

Fall 1897. Clothing Chat. Fall 1897.

Our Fall Stock is now ready and awaits your inspection. You don't buy a suit every day for various reasons, not easy or economical unless you come to us. We can prove it by your neighbor if he has never traded with us. Give us an eye-sight test sometime.

Men's, Youths' and Children's Ready-Made Clothing.

No one in the Carolinas can undersell us on Ready-Made Clothing. That's an impossibility. We bought our entire stock before the tariff law went into effect, and our customers reap the benefit; in quality, style and price we meet your wish at every point.

BIANOV & VOLASKI,

Cor. King and Calhoun Sts., Charleston, S. C.

3 Points to Remember.

IN QUALITIES We aim to keep only the best—the kind that retain trade, as well as win it. No room for the unsatisfactory in our stock.

STYLE. Fashion's latest fancies and full swing in our show-ings. When a thing is new and good, we have it.

PRICES. You can always count on your dollars traveling further here than anywhere else; we are never undersold—not if we know it, and that's one of the secrets of our success.

MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.

We have in our employ MR. W. B. LOGAN, who, having represented some of the largest Northern houses, in this section, for years, is well posted, and keeps in touch with the demands of this section. Anything entrusted to him will receive prompt attention.

Loafers.

It is difficult to know how the average street loafer obtains a livelihood. He is very busy. He is always ready for an hour's gossip. He knows everybody's business, and is oftener found attending to this than his own. He can crack jokes—mostly smutty ones—by the hundred. He can nose out all the scandal that has accumulated in the community, and he delights to retail it out to any fool who will lend him an ear. There is a little alloy commonly called brass that enters into his make up. He can thrust himself into the presence of strangers and enlighten them on any topic relating to the community. But the problem of bread, meat and clothes remains unsolved. By what shady method does he procure these necessities of life. Does he steal? We can not say. Does he live from the income of the card table? We know not. Does he deal out whiskey in some secret vile den into which the law never reaches? Again we cannot say. Does he spend upon his worthless back the money earned by his hard working wife. It is a mystery. All we do know is that he is a public nuisance in short a blot upon the name of the community in which he exists—Union New Era.

A little girl had an uncle who taught her how to open and shut his crush hat. One evening, however, he appeared with an ordinary silk hat, which he left in the hall. Presently he saw the child coming with his new hat crushed into accordion pleats.

"Oh, uncle," she cried, "this one is very hard. I've had to sit on it, but I can't get it more than half shut."

Should Have a Showing. If a man had a two-dollar bull pup says an exchange, he would look after it carefully and not let him be around at night all over town, but if he has a boy it is different. He is turned loose at an early early age to go to the devil, and then people wonder where the army of dead beats, tramps, bums, hoboes, loafers, gamblers, and drunkards come from. They are germinated from our homes and sown broadcast on our streets and alleys. It may be that your boy is making growth in that direction. At all events the boy should be given a showing with the bull pup.

How is This
An Indianapolis man predicts that the daily journals and magazines of the future will be printed on green paper, because green is nature's color and is consequently less harmful to the eye than any other color. He thinks we shall have less use for oculists when all printed matter is placed on green paper. "We have observed," says an exchange, with an eye to the main chance, that the green paper issued from the Government Office is most pleasing to the eye and is easiest to circulate."—News-paper Maker.

Mrs. Henpeck (with a self satisfied air)—I notice that whenever Hard, Cash & Co., advertise for clerks or salesmen they always say married men preferred. Mr. H. (an employee of Hard, Cash & Co.)—Yes, the old tyrants! They want men who are used to being bossed.

Baby's Second Summer

Is the time that tries all the care of the mother and all the skill of maternal management. Baby comfort comes from fat; fat babies have nothing to do but to sleep and grow.

If your baby does not seem to prosper, if he does not gain in weight, you must get more fat there. A few drops of each day will put on plumpness; fat outside, life inside, baby and mother both happy.

Your baby can take and relish Scott's Emulsion as much in summer as in any other season.

Why take Johnson's Chill & Fever Tonic? Because it cares the most stubborn case of Fever in ONE DAY.

The latest invention is a cradle that rocks by means of a clock-work mechanism and plays lullabies at the same time. This at last destroys the final terrors of paternity and barefooted nights on a tack-strewn floor.

Are You Weak?
Weakness manifests itself in the loss of ambition and aching bones. The blood is watery; the tissues are wasting—the door is being opened for disease. A bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters taken in time will restore your strength, soothe your nerves, make your blood rich and red. Do you more good than an expensive special course of medicine. Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all dealers.
