clarion for advertising and subscription, and he will fill out all subscriptions to the Clarion for which we have received pay.

Subscribers to our paper who get it through the postoffice here are requested to ask for THE DEMOCRAT in calling for their mail, and then they will be sure to get it.

Ginger Ale Soda Water, an excellent tonic and winter beverage will be kept constantly on hand during the winter by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker. Congress water on draught and in bottles always on hand.

The public schools closed on Friday last, after a short but successful session of two and a half months.

Cephas Miller, colored, of United States Marshall notoriety, and a rioter, who was arrested for disorderly conduct on the day of election, is in town.

We had the pleasure of meeting Representative M. J. Keller on Saturday. The Captain looks finely, and has entered, as usual, with zeal upon the labors of another crop season.

EUGENE Glover, son of Mr. Louis Glover, died last week at the Deaf and Dumb Asylum in Spartanburg County. The remains were brought home and interred in the family grounds.

JUDIC Hudson, who presided over our court with so much satisfaction to both the bar and people, is holding court in Charleston and maintains his reputation for fairness and talent as a presiding officer.

We learn with deep regret that our venerable friend, Dr. Elliott, met with an accident which came near being a serious affair. His horse ran away and Dr. Elliott was seriously, but we hope not dangerously hurt.

The city of Memphis, has gone into bankruptcy and petitioned for a receiver to be appointed. The Legislature has repealed her charter and the spot once known as Memphis is without a name as an incorporation. Hard times.

Mr. Asbury Williams, student of Mr. Sheridan's Male School, has been suffering from Influenza and Measles for some time. By care and successful treatment he is convalescing and we hope will soon be able to enter upon his duties again.

SHERIFF Livingston has at last done the right thing in turning the jail over to Mr. D. F. Livingston, as jailor. Hereafter there will be no more jail deliveries, but when a guilty man is lodged in jail he will stay there until the law lets him out.

CHARLIE Glover, son of Judge C. B. Glover, and a student of Mr. Sheridan's Male School, has been suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia. We are glad to learn that the disease has yielded to treatment, and the patient is recovering, though slowly.

A goodly number of our citizens availed themselves of the low fare charged by the South Carolina Railroad to make a trip to Charleston to attend the meeting of the Grange and enjoy the excitement of the races. Of course a little business will be mixed with the pleasure. We wish them all a pleasant visit and a safe return to their homes, better prepared by the trip for the duties of home and the requirements of every day life.

The horse of Mr. Samuel Riekenbaker, while coming to town on Wednesday last, took fright and becoming unmanageable upset the buggy. Mr. Riekenbaker was painfully bruised but not seriously hurt. The horse was stopped by some colored men, and the buggy escaped without damage.

The bridges in the Edisto swamp were torn up on yesterday for the purpose of repairing the foundations. Of course travel will be stopped, but no longer than is necessary to complete the necessary repairs. When completed the bridges will be in excellent order and we hope lasting. Good work or no pay.

There was a crowd in town on Monday—indeed, the whole county seemed to have gathered on our streets. Several pieces of property changed hands, both real and personal; but the most driving trade was in poor horses and red pocket-books—fit companions for the auctioneers block at this time. The prices indicated that nobody wanted them.

We are pained to learn the death of Lieut. N. P. Jefcoat, of this county. The deceased was a soldier in the late war, and served his country bravely and faithfully; and, perhaps, no hardship of that period fell more heavily upon a brave heart like his than the humiliation of the eight years of oppression through which every Southern patriot was called on to pass. Lieut. Jefcoat was taken with Pneumonia and died during the last week, leaving a good record as a neighbor and a citizen.

An entertainment was given on last evening by Miss Anka Moore, of Alabama, at Boliver's Hall, in behalf of the orphans of the yellow fever epidemic. Miss Moore is traveling under the protection of the Masonic fraternity and comes highly recommended as a lady of education and refinement, and possesses considerable musical talent. We commend Miss Moore and her charitable object to the kind consideration of our brethren of the press throughout the State.

On Monday last about 9 o'clock, a difficulty occurred between Mr. Asbury Dukes and Mr. J. W. Fairey, of Branchville, in which Mr. Fairey was shot five times by Mr. Dukes. The wounds though serious, are not considered fatal as yet. The difficulty grew out of some remarks made about the municipal election held on Monday last in which the Democratic candidates were victorious. Such serious troubles between our citizens are greatly to be deplored.

In the United States Circuit Court on Monday, Judge Bond presiding, a demurrer was entered alleging that under the statutes of the United States stuffing a ballot box is not a penal offence. The demurrer was sustained and the prisoner discharged. This decision of Judge Bond will be of intense interest to Radical ballot box stuffers, and brighten their fading political hopes in Orangeburg county. Radical law-makers and judges never intended this machine of popular power should be pure.

We are glad to learn that the thief who entered the sleeping apartment of Messrs. Raysor and Hamilton and helped himself to their wardrobe, as was announced in last week's DEMOCRAT, has been captured and lodged in jail to await trial at the next term of court. Wesley Washington is the name of this candidate for the penitentiary, and we have no doubt but that he will be elected. He is said to be a notorious thief, and a year or two with Col. Lipscomb may improve his morals a little.

The Order of the Patroos of Husbandry of South Carolina, assembled in the Masonic Temple of Charleston in January last. Worthy Master, J. N. Lipscomb, opened the lodge in the fourth degree. We notice the following delegates in attendance from Orangeburg County: W. F. Barton, No. 24; J. E. Gramlin, No. 117; D. W. Crook, No. 124; D. W. Cuttino, No. 135; M. J. Jenkins, No. 358. The Orangeburg Pomona Grange was represented by Capt. E. J. Felder, W. M.

Two female tramps, rather neatly dressed and good looking, visited our town last week, representing that they had been burnt out, and were widows of Masons. With so plausible a tale they very readily excited the sympathy of our citizens, and raised a handsome amount before reliable information were received that they were impostors. Policeman Cannon arrested them in Mr. Kirk Robinson's store, and took them before Mayor Mosley, who had them put upon the next train and shipped to parts unknown.

CHARLESTON MEDICAL COLLEGE.—We are indebted to our young friends, Messrs. N. G. Gewinner and B. B. Lee, for invitations to be present at the fifty-first annual commencement, which comes off on Monday evening, March 3, 1879, at 8 o'clock. The annual address will be delivered by Gen. B. H. Rutledge, and the valedictory by Mr. Thos. B. McDow, of Tennessee. Committee.—Napoleon G. Gewinner, Chairman; George E. Andrews, James L. Sheridan, Wm. C. Wannamaker, and B. F. Goodlett, Junior Committee.—H. T. Ivy and R. A. Reid, Marshal.—Wilnot S. Brockinton. We return our thanks for the invitations, and hope to be able to attend.

We have been reliably informed that a quarry of burr stone has been discovered on the lands of Mr. Maximilian Livingston of this county. The specimen shown us was of excellent quality and of sufficient hardness to cut glass. The rock bed is large, covering several acres of ground, and, if the stone can be utilized, will prove of immense value to the county as well as the owners. We learn that a correspondence has been opened with mill men and capitalists at the North with a view of thoroughly examining the rock, and, if possible utilize the quarry. We believe from the casual examination we were able to give the specimen, that it is equal to the best French burr stone. The credit of the discovery is due to Professor Bivikov, who pronounces it a complete success.

The farmers of Edgefield generally seem to think that the present low price of cotton does not warrant a large outlay of money in commercial fertilizers, and that greater attention should be given to grain crops. We trust this opinion may continue to gain ground, not only in Edgefield, but among our own planters, and that it shall be carried into pretty general practice. Independence and large grain crops go together. The State Grange, now in session in Charleston, seem disposed to take charge of the fertilizer grievance. A committee has been appointed to which all matters and papers relating to fertilizers have been referred. The report of this committee will be anxiously watched by every class of our farmers.

Mr. Josiah McKewen was taken with Pneumonia some ten days since and died on Sunday night last at his home in this place. He was raised and nurtured in the lap of piety, having constantly around him such influences as moulded in him traits of the best character. None perhaps were more prominently developed than sincerity in friendship, faith to his word, love for his parents and reverence for God. He was a young man of a generous heart and a noble disposition which rendered him a very agreeable companion to all those with whom he was associated. He never shrank from duty, and perhaps his devotion in this regard worked to his injury, for while suffering under the first approaches of the disease he remained at his post, and only yielded when its full responsibility had been met. To the bereaved family we extend our warmest sympathy with the consoling assurance that all things are well for those who love the Lord. His funeral services were performed at the Methodist church on Monday evening in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives.

SCISSORGRAPHS.—Broken Heart is a station on a Minnesota Railroad. Did you ever see such weather? Certainly. We are looking at it now. The world may owe a person a living, but it is hard work that makes it pay up.

Books are man's best friends. They never go back on him when he lends to a neighbor. A man who does not laugh can safely be arrested as a dangerous and suspicious character. Omaha editors write with a pistol behind their ears and with hand-grenades within convenient reach. Fresh, sweet children are the salt of the earth, and a young man at our elbow says the young ladies are the sugar.

Young men and ladies should not be allowed to stand at the gate too long these cool evenings. It is liable to bring on the new-moon-ia. "Now, look 'e here," said the three year old to his grand mother in a proposed spelling match, "let's start even; you take Massachusetts and I'll take eat."

A frugal citizen was heard to remark that the pins he finds nowadays are all straight; when those everlasting pin-back were in fashion he could pick up none that were not crooked. Beggars can't be choosers" says an old adage. We take notice that a beggar got into the hal' the other day, and chose from the hat-rack forthwith three hats, one umbrella, and the best sealskin overcoat. "Mamma," said a wicked youngster, "am I a canoe?" "No, child; why do you ask?" "Oh, because you always say you like to see people paddle their own canoe, and I didn't know but maybe I was yours!" The boy went out of the door with more reference to speed than grace.

Reduction. Owing to the general decline in the price of cotton and other produce, we have concluded to put the price of our paper down to ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS per annum, thus placing it within the reach of all. Send in your names at once.
