ORANGEBURG, S. C., MARCH 14, 1879.

For an excellent cigar go to Messrs. Sorrentue & Loryca. We have tried them and know whereof we speak.

We welcome back to his home Dr. Wolfe, who has been absent attending the College of Dentistry, at Baltimore. Success to you Doctor.

We are indebted to the Excelsior Literary Society, of Newberry College, for an invitation to attend its Anniversary Celebration on the 28th inst.

Our farmers are beginning to need a little rain to soften the soil and put it in good condition to receive the seed. We hope they may be blessed with good seasons, and that every expectation may be fully realized.

We were shown on Wednesday by Rev. S. T. Hallman an old Irish copper coin, bearing date in the year 1775, and in the reign of George III, of England. It was found in a field where it had been buried for years.

ATTENTION is invited to the call of the County Chairman, Malcolm I. Browning, Esq., which will be found in another column. We hope there will be a general response to the call, as there is important business to be brought before the meeting.

New spring stock of clothing and hats just received at Theodore Kohn's Dry Goods' Emporium, which are all fresh, new and seasonable and at lowest prices known since the war, also receiving daily all kind of new goods.

Y. M. C. A. DIME READING, No. 2. We learn that this entertainment will be given in a short time, the date of which will appear in our next issue. We commend these Readings to the public, as an entertaining and profitable way of aiding a good cause.

Mr. Henry Kohn took the train Thursday morning for New York where he expects to buy a full stock of spring and summer goods for our market. We trust Mr. Kohn will have a fine time, a successful trip and a safe return to his home.

We are glad to learn that pneumonia, and other diseases, which have been so prevalent and fatal in our county, are abating. We have never known a time when sickness was so universal as this. Every section of our county has suffered more or less from its visitation. We trust the opening of spring will bring health and prosperity.

The Independent Colored Fire Engine Company was on parade on Monday evening and made quite a creditable appearance. We would suggest, however, the propriety of keeping their engine in a condition that will not require soaking or coaxing to make it spout water. There is no time at a fire for such foolishness.

We take pleasure in publishing the following resolution, adopted by the Board of Stewards of the Methodist Church at this place. When such improvement are made it is generally done through the instrumentality of ladies, and we should not be slow in giving the credit they deserve. Every church in town is supplied with handsome as well as well as valuable organs, the procuring of which is due more or less to the efforts of our ladies:

Resolved, That the Board of Stewards return their thanks to the ladies for the handsome Organ which has been placed in the Methodist Church. From the minutes.

J. S. ALBERGOTTI, Secretary.

It is no use to talk about the hard times or starvation so long as Mr. James Van Tassel is in Orangeburg, at Muller's old stand, where the best and the cheapest of everything in his line is kept as much for the accommodation of our citizens as for his own profit. Fresh groceries, good liquors, fresh oysters, fat poultry, and fresh eggs are specialties with Mr. Van Tassel; and if you want any one or all of these articles, call at Muller's old stand and get supplied before it be too late.

HAVE you ever been to Korjohn's. If you have not don't fail to attend to it at once. There are bargains to be had at this place. It is the headquarters of low prices. This fact seems to be well understood, judging from the crowds that are in daily attendance. In fact when you add freight, packing, drayage, leakage and stealage from Charleston you can do better here. Our advice to our subscribers would be, patronize an enterprising and growing house, and keep the money in the community.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. Sain, Meroney & Co., who have bought the right for five counties in the Improved Water Elevator and Purifier. This is certainly the best arrangement for lifting water that has ever been invented, and is destined to supercede pumps and the old style sweeps now in use. Several gentlemen in town are using them and they give perfect satisfaction. Call on these gentlemen, who will take pleasure in showing the machine and its modus operandi.

Whilst we regret that Captain B. Stokes has withdrawn from the editorial control of our neighbor, the Colleton Democrat, we are pleased to know that his mantle has fallen upon such a worthy successor as Mr. C. C. Tracy. In the last campaign the Democrat under Captain Stokes did good service for Colleton Democracy, and Mr. Tracy promises to fight as earnestly, and we hope as successfully, for the same cause in the next campaign. We wish for him and the Democrat and old Colleton every success.

Mr. J. C. Pike, though the youngest of the leading business houses in town, is making as rapid strides toward success as any house in Orangeburg. The secret of this success is to be found in a stock of goods containing everything a man wants, and at prices that will enable the buyer to live as well as the seller; in a corps of clerks who are hard to beat for politeness, gentleness, and the inimitable qualities of a salesman, and in a proprietor who knows how to buy, how to sell and how to pay. Call and examine and buy.

LAWYERS are an absolute necessity in a Republican government where the people are the rulers. Every man wants to lord it over his neighbor, or attend to everybody-else's business and let his own alone. Fusses, trespasses, assaults and other personal crimes are a natural consequence. We therefore commend to all in need of legal advice or the services of a lawyer who will use every effort in behalf of a client to Hon. Samuel Dibble or to the firm of Knowlton & Lathrop whose cards may be found in the DEMOCRAT.

Our citizens are so well acquainted with Mr. T. W. Albergetti and the People's Bakery that it is scarcely worth while to call their attention to either; but the superior quality of his bread, rolls, pies and cakes and his beautifully arranged store, filled with the best confectioneries, fancy goods and notions, make a notice necessary. Those in want of his wares (and who does not?) should not fail to call and leave a part of their money with him. Mr. Albergetti will give you its full value in the best of every line. Remember the place on Russell-street.

We learn that Dr. H. J. Avinger, wife and two daughters, of Avinger, Texas, are now on a visit to their old home among us, and will spend some time with his friends in the upper and lower portions of the county. Dr. Avinger left us some twenty years ago to settle in Texas, where, we are glad to learn, he has been doing well. He was the first Democratic Senator elected from Cass County after the state had been wrested from the Radical plunderers in 1870. We are glad to hear that his two daughters will remain in South Carolina to complete their education at the Columbia Female College. While we regret to lose such men as Dr. Avinger, we are glad he is occupying a position in his adopted home, where his worth as a Democratic citizen will be utilized for benefit of the Lone Star State.

Miss Swisshelm, the pantaloontic, says she doesn't want any man to fall in love with her, because he would be sure to shoot her. So he ought, and then himself.

We learn that Mr. A. P. Avinger, of Vances' Ferry, lost a fine pointer dog recently. It is supposed that the dog died from hydrophobia, as there are a good many mad dogs in that locality.

We understand that an accomplished young lady of our county will compete for the prize offered by the News and Courier for the best story of Southern life, and we hope we will not be considered selfish when we express the wish that our fair young friend will be successful.

An Eastern editor throws up the sponge with the remark, "it doesn't pay to run a paper in a town where the business men read almanacs and pick their teeth with a herring." We are forced to the opinion that the poor fellow was among a lot of poor business men, and did perfectly right in quitting the newspaper business in such a town.

A full line of Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes, Cologne and Toilet Waters. These Perfumes have gained their popularity from their exquisite sweetness and permanency of odor. Any lady or gentleman who will give them a trial, will be convinced that no Perfumes, made in this or any other country, can compare with them. They are only to be used to be admired. For sale by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker.

An exchange advise young ladies who wish to encourage the young men to get an album. It's the first thing a bashful young man grabs when he enters a strange parlor. We have seen them look through one until they knew every picture in it by heart. It's wonderful what interest a bashful young man will take in a girl's grandfather and other relatives, but it's always so. As encouragers, albums have no equal, and every honest bashful young man will admit the fact.

A prominent citizen of the Santee country writes us as follows concerning the DEMOCRAT: "I am very much pleased with the paper since it passed into your possession. I think you are doing a great deal for our cause, and I wish you great success in your enterprise." The letter contained a decided proof in the shape of greenbacks that the gentleman is a substantial supporter of the DEMOCRAT as well as a well-wisher. We doff our Sunday hat to our friend for his kind words, and shall endeavor to make our paper all he wishes it to be.

ADJUTANT and Inspector General E. W. Moise has issued special orders condemning the Roberts Rifle as unfit for use by the Militia of this State. Companies in possession of this rifle will ship them to New York but if they desire to retain the condemned guns until others can be supplied, they will be permitted to do so. No contracts for new rifles will be made until condemned arms are turned over. A general review or inspection will had during the year, and Brigade commanders will designate the places and time most convenient for their commands. Let Orangeburg troops be prepared to do themselves and their General credit on that occasion.

EUREKA CHAPTER, No. 13, R. A. M.—At a convocation of this chapter, held on Friday evening, February 28, the following officers were elected to serve the current year: Companion F. S. Dibble, H. P.; Companion J. M. Danner, K.; Companion W. J. DeTreville, S.; Companion Geo. Boliver, C. H.; Companion J. F. Izlar, P. S.; Companion J. S. Albergetti, R. A. C.; Companion G. W. Brunson, G. M. Third Veil; Companion R. Copes, G. M. Second Veil; Companion J. A. Zeigler, G. M. First Veil; Companion J. A. Tilt, Sentinel; Companion J. M. Brunson, Secretary; Companion T. Kohn, Treasurer.

Our streets were literally alive on Saturday last with agents of various patented devices to save labor and aid household economy. Mr. Harsey champions a milker, which is simple and perhaps will answer the purpose; Messrs. Stanton & Co., of Alabama, are in charge of a stock guard, a simple enough fence and a churn; while Mr. N. D. Sherman brings forward a scouring fluid and a washing receipt, which makes the dirtiest floor clean and bright. Mr. Sherman was a soldier in the late war, and served in an Alabama regiment. In one of the fights of the battles of the Seven Pines around Richmond he lost an arm. He is the inventor of both the scouring fluid and the washing receipt and deserves something at the hands of our citizens.

We clip the following paragraph from the Barnwell People, of the 6th instant: "An Orangeburg lawyer, at a late dime reading, read 'Over the Hills to the Poor House,' eloquently and feelingly. We wonder if the biographies of any of his clients were therein mapped out? Tell us, Brother Sims." No, Brother Holmes, no. We would not tolerate such a lawyer in our town any longer than we could make arrangements to ship him over to Barnwell. The idea of an Orangeburg lawyer sending a client to the poor house over the hills. Oh! no, never.

A Lodge of the Order of Knights of Honor was organized in our town on Monday evening last, with forty members by Deputy Dictator Jacob Sutz'acher, of Columbia. So far as we understand the Order we are favorably impressed with its purposes, its tenets, and especially with its scheme of the mutual insurance of its members. In our present condition nothing is more needed for the future protection of our families than a good and reliable scheme of insurance, and we believe the Knights of Honor comes as near meeting the demand as any with which we are acquainted. The following officers were elected to serve for remainder of the year: James F. Izlar, Past Dictator; H. G. Sheridan, Dictator; J. C. Pike, Vice-Dictator; J. S. Albergetti, Assistant Dictator; J. L. Heidman, Reporter; C. R. Jones, Financial Reporter; Theo. Kohn, Treasurer; Rev. O. A. Darby, Chaplain; L. H. Wannamaker, Guide; W. P. Brunson, Guardian; A. Fischer, Sentinel.

On Tuesday evening last, while Mr. John McKewen was burning off the railroad embankment four miles below town, the fire crossed the ditch and was driven by the wind in the direction of Mr. Wm. Izlar's residence. The land being dry and foul, and the wind blowing briskly, the fire burned rapidly up to the yard, and it was only by tearing away part of the fence that the dwelling was saved.

A large fire was burning in the neighborhood of Dr. W. F. Barton on the same evening, but was arrested before doing much damage other than burn a few panels of farm fencing.

Persons engaged in burning off old fields should be careful to select a suitable day, and to take such other precautionary measures as will prevent accidents which may cost both trouble and expense. At this busy season of the year our farmers have no time either to fight fire or to split rails and build fencing.

LOVE OF FLOWERS.—In all countries women love flowers; in all countries they form nosegays of them, but it is only in the bosom of plenty that they conceive the idea of embellishing their dwellings with them. The cultivation of flowers among the peasantry indicates a revolution in all their feelings. It is a delicate pleasure that makes its way through coarse organs; it is a creature whose eyes are opened; it is a sense of the beautiful, a faculty of the soul, that is awakened; colors, forms, odors are perceived for the first time, and these charming objects have at length spectators. Those who have travelled in the country, can testify that a rose-tree under the window, a honeysuckle around the door of a cottage, is a good omen to a weary traveller. The hand that cultivates flowers is not closed against the supplications of the poor, nor against the wants of the stranger. Flowers may be called the alphabet of the angels, wherewith they write on hills and plains mysterious truths. Let us encourage the cultivation of flowers by contributing to the success of the approaching Floral Fair.

We learn that Mr. Fisher, the Receiver of the South Carolina Railroad, will operate the road under new and more effective laws, looking to the greater security of passengers and more reliable labor on the part of employees. Each train will use signal lights and flags, and also employ the telegraph to note the moment of arriving at and departing from the several stations on the line. This will certainly conduce to the safety of both passengers and freight. No employee will be allowed to smoke, swear or drink liquor while on duty. The old fashion of working awhile and fishing the balance of the time will stop. Each laborer or employee is expected to give his entire time to the road. Lengthy conversations even between employees or with others are positively forbidden and violations of any of these rules will be punished by dismissal. Such a management of the affairs of the road if persistently followed up cannot fail of success. We like the rules about swearing and drinking, for next to a salt water tar a rail road man can swear the loudest and drink the most. Let Receiver Fisher cap the climax now by respecting the Sabbath and order his trains to rest over until Monday.

Grand Ball. The Grand Purim Ball at St. Matthews, which came off last Monday night at the residence of Mr. Phillip Rich, was a complete success. Mr. Rich, as manager of the affair, gave general satisfaction, and notwithstanding the smallness of the town and the few Israelites who reside there, it was handsomely gotten up. The ball-room was beautifully decorated by the fair sex, and they certainly deserve credit for their faithful work and the excellent taste. The festivities of the evening commenced at half-past 8 o'clock, and the sweet strains of the music were heard all through the village. One by one the guests assembled, and by nine o'clock about fifty persons were present. The sight of the different costumes was grand. Gold, silver, jewels, as well as princesses, lords, minstrels, queens and princesses were plentiful. I am sorry that your space is so limited that I cannot give all the particulars. The sparkling brilliancy of the costumes and the true representation of the different characters could not be excelled. About one o'clock the masks and disguises were put aside, and then real pleasure began. Every one seemed to enjoy themselves. The mazy dance was indulged in until about four o'clock, when the music ceased, and the merry dancers quietly dispersed to their several homes to dream over the pleasant hours of their enjoyment at the Grand Purim Ball, which was a success beyond expectation.
