

Orangeburg Democrat. A Paper for the People. Church Directory.

METHODIST.—Rev. O. A. Darby, Pastor. Services every Sunday morning at half-past 10 o'clock and at night at half-past 7 o'clock. Prayer Meeting every Wednesday evening at half-past 7 o'clock. Sabbath School every Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. Children's meetings every third Sunday.

ORANGEBURG, S. C., MAY 23, 1879.

THE celebrated "What never?" "Hardly ever!" in the "Pinafore" tonight.

Ladies! those Trimming Silks, Trimming Satins and Trimming Fringes have arrived at Henry Kohn.

GRAND Chorus to-night in the Pinafore at the Concert—"His sisters and his cousins and his aunts."

Our popular and efficient Mayor was sick the early part of this week but we are pleased to say he is convalescing.

A meeting of Eureka Chapter, No. 13, R. A. M., will be held on Friday, May 30. M. M. and P. M. Degrees will be conferred.

Mrs. Sanders, of Charleston, will exhibit at the Floral Fair a fine lot of blooming plants which she will sell to parties desirous of purchasing.

Mr. J. R. Tucker is engaged in building a new fence around the Presbyterian Church grounds. When completed it will be quite an improvement upon the old inclosure.

Go to the concert to-night given for the benefit of the Episcopal Church, and if you do not carry your "uncles, your aunts and cousins," carry—well, somebody else.

A fine shower of rain fell on Sunday afternoon, refreshing vegetation and making glad the hearts of our farmers. Good seasons and a good price for cotton keep the planter in a most amiable mood.

We tender our thanks to Mr. D. L. Connor, School Commissioner, for one of the finest lead of spring cabbage we have ever seen at this season. Our good Commissioner is certainly ahead in gardening this season.

The oat crop is being harvested and the yield bids fair to be the largest in this county for years. No crop will pay the farmer a handsomer dividend than this and we trust the acreage for the next season will be double the present.

Our young townsman, Mr. B. B. Lee, represents the large manufacturing house of Grunpert Brothers, Philadelphia, for the sale of their fine Havana and Domestic Cigars, in this State. We are glad to learn he is doing a driving business.

The children of St. Paul's Methodist Sunday School have a treat in store for them if the programme prepared by the committee of arrangements is an indication. Read it, children, and prepare yourselves for a good time.

MANY thanks are due Mr. Harpin Riggs for the sample of his delicious honey presented to the Democrat. Patent hives are used by Mr. Riggs and his honey is of the finest quality. It evidently pays to use these hives if only to enjoy the luxury of excellent honey.

Dr. W. C. Wannamaker, formerly of Orangeburg, now one of the hospital physicians in Charleston, was on a visit for a few days this week to relations in our town. Rev. A. P. Norris is also on a visit to Orangeburg, and looks as strong as when living among us.

A few days ago a sow belonging to Mr. F. G. Haiger, of Middle St. Matthews, gave birth to nineteen pigs, six more than she had litters to support them. The sow is two and half years old and, with the present litter, has had forty-four pigs. If any body has a more prolific breed bring it forward.

May he "who tempests the wind to the shore" not overlook the poor woman who is married to a man who won't subscribe for his county paper, but depends upon his neighbor for his reading. She is truly one not to be forgotten.

Mr. Joseph Eros will accept our thanks for Ice Cream. We never tasted better. Our readers will not forget his saloon when the weather is hot and refreshments needed. His wagon will go out every afternoon between four and five o'clock with ice cream.

Mrs. W. A. Maroney kindly presented us with a couple of large and beautiful flowers of the Cactus; we have never seen finer specimens. The colors, a white and red, are remarkably rich with the different tints beautifully blending. We hope her fine collection of flowers will be largely represented at the approaching Floral Fair.

We saw more drunken men in the streets of Orangeburg last Saturday, and heard of more fights than comports with the dignity of our town and the good morals of our citizens. Court week is no excuse for whiskey drinking, and a mistrial of a fighting case is no reason for more fighting. Jim Cannon must have been off duty on Saturday.

The Missionary Society of the Methodist Sunday School held its monthly meeting according to announcement on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather a goodly number were present, and Prof. Lawrence made one of his characteristic speeches to the old as well as the little ones of the church.

We learn from Mr. Robert Copes, our worthy County Treasurer, that the following amounts were collected on the taxes during the month ending May 15, 1879: State tax, $403.43; county tax, $430.22; special tax of 1 mill for past indebtedness, $142.25; district school tax, $293.48; poll tax, $95.50; making a total of $1,374.88.

You are not to be discouraged because you have been denied a strong intellect, or pine because you have never made a success of anything and the future seems to loom up to you dark and forbidding. Remember that the glorious picnic season is here, and you are needed to put up swings and turn the handles of ice cream freezers.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Esther Loryea, mother of our fellow townsman, Joseph Loryea, visited our city last week. She is an old resident of Charleston, having lived there thirty-eight years, and is now seventy-eight years of age and as spry as a lark. She is perfectly delighted with Orangeburg and would like to live here, were it not for the interests she has to look after in Charleston.

THERE is an unusual amount of sickness among the citizens of our town for this season of the year. We learn that Col. W. M. Hudson, Mrs. J. S. Albergotti and a little child of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hubbell are all very ill. Our sympathies are with the afflicted ones and we trust that the means employed for their restoration to health will be blessed with a most gratifying success.

WEDNESDAY morning Mr. Cornelison's team, while hauling a load of furniture from the depot, became frightened near Doyle's corner from a piece of canvas and dashed down Russell street at a fearful speed, leaving articles of furniture scattered promiscuously on the road. Fortunately one of the horses fell and the infuriated animals were caught without doing any damage other than breaking a few straps and springing an axle.

A chandelier in Mr. J. C. Pike's store fell Saturday evening last to the floor and smashed the lamps, three in number, in pieces. Two of them were burning at the time and a terrible disaster was probably prevented by the extra fine quality of the oil used, the "Red C Oil," which is said to be non-explosive. This is certainly an excellent test and we would recommend this oil to all persons who wish to use a highly illuminating and beautiful oil.

The Picnic of the Lutheran Sunday School yesterday at the Fish-trap was quite a success. The happy faces of the children indicated a pleasant day, and the complacent smiles playing over the features of parents and friends testified to an occasion of unusual enjoyment. We regret exceedingly our inability to attend but business engagements were such as to make us forego a pleasure which under other circumstances we certainly would have enjoyed.

FLORAL FAIR.—The Secretary will be at the Fair Building from twelve o'clock M. on Thursday to nine o'clock A. M. on Friday to receive articles to be competed for. The Fair will be opened on Friday at 9 o'clock A. M. Admission, adults, 50 cents; children 25 cents. Refreshments will be furnished on the grounds by the Association. The grounds are ready for the knights to practice. Premiums awarded will be paid in cash.

We invite the attention of our readers to the article on our first page in reference to newspapers. When the wholesome truths spoken of in that article are thoroughly imbedded in the teachings of our civilization, then will the printer's millenium begin to draw nigh and the war dance of delight will swing corners and chaises around the editorial tripod, the scissors will cut the double shuffle, and the pastepot weep great tears of unctious joy.

The appointments announced by the County Auditor, where he will meet the owners of personal property and real estate, are published this week. The names of those persons composing the Boards of Assessors for the various townships, will likewise be found in another column. It is of great importance that these matters of the Auditor receive the attention of all taxpayers, and we would direct their attention to the announcement of Auditor Barton.

How interesting it is for a young man to be in the company of young ladies while they are engaged in discussing the different styles of the latest summer fashions, and to use words something like this: "Polonaise cut bias, with a frill around the edging of different shades of color, and flounces cut paralled with the seams and scalloped, and so on." It makes a man conclude that there are some things he has to learn yet, and he scratches his head and looks simple.

The picnic of the Methodist Sunday School will be held at Col. Andrew Frederick's Grove, on Tuesday next, May 27th. The school will assemble at the Church at 7 o'clock, and leave for the grounds at half-past 7 o'clock. The committee will take charge of the baskets at the church; those sending baskets are requested to mark them plainly. Amusements of various kinds will be provided for all. A game of base ball between the Hampton and Junior Clubs will be played in the afternoon. The wagons will leave the grounds for town at six o'clock.

We know that our readers have not forgotten the corner store on Railroad Avenue and Russell street, where Mr. J. W. Moseley keeps on hand a large and well selected stock of general merchandize suitable both for the country and town trade. Every line of goods is represented by the best of its kind and selected with special reference to this trade. Prices are proverbially low and satisfaction guaranteed to every one who may favor him with a call. Buying for cash and selling at a small profit Mr. Moseley can and does offer the very best inducements. See his advertisement, and don't forget to call.

A peculiar feature in the trade of the present day, is the increasing demand for cheap things and the remarkable facility with which our merchants adjust themselves to meet the demand. Good kid gloves for fifty cents, handkerchiefs five cents, calicos five cents and a hundred other substantial things at prices wonderfully low. Indeed the progressive merchants of Orangeburg are instituting a new feature by way of attraction, and call the institution by the popular name of "five cents counter." Mr. T. W. Albergotti and friend Kortjohn lead the new movement. Success to them both.

The most interesting case of those tried by a jury during the present term of the Court, was that of Fairry vs. Dakes, Mr. M. I. Browning representing the plaintiff and Messrs. J. F. Izlar and S. Dibble the defence. After a volume of testimony, much of it conflicting, and four or five hours of argument, the case went to the jury. An absence of several hours revealed the fact that no verdict could be rendered, there being eight jurors for the defendant and four for the plaintiff, consequently a mistrial was reported. We trust the friends of the parties will now take the matter in hand and make an adjustment on the basis of a perfect friendship. Life is too short and its duties too responsible for good men to harbor bitterness in their bosoms. Let by-gones be by-gones.

A full line of Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes, Colognes and Toilet Waters. These Perfumes have gained their popularity from their exquisite sweetness and permanency of odor. Any lady or gentleman who will give them a trial, will be convinced that no Perfumes, made in this or any other country, can compare with them. They are only to be used to be admired. For sale by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker.

Editor Orangeburg Democrat: Following the suggestion of some friends, and with your permission, I will add two more names to the committee recently appointed by myself to complete arrangements for the meeting of our County School Convention: T. J. P. Walsh, of the Fork, and Mr. Hanahan, of Bull Swamp. I trust the experience and skill of these gentlemen as teachers will make them valuable accessions to the committee. I see no call as yet for a meeting, can you not, as a member of the committee, make the call and urge the teachers to attend? D. L. CONNOR, School Commissioner.

We clip the following notice of the Democrat from the columns of the Georgetown Times and Comet of last week: "We have received this week a copy of the Orangeburg Democrat for the first time. The Times and Comet is delighted to make the acquaintance of such a neat, lively and newsy sheet as the Democrat. It is certainly one of the best weeklies of the low country, and whilst we do not wish Spartanburg any harm, yet we hope that its manager has taken a long truce with the 'old iron' city, and that he has driven his stakes deep and tight in the low country soil." Joseph Sessions, Esq., a first honor graduate of Wofford College, is editor of the Times and Comet, and we are glad to know that the paper has fallen into such able hands.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. Edwin Ray and wife and Mr. Austin Gove and wife, all of Boston, Mass., are at Rev. A. Webster's on a visit to our town for the purpose of spending the summer months. These gentlemen, like many others, have left their homes with the hope of improving their condition by the health giving influences of our Southern climate. We trust in this they may not be disappointed and that their stay among us may be as pleasant as a residence among strangers will be low, and when they return home will be able to carry back with them nothing but the most happy remembrances of a pleasant sojourn among the people of Orangeburg. We feel assured that once our Northern friends understand our climate, soil and people, they will not be slow to come among us and perhaps be induced to make Orangeburg their permanent homes. We need the zeal, the energy, the business habits and the enterprise of the North at the South, and as much so in Orangeburg as any where else, and the only way to get these necessary elements of prosperity is for those who visit us now to be favorably impressed with the country, climate and people; with the country, because of the fertility of soil and its varied resources; with the climate, because of its health-giving power, and with the people, because of their manners, customs and universal hospitality. We believe Orangeburg possesses all the qualities of a favorite summer resort, but is sadly deficient in the conveniences necessary to make a long stay pleasant and comfortable. Cannot these be provided?

Teachers' Convention—Maj. Thompson to be Present.

Editor Orangeburg Democrat: We are glad to observe the interest manifested in the organization of a Teachers' Union in our county. As a member of the committee appointed by our esteemed School Commissioner, we lately addressed a communication to the Hon. H. S. Thompson, State Superintendent of Education, informing him of the appointment of the committee and asking if he would consent to be present at the organization of our Union, and make us a speech, and we received the following reply: COLUMBIA, May 15, 1879. J. B. O'Neale Holloway, Esq.:

DEAR SIR—Your letter of the 13th inviting me to attend a meeting of the teachers of Orangeburg has been received. I am gratified to know that such a meeting is to be held, and I will be glad to contribute so far as I may be able towards making it successful.

The date which you mention, Saturday, June 7, will suit me, though if you prefer I can attend on the preceding Saturday. I hope the meeting will not be later than the 7th of June as I have other engagements for the latter part of that month. Please let me know when you decide upon the day. Yours very truly, HUGH S. THOMPSON.

The above letter explains itself. Without any consultation with the other portion of the committee, we suggested the 7th of June as a day convenient for teachers, and allowing abundance of opportunity to make the necessary arrangements. We hope the Chairman of the Committee will not censure us for appearing officious. We are deeply interested on the subject of providing some measures for the moral and intellectual education of the youth of our county.

Keep the ball rolling. Strike while the iron is hot. Let us organize and go to work. Truly, J. B. O'NEALE HOLLOWAY.

A Relict. As a matter of some curiosity, as well as general interest to the citizens of Orangeburg County, we publish the following list of names which were handed to us by Maj. J. J. Salley. We are informed that not one of the gentlemen, whose names are on the list, is alive at this time. The service intended, was for the war of 1812, but it is probable the company did nothing more than to take a position upon our coast and remain in readiness to obey further orders. It will be seen that many of the names are familiar with us at the present day, and are held in sacred memory by a large number of relations and friends now living.

LEVELL, LEXINGTON DISTRICT, September 26th, 1814. Capt. John M. Salley: Sir:—In consequence of Orders received, the first and second classes of the militia of the 21st Regiment of this State as classed in 1813, are ordered immediately to march to the sea board. Capt. Salley will, therefore take such measures that the said first and second classes of the militia of his company rendezvous at Mr. Daniel Walker's on Cedar Creek, on Friday next, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, at that time and place the officers and privates of the said classes will receive further orders. Captain Salley will command the second class. JNO. W. LEE, MAJ. Upper Battalion. N. B.—Capt. Salley will be so good as to engage a baggage wagon if convenient. J. W. L., MAJ.
