The Charleston Election.
As the split in the Democratic party of New York concerned that State directly, and only has an indirect influence upon National politics; so the trouble in Charleston bears upon the city directly, but will exercise a powerful control over the politics of the State indirectly.

else, a second election becomes unnecessary. For the more avidity of a voter will obliterate party lines and admit to the primaries every man of lawful age. We doubt very much if the true Democrats of our county are prepared to swallow such a dose of radicalism at one mouthful.

Small Grain.
One of the most gratifying features in the advanced policy adopted by our farmers, is the large acreage of oats, wheat and rye planted throughout the county. Only half a score of years back there was not ten acres of oats planted where a hundred are planted now.

Something Wrong.
We are reliably informed that a large number of bales of cotton, whose natural market is Orangeburg, find their way to Bamberg by the new road leading from that place to our town.

The People's Bank.
It is announced that the board of Directors of this old and well known bank, at a meeting last Saturday, determined to suspend operations and wind up its affairs.

Grant's Return.
San Francisco was the scene on the night of the 20th of the grandest public display ever witnessed in the West. The Governor and all the State officers, and an immense procession of the military and citizens met Gen. Grant as he stepped from the deck of the steamer to the wharf and conducted him, much after the style of an old Roman Triumph.

hands of Gen. Grant and the millions who bow and shout to-day will crouch as slaves to-morrow.

The Penitentiary.
By act of the Legislature the convicts in this institution are let out to such parties as will comply with the specified terms of treatment, labor and protection.

some effect upon these gentlemen. We have never before heard of such a series of troubles in a matter of this kind and it shows plainly that dueling is at a discount in the State.
