MINOR LOCAL MATTERS.

AFFAIRS CAUGHT BY OUR LOCAL REPORTER AND NOTED.

Written in Condensed Form and Printed in Like Manner for the Sake of our Weary Readers.

The town election will be held next Monday week, Sept. 13th.

Next Monday will be saleday, and both the sheriff and the cierk will make land sales.

Mr. Julian Jacobs will leave Sunday for Sumter, where he goes to clerk in the large establishment of Schwartz Bros.

Attention is called to the new advertisement of the Glenn Springs hotel, which is offering special rates for the month of September.

Mr. C. J. Lesesne bought the first bale of new cotton sold here last Thursday. It was of a very inferior grade and brought only 64 cents per pound.

A full attendance of the members of the Woodmen of the World at the meeting Monday night is requested, as bu iness of importance is to be transacted.

The Greenville News of last Saturday said: Messrs. T. M. land, R. D. Rollins, Louis Jack and McClary, of Kingstree, were at Paris Mountain vesterday prospecting for summer homes.

Ten bales of new cotton were shipped from this point to Charleston last Thursday, and several bales have been shipped every day since. The gin near the depot is running on full time every day.

The office of The County Record will be moved to-morrow to the Sweet building, opposite M J Porter's store. This building has just been fitted up especially for us. and we will be in better shape to serve our patrons than ever before.

Mr. John Snow will buy cotton at this market this year for Sloan & Co. Messrs. Sprunt & Son will also have a buyer here. Mr. C. J. Eesesne will be in the market, too; so with three expert buyers we will have one of the best cotton markets in this section, and producers could not do better than to bring their cotton

In the "watermelon contest" inaugurated by the County Record, Mr. F. M. Nesmith, of Morrisvifle, has won the prize for the largest, the melon he sent in weighing 54 pounds. Mr. Robt. Epps, of Mouzon, brought in the most deliciously flavored nelon, and thereby wins the prize in that contest. Among the other contestants were Messrs J. C. Bell, of Flowler, whose melon weighed day. 45 pounds, and Heber Epps, of Kingstree, who entered a melon which tipped the scales at 51 pounds.

There is a young man whose is now, though much improved. home is about three miles from Kingstree, in the direction of the "sand hills," who has been spending a good part of his time in town recently. Last Sunday the mother of the young gentleman sent a message to a relative in Kingstree explaining why she could not attend preaching. It read thus: "I cannot come in to preaching today, as -i: going returned to his home in Loke City to take dinner with me." The dash is in place of the name of her son, whom really every body thought "took dinner" at his home every day.

Looking Ahead.

In the early spring when the tariff question was being discussed, we felt sure that there would be a heavy duty placed upon foreign dress goods and we at once set about to place our contracts for our fall and winter supply of foreign and domestic dress fabrics, and the result is that we today own a line of ladies' fine dress goods from 15 to 20c. cheaper than our competors and we propose to give our patrons the benefit of our good buying. We also wish to announce to the ladies that we have secured some good bargains in ribbons and millinery goods; 50 doz ladies sailor hats for fall and winter, from 15 to 75c each. These hats are in all shapes and styles black straws and felts. We also wish our lady friends to know that we have in the best equipped millinery department in this part of the state, and during the busy season we keep from two to three ladies busy in our ware rooms. Ladies We want your trade in dry goods and millinery and if you visit our market this fall we feel sure you will be pleased with our goods and the price we ask for them, We carry a large line of Marsailes bed spreads at 50c, 75c, $1 $1.25, $1.50 and $2 each. 50 doz. ladies fast black seamless hose at 10c per pair usually sold at 15c per pair.

MOST SUCCESSFUL HELD.

THAT'S WHAT THE FACULTY SAID OF THE TEACHER'S INSTITUTE.

The Attendance Was Larger Here Than in Any Other County.

The teachers' institute was brought to a close last Friday. The faculty say if was the best year; that it was better attended teacher in the school there. by both teachers and spectators, and the young lady teachers were pretier and the gentlemen more dignified than the average. At the close of the institute Prof. Hughes expressed himself as having been very agreeably surprised at Kingstree. He said he had been told, especially in Manning, that the town of Kingstree was only a "smutty little town," and that the court house was not fit for ladies to go into. He found shed on the vacant lot Kingstree to be a most hospitable the dispensary and Mr. place, the peop'e are refined and Jacobs' store. He exp intellectual, and as for the court handle an unusually le house, why, he said, it is one of ber of horses and mules the the best in the state. In all, Prof Hughes, and the other members of the faculty were highly pleased with the reception and the cour teous treatment they received at the hands of the people here. Wednesday night was given to Prof. Hughest celebrated lecture, "The man in the moon." This was well received and showed Mr. Hughes to be in addition to his numerous other accomplishments, a lecturer of ex raordinary abili-

Dr. John A. Rice of the Columbia Female College addressed the assemblage Thursday, night on "The Mission of a Teacher." In all the life-give an earnest and forcible manner body into scalding he dwelt on the responsibly of the destroy and inflame teacher in training children, impressing on teachers that the plications to the p early influences exerted on children existed through life; that they, the teachers, were necessarily in a measure responsible for the spiritual life of the child.

On Friday afternoon the institute closed. The interest of the people grew as the week advanc ed, as was shown by the constant increase of the attendance.

Not a little of the success of the nstitute is due to Mr. N. D. Lesesne, the popular and efficient superintendent of education. It was he who selected the fine facalty and through his instrumenality that the distinguished visitors of the week were here.

In addition to those prominent personages - already mentioned there were several other well known teachers here from abroad, who took active parts in all that pertained to the success of the institute, and among them might be mentioned Prof. C. W. Wolfe, of Bennettsville graded school, Prof. J. W. Gaines, of Welch Neck High school, Hartsvill; Prof-W. A. Marchant, member of the State board of education; Prof. H. W. Ackerman, principal of Lake City High school, and Prof. E. C. Dennis of Bishopville, and last, but not least, Prof. W. L. Bass, superintendent of graded schools at Blackville.

The following teachers were in attendance: Mesdames RB Woodbury, A L Simmons, N O Poston, Leila Boyd, Ellen Smith and S J Garner: Misses M L Montgomery, Mabel Harper Bertha Epps. Florence Brockinton, Nettie I Epps, Etta Jacobs, Lyndon Lee, Georgia Rollins, Eleanor L Gregg
