ORANGEBURG, S. C., MAY 16, 1879.

The night services in the Lutheran Church has been discontinued, and an afternoon service instituted instead.

Mr. B. W. Thompson will deliver an address before the Temperance Society next Monday night.

The Missionary Society of the Methodist Sunday School will hold its regular monthly meeting next Sunday afternoon at four o'clock.

We notice that some boys make it a practice to annoy the postmaster while he is distributing the mail in the afternoon by hammering on the outside door of the postoffice.

On a recent wedding occasion we heard a young bachelor, while carrying some sugar-plums around to the ladies, offer his kindness in a very questionable sentence, punctuated as he had it: "Will you take one, sugar-plum."

We learn that Messrs. D. E. Smoak & Co. have sold their store, next door to Mr. P. G. Cannon, to Messrs. Mc. Sistrunk & Griffin, who will continue a general mercantile business and will succeed if printers ink be judiciously used.

Sam Ott, a colored carpenter, while engaged last Thursday in making some necessary repairs on Mr. J. C. Pike's dwelling, fell and we learn seriously injured himself.

During our visit to Columbia we saw one of the biggest lumbags in the shape of an Indian doctor, who professed to cure all and kill none.

Our young friend, Mr. Julian A. Salley, showed us a rose that he plucked from his father's garden that measured sixteen inches in circumference.

The Lutheran Sunday School propose going on a picnic next Thursday. We wish the little ones and their friends a pleasant day and a merry trip.

We learned that a difficulty occurred on Bull Swamp, between Mr. Vincent Bates and some negroes whom he caught stealing corn.

We received the following unique note from a subscriber one day last week: "Mr. Editor—Please have my paper transferred from St. Matthews' P. O. to Summerville P. O. for Rev. Mrs. C. S. R.— Please to inform my many friends and subscribers of you much, esteems Democrat of my sudden change of P. O. address."

Boys, a word with you, if you please. When you go to church put your quid of tobacco out of your mouth, as it does not add much to the appearance of the floor to have it all besmeared with tobacco juice, and besides it is an ungentlemanly habit.

The Loafers Club of our town has a large membership, and the probabilities are that they will have to "skin around right smart" this year, the old field plums having been killed by the late frost.

We were glad to meet Mr. J. S. Albergotti at his usual place of business after a serious illness of two weeks. Usually a robust man, he looks thin, but has lost none of the vigor and energy which so peculiarly characterized him in the relations of life.

The Columbia Register calls them members of the donkey club—those young sports who wear the high earcutters, and stand at the church doors on Sundays and gaze any lady out of countenance who goes in or out.

A young man from Orangeburg, while on a visit to Columbia to witness the unveiling of the Confederate monument, wishing to call on a young lady, and not being very well acquainted with the city hired a guide to pilot him to the desired locality.

The Directors of the Agricultural and Mechanical Association have made arrangements for a Tournament as a source of amusement for the visitors to the Floral Fair.

A full line of Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes, Colognes and Toilet Waters. These Perfumes have gained their popularity from their exquisite sweetness and permanency of odor.

We had the pleasure of meeting while in Columbia last Tuesday Col. T. Stobo Farrow, Clerk of the Senate and the accomplished editor of the Spartanburg Herald.

We learn that more rock fish have been caught in the Edisto this year than ever before at the same season, and of a larger size.

There are now only two prisoners in jail, and the probabilities are that during the present session of Court these will be turned out or sent to the penitentiary.

The train that carried the excursionists to Columbia on last Tuesday morning was jammed from end to end, affording scarcely comfortable standing room for those who had the misfortune to get aboard on the last fifty miles of the route.

The Aiken Courier-Journal says: "Mr. B. F. Gunter is having a wrought iron machine for taking likenesses put up. He says if he can get an instrument made which will take the editors of the Barnwell People and Aiken Courier-Journal that he can promise to take the photo of any human being in existence."

Messrs. J. C. Pike, Z. Gramblin, M. J. Keller and P. V. Dibble, delegates to the Methodist District Conference left for Williston on Thursday last.

A burglar attempted to enter the store of Mr. Geo. H. Cornelson early on Monday evening, but was detected and made his escape.

We would call the attention of County Commissioner Hayden to a couple of holes in the road about half-way between the lake and the river bridges about the bend of the road.

Many farmers on Bull Swamp and elsewhere in the county are ploughing up their first planting of cotton in consequence of the ravages of the cut worm.

Good Advice.—Says the Elmira Gazette: "No, don't learn a trade, young man. You might soil your hands, wilt your shirt collar, and spoil your complexion sweating."

On Thursday evening last the dwelling of Dr. W. W. Murray, a mile south of town, was entirely consumed by fire.

Messrs. G. L. Salley, Bennett and Baldwin reported the cat crop of their neighborhood as good, wheat, little planted and inferior.

Mr. Mc. Salley said that Mr. Vose failed to realize his expectations from the fact that he had planted too much peas. If he had planted three-fourths of a bushel or even a bushel per acre, the yield would have been satisfactory.

Mr. Robinson said that his wheat was free from rust except on spots where a slight tendency to rust might be detected.

Dr. J. C. Holman said he had 3 1-2 acres manured with the ash element but was able to see little or no improvement.

Mr. G. L. Salley said hail had done considerable damage to early cotton.

Mr. W. A. Mackay said his meat was firm and his lard as solid as he had ever made with corn.

CONSIDERABLE excitement must exist in the upper portion of this county in reference to mad dogs, if the following be correct, which is vouchered for by a gentleman of veracity: Dr. J. A. J. Hildebrand having occasion to walk down in his field, where he had a negro boy ploughing, had no sooner arrived in speaking distance than he heard the alarming cry of "mad dog."

A regular quarterly meeting of this society was held on the 10th instant, in Sheridan's School room, Captain John L. Moorer, vice-president, presiding.

Mr. J. P. Harley's name, having been proposed for membership and favorably considered by the executive committee, was ordered to be enrolled and Mr. Harley notified of the fact.

Information was asked about obtaining Jute seed. Mr. Riggs said he had obtained a small package from Dr. W. F. Barton for thirty cents, and planted them but they were not yet up.

OATS AND WHEAT.

Messrs. G. L. Salley, Bennett and Baldwin reported the cat crop of their neighborhood as good, wheat, little planted and inferior.

Mr. W. A. Mackay said his meat was firm and his lard as solid as he had ever made with corn.

Mr. J. Stokes reported oats good through the neighborhood generally.

Mr. Mc. Salley had a field planted in oats, upon which he had in the summer planted peas.

Mr. Riggs said oats were doing well in his section and grew well for him after cotton.

Mr. W. A. Hoffman said, oats in his section above Lewisville, were not doing so well.

Mr. W. A. Mackay thought 2 bushels of peas per acre too much, one-half or three-quarter bushels were enough to sow oats broad-cast.

Mr. J. J. Salley said he had put oats in a piece of land upon which he had planted peas with the ash element.

Capt. J. L. Moorer reported the oat crop of his neighborhood very fine, also wheat, with some farmers, was good.

Dr. Vose said the stand of cotton in St. Matthews was generally bad and in many cases the crop had to be planted over.

Mr. G. L. Salley said hail had done considerable damage to early cotton.

Mr. W. A. Mackay said his meat was firm and his lard as solid as he had ever made with corn.
