Items of Local Interest

Mr. Hugh Boyd of Trio was in town Monday.

Mr. George H. Lovett of Cooper was in town today.

Mr. S. P. Harper of Andrews was in Kingstree Tuesday.

Mr. E. N. Pate, of the Bank of Trio, was in Kingstree yesterday.

Mrs. George S. Hemingway, of Hemingway motored over to Kingstree today, returning this afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. Theo. S. Hemingway returned here last week, after an absence of several weeks in New York City.

Misses Retha Burgess, Olive Benton and Hattie McMurry went to Charleston Saturday to visit the Magnolia Gardens.

Dr. Walter Mitchell will conduct services at the Episcopal church Sunday morning and night, and at Boyd's school house in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Arnette of Cades, and Mrs. B. W. Belder of Florence, attended the Shriners banquet and dance here last night.

Mr. F. Earle Bradham, formerly editor of the Williamsburg Herald of this place, now employed in Florence, moved his family to that city this week.

Dr. E. T. Kelley left Tuesday for Rochester, Minn., where he will spend three weeks attending the Mayo Clinic. During his absence the Kelley Sanatorium will be in charge of Dr. Cuyler Harper.

Mr. S. M. Glenn, a prominent tobacco man of South Boston, Va., is in Kingstree and expects to remain here until the close of the season. He is interested in the new redrying plant now going up on the south side of town.

A telegram received by The Record yesterday from the Hon. Philip H. Stoll, furnished the citizens of town with advance information on the population of Kingstree, which otherwise would not have been known here until today. The recent census figures give Kingstree a population of 2074, an increase of 702 or 51.2 per cent.

A number of Kingstreeans will leave here Sunday night and Monday morning for Charleston to attend the Spring reunion of the bodies of Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite Freemasonry. Several of those who are going down are candidates for the degrees, including the 4th to the 32nd, which will be conferred on the 19th to 22nd, inclusive.

Miss Egeria Tisdale, Route No. 1, Kingstree, was in town today and called at The Record office to register her complaint against the inefficient and lax manner in which the mail on that route is being handled. Miss Tisdale's complaint is not at all unusual regarding the mail service on this route, although they are not so frequent as they were some time back.

Buford M. Brockinton, 1st class machinist, U. S. navy, who has been confined in the navy yard hospital at Philadelphia, Penn., for thirty days with a severe case of influenza, writes his father, P. M. Brockinton, that he has completely recovered, and has left that port on the U. S. S. Tracy, a fast destroyer, for a trip around the world.

The speed limit in Kingstree has no "limit" it would appear by the rate some youngsters were coming down Accademy street one day this week. They were hitting such a lively clip that Councilman Ferry desisted in his gardening operations long enough to make an attempt to check the speed of this trio of young Americans, and they did slow down their car. No, it wasn't a Ford.

Miss Florence McCormack, who has been employed here as a stenographer and bookkeeper for the past two years left Tuesday for Columbia to engage in similar work. During her stay in Kingstree Miss McCormack made a host of warm friends who deeply regret her departure. Before leaving, Mrs. W. P. Hawkins, with whom the young lady has been boarding, gave a dinner in her honor, to which a number of her special friends were invited.

On Friday, April 23, citizens of Kingstree are requested to gather at the courthouse for the purpose of organizing an "Overall Club", such as is sweeping over the South like fire over a sage field. It is proposed to hold this meeting prior to the address by ex-Governor Manning, who is to speak on that day in the interest of the South Carolina Memorial fund. "Overall Clubs" are being organized all over the South since the movement had its inception in Birmingham, Ala., last week, and South Carolina is not far behind her sister States in the move, as clubs have been organized in several of her towns and cities.

Kingstree Pupils Showing Up Fine

The debate among pupils of the high schools of the State, numbering possibly 75 schools, has assumed prospects which look favorable to Kingstree. In the first preliminary, the local school was pitted against Georgetown, the latter falling out of the contest. In the second preliminary contest, Kingstree opposed Sumter, and on Friday Sumter's negative debated Kingstree's affirmative team here, while at the same time Kingstree's negatives debated Sumter's affirmatives at Sumter, the Kingstree teams winning both contests. The subject debated was: "Resolved, That the Government Should Own and Control the Railroads." Kingstree school is now due to go to Columbia to join the big State contest with the schools that have not been eliminated, probably fifteen or twenty.

Shriners Club and Guest Banquet

The first annual banquet and dance by the Kingstree Shrine Club took place at the Kellahan hotel here last night, and was one of the most enjoyable events of the kind since the K. of P. banquet held here several years ago.

There were about an hundred Shriners and guests present, the latter coming from various parts of the State.

The banquet was a most enjoyable feature of the evening because of the excellence of the spread provided by Mr. Plowden, proprietor of the hotel, and the delightful music rendered by Metz' orchestra of Charleston.

After the guests had partaken of the repast, the dining room was cleared and given over to the younger set, old, too, if they felt their toes getting nimble, for the dance.

Miss Blackburn Here.

Miss Chauncey Blackburn, field secretary of the South Carolina Tuberculosis association, is here this week, having arrived Tuesday. She is now engaging in a campaign over the county and will address a public meeting in the courthouse here Friday night at 8:30, to which every citizen, especially ladies, are invited.

Tuesday afternoon Miss Blackburn addressed the Parent-Teacher's association in the school auditorium, and it was very gratifying to have such an unusually large attendance, there being about fifty parents present. The Kingstree school children will join Miss Blackburn's crusade for better health.

Stockholders' Meeting Called

Notice is given in The Record today of the annual meeting of the Kingstree Building & Loan association which will be held in the town hall Monday night, April 19. This is an important meeting and every stockholder is requested to be present or represented by proxy.

We are informed by Mr. W. H. Carr, secretary and treasurer of the association, that very shortly the fifth series will be closed, and in so doing approximately $15,000 in cash will be paid out to stockholders and mortgages representing $20,000 will be canceled.

Our citizens, and especially the stockholders in the Kingstree Building & Loan association, should have great pride in the organization. It is the town's most valuable asset, and has doubtless been the means of rapid building expansion within the past ten years.

For Magistrate at Greelyville I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Magistrate for Greelyville District, subject to the rules of the Democratic primary.

A. GRAHAM.

WHY BE DULL AND LANGUID THIS SPRING

"Spring Fever" is Natural, But Not Necessary—It's Due to Sluggish Blood.

KEEP FEELING YOUR HAPPINESS

Purify and Tone Up Your Blood With That Famous Tonic, Pepto-Mangan.

Do you seem unable to do any work, to concentrate, to take any interest in things, during the wonderful Spring days? Do you feel just useless and "No account"?

Nothing is really the matter, except that, as happens every Spring, your blood is clogged—it is sluggish with poisons from its long Winter fight.

In time your blood will probably adjust itself. But meanwhile you fret and worry, feel unhappy—and accomplish nothing. Why do it, when it is easy to clear up your blood by taking Pepto-Mangan for a while? For thirty years, doctors have been recommending this effective and agreeable tonic to purify and build up the blood of run-down, listless people.

Feel your best. Have a fine color, and spring in your step. Be vigorous, happy, red-blooded. Get a bottle of Pepto-Mangan today. The nearest druggist has it, and in either liquid or tablet form, just as you prefer. There's no difference in medicinal value.

But be sure you get the genuine Gude's Pepto-Mangan. Ask for it by that name—"Gude's Pepto-Mangan," and be sure the full name is on the package.—Advertisement.

"Mrs. Briggs of the Poultry Yard" will be presented by New Zion Local Talent in

Kingstree School Auditorium

Friday Night, April 16

AT 8:30 O'CLOCK

THIS PLAY HAS BEEN PRESENTED IN SEVERAL PLACES AND HAS INVARIABLY PRODUCED A SENSATION OF APPROVAL AND APPLAUSE.

COME AND ENJOY AN EVENING OF PLEASURE AND PROFIT. YOU WILL ENJOY THE EXQUISITE PATHOS OF SOME OF THE SCENES AS WELL AS THE UNPARALLELED HUMOR.

Mrs. Briggs, a common-sensed business widow, poverty stricken, has a number of novel experiences in an effort to bring her family up properly. In an effort to shield her children from the merciless darts of cupid, she herself falls a victim of the common malady

Jimmy, too, falls in love with a bewitching little girl who is plainly his superior in social standing.

Ralph, the hero, unconsciously falls in love with an heiress.

How did it all come out? Come and see how practical "horse sense" solves the problems of life.
