

EDUCATIONAL COLUMN.

All communications intended for this column should be addressed to J. B. P. Holloway, Esq., who has kindly consented to edit it.

Read and Study.

How many of our teachers are subscribers to educational periodicals? Very few, we fear, and yet how necessary they are for the improvement of the teacher in his profession.

A New Sea.

It is known from careful measurements of M. Rondalre, that a large part of the desert of Sahara is a large basin, having a surface level lower than the Mediterranean Sea.

Equal Education.

More than one thousand young women have graduated during the past month, from Vassar, Wellesley, and other institutions, a fact which shows that the higher education of woman is receiving a small share, at least, of that attention which its importance demands.

A minister was riding through a section of the State of South Carolina where custom forbade innkeepers to take pay from the clergy who stayed with them.

General Sherman, who burnt Atlanta and Columbia, and who is nothing but an educated vandal, is opposed to introducing collar ornament to indicate rank because the Confederates wore them.

It is not well for teachers to love their pupils unequally, or, if they do, they should not show it, for one will be made proud, the other envious, and both foolish.
