

Orangeburg Democrat.

A Paper for the People.

Church Directory.

METHODIST.—Rev. O. A. Darby, Pastor. Services every Sunday morning at half-past 10 o'clock and at night at half-past 7 o'clock.

PRESBYTERIAN.—Rev. J. A. D. Brown, Pastor. Services every Sunday morning at half-past 10 o'clock.

BAPTIST.—Rev. T. W. Mellichamp, Pastor. Services every third and fourth Sunday morning at half-past 10 o'clock.

LUTHERAN.—Rev. J. F. Kiser, Pastor. Services every Sunday morning at half-past 10 o'clock.

EPISCOPAL.—Rev. L. Querry, Pastor. Services third Sunday in each month.

Y. M. C. A.—Rooms on Russell-street. Open every evening during the week.

WARRANTED a genuine Havana cigar for 5 cents.

ON Friday last a house on Market street caught fire, but the prompt action of the fire department saved the building.

WE notice that Mr. J. C. Pike is making an addition to his office—an indication that his business is increasing proportionately.

A young man, living near town, by the name of Allen, while lying before the fire during last week was burnt so badly as to cause his death a few days afterward.

SEE the advertisement of Mr. J. R. Tucker, contractor. He is an old citizen of Orangeburg, and needs no commendation at our hands.

WE learn that Mr. Geo. W. Huff, of Cow Castle, in his 68th year, fell dead at his home on the 27th of last month.

MR. S. A. Reeves is in receipt of a fine lot of choice cigars, which he sells low down.

OUR thanks are due Mr. Phillip Rich, of St. Matthews, for a complimentary invitation to a Grand Purim Masquerade Ball.

A little son of Dr. A. S. Hydrick, while running in the yard on Tuesday last, fell on some fragments of glass bottle and cut himself severely on the arm.

THE weather during the present week has been very favorable to farming operations, and our planters are making rapid headway.

ON Tuesday evening the Young Americans turned out but not in sufficient force to carry out the programme of initiating their new members usual on such occasions.

MR. B. Frank Slater will receive another car load of fine horses on Sunday, the 9th instant.

THE members of the Orange Light Dragoons are hereby ordered to assemble at the company's rendezvous on Saturday, the 15th instant.

THE DEMOCRAT is indebted to the Carolina Literary Society, of Adger College, for an invitation to attend its anniversary celebration.

AT the annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association of this place, held Thursday evening, February 28th, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year.

GROCERIES, canned goods of all kinds fresh, cheap and of standard quality at Jos. Eros' Bakery.

SUBSCRIBERS to our paper who get it through the postoffice here are requested to ask for THE DEMOCRAT in calling for their mail, and then they will be sure to get it.

Ginger Ale Soda Water, an excellent tonic and winter beverage will be kept constantly on hand during the winter by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker.

Mr. James L. Sims is authorized to receive and receipt for all moneys due the Edisto Clarion for advertising and subscription, and he will fill out all subscriptions to the Clarion for which we have received pay.

ON the day after the commencement exercises of the Medical College our enterprising townsman Mr. Harpin Riggs received a full supply of coffins.

Mr. William Way, of Felderville, died of pneumonia on Saturday last. Mr. Way was more than eighty years of age, and one of the oldest citizens in that section of the county.

Robin shooting has become a profitable business. A poor bird can scarcely perch upon a limb before he falls a victim to some sportsman's aim.

WE hear the cry of dull times on every side; indeed our merchants and business men are having a fine time, and groups may be seen here and there discussing the present and future expectations.

WE are sorry to learn that a little daughter of Mr. F. B. Livingston, jailor, died on Monday last from the effects of measles.

THE Directors of the Farmers' Mutual Association held a meeting on Saturday last at which were admitted several new members.

DURING last week a little daughter of Mr. N. B. Stoudenmire on the Half-way Swamp was bitten by a mad dog, which is giving considerable uneasiness to the family.

THE following young men of our county received the degree of Doctor of Medicine from the South Carolina Medical College on the evening of the 14th instant.

OUR friend and enterprising citizen C. D. Kortjohn has received a large consignment of Boots, Shoes and Slippers, which are well worth the attention of those in need of such articles.

THE following named persons have checks in their favor in the County Commissioner's office: Samuel Byrd, News and Courier, Geo. H. Clark, J. M. Cope, J. M. Crosswell, David Ellison, Solomon Felder, A. F. Edwards, J. D. D. Fairry, Amos Gleason, D. T. Geroin, Gerardeau & Co., Randy Jenkins, J. D. Jones, W. E. McMichael, L. E. Myers, H. E. Young, C. R. Taber, Joseph Cannon, J. C. Binnaker, S. D. Grey and H. E. Garrick.

WE call the attention of our readers to the appeal of the President and Directors of the Orangeburg Agricultural and Mechanical Association to the stockholders of that society. The project of holding a Floral Fair this spring has been determined, and the Board will need all the aid they can possibly get.

CERTAIN suggestions crop out from the late fire. Examine your stove flues and see if they are in good condition. Burn out your chimneys every time it rains. Keep your ash boxes away from any wooden structure.

Our farmers, while looking about to diversify their industries, may learn a profitable lesson from the following figures: The butter and cheese crop of New York last year for the enormous sum of $350,000,000, while the entire cotton crop of the South will not reach more than $175,000,000.

THE COLUMBIA REGISTER DAILY, TRI-WEEKLY & WEEKLY. Best Newspaper ever published at the Capital of South Carolina. Circulation Large and Constantly increasing.

WE RESPECTFULLY INVITE THE attention of the reading community to the excellent newspapers we are now publishing in Columbia. THE REGISTER is the only paper ever published at the Capital of South Carolina which is conducted as are the leading dailies of the principal cities of the country.

THE DAILY REGISTER is a twenty-eight column paper, 24 by 36 inches, printed on good paper and with large clear type, containing the latest Telegraphic News, Full Market Reports, editorial matter on the leading occurrences of the times, and replete with interesting miscellaneous readings. The Local News is full and interesting, and our editor devotes his time exclusively to every department. Our correspondence from Washington and other places of note gives an entertaining résumé of all the important events of the day.

THE TRI-WEEKLY REGISTER, with some minor changes, comprises the contents of the Daily at $2.50 less per annum.

THE WEEKLY REGISTER is a large, handsomely gotten up eight-page paper, 20 by 24 inches, containing forty-eight columns of reading matter, embracing all the news of the week and the most editorial and local news.
