THE COUNTY RECORD

KINGSTREE, S. C.

LOUIS J. BRISTOW, Ed. & Prop'r.

In sixty years the number of Episcopal churches in Scotland has grown from seventy-five to 321.

In England one person in every seven is a depositor in a postal bank, and the total amount of deposits in the keeping of the Government is more than $400,000,000.

It is doubtful whether the horse is now anywhere found in its native York: state, the wild horse of the steppes of Tartary and other regions of the Old World being possibly animals escaped from domestication.

In a number of States efforts are being made to pass laws taxing bachelors. Married statesmen will help to pass the measures on the ground that "misery loves company," suggests the New York Tribune."

The importance of the new Siberian railway may be estimated from the fact that in 1892 only 100,000 emigrants left Russia for Siberia, while there were as many as that in the single month of May last year.

As a recognition of the good work done by the Salvation Army in Detroit, Mich., in relieving distress among the poor the citizens have contributed $74,000 to purchase the building used by the army as headquarters.

The Attorney General of Iowa holds that the naturalization of a wife depends upon that of her husband, and that although she be foreign-born she does not have to take out naturalization papers to vote at a school election if her husband is naturalized.

The members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston promise that if Fancuil Hall is made fireproof they will add their own valued souvenirs to the city's collection of "relies of four wars," and make it the most interesting in the country.

The oddest shaped county among the 3000 which go to make up the separate divisions of the various States is Warren County, Tennessee. It lies almost exactly in the geographical centre of the State mentioned and is about as near a perfect circle as any division of land could possibly be,

In the course of the evidence in a collision action in the British admiralty court the other day a sailor who was on one of the colliding ships at he time, said that he was now earn ing his livelihood on shore as a chimney sweep. He had already had eight ships sunk under him, as the result of collisions, and he had at length come to the conclusion that he had had enough of the sea.

Angry at a neighbor for killing his dog, a Frederick (Md.) farmer asked a lawyer to collect $10 damages for him. Results were slow and he secretly gave the case to another lawyer, who wrote the offender to call and pay up. The guilty man, frightened at the thought of the two lawyers after him, went to the first one and paid the $10, remarking incidentally that he had received a letter from the other. The lawyers met and divided the $10, and their client had to laugh at himself.

According to the census returns, there are in India fewer females than males to the number of six and a quarter millions. It is suggested that this extraordinary difference may be Fifth Battalion, Lieutenant Richard Henpartially accounted for by the fact females are so little esteemed as to be in many cases omitted from the returns, that female infanticide is not totally stopped, and that sick girls are less cared for than boys. Out of the 258,000 married girls under five years of age there are 14,000 who are already widows, while out of 100,000 girls between ten and fourteen years old, only 1373 are unmarried.

France seems determined to drive out foreigners. Last year laws were passed putting difficulties in the way of fereign doctors wishing to practice in France, and of foreign students desiring to study in French universities. This year one bill before the Chamber of Deputies proposes to tax foreign residents on the same scale as Frenchmen exempted from military service, with the addition of three per cent. of their incomes. Another proposes to exclude all foreign professors and teachers from public and private schools, the penalty for violating the law being fine and imprisonment. An attempt to refuse bounties to French sugar manufactured by foreign workmen recently failed.

CONGRESSMAN HOLMAN DEAD. The "Watchdog of the Treasury" Succumb to Spinal Meningitis.

William Steele Holman, of Indiana, the oldest member of Congress in point of service, died at Washington, Thursday, after an illness of several weeks. Spinal meningitis was the direct cause of death, and the venerable statesman had been un-conscious for days preceding the end. Congressman Holman was nearly seventy five years of age, his birthday falling in September. He was serving his sixteenth m. Mr. Holman would have been called "the Father of the House" years were it not for the fact that for over twenty years he was known, both in and out of the House, as "the Watchdog of the Treasury.'

THE LATE W. S. HOL

William Steele Holman was born in Dearborn County, Indiana, in 1822. He had a common school education, supplemented by a two-year course at Franklin College. Then he taught school to support himself while he studied law. When twenty-one years of age he was elected Probate Judge. He served also as a prosecuting attorney, was a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1850. Then he entered the Legislature, and later on was returned to the Bench. His Congressional career commenced with the Thirty-sixth. orn County, Indiana, in 1822. He had a career commenced with the Thirty-sixth, and out of the twenty sessions of that body which have followed he has been absent from but four, the Thirty-ninth, Forty-fifth, Forty-sixth and Fifty-fourth, a record unparalleled in American public life. Personally Mr. Hoiman was of a genial and approachable disposition, which did much to reconcile his colleagues to his course on public matters, notably appropriations.

Miles, commanding the United States Army, will visit the seat of the Greco-Turkish war in the East, as the representative of the United States Government, and will make an examination of the personnel, equipment, methods of military practice of the contending forces, and will make an extended report to the Government of the results of his observations.

England at Delagoa Bay.

A squadron of eight British war ships arrived at Delagoa Bay, the Portuguese African possession. The advent of the squadcaused much excitement. Six of the war ships have entered the river and two others remain in the bay. A French war ship has also arrived. It is thought at Cape Town that only a naval demonstration is intended.

Hanged Him to a Lamp-Post.

Joseph McCoy, colored, was lynched at Alexandria, Va., for assaulting his employer's two daughters. He was arrested in the afternoon and confessed his crime. Two attempts were made to break in the jail. The second attack was made by a mob of 500 men, who overpowered the jailers and hanged the prisoner to a lamp-post.

Shot at President Bords.

An attempt was made upon the life of President Borda, of Uruguay, at Montevideo, by a man who fired a revolver at him at short range. The shot missed its ark, however, and the President's assailant was promptly arrested. The Presidents term expires next year.

KING FOILS AN ASSASSIN.

A Desperate Attempt Made to Slay Humbert of Italy.

ASSAILANT SEIZED BY GUARDS

A Political Fanatic Trys to Stab the King in His Carriage --- Saved by His Coolness--The Monarch Arose from His Seat as the Steel Descended in the Cushion---Miscreant Put in an Asylum.

Rome, Italy (By Cable).-An enormous sensation was caused here Thursday by an attempt to assassinate King Humbert, as he was driving out to witness the Rome Derby, which was to be decided on the Cappanelle race course. About two kilometres from the city, as the royal victoria moved sedately along, followed by a small armed escort, a young man, flourishing a petition, rushed forward and almost simultaneously with the proffer of the document darted a blow at the King with a poignard.

KING HUMBERT OF ITALY.

As the steel flashed out the King, retaining his presence of mind, smartly warded off the blow, which spent its force in the cushion of the carriage.

Before the assallant could strike another

Before the assaliant could strike another blow General Potrizio Vaglia, who was driving with His Majesty, attempted to grip him, but the latter got clear and was preparing to escape when the mounted guard struck him instantly to the ground.

The police, headed by Inspector Galazzi, rushed up and seized the man, who gave his name as Pietro Acciarito, aged twenty-four years, by trade a mechanic, but out of work.

The King continued his journey, and on his arrival at the Cappanelle track was greeted with a frantically enthusiastic reception. After the races, on his way home, he was the object of a veritable triumph.

Acciarito was brought before the Minister of Justice and the Prefect, and he deer of Justice and the Prefect, and he declared he had no accomplices, but did not conceal his Anarchistic ideas. It seems that he had deciared he intended to kill a distinguished person. intended to kill a distinguished person. He will be sent to a criminal lunatic asylum. Shoals of congratulatory telegrams are pouring in on King Humbert and public sympathy is stirred to an extent never witnessed for years.

An attempt was made to assassinate King Humbert in 1878, ten months after his succession to the Italian throne. As he was entering Naples, on November 17, Glovanni Passanante approached the royal carriage and tried to kill the King with a poignard. The blow fell on Prime Minister Cairoli, who sat in the Carriage with him, and the King escaped with a slight scratch.

The Prime Minister was badly wounded.
Humbert sent Passanante into penal servitude for life, after he had been sentenced to die by the courts.

STATE FLAG FOR GEORGIA.

A Blue Perpendicular Strips With Red and White Bands Adopted.

Georgia is to have a new State flag. Acting Adjutant-General Oscar J. Brown submitted to the Governor, in accordance with an act of the Legislature, a colored design of the flag for military headquarters, and the same design, with some modifications, will be used for the regiment.

The design consists of a perpendicular

The middle band is white and those above and below are red. Below the perpendicular blue band the design of the State seal, with the three columns, wisdom, justice and moderation, is wrought in gold. Below is a pendant scroll bearing the word "Georgia." The material of the flag is silk, and it is to The material of the flag is silk, and it is to be fringed with gold bullion or silk floss.

Rushing American Corn to Mexico. The Mexican railroads leading from the United States border are experiencing a very heavy rush in American corn shipments.
There has been a series of crop fullures in several districts of Mexico, and the corn is being brought in to relieve the suffering people. Many speculators are also handling the grain. Kansas and Texas are heaviest exporters of this corn.

Sand Storms in Kansai.

For 200 miles along the Arkansas Valley in southwestern Kansas terrific sand storms raged, with the wind blowing forty-five miles an hour. The farmers and the people in the towns, to avoid sufficiation, sought shelter in their homes, while passengers on trains were compelled to travel for several hours in cars closed against the great white cloud of dust and sand that crept into every crevice.

The father of Senator Foraker, of Ohio, was a farmer. He had eleven children, and little Benny was only one of the six boys in the family. There were five girls in addition, and money was none too plenty. The boys all worked on the farm, and the future Governor and Senator was taught to wash and from to milk gook and spin, and in addition, and the milk gook and spin, and in addition. iron, to milk, cook and spin, and in addition to all this to pick the geese at the proper time of year. His first schooling was in a log cabin, and it was there he were his famous colles sack trousers, which his mother provided for him when he had torn all others beyond recognition.

According to the Washington correspondents, much of President McKinley's per-sonal popularity is really due to the decep-tive likeness of his brother Abner, who takes huge enjoyment in walking about the White House grounds, modestly accepting the homages of the charmed populace.

Colonel Warren Reese, who has just been confirmed as United States District Attorney for the Montgomery (Ala.) District, is the first native of the South to receive an important Federal appointment in his part of the country. He is said to be the youngest District Attorney in the South.

Mr. Bailey is now the Democratic leader in the House at the unusually early age of thirty-three. This record is colipsed only by Mr. Clay, who was Speaker at thirty.
