ORANGEBURG, S. C., JULY 25, 1879.

For a good, cold glass of soda water call on Dr. J. G. Wannamaker.

Policeman Cannon shot and killed a mad dog in our streets on Tuesday morning last.

Since the article in another column was put in type the Governor has appointed Judge T. W. Glover to the office of Master.

We tender our thanks to Mr. S. A. Reeves for a sample of fine segars. When you want a good smoke call at his store and you will be suited.

A laborer in the employ of Mr. John Richards killed a very large rattle snake near Stillton last week. The reptile had seventeen rattles.

Our grateful thanks are due Mr. D. C. Ulmer, of Middle St. Matthews, for a fine lot of his best varieties of grapes, which we enjoyed as only newspaper men can enjoy a treat.

Mr. E. P. Haigler furnished us with a basket, of choice luscious peaches, of which we made an old-fashion pot-pie for the good of the DEMOCRAT, on Sunday last. Thanks, Eddie.

Mr. Dan Amaker, while out hunting, shot and killed a very large rattle snake in Bull Swamp last week.

Mr. J. G. McKewen also killed quite a large rattle snake near town last week.

MAN is the fish; woman is the line; her smile the float; her kiss the bait; love is the hook, and marriage is the frying pan. Some how or other the men all try to get into the frying pan, though.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Charlie Brunson, who has been so long painfully ill, is slowly improving. We trust the means used for his restoration to health may be blessed with abundant success.

CATTLE Creek Camp Meeting is now in progress and we understand that many of our citizens propose to attend on Saturday and Sunday. We hope they will have a nice time and return wiser and better men.

Office hours on Sunday at Dr. Wannamaker's Drug Store are from 8 to 10 A. M., and from 6 1-2 to 8 1-2 P. M. In cases of emergency access can be had to the Drug Store any time during the day or night.

We have been pained to learn of the death of the little child of Mr. M. Salley, which occurred during our absence. Our sympathies are with the parents and trust they may be comforted by an implicit faith in Him who does all things well.

We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mr. Z. J. King, dealer in foreign and domestic liquors. He has just received a full supply of pure and fresh mountain whiskeys, which he sells at prices to suit the times.

We learn that our energetic young townsman, Mr. Albert E. Glover, has gone to Augusta, Ga., as agent for the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Company. We wish our young friend every success his enterprising spirit may demand.

We heard of a young man the other day buying a melon for five cents and paying a boy ten cents for carrying it home for him. We need reform right along here. If you are ashamed to carry your melon home after buying it, give it away.

Two of our young friends left town under very suspicious circumstances last Monday morning. When a fellow visits his old home, taking his "best friend" along, it looks as if something is going to happen. We feel assured, however, that friend Pibble will see friend Thompson through.

A party of young men left town on Monday last to spend a few days in fishing, frolic and fun. They camped near Shilling's Bridge and had a royal time, catching many of the funny tribe, and, as proof of their success, brought a fine quantity home.

NOTHING LIKE IR.—That Corn Whiskey at Jas. Van Tassel's. One can't help thinking that it never was sampled by the Revenue, when he compares it with other brands offered at the same price. We've tried it in a medicinal way, and pronounce it a No. 1.

A young man by the name of Burnett, who has been in Alabama ever since he was one month old, is now on a visit to his relatives on Bull Swamp. Young Burnett is about eighteen years of age, and, of course, is a perfect stranger to his kindred and friends.

THE attention of our readers and of all those who are interested in "Ye O'le Folkes Concerte" is called to the notice of Obadiah Primrose of a meeting at the Lecture Room of the Presbyterian Church on the 25th of the present month. A full attendance is desired.

Our medical friends of the county will see notice in another column calling a meeting of the profession with a view of organizing a "County Medical Society." This is a matter of great interest and should meet the approbation of every man of the medical profession.

We learn that a son of Mr. Hess Andrews, who disappeared when the Yankee army passed through Orangeburg in 1865, returned on Tuesday last in search of his father. As a stranger he stopped at the hotel and made inquiries which lead to the happy meeting of father and son.

We were presented last week with a fine lot of choice vegetables by Mr. D. W. Crook, of Middle St. Matthews, for which our grateful thanks are due. Such favors are especially appreciated at a time like this when gardens have failed almost everywhere and vegetables are exceedingly rare.

We learn that Mr. John English left town on Wednesday morning in search of remunerative employment. He is a fine clerk, a most excellent book-keeper, and possesses other commendable qualifications which will not be long in securing the work his industry demands. We wish for him abundant success.

We direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mr. W. F. Robinson in another column, and as the time for planting turnips and early spring vegetables is approaching, a call at his popular store will save both time and money. Watches and clocks are also neatly repaired by him at reasonable rates.

DURING the past week Policeman Henry Washington arrested "Jesus Brown," a suspicious character whom he found prowling about town. Upon enquiry it was ascertained that he had been driven out of Columbia by the Chief of Police, consequently Policeman James Cannon was instructed to drive him out of Orangeburg.

A difficulty and personal encounter occurred at Fifty-eight, South Carolina Railroad, between Messrs. Pink Berry and — Elkins, the last a brother-in-law of Mr. Berry, in which both of them were wounded by knives. Mr. Berry was barely convalescent from his wounds when he was stricken down by typhoid fever and died last Friday night.

We regret to learn that Lieut. L. H. Wannamaker has resigned his commission of Third Lieutenant of the Edisto Rifles. His skill in drill and known public spirit will be a serious loss to the command, but we trust the members will secure the services of some one who may fill his place creditably in performing the duties of so important an office.

ORANGEBURG, S. C., July 22. Messrs. W. M. Sain & Co.:

DEAR SIRS—I take pleasure in informing you that the Elevator put into my well by your Mr. Meroney gives entire satisfaction. It has improved the taste and looks of my water very much. I can recommend the Elevator to all needing a good water elevator. THEO. KOHN.

IN Salem, N. C., the blackberry crop shipped from that place during the present year amounted to the very respectable sum of $300,000. Why may not Orangeburg, where this berry grows as abundantly as anywhere else, do the same. A small traffic that amounts to such a large sum should not be despised. All that is needed is a spirit of enterprise.

We learn through our subscribers of Sunny Plain that the DEMOCRAT does not reach them until the Friday after date of publication. We regret this inconvenience and would suggest that the mail carrier leave St. Matthews after the arrival of the morning train from Charleston. This will enable them to receive the paper the evening of the date of publication.

THE attention of our readers is invited to the advertisement of Mr. S. L. Morgan, in another column of this issue. If our citizens desire beef of the best quality, and to have a good market in their midst, let them obtain beef from Mr. Morgan and support his market. Such an enterprise cannot be maintained without a liberal support, and Mr. Morgan ought to get it.

The Methodist Church, South, at this place will be closed on Sunday next in consequence of the pastor being called to another part of the District. On next Wednesday and Thursday nights, however, there will be preaching at the usual hour as introductory services to the Third Quarterly Meeting which will begin by a business meeting on Friday evening.

The following officers were installed at the last meeting of the Lodge of Knights of Honor at this place: Henry Kohn, Dictator; J. S. Albergetti, Vice-Dictator; J. J. Street, Assistant Dictator; Rev. O. A. Darby, Chaplain; F. DeMars, Reporter; C. R. Jones, Financial Reporter; Theo. Kohn, Treasurer; R. H. Wiles, Sentinel; W. A. Edwards, Guardian; H. G. Sheridan, Past Dictator.

We had the pleasure of greeting and welcoming to our home Miss E. H. Van Lew, formerly an acceptable and successful teacher of our county, but now the principal of a flourishing school at Ellenton on the Port Royal Railroad. Miss Van Lew looks as well as in the days of yore and seems as devotedly attached to her professed life business, teaching, as ever. Our best wishes accompany her through life.

The engine of Mr. R. H. Riley near Jamison's Turnout, bursted on Saturday evening last, blew out the furnace, passed through the side of the gin house, broke off the breast of the gin, blew a negro man about fifty feet, scalding him severely from the thighs to his feet, and another negro man was slightly injured by the accident. The engineer, Mr. John Richards, was stunned for a while but not seriously hurt.

MESSRS. D. J. and A. P. Avinger return their sincere and grateful thanks to their old comrades and fellow survivors of the Edisto Rifles for the kind hospitality so cordially extended to them on the 4th of July. They will long cherish the memory of a meeting which brought them once more in contact with the familiar faces of companions with whom they struggled shoulder to shoulder through the hardships of times that tried men's souls.

The challenge to the Athletic Base Ball Club of Aiken from the Orange was accepted and next Saturday appointed as the day to play a match game, but it being inconvenient for the Oranges because of business relations they had the game postponed until some day next week. In anticipation, therefore, of the contest next week practice games will be played on to-day and Monday next. We predict a brilliant victory for our Oranges.

We make the following corrections in the roll of the Edisto Rifles published on our first page:

For A. Champey read A. R. Champey. For Charles Barley read Charles Bailey. For Henry Barley read Henry Bailey. For Sultan Myers read Luther Myers. For Louis Shultnight read Lewis Shultnight. For W. P. Law read W. P. Lar.

We learn that our enterprising townsman, Mr. J. P. Harley, is engaged in shipping shingles to Lewisville. We take pleasure in making this note because our swamps and forests abound in the best of timber in sufficient quantities to supply the demands of every accessible point along the line of railroad and river, and our citizens owning this timber, might make a profitable business of it during this dry season. Members of Joafer's club can stick a pin here. Employment for you, gentlemen.

For Mayor. Editor Orangeburg Democrat: As the time for our town election is near, I deem it not improper to write you a short communication in regard to the candidate of the people for Mayor. All will readily admit that the chief executive officer of our town should be a man respected by both races of our citizens; one to whom all may look for exact justice in the administration of public affairs.

He should be a man of nerve and decision, not fearing to act when the public good demands action, and caring nothing for ephemeral public opinion, when adverse to him, so long as he knows that he is right. Every community has not such a man as this.

Orangeburg is more fortunate than many others are, she has a man who possesses every qualification for making an efficient, acceptable and upright Mayor. Messrs. Editors, we have reference to the present incumbent, Hon. J. W. Moseley. We write this without having ever spoken to Mr. Moseley in regard to the Mayoralty of our town.

We know that it is not in unison with his feelings to be the incumbent of any public office, but we hope that he will again do, as he often did in the past, sacrifice personal interests and pleasures for the public good, and serve us for at least another term in the capacity of Mayor. W.

Wants to be a Martyr.

Editor Orangeburg Democrat: It is not surprising that the indignation of the people was so generally aroused by the recent letter from Orangeburg to the Tribune; but some think it would have been better to pass it without notice. There are men who come here with the determination to be made martyrs of in some way. There are so many such at home, men of small calibre, that the chances of being made notorious are few and far between. But this is a fruitful field. A page or two of misrepresentation is gobbled up by the many enthusiasts there, and the quite ordinary man becomes the Lilliputian giant at once.

The citizens of Orangeburg cannot do the author of that letter a greater favor, or please him better than to keep such matters before the public. If Grant or some other Republican should be elected President, there is no doubt this man would fill some fat office. The poor martyr of Orangeburg.

His evidently chosen position here now, puts one in mind of the old lady with life preserver on board the steamer during a gale, "Do some one blow me up I pray blow me up." B.

As we predicted in our last issue, it has been a busy time with Mr. Kortjohn. Having received a large consignment of Notions, Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Hats, &c., he threw them on the market at unprecedented prices, consequently large crowds were in attendance, and large sums of money changed hands as the betting men say, but this is no game of chance. It is true this store receives most of the cash money spent in the town, but buyers receive the value therefrom two-fold. Strange must be the piece of humanity who visits this busy mart and goes away dissatisfied with goods, prices, proprietors or assistants. Mr. K. has a full stock and receives daily new additions. It would be impossible for us to predict what next will be offered at this place, when huge family bibles as sold by traveling agents for twelve and fifteen dollars are offered to you at $2.90, and long whalebone buggy whips at 40 cents, black cashmere at 30 cents, worth 75—but we will leave Dick and his prices till next issue.
