ORANGEBURG, S. C., DECEMBER 19, 1879.

CHILLS and fever are still prevailing in town and in some sections of the county.

COTTON in Liverpool is easy at 13 to 14 cents, and in Charleston it rules at from 11 3/4 to 12 3/4 cents.

Quite a number of young people from town are going about five miles to-night to attend a sociable.

Be sure and attend the Presbyterian Fair next week. Remember the dates—22d, 23d and 24th instants.

Married on Tuesday evening last, by Rev. J. C. Bissell, Mr. Richard Smith to Miss Sallie Stroman, all of Orangeburg County.

EUREKA Chapter, No. 12, R. A. M., will meet at Masonic Hall, on Friday evening, Dec. 26th, at half-past seven o'clock.

VICTIMS of wasted energies find sure relief in Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the most potent purifier and a fountain of health and strength.

Velocipedes are all the go—with the boys. This is one sport the girls never take any interest in; except a kind of "bean ideal" interest.

EVERY one should patronize the Fair in aid of the Presbyterian parsonage next week, and so should their sisters and their cousins and their aunts.

DING DONG, DING DONG.—Christmas bells are ringing, and Henry Kohn has just opened a lot of fancy and useful presents. Call early and get suited.

Mr. James Van Tassel has on hand a large and varied stock of good liquors. Parties who have not laid in their Christmas supply would do well to give him a call.

If you go to the Presbyterian Fair, the first thing to be done is to go to the flower table and secure a bouquet, and then you will be equipped for the evening. Don't forget this.

We learn that there will be a hot dinner at St. Matthews' Academy on Christmas day. We hope our friends will have a nice time and live to enjoy many, similar, social occasions.

Moses Pinkney, a colored preacher, died very suddenly on the place of Mrs. Mary Allen near town on Tuesday last. The coroner's inquest gave a verdict of death from pulmonary hemorrhage.

The trains on the South Carolina Railroad were crowded with Methodist ministers on Monday and Tuesday evenings on their way to attend Conference in Charleston, which convened on Wednesday last.

We are sorry to hear of the death of the wife of Mr. Wilkes Sawyer, of the Fork, which occurred last week. Mrs. Sawyer leaves a large family of children to the care of an affectionate father. Yet a mother's loss is irreplaceable.

You never see a woman button anything she can pin, and you never see a man pin anything that he can tie with a string. You would have trouble making some men believe that they couldn't tie a buttonhole into a wristband with a piece of twine string.

CURE YOURSELF. Take Hall's Hepatic Panacea for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sick and Nervous Headache, and all diseases arising from a torpid liver. It is purely vegetable, and satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Price 50 cts. per bottle. For sale by S. A. Reeves.

A party of Cleveland youths marched around town the other day wearing elegantly-trimmed bonnets. When the police asked them to explain, the young men pointed to ladies promenading the streets with men's hats on, and simply said: "Turn about is fair play."

JOHN BROWN, colored, drew his knife on a policeman on Saturday last, who approached to arrest him for disturbing the quiet of the town. A skillful use of the club rendered any further use of the knife unnecessary and John was brought before the Mayor who made him dance to the tune of $5.

THERE is a cordial welcome at the California Store for all, and you are included. Call and examine the stock of toys and a complete stock of all other goods for Christmas. Sold as cheap as any where by J. I. Sorrenture.

The Lutheran Sunday School will have a Christmas Tree in the Church on next Thursday (Christmas) night, at half-past 7 o'clock. Besides other exercises, addresses will be delivered by prominent citizens of the town. All persons interested in Sunday School work are cordially invited to attend.

STEPHEN, the colored pinder vender, entered the shop of Matthews, the barber, a few days ago, and without leave or license appropriated several razors, brushes, &c., to his own use. Policeman Cannon having been put on the track soon brought the rogue before the Mayor's court from whence he was sent to jail four days.

POMONA GRANGE will hold its next quarterly meeting with Orangeburg Grange in this town at 11 o'clock A. M. on Saturday, January 3d, 1880. This being the annual meeting officers will be elected to serve for the ensuing year. A full meeting is requested. Secretaries will please have their reports ready. Kink Robinson, Secretary.

The gin house of Mr. D. S. Sawyer was destroyed by fire on last Wednesday. A colored girl about thirteen years old being in the lint room at the time was badly burned as to cause her death the next day. The fire is supposed to have caught from a match or a spark from the engine. The loss is estimated at $1,000 and no insurance.

We call the attention of parents and guardians to the educational advantages offered by Sheridan's classical school. The first of January will be a good time for students to enter as arrangements can be made to classify them according to their advancement. Boys and girls are here given a complete course which will enable them to enter business or college.

The lower house of Congress has voted to allow $175 to R. H. Cain, better known as Daddy Cain, for expenses incurred in the contest for his seat in the last Congress. This is certainly cold comfort for E. W. M. Mackey, who has been looking forward to something like Corbin's $10,000 gift. "When all forsake the friendly guilty mind, hope, the chaff, lingers still behind."

THERE are two Baptist churches in South America. One is located in South Barbara, Brazil, and is chiefly composed of after the war emigrants from the Southern States. The other is at Demerara, Guiana, and is composed of Chinese immigrants, gathered and presided over by a member from the Canton Baptist Church in China. In 1878 this church numbered 159, and sixteen or more have since been added by baptism.

Private letters from North Carolina assert that the proportions of the exodus from that State were even larger than was at first supposed here; in fact, that some counties were to be nearly depopulated of negroes. There are thousands waiting now to leave, but the stoppage of the emigrants at Washington has temporarily discouraged them. They had been told they were to get free passage from Washington to the promised land.

HON. Erastus Brooks read a paper entitled "The Historical Press" before the New York Historical Society Tuesday evening. He gave an interesting sketch of the growth of journalism in America between 1721, when there were but two journals published in the United States, and the present time, when there are 7,500 published, a number nearly equal to that of all the journals published in every other part of the civilized world.

The St. Matthews Social Club, of St. Matthews, will give a ball Christmas night at nine o'clock. They will have a tournament between twelve and two o'clock on Christmas day and wind up with a ball in the evening. The club will leave nothing undone to make the affair a success, and those who attend may expect a pleasant time. The Columbia band will furnish the music for the occasion. Tickets, to admit lady and gentleman, 50 cents.

FOR THE TEETH—Many of the powders and pastes now in the market contain ingredients like pumice stone, charcoal, &c., which ought never to be used for the purpose. The Saponaceous Tooth Powder is warranted to contain nothing in the least injurious, and has no equal for its purpose, as its flavor is pleasant, is perfectly soluble in the mouth, and contains nothing gritty or rough for the teeth. For sale by Dr. J. G. WANNAMAKER.

THE Sunday News comes to us well filled with choice selected and original matter. It meets a demand Charleston has long felt and will doubtless receive the encouragement its merit deserves. Its adaptability to Charleston readers—their wants, customs and tastes—is not its only feature, but is equally adapted to the general wants and tastes of the country, and by a liberal patronage might be made to supply them. It is issued by the proprietors of the News and Courier, at $2 a year, in advance.

A CLASSICAL OPINION OF HORATIO SKYMRUR—"Horatio since my dear soul hath been mistress of her choice, and could of men distinguish her election, she hath sealed thee for herself; for thou hast been as one who, in suffering all, hast suffered nothing; a man whom fortune's buffets and rewards hath ta'en with equal thanks. Show me the man that is not passion's slave and I will wear him next my heart—aye, my heart of hearts, as I do thee, Horatio!"—Shakespeare's Hamlet.

HILL'S HEPATIC PANACEA. The Liver is the king imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action all kinds of ailments are the natural results. The digestion of the food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the liver. To keep the liver in a healthy condition take Hill's Hepatic Panacea. Only 50 cents per bottle. For sale by S. A. Reeves.

It is mistaken policy to put a man in a new office before he has fairly warmed his chair in the old. In this way the State gets a good deal of apprentice work palmed off on her. This reminds us of a California anecdote. A lady employed a Chinese boy about the house. He knew nothing whatever, not even the English language. With patience and perseverance for three or four years she made a good servant of him. While congratulating herself on the prospect of being repaid for her trouble, John came and, to her surprise, announced his intention to quit. "Why are you going to leave?" asked she. "You have just learned your business." With commendable candor, John replied, "Me know allee same you know. You no teachee now. Me go learnee more." And he went. The lady had to employ another green hand at the risk of losing him too as soon as he learned his business. Let the State get the benefit of experienced officers. We believe in moderately long terms. Practice makes perfect.—News & Herald.

THE FAIR.—Good weather is anxiously looked for on the 22d and 23d and 24th instants, next week, as the Fair for the benefit of the Orangeburg Presbyterian Church will be held at this time. The ladies of the congregation interested and many friends of other churches with hearty zeal have been working ardently to make the fair a bazaar of beauty and pleasurable interest. The interest outside of Orangeburg has been manifested in substantial assistance. Seneca Falls, N. Y., is represented by the freeman's silver trumpet to excite the votes of our volunteer companies. Boston has sent its kindly cheer, and Charleston has done the "handsome." The fair will afford parents a chance of patronizing Santa Claus who will be on hand (this time to sell at moderate prices) for the church, otherwise he would fill every stocking gratuitously. The diversions during the three days and nights will be varied from the solids of a real supper where the hearty may regale to a full satis superque, to the fancy in every style of taste and beautiful handiwork. The young ladies in all the sunlight of youth will recall the yule days when loveliness centred to make the Xmas season glad some. The young men will be there to do the gallant, the children will revel in endless wonderment, and those of riper years will smile upon the christian work of a fair to promote the well-being of one of our churches. In fact the season is auspicious for the patronage of one and all who delight in the dawn of the birth time of Christianity. Be sure and attend the fair.
