ORANGEBURG, S. C., NOVEMBER 7, 1879.

The Charleston Nomination.

At a recent Democratic Convention of the city, Capt. Wm. A. Courtenay was unanimously nominated for the office of Mayor of the city, and accepted it very gracefully in a letter of thanks to the Secretaries.

The Hon. Zach Chandler.

The death of this gentleman, which occurred in Chicago on the night of October 31, of congestion of the lungs, has been telegraphed throughout the county, and honors appropriate to the occasion and due the public fame of its subject have been celebrated in many sections and particularly in Washington and the Northwest.

Tuesday's Elections.

Several important State elections were held on Tuesday in different parts of the country. The News and Courier, in summing up the result, says: "The elections on Tuesday turned out as we anticipated, with the single exception that the Republicans increase their strength in New Jersey, a state that the Democrats can rescue next year."

in the hands of the Republicans. In Connecticut the Republicans have a larger majority on joint ballot than before. In Virginia the Debt-payers appear to have a majority in both branches of the General Assembly.

Sanitary Movement.

The American Public Health Association will hold its next annual meeting in the city of Nashville, Tenn., November 18th to 21st; when the sanitary condition of cities and especially those of the South, will be discussed.

The Fair.

The Orangeburg Agricultural and Mechanical Association opened its sixth annual exhibition on Wednesday, October 29th, at 11 o'clock A. M. The visitors in town, apprised of this fact by the ringing of the Company's bell, began to wend their way to the grounds on New Street, and soon is wonderful in its conception, unprecedented for doing a large range of sewing in textile fabrics and leather. Its motions are continuous, admitting of an extraordinary rate of speed either by steam or foot power. Every motion of the treadle makes six stitches, thus producing about one-third more work in a day than other Sewing Machines.

LIGHTNING SEWER

These Machines are on exhibition and for sale by

To the Public.

THE undersigned respectfully announce that they have purchased the exclusive right to sell the justly celebrated "New Virginia Feed Cutter" in the Counties of Orangeburg and Barnwell.

In this Cutter, cheapness of construction, minimum of power and rapidity of execution have been fully attained. The commendations of the many who are using this Cutter render it unnecessary for us to say anything relative to its merits. We only ask a trial and feel fully confident that satisfaction will be given. For sale at the store of Mr. J. C. Pike, Orangeburg, S. C.
