

METHODIST.—Rev. O. A. Darby, Pastor. Services every Sunday morning at half-past 10 o'clock and at night at half-past 7 o'clock.

Man wants but little here below, wherever he may roam, and when he calls for lager-beer he wants but little foam.

Our thanks are due Mrs. F. Livingston for repeated favors in the way of garden vegetables sent from time to time.

The dual party which left town last week have not yet had need of a surgeon, but are amply supplied with coffee and biscuits.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Orangeburg Agricultural Society will be held at the Fair Building on the 9th of August.

We notice Dr. P. F. Stokes of Blackville, a son of our fellow-citizen, Mr. Thomas Stokes, in town on last Wednesday.

We notice the wagons of Messrs. Bull & Scoville are bringing in large quantities of bagging for preparing the maturing crop for market.

Through a citizen at Williston we learn that the crops of Barnwell County are excellent in every section except the extreme Eastern part where the drought has been disastrous.

The City Council at a late meeting decided that the new street lately opened between Judge Glover and Mr. N. Austin Bull's residences should be known by the name of "Orange."

Capt. John A. Hamilton and others of our citizens availed themselves of the low excursion rates and are gone to the mountains.

The statistics of a leading New York commercial house prove that the value of bread stuffs exported from the United States during the present year exceeds that of cotton exported.

Office hours on Sunday at Dr. Wannamaker's Drug Store are from 8 to 10 A. M., and from 6 1-2 to 8 1-2 P. M.

As an evidence that the drought is ended we will state that the branches and creeks are once more filling up and running, that the river is rising and that the fishermen of Orangeburg are again happy.

The fine residence on New Street, belonging to Mr. J. W. Patrick, has been sold to Mrs. McNamara; also the store house on Broughton Street, belonging to Mr. W. T. Muller, has been sold to Mr. James Van Tassel.

Mr. W. R. Davis, near Fort Motte, while trying to ride an unbroken mule on Tuesday last, was thrown and severely injured.

Mr. B. Frank Slater left yesterday for Indianapolis, Ind., to buy a lot of horses and mules for this market.

We commend the following touching lines to the careful perusal of those young men who insist on showing off their "fine looks" in front of the doors of the different churches every Sunday morning immediately after service.

On Tuesday last, the team of Mr. George H. Cornelson, while entering the gate at his farm, took fright from an approaching vehicle, ran and upsetting the wagon on a mague heap painfully injured the colored driver.

We notice that Judge Glover has commenced building up one of his lots on Glover Street, and learn that he proposes to erect a nice dwelling upon it.

Don't forget to stop at the popular store of Mr. J. W. Moseley, at the corner of Railroad Avenue and Russell street.

Mr. A. F. H. Dukes, of Branchville, is preparing to enlarge his store and otherwise arrange for a large stock of fall and winter goods.

"Use" writing from St. Matthews, under date July 30, says: "Mr. Wm. Shumaker, who has been clerking for Mr. J. W. Bueyke, of our town, died of typhoid fever at his father's residence, about thirteen miles from the village."

We are informed by Mr. Webb Bull, agent for Mr. Hess Andrews, that he has sold from the fourth of July to this date about 2,817 water-melons at an average price of ten cents per melon.

Our enterprising young merchant, Mr. A. B. Walker, invites the citizens of our county to call at his place of business on Russell Street and they will hear of something advantageous to themselves and families.

A Memphis paper announces the fact that a beautiful young lady, the only daughter of wealthy parents, had eloped with the editor of a country newspaper.

Our friend Theodore Kohn's Dry-Goods Emporium has become so well known and popular that even the beasts of the field know of its existence, as was attested on Wednesday morning last by a visit of a calf to his store.

The Hampton and Junior Base Ball Clubs had another friendly tilt on Thursday, the 25th ult., in which the Juniors were beat by a score of 20 or 18 in favor of the Hamptons.

At the last meeting of the St. Paul's Sunday School Missionary Society, Messrs. Willie Stokes, of Tennessee, and Fred Dibble, of our town, delivered effective addresses before the children.

The Rev. Wm. Chaplin after services at Ebenezer Church recently drove to his destination and left his buggy under a tree.

One of the most melancholy deaths it has been our painful duty to record was that of Mr. Irvin A. Till, which occurred at his home in Orange Township on last Saturday.

Our thanks are due Mr. A. Jourdain for a fine sample of his varieties of grapes, including the Concord, Hartford Prolific, Isabella, Delaware and the Perkins.

We deeply regret to announce the death of Mrs. C. C. Wightman, which occurred on last Thursday night at the house of her relative, Mr. S. R. Mellichamp.

A match game of base ball was played last Saturday afternoon between the Athletic Club, of Aiken, and the Orange Club of our town. The Athletics gained an easy victory, as our boys were unpracticed, and besides, several of the best men on their nine were absent.

Photographs.—Mr. F. A. Schifley will again open his photographic tent in our town in about one week or ten days.

We are glad to be able to inform our farmers that the sugar refinery of Mr. Geo. J. Cornelson is well on its way to completion.

The following gentlemen constitute the Board of Health: Dr. A. S. Hydrick, Chairman, Messrs. John Lucas, John A. Zeigler, F. B. Livingston, W. H. Perryclear, J. J. Street, J. M. Brunson, T. C. Hubbell, and Dr. T. R. Malone, Clerk.

The "young folks" of the town had a "sociable" the other evening at the residence of Captain Jeffords, and we understand they had a delightful time.

We copy the following paragraph from the Greenville News: "We understand that Messrs. Howell & Wienges, of Fort Motte, S. C., have patented a combination or detachable hoe, rake, &c., which is said to be very unique and tasty in design, surpassing anything of the kind ever brought out."

Another large consignment of goods received at Kortjohn's Bee Hive Store on Thursday, and as usual at a genuine rush took place, every one being anxious to get the first chance at the bargains offered.

For instance, bibles and novels come in one package, cashmere and jeans, tinware and dress goods, crockery and ribbons, glassware and clothing, ladies' fans and ink, pistols and hymn books, but by the master hand of Mr. Kortjohn and his assistants they are soon arranged in their different departments.

ONE of the most melancholy deaths it has been our painful duty to record was that of Mr. Irvin A. Till, which occurred at his home in Orange Township on last Saturday.

The Municipal Election.

Having seen in the Orangeburg Times last week a communication proposing the re-election of the present incumbents of the offices of Mayor and Aldermen, and being one who opposes their re-election as a whole, with your permission will give a reason for objecting.

We want a Council more in practical sympathy with the Fire Department than any we have had for years, and one that will radically change the present police system which we view as a practical failure.

In short, we want a public-spirited Council, one that will perfect and keep in order old and good enterprises before undertaking new ones; see that the Fire Department prospers, and give us a police system that will insure to decent people the use of their piazzas at night.

We agree with the correspondent that the nominations should be made by the Democratic Club, but he waives party principles when he proposes that the Democratic Club nominate the "present incumbents."

The County Fair.

It is high time for our farmers to prepare for our next Annual County Fair, to be held in Orangeburg on the 29th, 30th and 31st days of October next.

We think the management of the South Carolina Railroad by Receiver Fisher is most excellent, and if those most interested would keep him at its head after it passes out of his hands as Receiver, we think the road would soon become valuable property instead of dead capital as it now is.
