ORANGEBURG, S. C., MAY 9, 1879.

Go to Joseph Eros' for Ice Cream, Confectionery and Fruit.

A meeting of the Orangeburg Agricultural Society will be held on the 30th instant.

PAY up your town taxes, and save the penalty. After the 20th instant 20 per cent. penalty will be added.

The fence around the Catholic graveyard is in progress of erection by Mr. Hugh Beck, and when completed will be a neat and substantial affair.

The Grand Jury in their report complimented our public officers very highly. All the offices were reported as being kept in a neat and business like manner.

Mr. E. W. Fraser, Chairman of the Relief Committee at Walterboro, acknowledges the receipt of $33 through Mr. F. Risher, being a contribution from sundry citizens of our town to the sufferers.

We are requested to call attention to the adjournment of the Court of Common Pleas until Tuesday next. Parties, Jurors and witnesses summoned for Monday need not attend until Tuesday.

Mr. J. G. Boliver was appointed on Monday last by his Honor, Judge Fraser, Deputy Clerk of Court of Common Pleas and General Sessions and Deputy Register Meane Conveyance for Orangeburg County.

Cox who killed Alston in Atlanta a short time ago has been convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. Mrs. Cox, who was present in the courthouse when her husband was sentenced, attempted to commit suicide.

WESLEY Washington, one of the most notorious rascals in the county, was convicted on Wednesday for stealing sundry articles of clothing and sentenced by Judge Fraser to one year's imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

FLORAL FAIR BALL.—Our young men will give a Grand Ball on the night of the Floral Fair May 30th. The Orangeburg String Band will furnish the music for the occasion. Tickets can be had at the stores of Henry Kohn or P. W. Bull.

Those of our friends who may visit Columbia next week to witness the unveiling of the Confederate Monument and want a convenient place to stop will find the Virginia House all they desire. Maj. Doldomead knows exactly how to run a hotel.

We noticed that the store on Doyle's corner was closed on Wednesday, and learned that its enterprising young proprietor, Mr. Z. J. King, had gone on a pleasure trip to a friend in Lower St. Matthews. He has our best wishes for a happy time.

A very interesting game of base ball was played on last Friday afternoon between the Orange and Hampton Base Ball Clubs. The game was stubbornly contested by the Hamp-ton, but the Orange proved too much for them, and won the game by a score of 30 to 24. Try again, boys.

LADIES it will repay you to take a look at those beautiful Dress Goods just in at Henry Kohn's. Among the Novelties are the "Malchite Cloth" 12 1/2 cents. Chinese Grass Cloth, yard wide 10 cents. Pongee Luatres, 10 cents a yard. Linen Suitings 10 cents per yard. Cashmere, Brocades, Hernani Stripes, Lawns and P. K.'s from 6 cents and upwards.

A brick-bat, projected rather forcibly by the hand of Mr. Kennedy, of the turpentine farm, came in contact with Joe Macbeth's head on Wednesday afternoon, and quieted the nerves of that excited individual. Cause, mean whiskey; effect, one bruised skull.

SEVERAL mad dogs have been killed in different sections of the county. We notice also several dogs on the streets without muzzles contrary to the city ordinance. Policemen are instructed to kill all such and parties owning these dogs will do well to give attention to the matter.

We can hardly pick up an exchange without seeing notices of Sunday School picnics. These are pleasant occasions to the children and encourage them in their duties. None of our Sunday Schools have as yet had a picnic this season, but we are glad to learn that one proposes to open the ball some time this month by taking a holiday in the woods.

A Grand Concert will be given in aid of the Episcopal Church, on the 22d of this month, in the Courthouse. The best musical talent of the County has been placed at the disposal of the ladies who have the enterprise in charge, and a brilliant and delightful evening may be confidently expected. Full particulars will be given in our next issue.

We have been informed by farmers from the lower portion of St. Matthews that in consequence of the recent heavy rains, the stand of cotton is bad throughout that section. True to their reputation, however, as energetic farmers, they are busy repairing the damage with every prospect of success. This is one of the best cotton regions in the county and the citizens there deserve success and will win it.

A full line of Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes, Colognes and Toilet Waters. These Perfumes have gained their popularity from their exquisite sweetness and permanency of odor. Any lady or gentleman who will give them a trial, will be convinced that no Perfumes, made in this or any other country, can compare with them. They are only to be used to be admired. For sale by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker.

The Kershaw Gazette is responsible for the following: The latest amusement is termed the "Printer's Delight," and is performed in the following manner: Take a sheet of paper and fold it up carefully and place within it two dollars. And what adds immensely to the feat is to send along the name of a friend, with the cash to balance. Keep your eye on the printer and if you detect a smile the trick is a success. Try it.

We propose making arrangements to publish a complete roll of every company that left this county and took part in the late war, and we hope that some surviving officer or private of each company will furnish us with as near a complete roll of their respective companies as they can. Let us prepare a Roll of Honor and forever cherish the memory of those who fought for Southern liberty.

Mrs. Demorest's Reliable Patterns of all novel and beautiful styles for the summer fashions now ready and for sale at Theodore Kohn's Fashionable Emporium. Catalogues free upon application. Call or send for one. Also just received a lot of beautiful flowers, fans, lace goods, &c. Mr. Kohn is in receipt daily of all the latest styles and novelties of the season. Give him a call.

As a piece of gratifying information to our citizens as to the enterprising spirit of our town, we say that a drummer of experience and extensive travel, stopping here a few days last week, informed one of our merchants that there was more business being done in Orangeburg at this season of the year, than in any county town in the State. Of the amount and kind of trade done by our merchants, we will have something further to say in a future issue of the DEMOCRAT.

Our thanks are due Mr. Peter Cannon for a choice cut from a fine Rock fish he captured on Wednesday afternoon. This is the third fish of the kind caught by Mr. Cannon in the Edisto and justly entitles him to the championship of Orangeburg. The fish was thirty-two inches in length, nineteen inches around the body and weighed thirteen and three-quarter pounds. Any one, however, can catch Rock fish if he has one of Mr. Cannon's lines and hooks, and we would advise fishermen to call at his store and procure a complete outfit.

No home can be considered complete without pictures, and those who have failed to furnish their parlors with these necessary ornaments cannot find a better time to do so than the present, or a better man to furnish the frames and necessary hangings than Rev. S. T. Hallman, of Lyon's Township, whose advertisement may be found in this paper. The work is neatly executed and the material of the best quality. Mr. Hallman guarantees satisfaction both in workmanship and price.

A WARNING TO YOUNG LADIES.—A young lady of Louisville writes to a modest and stupid youth: "When you asked me if I would marry you—oh I ought not to have done it, I suppose—but then it was such an opportunity, and I smiled the cue to you and answered 'Never!' And you stupid, you froze and bowed like a telegraph pole, and left. Oh! dear me, and I certainly thought that at this day there was nobody under the sun who was so unpardonable obtuse, so far behind the age and the rage that he would not have instantly met me with, 'What, never?' and given me the chance to reply, 'Well, hardly ever.'"

Editor Orangeburg Democrat: I have been hoping that some of the teachers of our county might respond to the proposition of your correspondent "Blue Jeans," from St. Matthews in regard to a Teachers' Convention. I indorse the sentiments of your correspondent, and would say, by all means, let us have the Convention at as early a day as practicable. I would, therefore, suggest the following gentlemen as a committee, who are requested to meet at Orangeburg and fix the time and place for the meeting: Rev. R. B. Tarrant, J. B. O'Neal Holloway and Hugo G. Sheridan.

D. L. CONNOR, School Commissioner O. C.

We clip the following paragraph from the Spartanburg Herald of last week: "Our bachelor friend in the drug store nearest the Herald office was officially notified at the meeting of the Alumni Association of Wofford College last commencement that he had to get married before next commencement or endow a professorship." Your time is nearly up, Major. What are you going to do about it? How are you progressing? We suggest that a committee be appointed by the Association with power to send for persons and papers to ascertain if the Major has ever made an effort to comply with the resolution, and if he has we hope he will be granted further time. In the meantime the members of the Alumni in this county who are sinning away their day of grace had better take warning by the Major's fate.

We had the pleasure of a visit to the workshops of Mr. Robert Wiles, on Market-street, and saw wagons and buggies in every stage of manufacture from the first stroke on a wheel to the finest touch of the painter's brush upon the body. The wagons combine three important elements of utility, lightness, strength and durability; and the buggies are all that could be desired in such vehicles for a country like this. In the blacksmith department every kind of work in iron and steel is skillfully done from a common plough to the nicest steel spring, and in the shortest possible time. Indeed the business in all its departments has the appearance of enterprise and success, and we would commend Mr. Wiles and his skillful workmen to those who may be in need of work in his lines. Repairing is done as neatly and promptly as original work and at the lowest prices.

The Grand Jury, in their report, recommend that the County Commissioners be instructed to build a substantial fence around the Courthouse square. This is just as it should be. No improvement is more needed than such an enclosure to protect both the grounds and shade trees from depredation of cattle and horses. We would suggest the propriety of building a fence that will combine both the useful and ornamental. The master of ceremonies, Mr. W. B. Thompson, announced that Prof. Lawrence had kindly consented to appear again—this time in the piece entitled "Mr. Socrates Snooks and wife." Such an introduction prepared the audience for the treat they were about to enjoy, and were not disappointed, for Mr. Lawrence in his inimitable style upset the house completely and sat down, leaving the audience in a roar of laughter. The music, furnished by Mr. Henry Kohn and his assistants, Mr. Tom Wannamaker and L. Wolfe, on the violin, and Misses Jacobson and F. Mellichamp on the piano, was excellent.

The following resolution, adopted at a late meeting of the teachers of St. Pauls Methodist Church Sunday School, is certainly very complimentary to our esteemed fellow-citizen, Hon. S. Dibble, and we take pleasure in publishing it:

Resolved, That we, the Teachers of the Orangeburg Methodist Sunday School, have heard with much regret of the resignation of our beloved Superintendent, Mr. Samuel Dibble, and that we hereby express our thanks for his earnest work for the Sunday School, and our wishes for his future success and happiness.

The following resolutions, on motion of Rev. O. A. Darby, were passed at the last Quarterly Conference:

Resolved, That the Secretary of this Quarterly Conference be instructed to convey the thanks of the Conference to Mr. Samuel Dibble for his long, intelligent and earnest work as Superintendent of the Sunday School.

Resolved, Also, that this Conference most earnestly prays that the blessings of God may attend him during the remainder of his life.

Quite a sensation has been created in our usually quiet town by the visit of a genuine, organized dramatic company, The Globe Comedy Company, who performed in the Masonic Hall on Monday and Wednesday nights have given general satisfaction. A crowded house was in attendance on both occasions and testify that the acting is fair—some say, very good. The pieces acted are denominated "society plays" and deal with the foibles, not the predominant traits of character. There was a time when the stage was a commendable means of instruction and was visited mainly with a view to learn; but at the present day, little is gained save slang and a not very desirable insight into the weaker phases of society. Whether the stage or the general taste of men has degenerated must be determined by the effect the one produced upon the other. The performance last night was up to that of the previous nights and the rendering of Tennyson's Enoch Arden was very good. All the characters were well maintained and the audience left regretting the departure of the Troupe. They go from here to Sumter.

According to notice in the county papers a Sunday School Entertainment was given at the Lutheran Church on last Sunday in which all the schools, by invitation, participated. A large and intelligent audience was in attendance filling the church almost to its utmost capacity. Appropriate speeches were made by Mr. Hugo G. Sheridan, Capt. John A. Hamilton and Rev. O. A. Darby, in which wholesome principles were inculcated and instruction imparted to the young mind in a pleasing and effective manner. Captain Hamilton was peculiarly happy in his illustrations, and the little ones will long remember this earnest and effective speech. Mr. Darby, picked up at the moment as a substitute for Mr. J. H. Fowles, who was unavoidably absent, enforced by felicitous examples the traits of character which should adorn the life of youth. This very appropriate talk proved the choice of Rev. J. F. Kiser of a substitute was a most happy one. The occasion, all in all, was a most enjoyable one and doubtless will do much to build up the Sunday School interest of our town. We trust this is but the first of many similar entertainments by the different denominations of the town for the encouragement of the children.

The third in the series of dime readings announced by the Young Men's Christian Association, was given in the Courthouse on last Friday evening before a large and attentive audience. Prof. W. H. Lawrence, of the Claflin University, made a happy rendering of "Heart's Search," by Poe, and won frequent applause from his hearers. Captain Mortimer Glover read in a peculiarly felicitous manner one of Mark Twain's best productions, bringing down the house several times during its delivery. Rev. O. A. Darby made a selection from the Christian poet, Cowper, and in a distinct and emphatic manner presented, not only the meaning, but the exquisite beauty of the poet's imagery. The master of ceremonies, Mr. W. B. Thompson, announced that Prof. Lawrence had kindly consented to appear again—this time in the piece entitled "Mr. Socrates Snooks and wife." Such an introduction prepared the audience for the treat they were about to enjoy, and were not disappointed, for Mr. Lawrence in his inimitable style upset the house completely and sat down, leaving the audience in a roar of laughter. The music, furnished by Mr. Henry Kohn and his assistants, Mr. Tom Wannamaker and L. Wolfe, on the violin, and Misses Jacobson and F. Mellichamp on the piano, was excellent.

A Convention of the citizens of Mississippi met at Vicksburg on Monday last to consider the best mode of remedying the labor troubles of the West. Many persons of note were present, among whom was Governor Stone. What measures may be adopted to remedy the evil will have the sanction of the best minds of the State. Several colored men were members of the Convention and will unite with their white fellow-citizens upon a measure which is to redound as much to the benefit of their race as to the planters of the West.

On Saturday last we saw a bird, evidently a stranger to these parts, killed by Mr. Henry O. Smoke, mail carrier between this point and Vance's Ferry. It was a water bird and measured four feet six inches from tip of one wing to tip of the other, two feet ten inches from tip of bill to tip of tail and weighed eleven pounds. The legs extended to the rear and almost on a line with the body, which necessitated its walking in an upright position; the feet were like those of a duck, but had the appearance of little use save for the water; the color of the back resembled that of a guinea fowl, the breast that of a goose; the neck, long and stout, was covered from the head half down its length with glossy feathers like a wild drake; and the bill was long, strong and straight. This bird was killed in a pond near the state road, between the plantations of Col. J. C. Edwards and Dr. R. W. Bates. It was suggested by some that the bird was brought here by this recent storm. If the size and wings, narrow and long, did not conflict with the books, we would call it a Loon, which is a migratory water-fowl of the genus Colymbus.
