

All For God.
 'Take my life, and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to Thee,
 'Take my hands, and let them move At the impulses of Thy love, 'Take my feet, and let them be Swift and beautiful for Thee;
 'Take my voice, and let me sing Always, only for my King.
 'Take my silver and my gold—
 Not a mite would I withhold;
 'Take my moments and my days—Let them flow in ceaseless praise.
 'Take my will and make it Thine—It shall be no longer mine;
 'Take my heart, it is Thine own—It shall be Thy royal throne.
 'Take my love; my Lord, I pour At Thy feet its treasure store;
 'Take myself, and I will be Ever, only, all for Thee.

Support Your County Paper.
 The other day an old and respected citizen came into our office, and, after paying his back indebtedness, took a seat and remarked:
 "I guess you needn't send me the paper any longer. I have just subscribed for a Philadelphia paper which suits me pretty well, and it doesn't cost as much as the Democrat."

Here he handed us the paper for inspection. We found it to be a neat-looking sheet, handsomely printed, with a large engraved head, and containing about forty-eight columns of unspicacious reading matter.
 "Fair looking paper," we remarked, as we handed it back to him;
 "but did you ever see anything in it concerning our county?"

"Well, I don't know as I ever have."
 "Anything in regard to the State?"
 "Nothing."
 "And yet you give up a paper that contains the local market reports, the state of the crops, the deaths and marriages, and the thousand and one happenings from week to week which make up the history of the region in which you are most interested, and which you can get from no other source, and take instead a city paper, simply because it comes a little cheaper."

"Yes, and it contains more reading matter," he added.
 "Certainly," we remarked, "but what is the character of the matter?
 Nothing in regard to your own village—your schools, your churches, your local improvements, and the thousand and one things that happen in your county. There is nothing in it that helps build up your county and support home institutions. It is as foreign to you as the city in which it is published. It may contain more reading matter, but your neighborhood is not represented in its columns."

"But why can't you furnish your paper cheaper if they can afford a much larger one in the city at a low price?" queried he.
 "For the reason that a country paper has a small circulation compared with a city paper, and the labor expended upon 1,000 papers is about the same as on 50,000, especially when it is taken into consideration that the city weekly which is furnished for a dollar a year is made up of the type set for the daily."

"That's enough," exclaimed the old gentleman, as he pulled out his wallet, "just send me the DEMOCRAT for another year."
 As he bade us "good morning," and passed through the sanctum door, we heard him remark: "It's my belief that a man who stops or refuses to subscribe to his local paper simply because it doesn't contain as much reading matter as one made up from a daily and published in the city, should be supplied with medical almanacs at the public expense."

Protest.
 The inhabitants of Wyandotte, Kansas, have had presented to Congress a protest against the advent of negro exodites into that State. They say they do not want thousands of half clad, ignorant, poverty-stricken people hurled on them. This looks like the land teeming with equal civil and political rights for the negro, don't it? John Brown's son—his soul is not marching on yet—says he will lead the movement of the colored people to Kansas. But we opine the people of Wyandotte and other Kansas localities will perform for him the office which Gov. Wise performed for his father. And then his soul can join his father's in that march which will never cease as long as a juvenile American can sing.—Newberry News.
