ORANGEBURG, S. C., JUNE 6, 1879.

Policy Foreshadowed.

The Republicans of Ohio held their State Convention on the 28th of May, when Charles Foster, their most popular man, was nominated for Governor.

One of the facts put in circulation and had its influence with the members of that body was that Foster enjoyed the confidence of President Hayes and his Cabinet, and, if put in nomination, might be considered the candidate of the administration.

Mr. Foster is a liberal Republican and the strength he has developed before, and since his nomination is said to be almost entirely among the liberal members of his party.

The same might be said of Captain Hayden, we therefore, hope the convention may see fit to recommend these gentlemen for reappointment by the governor to the offices they respectively hold.

The Third Veto.

It will be remembered that from the beginning of the discussion on the election laws, the Republicans have brought every appliance to bear upon the President to keep him up to the sticking point.

The President knows very well that if the repeal sections become laws Republicanism as a party is ended, because the Democrats will multiply their majority until every State shall be enlisted in the cause of civil liberty and local self-government.

Our New Officers.

By the call of County Chairman M. I. Browning, a Convention of the Democratic party will meet on Saturday the 21st of the present month, to nominate suitable persons to fill the offices now held by Mr. Charles B. Glover, as Probate Judge, and Capt. Norton N. Hayden, as County Commissioner.

The same might be said of Captain Hayden, we therefore, hope the convention may see fit to recommend these gentlemen for reappointment by the governor to the offices they respectively hold.

A New Departure.

The Democratic caucus met on Tuesday and determined to pass the Army Bill with a provision against the use of the appropriation, made therein, to furnish a police force to keep the peace at the polls at any election held within any State.

An Arrest.

It is strange what earnest efforts the government has made to white wash Corbin and make him respectable even among birds of the same feather, and stranger still, how utterly have these kind offices failed to answer to the designs of his friends.

Court House Democratic Club.

A meeting of this Club will take place at the Engine House on Thursday night June 12th, at half past eight o'clock for the purpose of electing delegates to the County Democratic Convention, called to nominate a Probate Judge and a County Commissioner.

By order, J. W. MOSELEY, Pres. S. R. MELLECHAMP, Clerk.

Editor Orangeburg Democrat: Phosphate of lime or phosphoric acid is the seed-making element, and although we may apply any quantity of ammonia to our soil, if this be absent and potash, we will fail to make paying crops.

Presidents of Clubs are requested to call their clubs to meet on or before the 14th day of June, 1879, for the purpose of electing delegates to the said Convention, and will report to the Secretary of the Executive Committee, immediately after their selection, the names of delegates and alternates elected from their respective clubs.

Communicated.

I wish to mention some few things that look like supporting your enemies and starving out your friends. I do not want it understood that I am an enemy to the colored race.

The white mechanics are your equals, as beings, and should ever have your best wishes or your work, at any rate. You will say you can get the negro mechanics for less money; but for God's sake don't do what you have already condemned in the Yankee carpet-bagger and scallawag—saying they took the advantage of the poor negro's ignorance.

Notice.

OFFICE OF COUNTY CHAIRMAN, DEMOCRATIC PARTY ORANGEBURG CO., ORANGEBURG, May 21, 1879.

By and with the advice of the County Executive Committee a County Convention of the Democratic Party of Orangeburg County, is hereby called to meet at Orangeburg Court House on Saturday, the 21st day of June, A. D., 1879, at eleven o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating a suitable person to be suggested to the Governor of the State for appointment to fill the office of Probate Judge of Orangeburg County, from and after the expiration of the term of office of Charles B. Glover, Esq., until the next general election as is provided by law;

It is the desire of the County Chairman that at the meetings of the clubs called to elect delegates there should be a full attendance, and also that delegates elected will punctually attend the Convention.

MALCOLM I. BROWNING, County Chairman. J. L. HEIDTMAN, Sec. Pro Tem. County Executive Committee.

Obituary.

Fell asleep in Jesus on the evening of May 28th, 1879, DAISIE DIBBLE, infant daughter of E. S. and Rosa C. Hinbell, aged seven months and fourteen days.

An angel visited the earth and departed with a companion. The flower of a household has been plucked by an unseen hand. It is this that is not the time to pluck beautiful flowers? Is it surprising that it should be plucked in spring to avoid the heat and toil of summer?

Death to us is not a welcome visitor. Often we are disposed to think God's dealings hard—His providences cruel. But should we marvel when He claims His own, though it be the dearest object on earth to us? Let our language be "the Lord gave, the Lord has taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord."
